Coroner's Jury Returns Verdict of Homicide in R. R. Employe Shooting

A coroner's jury, acting on the evidence submitted at an inquest yesterday, caused Lillian Kirby, 2918 Michigan st., to be held for the murder of her husband, William Kirby, commissary worker for the Southern Pacific R. R.

In varied testimonies police officers described how they found the deceased, Mrs. Kirby and the immediate surroundings. Police Officers Rossetti and Kettle found Kirby lying on the floor in the nude with three wounds in his chest. Mrs. Kirby was holding her bandaged hand and in a state of hyteria. The floor of the bedroom was spatterd with blood. The officers found Kirby's bloody clothes in the bathtub.

Police had been summoned by a company doctor after Mrs. Kirby called the commissary to inform Kirby's employer that he had been shot and that she wanted them to send a doctor to their residence. When the officers arrived Kirby was in a critical condition. A police ambulance was called but Kirby died en route to Georgia st. Receiving hospital.

Mrs. Kirby was treated for a gunshot wound in her left hand.

On the Sidewalk

by c. a. b.

SINCE the street cars are on strike, many persons have had to walk to church and to other places of business or recreation.

Riding along one scans the city. But walking one sees and unfortunately smells the city. At least this is true of that section described as the Eastside.

WE HEAR a great deal about disease prevention. Now it seems so impracticable to try to destroy any disease except to go at the root of the evil.

THE CENTRAL Avenue District, largely occupied by poor people, mostly Negroes and Mexicans, is about as filthy and unsanitary as it is possible for a section or territory to be.

STARTING at 12th Street and Central avenue, and walking south on Central avenue, the alleys and side streets are in a deplorable condition. Rotting swill, broken bottles, dirty papers, and in many instances filthy streams, combine to create a stench and a sight that offends eyes and nostrils.

SUCH ORGANIZATIONS as the churches, the Elks, Masons, and in fact the ministers who have churches in this section, community leaders, the press and all property owners should join in a great crusade to bring pressure on our city officials who to a great extent are responsible for these conditions.

OUR COUNCILMEN representing this district, who twirl in swivel chairs in our council chambers daily at our expense, seem to care little about our welfare, after the elections that insure them seats in this council chamber.

IT IS ABOUT time the people remember some things. For instance, some election promises and some of the interests that place and back certain people in office.

The California Eagle is joining with The Sentinel in demanding that our mayor and the city council do something about health conditions on the Eastside.

WE HAVE had committees which discussed these conditions, we have had health clinics, we have had promises galore. We have had enough of that kind of action or inaction. Now is the time for the mayor and the city council to quit appointing committees, to quit discussing, and to DO.

THEY WILL. I FEEL SURE, IF WE LET THEM KNOW WE ARE IN EARNEST.

Upsets Racial Zoning Ruling Of Cty. Board

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — The Florida supreme court this week ruled unanimously that Dade county had no authority to enact zoning laws excluding Negroes from living in any section of Miami.

The high court upheld a Dade county circuit court decision releasing two Negro families for violation of county zoning regulations, enforcing race segregation.

It had been contended by the county that it derived authority from a 1937 legislative act to exclude Negroes from any section it chose.

Without passing on the valadity of such a statute, the supreme court said the 1937 act gave the Dade Board of County Commissioners specifically the power to regulate and restrict the height and number of buildings, lot sizes, population density, and the number of junk yards and trailer areas in zoned areas.

The county previously had adopted a resolution segregating areas which could be occupied by Negroes and whites. Two Negro families defied the ordinance, bought property in white areas.

They were arrested and brought suit challenging the valadity of the county ordinance.

There will be no charge for admission.

Tucson Citizens Reject Enemy Line As To How To 'Fight' Jim Crow

TUCSON, Ariz.—Negro citizens of Tucson this week repudiated the attempts of jimcrow practitioners to dictate methods, tactics and alliances in the fight on racial discrimination by insisting on attending an anti-Jim Crow meetig held here under the auspices of the local Communist party.

When local Elk leaders capitulated to the enemy decree that Negroes should frown on anything connected with the Communist party and at the last minute locked the meeting out of the IBPOE hall, 300 determined Negro citizens traveled to the Odd Fellows Hall, to which the meeting had been transferred.

There they wildly applauded a talk by Pettis Perry, Los Angeles Communist leader, and endorsed a program to combat discrimination in this city.

The rally adopted specific steps to fight job bias at Woolworth's, the All American bus depot and other business places.

Local speakers told of discrimination against Negro vets

Must Ferret Out Bigots, Elect Progressives, Kenny Tells Mass Rally

The people of California cannot permit the seeds of internal dissension, of racial hatred and religious bigotry to be planted in our community, State's Attorney General Robert W. Kenny told a mass rally at the Second Baptist church last Sunday. The meeting signalized the opening of the membership drive of the local NAACP.

Kenny was presented by Mrs. Charlotta A. Bass, publisher-editor of the California EAGLE, as a friend of the people and the next governor of California. Mrs. Bass pointed out that Kenny was no stranger to the Eastside, no

Union Kayoes Job Bias At Waldorf Astoria

NEW YORK—For the first time in the 53-year-old history of the Waldorf-Astoria, Negro banquet waiters have been hired for banquet jobs at the famous hotel, which recently signed a union contract.

Responding to a call from the Waldorf for banquet waiters, the employment department of Local 6, Hotel & Club Employees Union, AFL, decided to send Negro members in line with the union policy of breaking down discrimination where it still exists in hotel dining rooms. The men were taken on at once and are now at work in the Waldorf.

Of the 20,000 members in Local 6, about 4000 are Negroes.

President M. J. Obermeier, Vice-President Charles A. Collins—the latter nationally known for his leadership of the Negro Labor Victory Committee—and other union officials hailed the event as "an historic achievement."

Ousts Deputy Linked to Klan

Klan-connected Deputy Sheriff Neil W. Bowser, 38, attached to the Lancaster substation, has received formal notice of his suspension from the force and beginning June 3 will be permanently discharged, Sheriff Eugene Biscailuz announced this week.

The sheriff's statement followed demands by local groups that he quit stalling and fire Bowser. The demands came from the Los Angeles CIO Council, the 64th assembly district Democratic Club and the Democratic County Central Committee after Atty. Gen. Robert W. Kenny's office revealed the deputy had been a gun-toting bodyguard for Gerald L. K. Smith, America First leader, and a close associate of Rev. Wesley A. Smith, recognize Klan leader at Lancaster.

Biscailuz's first action on the revelation was to transfer Bowser from the substation to the Los Angeles office.

In his latest action, the sheriff ignored Bowser's connections with Gerald L. K. Smith, and Rev. Smith, charged Bowser with insubordination and absence without leave after he failed to report for duty at the county honor farm at Castiac on April 30.

Dena Matron Set to Divorce White Captain

To the surprise of the many friends of the popular couple, Mrs. Edith Spencer Brooks, the former Edith Spencer, international stage and screen favorite, filed suit against her husband, Cecil P. Brooks, white retired naval officer, this week. The complaint, prepared by Attorney Curtis C. Taylor, charged extreme mental cruelty and related that the couple married in Manila, Philippine Islands on Sept. 28, 1934.

Mrs. Brooks, one-time night club darling, had lived in Manila for about 10 years, returning to the States at the outbreak of hostilities with Japan. She and her husband purchased the beautiful home of Albertine Pickens, also a stage celebrity of bygone days.

For the past several years, Mrs. Brooks and her husband have been occupying the cottage at 210 Clinton st. in Pasadena. Brooks only recently returned from the service.

It is understood that Brooks will not contest the action, and a property settlement has been reached out of court, in which Mrs. Brooks received a substantial sum in cash and the Pasa-

Hearing Set in Stabbing Case

A double charge of assault with a deadly weapon has been filed against Waddy Woods, naval supply worker of 915 E. 33rd st.

The charges grew out of an altercation on the night of April 28 when Woods became embroiled in an argument with Tommy Hodges and Elizabeth Knowles at the residence of the latter on E. 43rd st.

Hodges was struck in the chest with an ice pick and so severely wounded that it was necessary to move him to the hospital where at last reports he still remains. Immediately after the arrest Woods was freed on bail by a Writ ofHabeas Corpus filed by his attorney, Curtis C. Taylor.

At liberty, on a $1500 bail, Woods has been ordered to appear in Division 4 of the Municipal Court with his attorney next week for a preliminary hearing on the charge. He claims self-defense.

L. A. Citizens of All Races Join in Backing Russell For Supervisor Position

An interracial citizens' committee for the election of Rev. Clayton D. Russell, pastor of the People's Independent church, to the position of supervisor of the second district, Los Angeles county, was organized this week. The committee will sponsor the campaign for the youthful minister, who far the last 10 years has been an active community leader in behalf of the people, as they faced their many problems centering around jobs, homes, police brutality and other issues.

Pastoring one of the largest churches in Los Angeles, Rev. Russell has organized within his church a welfare center, servicing the whole community, regardless of race, creed or color. Included in his welfare service are a medical center, a commissary, a free employment service and veterans' counseling service, a home for pre-delinquent boys, a girls' school and a youth welfare center.

Clayton, a nationally-prominent churchman, is president of the National Council of Independent Community Churches, organizer of the Producers and Consumers Corp., and chairman of the Los Angeles People's Victory Committee—a local organization which during the war years and in the present reconversion period has aided in the integration of all peoples within the community by securing jobs and homes, attempting to correct all forms of social injustices experienced by citizens, as well as serving as a social education medium for the community.

As chairman of the Victory committee to which the CIO and various AFL unions are affiliated, Russell has worked cooperatively and successfully with labor, assisted in opening job opportunities for minority workers.

He has also served as vice-chairman of the Council for Civic Unity and as a member of the Los Angeles County Supervisor Interracial Committee.

Among the many prominent citizens supporting his candidacy for supervisor are:

S. P. Johnson, president of Conner-Johnson Funeral Home, chairman of Citizens' Committee for election of Clayton D. Russell; Mrs. Charlotta A. Bass, publisher of The California EAGLE;

Court Rules Caterer Can Occupy Home

Judge Henry M. Willis of superior court this week refused to oust Thomas P. Gordon, prospersous caterer, from his property on West 25th and Arlington. The court rejected a petition for an injunction to bar Gordon from occupancy of the premises on a legal technicality.

In the petition for the injunction, the plaintiffs, Eida Mae Barrow, Vinton A. Barrow, John Klovis and Clara Klovis alleged that to allow Gordon to occupy his home would diminish the value of their property and deny them peace and quiet. Mr. Gor-

Army Retains Jim Crow Under 'New' Policy on Negro Troops, Says Vet

By CONRAD CLARK

WASHINGTON—Negro troops will be utilized on a much broader scale than they have been in the past, and white officers assigned to Negro units will be replaced by Negro officers, the War Department has announced through its new Circular No. 124, dated April 27.

The new policy, based upon the recently published Gillem Report, is in effect until 27 of October, 1947, unless sooner rescinded or superseded.

For the past few months many articles have been written for and against the Gillem Report, and among its two staunchest backers are Marcus Ray, present civilian aide to the Secretary of War, and Attorney Truman Gibson of Chicago, Ray's predesessor, who is doing a series of articles in a national weekly on the Report.

The writer, who has spent more than 40 months in the service, under both white and Negro commanding officers, fails to see any "drastic" change of army policy in this Circular No. 124.

Outside of acknowledging that the Gillem Report is correct and that "there is discrimination in the army set-up" a fact which is known to all, especially to Negroes of the service, the writer can't see that any remedy has been effected by the war department.

The recently activated unit at Fort Benning, Ga., is far from being the "ideal" democratic combat organization as many of the experts" believe.

Commanded by a white Lt. Colonel and with a staff of white and Negro officers, over an all-Negro enlisted personnel, is nothing new, to the writer, for he served with the same type of organization at Camp Davis, N. C.

The organization, then the 235th AA.. (AW) Bn., since inactivated was under the command of Major Galem Eaton, and made the "headlines," when one of its Negro officers, Lt. Robert Smith, was brought on charges by the major, because he refused an MP's order not to sit with white officers in a theatre on the Post.

In the Pacific I also served under the command of a white major, whose staff was made up of both white and Negro officers, and later was assigned to all Negro 207th Ack Ack Battalion now inactivated .

Until the policy of integration of Negroes and whites, not only of all Negroes being enlisted men, and their commanding officer being white, and his staff mixed, but that the organization is mixed, and commanding officers are Negroes, with a mixed staff, based upon the officer's qualifications put into effect, the Gillem Report will only continue to be an acknowledgement of the War Department that there is "discrimination" in its ranks, instead of being a democratic policy, based upon the soldier's qualifications, rather than the color of his skin.

Alleged Confessed Killer Of Mother and Baby May Be Slayer of Ruby Wylie

Captain of Detectives R. R. Coppage, commanding officer of the Newton st. division, Los Angeles police department, told an EAGLE reporter that he believed Joseph Burke, confessed slayer of Mrs. Jennie Roy and her young baby, to also be guilty of the recent murder and violation of Ruby Wylie.

"The Wylie woman met her death in the same manner which Burke used on Mrs. Roy. She was murdered then carried to the place where she was raped," asserted Capt. Coppage.

He said that there was no evidence that the person of the young mother had been violated, but believed Burke had been disturped, and had killed Mrs. Roy without further ado.

Burke has a long record of charges against him for attacking and molesting women in other cities in California. He had been sentenced to jail twice for this offense.

Ventura police reported positive identification of Burke by a young woman whom he is alleged to have attacked one block from his home in Ventura.

Previous to his arrest for the murder of Mrs. Roy and her baby, Burke had been on probation for beating his wife with an iron pipe. She told police that she had left Ventura because she was afraid that he might kill her. She also told police that she had known all about the trouble he had been in, in other towns. Burke, she said, confessed to her before he confessed to the police.

Capt. Coppage said that no coercion or persuasion had been used on Burke for the confession. Capt. Coppage also stated, that Burke on his own volition with an audience of 500 people, retraced his steps and re-enacted the crime, before a movie camera while talking into a microphone.

On Fluffs and Stuff

By SNOOP THE SNITCH

I hope that the dear people who take the time to read this mush will realize (as we know they will) that what is said here is merely the observations of one who considers himself an expert in such matters—namely me.

To begin with, there are only two kinds of people, men and others. The latter category, because of its many differences and personalities must be divided into about one million classes and sub-classes. But for the sake of conserving space and not to detract any reading time for the much higher forms of literature contained in this newspaper, we will only consider the major classes, under which most of the "other people" fall.

1. Gay Faye—This specie is well known and is common in all forms of terrain. She obviously thrives on being everywhere at one time, consequently not being anywhere at anytime. She abounds in places where people meet to discuss such world shaking issues as "which dress shall I wear tonight." She is best characterized by her call, which is a combination of a graduated laugh and an anemic giggle. For further identification, she never starts fads or styles, but will always exaggerate them, and says "natch" for naturally. Beware of this creature or she will drive you to commiting acts of violence.

2. STUDIOUS SUE—And now we come to she of the petrified quizzical expression, the girl with the question mark face. Denizen of libraries, forums and research departments of obscure foundations, she glides in and out of classrooms taking courses just for the hell of it. She is recognized best by her gait which is a backward lean-swayback amble, a condition brought on by staggering under a load of a complete set of the Encyclopedia Britannica. In close quarters watch for the triple lense reading glasses which nonchalantly twirls between clenched teeth while pondering the rise and fall of the Ming dynasty.

3. CAREER KATE—This is the coat suit wearing, energetic know-it-all who simply detests men for their abject stupidity and childlike inefficiency. Wouldn't think of marrying but just loves to talk "man to man" with other people's husbands and slap other people's children around. When you hear these words, take heed: "There is nothing like independence."

4. CLINGING CLAUDIA—This feminine parasite is equipped with magnetic fingers, arms and toes. In crowds or in the privacy of mausoleums she will entwine one or all of these members around your most accessible arm. When no males are in the immediate vicinity a nicely stuffed pillow comes in as a substitute. She is never seen alone. Her voice and conversation drip and ooze with loathing sweetness. It usually sounds like the contented meow of an overfed cat.

5. NERVOUS NEL—Twitchings, pretzel-like contortions coupled with rodent squeals and equestrian snorts, make recognition of this specie comparatively easy. Lady Ants in the Pants is the product of an environment ruled over by maiden aunts and despotic grandmothers. She will emote at times with spasmodic utterances, but when all eyes turn in her direction she lapses into a nervous silence, tearing hankies to shreds and searching desperately for a place to hide her hands.

6. SYMPATHY SAL—This gal is so full of complaints that an agreeable incident would give her the nervous collapse she is continually revering. In breathless expulsions she will weakly remind unwary souls how tired she is, how her head aches, how her feet hurt, how hungry she is, how hot or how cold she happens to be at the moment, how terrible some people are, and even how awful the whole world has treated her. This happens every hour on the hour and proceeds through the hour at a brain puzzling pace. How can such a poor weak soul find the strength to do so much complaining and griping? Keep away from this one if you want to retain your grip on peaceful thinking.

7. DETERMINED DOTTY—Right or wrong she goes blithely on her way, determined to carry through some prearranged plan, making no changes and taking no advice. She does enough damage to humanity to be classified with the atomic bomb and a few major diseases. But like a booby trap, and unlike the other species described herein, she can be rendered harmless by a firm and well-paced "SHUT UP."

Angry Veterans Hang Solons in Effigy

Los Angeles was one of several cities which recently witnessed the hanging in effigy of congressmen seeking to cripple price controls and give the green light to inflation. The "hangings" were carried out by members of the American Veterans' Committee.

Six of the anti-OPA solons were "hanged" at busy intersections and squares in Los Angeles.

Tied about the neck of each dummy was a sign:

Baby Killed by Shotgun Blast, Mother Wounded; Assailant Near Death

Following the pattern of a national crime wave described by police as the worst in the nation's history, murder and other acts of violence continued to plague the local community this week.

Among the latest victims were a two-year old girl, shot to death, and her mother, who was critically wounded when a jealous admirer invaded the home of Mrs. Arma Carter, 28, at 2159 West 28th St.

Little Judith Carter died from a single blast of a 410 gauge shotgun, fired at Mrs. Carter by Joe Thierry, 36-yearold city mailman of 338 East 42nd st. Mrs. Carter was holding the child at the time.

Officers C. L. Schulz and A. W. Carter found Thierry a few minutes later at 412 East 41st place, where he had placed the shotgun muzzle against his stomach and pulled the trigger. He is near death in the prison ward at General hospital.

Mrs. Carter is in a critical condition at General hospital. She told police that Thierry, jealous of her association with other men, came to her home and fired the blast at her daughter and herself.

Carter was booked on suspicion of murder.

Angeleno Winner Of Sketch Contest

COLUMBUS, Ohio—E. L. Pryce, formerly of Los Angeles, this week was adjudged the winner of a sketch contest sponsored by the College of Engineering, Ohio State university.

Students in the architecture department were asked to design floats to be used in the annual engineers' day parade. Pryce turned in the winning design.

'Finish the Fight' Keynote Of NAACP Membership Drive

The largest group of workers ever to assemble for the launching of a local NAACP membership campaign met at the 28th street YMCA Tuesday night. It was the "kick-off" of the 1946 drive for 25,000 members with which to put Los Angeles in the vanguard of branches geared to "finish the fight" against the foes of the democracy for which men, regardless of race or creed, died recently on world battlefields. "Finish the fight" was the keynote of the pep talks delivered by campaign leaders.

Mrs. Emma Spencer and Edward C. Atkinson, co-chairmen of the drive, made it plain that at least 1000 workers will be needed in order to complete the job in record time. Both appealed to the workers assembled to get out and do the job as quickly as possible.

Special Gifts Sought

H. A. Howard, who, with L. G. Robinson, is leading a drive among selected businesses and persons for $3000 in cash, declared that his committee is at work and will make its report at the first regular report meeting to be held at campaign headquarters, 1105 E. Vernon avenue, Thursday, May 9, at 8 p.m. Other members of the special gifts committee are: George A. Beavers Jr., J. C. Blackwell, L. M. Blodgett, Mrs. Anna H. Brown, George E. Cannady, Rev. J. L. Golden State Gives $1000 To Fund of United Negro Colleges

Sparked by a $1000 gift from the Golden State Mutual Life Insurance company, the local United Negro College Fund campaign got off to a flying start here Friday night when co-chairman Loren Miller reported contributions totaling $1700.

Announcement of the result of the first week of the campaign to raise $40,000 for the fund in the Los Angeles area was made at a meeting of the steering committee at the 28th street branch of the YMCA.

Present was Dr. Rufus E. Clement, president of Atlanta university, Atlanta, Ga., and a member of the college fund board of directors, who formed the local campaign organization.

During the week Dr. Clement announced that Mrs. Julian Sieroty, of the Eastern-Columbia organization, co-chairs the local drive with Attorney Miller. She heads the Hollywood division.

Other contributors to the fund during the first week of the campaign here included Dr. P. Aged Woman Succumbs After Attack; Assailant Returns, Knifes Sister

One of the menaces to the safety of Eastside residents was removed Sunday with the arrest of 32-year old C. D. Treadgill, 1144 E. 21st street, who does odd jobs for a living. Three complaints were filed against Treadgill by the office of the district attorney. He had perhaps caused the death of one 63-year old woman, was held on suspicion of murder and was additionally charged with burglary and assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill the 65-year old sister of the deceased.

Last Wednesday night Mrs. Tillie Bolden, 65, of 1217 East 25th street returned about 9 p. m. to her home where she lived alone with her sister, Mrs. Mary Brody, 63, an invalid, who used crutches. As told to an EAGLE reporter, Mrs. Bolden said she looked into the bedroom she shared with her sister and saw a man lying upon the bed trying to hide his face with the coverings. Upon being asked the whereabouts of her sister, the man whom she recognized as having fixed a door of her house about a week ago, said, "There she is." Mrs. Brody was then observed by her sister lying fully dressed, wrapped in a blanket at the foot of the bed.

ORDERED FROM HOUSE

The suspect was then ordered from the house by Mrs. Bolden and left. Frightened by the stillness of her sister and afraid to call her loudly in fear of bringing on a second stroke, the first having invalided her sister three years ago, Mrs. Bolden retired to the kitchen and sat there all night. The next morning she discovered her sister dead, her purse which had contained about $3 turned inside out and a knife under the pillow which the accused man is said to have used. She informed neighbors who called the police and later Treadgill was picked up and lodged in jail for 74 hours, being released due to "lack of evidence."

SUSPECT RETURNS

On Sunday evening about 7 p. m. Mrs. Bolden heard a knock. As she released the catch upon the door Treadgill is said to have pushed his way in saying, "You told the police I killed your sister, now I'm going to kill you." He drew a knife and made for her but she courageously grappled with the man and sustained cuts upon her hands. Treadgill is then said to have continued his attack, choking Mrs. Bolden and knocking teeth out of her mouth. Then, she alleges, he told her to get on the bed and if she went to bed with him he wouldn't harm her. Instead Mrs. Bolden walked toward the kitchen and then ran out through a back door calling for help. The police were called and Treadgill, found hiding in a clothes closet of the house, was arrested.

In Treadgill's version, he said that he was passing the home of Mrs. Bolden, that she was out on the lawn and screamed at him that he had killed her sister and then attacked him with a knife. This was declared a fallacy by neighbors, who were highly incensed because of the attack upon these two elderly and respected sisters.

SISTERS WELL-LIKED

Neighbors told the EAGLE that the two sisters were respected residents of the community. Mrs. Bolden had worked to support her invalid sister and the pair were well liked by all who resided near them.

Detectives McBride and Buchannan were the arresting officers. Treadgill is still being held at the Newton Street police station. Mrs. Brody's death was said to have been caused by a heart attack but police will attempt to prove that whatever relations Treadgill had with the deceased hastened her death. Bruises on the under side of the lips and in the mouth were discovered upon the body of Mrs. Brody. The knife found under pillow belonged to the deceased.

Robeson Scores Anglo-U.S. Move to Control N. Africa

NEW YORK—The Council on African Affairs, 23 West 26th street, through its chairman, Paul Robeson, this week charged that the British trusteeship proposal for Northeastern Africa is "a flagrant violation of the United Nations war aims."

The Council, which is sponsoring a Madison Square Garden rally on June 6, second anniversary of D-Day, on "Big Three Unity for Colonial Freedom," voiced its opposition to the British plan in identical wires to Dean Acheson, acting secretary of the State Department, and the British, French and Soviet ambassadors in Washington.

The Council urged repudiation of Great Britain's proposal for "sole control not only of Italian Somaliland but of French Somaliland and even the important Ogaden Province of the sovereign nation of Ethiopia."

The telegrams asserted that Britain, "under the guise of protecting the Empire lifeline," was seeking to extend its domination over the entire northeastern corner of Africa and incorporate "additional millions of people into its vast colonial orbit."

The telegrames also called attention to U.S. proposals which provide for independence for Libya and Eritrea after a ten-year trusteeship period, but which "strangely omit any definite commitment with respect to Italian Somaliland' Robeson asserted that "such a differentiation is unwarranted and without reason except on the grounds of American support of British imperialistic control of Italian Somaliland and the adjacent territories."

He emphasized that "a uniform guarantee of freedom" must be extended to the inhabitants of all three Italian colonies "if the basic principles of the United Nations are not to be trampled under foot." He urged that any trusteeship plan for these areas "should embrace equal administrative responsibilities for all the major powers."

A Mother's Mother's Day Dedication to Her 2 Sons

To Pvts. Henry McClenney and Norman Charles Foster:

Dear Sons:

In another few days there will be again set aside a day to pay official tribute to Mother.

As this Mother's Day approaches my mind is also thinking of you both, I am so proud to be the mother of two of the greatest sons in the world. And for me as a mother I want to be worthy of that name.

I am praying each day to be the mother you will be proud of, I am asking for more patience, more understanding, more consideration. I want to be your pal as well as your mother. My life would be so empty without you two. You owe me nothing, sons. You have brought joy and happiness into my life, you have given me the highest respect, and all I am asking of you is your everlasting love.

So, let's thank God we have each other and combine the two words together and really make it a great day. Not just Mother's Day. But Mother and Sons day.

Your devoted mother,

Defeat of Rankin, Bilbo Seen as By-Product of Big CIO Southern Drive

ATLANTIC CITY—Elimination of the Rankins and Bilbos will be a by-product of the CIO's organizing drive in the south, CIO President Philip Murray told delegates of two union conventions here.

Addressing the Textile Workers Union convention in the morning and the joint convention of Federal, State and Municipal Workers in the afternoon, Murray said the time had come for America to put "its house in order" and defeat the unholy alliance of Republicans and southern Democrats which has blocked social legislation for the last nine years.

"Not a single, solitary little bit of advanced legislation has been enacted by the federal congress since the year 1937," he said, commenting bitterly on the defeat of the FEPC and anti-poll tax legislation and a host of other bills at the present session of congress.

Political action by the people is needed to change the complexion of congress, Murray declared.

"The organization of the unorganized in the South is the answer to many of the nation's problems and we are going down South in the year 1946 just like we started up North in the year 1936."

Murray said the recent major strikes achieved "the greatest wage victory ever recorded in the history of this country. But the CIO "cannot afford to stand still," he warned. "You've got to keep moving ahead, be vigilant and see to it that the interests of your people are fully protected.

Among the jobs before the CIO, he said, was the fight for FDR's economic bill of rights, and the fight for peace.

COUTURSTAT

By Grace Fisher Atkins

Wadsworth street school led public opinion in May Day fashions. Many observers who had attended other performances in other parts of the city considered the Wadsworth show the best in most respects.

Mr. Albert Brailsford directed this production with the assistance of his able faculty. It was absolutely the top performance of its kind in Wadsworth school history.

Bonnetts, jackets, aprons with ruffles, bows and ties, and numerous other fashion ramifications formed an array of beauty and style on the campus of the school last Friday afternoon.

Not only were all the children atired in stunning crepe paper togs but also the faculty could not be overlooked.

Outstanding "wears" among the teachers was the gasping gown worn by Mrs. Essie E. Tucker, wife of the late Dr. M. Tucker. Black Crepe with beaded bluebirds flying upward. The blue violet aprons and bows shaded from the violet blue birds all gave movement, yet all one could see in the foreground was a lovely dance by children well trained, beautifully costumed.

A clever dress in washable sport in chartruse and rust brown worn by a primary teacher, Mrs. Gusteld Priestly. The girlist "Bertha" yoke made by a pealing of the rustbrown ended in a bow at the center opening of the neck.

Bonnets designed by Mrs. Geneva Bass Moore were considered by many as the leading design. Then the boleros originated and made by Miss Katie Wilson, fourth grade teacher was talked about by many others.

Yes, it was almost a toss-up as to which teacher had designed the most attractive costumes. The children happly participated in this display, thus aiding the faculty in color harmonies and all.

The Negro in the Labor Movement

Among the hundreds of thousands of workers who marched last week in observation of May Day, there were thousands of Negroes who proudly kept step side by side with their white brothers in the labor movement.

May Day, as a workingman's holiday, was originated by the AFL in the 1880's, but it is observed by workers all over the world today. This past week's demonstation was the first since the war began, but it demonstrated in no uncertain terms the growing force of labor for peace and democracy. It made the forces of fascism, boldly crawling out of the holes in which they had hidden during the war, slink back in terror at the power for vengeance which they might arouse.

It demonstrated clearly, too, the fact that more and more people of America are becoming class conscious. This is true of all working people, of all minorities, of all the oppressed everywhere. It is especially true of the Negro worker. In the South the CIO has been active in organizing the Negro farm hands, farm laborers, and other workers in the United Cannery, Agricultural, Packing, and Allied Workers' Union. Many thousands are enthusiastically responding. But many still are fearful of the consequences of "joining a union."

Yet joining a union is the only hope of the Negro worker. Of all workers everywhere, in fact, but especially is this true of the Negro worker in the South. Those who are held in virtual serfdom on plantations, discriminated against by wage differentials, and barred from all but the poorest paid jobs—these can find relief nowhere else but in the Labor Unions.

The terror of the lynch law, the injustice of the white primaries and of the poll tax, the rise of living costs by the threatened destruction of the OPA, the lack of decent housing, of sanitary living conditions, the discrimination in schools for the children of the Negro worker — all these and a thousand more oppressions can be solved only by the united efforts of ALL workers.

And white workers and Negro workers are uniting against the common enemy of all—the wealthy landowners of the South, the industralists and financiers of the North. There is still a tremendous amount of work to do. Of making the Negro worker conscious of his need for unity, conscious of his place high in American democracy, conscious of the fact that only by uniting and working together—as workers of all races and classes fought together to win the war—can this greater struggle for peace and real democracy be won.

The California Eagle, as a working class paper and especially a working class paper for Negroes, pledges itself as part of the observance of this workers' week, to give its fullest cooperation to the labor movement. We urge all Negro workers to join a Labor Union, and we shall be on the watch to see that no union will refuse to admit a Negro to all its opportunities for advancement and that there shall be no discrimination in regards to race or color.

Negro Bids for Place On Police Commission

There are approximately two hundred thousand Negroes in Los Angeles. Not less than fifty thousands are property owners and taxpayers. From among this number it does seem possible that Mayor Bowron would appoint some representative of the group to a responsible position on one of the commissions.

The Elks Civil Liberties League, headed by Vince Monroe Townsend, Jr., and the Cowmunity Political Action Committee, directed by Adolphus B. Clay, are calling upon Hon. Mayor Bowron to appoint a duly qualified Negro citizen to fill one of the vacancies created by the resignations of Commissioners E. N. Martin and Pegram Whitworth.

Both these men were members of the Police Commission. There are many qualified Negro citizens thoroughly capable of filling the vacancies they have left. It is to be hoped that Mayor Bowron will sift the list submitted to him by Messrs. Townsend and Clay, and will appoint a member of the large Negro group as a member of that commission.

It was the Negro vote that brought about the election of Mayor Bowron in the first place. The Negro people have waited rather patiently for some gesture from the Mayor as a token of appreciation for their support. Now is the time for the Mayor to act to show his appreciation.

You Have the Right To Choose for Yourself

Some of the things we want the people who read these editorial columns to know are: You are a free American citizen. You have a perfect right to choose your religious faith, to use your own judgment as to your politics, and to follow the trade or profession you feel best fitted for, and in which you find the greatest enjoyment.

THIS IS FROM HIM TO YOU

"We stand at one of the greatest crossroads of our country's history. On the one hand is the greatest opportunity we have ever had to lay the foundation for a future of long-range prosperity. On the other hand is the real and imminent danger of a destructive, snowballing inflation, followed by a ruinous collapse which might well shatter our entire economy."

—CHESTER BOWLES

Inflation is not here—yet. With the assistance of price controls and other wartime measures, it can still be avoided. During and after World War I prices shot up 108 per cent. You all know what happened then—"Good times" for one or two years, an orgy of spending, of buying everything one could see "on time" in many cases—and then, the depression. People hunting work, standing in bread lines, losing their money in banks, etc., etc.

That depression didn't come exactly as a surprise to those who knew the economic status of the country. It was really expected. But nothing was done about it.

Today our government is planning to avoid just such a collapse as occurred after World War I. Today under the OPA, under price control, prices have increased only 31.7%. And most of this increase came about before the Hold-the-Line order was put into effect in 1943. The rise has been only 4.8 per cent in the little more than two and one-half years since that order was made effective.

See the difference?

The OPA helps the workingman, the common man, the men and women who must plan and scrimp to make their monthly check stretch from one pay-day to the next.

But is OPA creating hardships for the businessman and the landlords?

Corporation profits for 1944, both before and after taxes, topped all previous records. Before taxes they totalled $24,-8000,000,000. After all taxes were paid, there was a clear profit of over $10,000,-000,000. Now that excess profit taxes have been removed, it is expected that profits will reach an all-time peak for 1946.

As for the landlords, who complain they can't make both ends meet with the rents they are allowed to collect, surveys that have been made show that gains of 30% have been made in 1944 as compared with 1939. All apartments and houses have been rented. There were no vacancies. The operating expenses remained almost stable, and all rents collected were practically clear profits.

The OPA will end as soon as the need for it will end. This is the pledge of our government. It will take but a few more months, at the most, not more than a year, for our farmers, businessmen, and manufacturers to get on their feet, and to have things running in a normal manner again.

Should we not cooperate with our governmet? Do we want another depression? Do we want people thrown out into the street because they cannot pay their rent?

These things can be avoided. They will be avoided if we cooperate with our government. If the OPA is extended.

At present the bill for the OP9 is being discussed in the U. S. Senate. It passed the House with so many crippling amendments that it was made virtually useless. One of the amendwents would grant to manufacturers a "reasonable" amount of profit! That one word "re-a-sonable" kills everything.

Write or wire to Senators Sheridan Downey and William Knowland of California, and to Senator Robert Wagner, of New York, chairman of the banking committee, and urge them to retain the OPA without any crippling amandments. Address all your letters and wires to the U. S. Senate, Washington, D. C.

People Hear the Voice Of A Real Leader

The people who visited the Second Baptist Church, Twenty-fourth and Griffith, last Sunday afternoon, came to hear the voice of a leader among men. And they heard him in the person of Robert W. Kenny, attorney-general for the State of California.

Attorney General Kenny who was the principal speaker at a rally of the Los Angeles branch of the NAACP, stressed the need for men of courage in our local government who are not afraid to fight the forces of evil striving to undermine all that our boys fought for and supposedly won in the last World War.

"The people of America must not lose sight of the fact that forces are at work," he said, "definitely at work to undermine everything that makes for freedom and democracy."

In this connection Attorney General Kenny cited the disturbances at Big Bear Lake by the Ku Klux Klan, that most subversive of all un-American organizations, and praised the efforts of the NAACP to rid the country of such fascistic demonstrations.

The bold manner and forthright talk of the Attorney General won the hearts of his audience, and when some one suggested that he would be the "next governor of California," his hearers went wild.

Attorney Thomas Griffith, president of the NAACP, rallied his forces for the work of securing new members, and each NAACPer was on hand with his sleeves rolled up, ready to begin the job.

"We want to increase our membership, not only for the sake of the larger number," he said, "but primarily for the purpose of having greater power in fighting the KKK, the reactionary newspapers like those of the Hearst publications, and all the other forces of evil whenever and wherever they raise their heads."

Perhaps the Teaching Should Be Reversed!

THE STORM IN PALESTINE

The recommendation of the Anglo-American Commission to admit 100,000 displaced and homeless Jews into Palestine this year should be hailed by all friends of humanity and civilization, and should elicit a favorable response from responsible Jewish quarters who are exerting valiant efforts to relieve their oppressed brethren in Europe.

The White Paper of 1939 which blasted the hopes and aspirations of the Jews by slamming the doors of Palestine in their faces, is abrogated by the energetic and fearless recommendations of the commission; and the children of Israel, after bitter disappointment and frustration at the hands of British diplomacy and infernal designs, find themselves in a position to improve the unhappy situation in which they were placed by the fierce opposition of the Arabs and the appeasement policy of the British government.

The American participation in the deliberations of the commission has cleared the path for the Jews to facilitate the entry of their race into the land of their ancestors on the basis of historical claims and racial traditions.

The path of the Jews in Palestine is strewn with innumerable obstacles and serious difficulties, and it will take all the resources of statesmanship and tact on the part of the Jewish leaders to cope with those barriers which have hitherto frustrated their aims and aspirations. The violent antagonism of the Arabs to the Jewish colonial enterprise is bound to flare into a blaze as it did in 1929, precipitating a civil war, the consequences of which no man can measure.

The Arab fear of Jewish designs threatens to throw the little country into fire and flame, the repercussions of which will reverberate to the remotest corners of the Muslim world. The Indian Muslims, powerful in numbers and resources, experienced in agitation and propaganda, and supported by anti-British officials and administrators, are bound to lend their moral support to their co-religionists. The president of the Indian National Congress, Dr. Azad, is an Arab by birth and heritage, and is keenly alive to the complaints and sufferings of his people. The Muslim League, the foremost political organization of Muslim Indians, is violently opposed to the Jewish settlement in Palestine, and is at present bringing pressure upon the British government to throw overboard the recommendations of the commission in favor of the Jews.

Letters to the Editor

Michael D. Fanning, recently sworn in as postmaster at Los Angeles, suggests that the public be consistent in the use of the Postal Zone Number when addressing mail. "The fact that general use of Postal Zone Numbers was inaugurated while we were at war seems to have led many to believe that its use is no longer necessary," Fanning said. "Nothing can be farther from the truth. Today as never before, speed is a predominating consideration in the minds of all. Including Zone Numbers in the address makes it possible for even the inexperienced to accurately separate and distribute your mail with no delay. Careful addressing of your mail including the Zone Number becomes increasingly important with the rapid growth of our great city."

Dear Editor:

Last week, as you know, the House of Representatives added billions of dollars to the cost of living of the American people by the crippling, strangling amendments tacked onto the Price Control Bill.

Defiant of the interests of the people, the House cut the life of OPA to 9 months, voted to wipe out most subsidies by December 31, 1946, provided for widespread decontrol, and imposed a requirement that ceiling prices be fixed to cover current cost of production plus a reasonable profit on every item. These amendments mean that OPA will function for about 6 months—if you call lifting ceilings on half the items in the cost of living functioning, if you call blowing sky-high prices on automobiles, refrigerators and radios functioning, if you call raising the people's food bill $2¼ billion function. The answer is that OPA cannot function under the bill as passed by the House. It is so riddled with amendments that it is a green light for breaking the line. It is an invitation to inflation.

But this does not mean that the fight against inflation is over or that it is lost. Far from it. The bill has been sent to the Senate where there is a real chance to improve it. After the Senate acts, it must come back to the House for action on a conference report of a committee of Senators and Representatives. It is, therefore, not at all too late to translate the will of the 95% of the American people who are for price control into 51% of the Senate and House.

The Congressional Committee to Protect the Consumer calls on all the people to keep up the fight. There are two rounds yet to go—one in the Senate and one more in the House. Price Control can still be salvaged. But only you, the people, can do it by continuing to make your will known to your Senators and Congressmen.

Very sincerely yours,
THE CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE TO PROTECT THE CONSUMER.

Who's To Blame

By B. G. DAVIS

Who's to blame! Who's to blame for our earthly claim of existence. That's shattered with shame?

Who's to blame for those of us today who can hardly claim a name?

Who's to blame for all the sin and strife we encounter in this vile, but yet romantic life?

Be ye out in company or home alone, we all do things that are wrong.

"Don't blame me!" says the mother. "I've done my part."

"Don't blame us!" says the law. "He's a murderer at heart."

But with all mother's teachings and the law's strong arm, all they do couldn't right one wrong.

Merrily done through jest or fun, to the highest of society or the lowest bum.

The mountains, the valleys, the wonderful breeze, you can't even blame the hazardous seas for the souls that are lost in the furrows of these.

The meadows, the brooks, the prohibition flaw—all of the murderous inventions of war.

For the sake and destruction of all that's humane, will someone tell me who's to blame?

Who's to blame for the orphans of today and for the jitterbugs so bold and so gay?

No one as yet we can actually claim as sole perpetrators of fate or fame.

Yet the whole world has to share the shame for the faults of others who are not to blame!

W. J. WHEATON SAYS:

Women, today, are potent factors in the shaping of world affairs. It was an old saying that they acted through "intuition" and lacked the sense of logical reasoning. Both of these have proved to be erroneous statements. They have been and are leaders in shaping the pattern for peace of the world. In the economic and political fields, and we might add as diplomats in world affairs, they are showing a grasp, a knowledge of the trend of world events that should shame the men who are debating the process of a homogenous world peace, but cannot divest themselves of suspicions and the accusation of ulterior motives of their collaborators.

The commission of women working in conjunction with the United Nations, of which Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt is a prominent member and which is composed of a cross section of women representing the nations of the world, will do more to bring about a lasting peace for the world than the mouthings of ministers and "what have yous" that meet, disagree and meet some more. They cannot subordinate their national ego.

If the only fault which can be found in the conclusions reached by women is "intuition" and that their reasonings are not logical, we certainly hope that some of our statesmen will be inoculated with that same brand of reasoning. While there are many women working in the interest of international welfare there are many who are prominent in national and local affairs. Nearly every state in the nation can point to some woman who stands out prominently in the striving for betterment of conditions. It might be in the sphere of philanthropy, religion or social welfare.

California can boast of numbers of women who are energetic in some one or more of those fields. There is one who stands out prominently in the affairs of the state and is nationally known as a strong proponent of the constitutional rights for all people, equal economic opportunity for all without regard of race, color or origin. We refer to the activities of the editor and publisher of the California EAGLE, Mrs. Charlotta A. Bass. Through the medium of the publication she edits her pleas, as well as demands for justice and equality of opportunity, economic as well as political, Charlotta Bass has become known as one of the outstanding women of California.

Then there is another: Hers is the field of music. It is only the shy quality of Mary Gordon that prevents her from being known as an outstanding musician. At present she is employed and is teaching under the board of education. The innate shyness inherent in Mary Gordon is all that keeps her from being widely known as a musician of the first quality.

The national press recently carried the news that Mrs. Emma Clarissa Clement had been chosen by the Golden Rule Foundation—a national organization—as the American Mother of 1946. The recipient of this unprecedented honor, for honor it is, is a Negro resident of Louisville, Ky., the mother of seven children, all graduates of prominent colleges and universities, and now prominent citizens, active in the work for human betterment.

Aside from being 71 years young, Mrs. Clement is an active member of religious bodies and societies for the welfare and betterment of THE PEOPLE. If it were not for the influence of the women, the Wolf of Inflation would long ago has crossed the threshhold and made havoc with economic conditions.

It might be interesting to compare some of the happenings in costs, post-World War I and II. During World War I commodities at wholesale rose, approximately, 98.4 per cent, which was nearly double. In World War II it was about 38 per cent, half of World War I. The cost of living, World War I, advanced about 62 per cent against 30 per cent, or less, for World War II. About one-half, or less, in World War II. That should be sufficient argument for retention of OPA. Were it not for the "intuition" of the women our knowing(?) solons, under selfish pressure, would have scrapped OPA entirely. Well, you say: What has that to do with me? Well we as part of the group of minorities, in an economic sense are struck harder than most. Harder than any other segment of the population. The Wolf of Inflation, through discrimination in the economic sphere, would drive us to the verge of desperation. We earn less but would be forced to pay more for sustenance, which would lower the standard of living and with the attending malnutrition and undernourishment, lower the morale, breed disease, and crime.

We should scrutinize all candidates who seek office and retention in office. See if they have supported price control and fair employment, and keep a wary eye on those who have opposed them. Don't be fooled by the political grin. The question is: Did he support the Fair Employment measure? If not, then in spite of any other manifestation of friendliness, eliminate his name. If a candidate, national or local, has not supported these measures, so essential to the welfare and happiness of the mass of humanity, then he or she can be classed with the number who seek office for reasons not in sympathy with ideals of a democratic government. Scan closely the records and forget the party label. Look carefully, be careful, vote carefully.

LABOR ON THE MARCH

By Martinez Hewlett

"How to snarl up the machinery of America's fourth largest city," might well be the title of the present L. A. transit strike. It seems fantastic that a city the size of Los Angeles could almost be paralyzed by a street car strike, but as unthinkable as it seems, it really is.

Before we heap our invectives on some innocent head let's examine the record and see who is at fault, Labor or Management.

Union spokesmen have apologized to the public for the inconvenience caused by the strike, saying that this was the only way to bring their story out into the open. D. D. McClurg, president of the striking transportation union, said, "The union did everything in its power during negotiations, offering arbitration, publicizing the issues involved, to avert the strike, but no one seemed interested. It's time now for someone else to act—not the union."

And this is the story as simple and human as it is. The union is asking one dolar and thirty-six cents per hour for the striking workers, who were receiving one dollar and three cents per hour.

L. A. Reeves, assistant to the general manager of the company, seems to be the chief spokesman for Management. On the fourth day of negotiation he inferred that a wage increase of this nature would depend solely upon an increase in fare. Nevertheless, earlier in the day he said, in spiking a rumor that the company wanted the strike to get an increase in rates, "Anybody knows that a fare increase means a falling off of patronage."

Some people still remember back when the old Los Angeles Railway company left street cars idle for lack of help while war workers jammed the few which ran. Many man hours of production were lost in the Los Angeles area because of this condition. Yet in the face of this situation the company held tenaciously to their policy at that time of not hiring Negroes. Negroes were employed as operators and conductors only after a bitter fight waged by the California EAGLE and the people of this community.

The company grosses millions from the fares paid by the citizens of Los Angeles. It operates its street cars and buses on city streets under a franchise granted by the city of Los Angeles.

The men who drive the buses, operate the street cars, open and close doors, bear the responsibility of a conveyence loaded with human lives, dexteriously handle their vehicles in nerve-shattering traffic, have the patience of Job, get people to work and any place else on time, change large bills while ringing bells or shifting gears and act as city guides, are asking for a thirty-three cents per hour raise.

This is the story. You decide who snarled up the machinery of America's fourth largest city.

Big Gain in L. A. School Attendance

Day school attendance increased 10,545 last month, compared with a year ago, Assistant Superintendent Harry Howell disclosed in a report to the board of education yesterday.

Total enrollment is now 292,655, Howell's report showed. April, 1945, figure was 282,110.

Day and evening classes for adults have swelled the combined enrollment to 327,607, an increase of 45,497 for all types of attendance.

THE NEGRO IN LATIN AMERICA

By Harold Preece

HOW NEGROES FOUGHT SPANISH TYRANTS

Throughout Latin America, Negroes are getting ready to fight if events require them to fight. They are getting ready to drive out of their homelands, Spanish Dictator Francisco Franco's international ku klux, the Spanish Falange, which seeks to reenslave them to the Spanish "overlemen" whom they fought continuously from 1521 to 1898.

Next week, I'm going to reveal exclusively in this column how the Spanish Falange, represented by certain fascist priests in this country, is trying to undermine their fight by trying to take over the Negro press in the United States. I have the dope on these gentlemen and it's going to make them squirm.

But, now, a word from the gifted pen of James B. Browning on the part that the Negro played in the liberation of this continent from the ancestors of Franco and his ku kluxers, now accused before the United Nations of trying to drag us into a World War III. Browning needs no introduction to the readers of the Negro press and the following is a condensation of his article, "The Negro in the Hispanic-American Wars of Independence," which appeared originally in that fine magazine, the Journal of Negro History for January, 1944.

Browning says:

The story of the Negro's participation in the wars of the United States is rather widely known. Less clearly understood is the part played by Negroes in the liberation of Hispanic America. In that area developed a larger number of Negroes than those within the limits of the United States.

Long before Columbus sailed for the new world Negroes from Africa had lived in Spain and Portugal. Indeed, a letter from King Ferdinand attests to the fact that these same Negroes had formed communities controlled directly by colored officials.

It was only natural, therefore, for Negroes to assist Spanish explorers as guides, burden bearers, and interpreters in a wild country very much like Africa from which they had been taken. This latter fact is brought out in the records left by such notable conquerors as Cortez and Coronado in Mexico, Balboa in Panama, Pizarro in Peru, and Valdivia in Chile. During the colonial period Negro slaves organized independent communities.

Two developed in Jamaica under the leadership of Cudjo and Quao. The most durable of these was Palmares in Brazil. But there were less conspicuous yet most significent communities in Florida, on the island of Haiti and on the site of a colony located on the Carolina coast.

When the spectacle of the successful American Revolution and the more far reaching French Revolution motivated the Spanish Americans to strike a blow for independence, Negroes were among the first and most active participants.

When San Martin made his passage through the Andes, 710 Negroes set out from Cuyo in 1817. In the same year on the plains of Chacabuco one of the famous battles was fought and won by loyal patriots. Mitre adds "one month later San Martin passed by the scene of his late victory and saw there a mound of earth under which lay the dead of the 12th of February of the patriot army, most of them Negroes from Cuyo. This mound was the first mark of the War of Emancipation."

After San Martin had completed the War of Independence in Rio de la Plata, he watched the war of independence under Jose Gaspar Rodriguez Francia in Paraguay and the Uruguayan War under Jose Artigas. Still not being satisfied he pressed on to Peru by land while Cochrane and his navy came by sea.

In Peru the forces of San Martin drew plentiful supplies from surrounding country, took charge of their cavalry and recruited their infantry with 600 slaves who became free upon joining their ranks.

In the northern part of South America the population was made up of 1,200,000 whites and European Creoles, 173,000 indigenous races, 615,000 of mixed races and 138,000 of Negro slaves.

GREATEST SOLDIER A NEGRO

Undoubtedly the most outstanding Negro soldier in the war of independence in South America was Emmuel Piar. About him there are 17 references in Mitre's The Emancipation of South America.

(Note: This columnist does not agree with Browning that General Piar afterwards "betrayed" the cause of independence. Some evidence indicates that this brave mulatto fighter may have been framed by jealous white officers.")

More significant is the aid which Alexander Petion gave to Bolivia, and the liberation of slaves in South America which Simon Bolivar gave in return for aid received from the budding black Republic of Haiti.

The very name of Haiti and its deliverer, Toussaint L'ouverture, became anathema to the government of the United States which was pro-slavery until 1861. This hostile attitude accounts more than anything else for the failure of the United States government to participate in the First Panama Congress called by Simon Bolivar in 1826. Haiti was to be received and recognized along with other nations invited to participate.

Fear also of hostile action on slavery delayed matters. It was finally decided to send representatives to the Panama Congress but too late for the United States government to influence matters there. One of the delegates, designated, died and the other did not go.

Our attachment to the fortunes of slaveocracy thus caused the United States to lose its first opportunity to establish and assume the leadership of a league of America nations.

Road to Health

By G. HERBERT SEMBLY, M.D.

EATING WISELY

There was a couple in our town when I was a child whom we called Mr. and Mrs. Jack Spratt because they reminded us of the Mother Goose rhyme. The wife was so fat she should not have eaten fat (but did) and the husband was as lean as a bean pole.

As children we had a joke among ourselves that "Mrs. Spratt" ate all the food before her husband came home from work, so there was nothing left for him but the bones.

Actually, as I later came to know, the wife served her husband large quantities of food but not well-balanced meals. Even though he ate enough—in quantity—he did not receive the nourishment he needed from food. He never gained weight and was always a sickly person. His wife, on the other hand, continued to gain weight but, despite her size, had no resistance to disease. While still a young woman she caught pneumonia and died.

I was reminded of this couple not long ago when I overheard two women talking about diets. One wanted to lose weight and the other wanted to gain weight.

From their conversation it was clear that neither one knew anything about food values or how to regulate their eating habits to gain their objective—loss of weight in the case of one, more weight in the case of the other—without injuring their health.

The trouble with most people is that they think of food in terms of the amount eaten rather than the kind. Food is the fuel which keeps the body going. But just as an automobile requires both gasoline and oil to keep it going smoothly, so the body needs certain elements contained in food to keep it running in healthy condition.

We call these food elements vitamins and minerals. Those necessary to health are found in the following basic foods: fresh fruits and vegetables, milk and eggs, fish and meat, butter and other fat, bread and whole grain cereals.

Everyone should eat foods from each of these groups to keep his body in good condition. If we fail to eat food from any one of these groups over a long period of time, it is as if we failed to have oil put in our automobile or water in the battery. Our bodies will run down. They may not give out completely right away, but their resistance to disease will be broken down and they will become prey to illness.

Diets to reduce or to gain, as well as normal diets, should contain all the essential food elements. Usually, special diets should not be undertaken without the advice of a doctor. He will explain how to cut down—or increase—fattening foods without cutting out the food elements which are necessary to health.

There is no reason why a healthy diet should not be an appetizing diet. Great variety can be obtained in meals which are planned so that they provide all the nourishment the body needs.

Take vegetables for instance. There are many plain, ordinary varieties of vegetables which have excellent food value and when cooked properly are wonderful sources of vitamins. The housewife who plans her meals wisely will include both yellow and green vegetables in her meals, for they contain different food elements which are necessary to health. She will not overcook vegetables. Too much cooking may destroy the vitamins. She will also sometimes serve raw vegetables and salads.

Many women seem instinctively to know how to plan healthy meals. I once heard a woman say that she always kept the eye-appeal in mind when she was planning dinner. She pointed out that a yellow vegetable, or a red tomato, looked prettier on the plate with greens than another green vegetable. She also had various ways of getting her family to eat foods which were good for them even if they particular food. Her daughter thought they did not like the claimed she did not care for milk, so the mother frequently served custard for dessert. In eating the custard, which she liked, the daughter was getting both milk and eggs.

If we keep in mind the basic food elements and plan meals around them, the normal person will receive the vitamins and minerals he needs. The person who cannot take a normal diet, or who needs to gain or lose weight, should consult a doctor. Self-imposed diets may be a threat to health.

17 Governments Back Bias Ban

MEXICO CITY — In the first joint move by American governments to combat race discrimination, delegates from 17 states represented at the recent International Labor Office conference here adopted a resolution calling in member states to outlaw discrimination.

The resolution stated, in part, that member governments be asked "to put into practice the principles of equality of treatment and wages for workers of equal value in the same operation and enterprise, and to prevent unjust discrimination because of race, color, religion, sex or national origin in regard to opportunities for advancement, wage rates and other working conditions."

THINGS I SEE

By Marian Inglewood

The Church Militant is risen! And in a trumpet call of no uncertain sound it is rallying around itself the forces which are fighting Fascism, an evil which has penetrated into the nominal church itself and has made it an organization of Pharisees.

For these Pharisees, these wolves in sheep's clothing, are taking the word of God and, twisting it to suit their own purpose, are using it to deceive the men and women, and boys and girls, who flock to hear them. Communism! is the dread word hurled by them against everything progressive, everything which would benefit humanity, everything in fact which is the essence of the preaching of Jesus.

The people whose hearts have waxed gross, whose ears are dull of hearing, and who have deliberately closed their eyes to the truth, listen to this stuff. They listen and believe without questioning. And they fear. They too go out and, like the spreading of evil gossip, they poison the minds of others with the propaganda that all the good which the Common People have been struggling for all these years, is Communistic!

Do you wonder that the Church is losing ground? That thousands are turning away from it in despair and disgust? That they are finding their pearl of great price in the very activities which the Church is condemning as Red?

Well, there's no need for that, says the People's Institute of Applied Religion. No need at all. The Bible is a People's Bible. The God of the Bible is a People's God. And in true orthodox fashion, citing chapter and verse, the people who have united in this Institute of Applied Religion, prove to you that the central doctrines of true religion is the world brotherhood of man.

This great truth was a part of God's plan from the beginning, when He made a covenant with Abraham and told him that through him "all the nations of the earth shall be blessed." It runs through the People's Bible as a stream of living water and ends in the Book of Revelation with a picture of world-wide victory when "a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues" sang praises to God.

The world covenant was given to the patriarchs, it was proclaimed to Moses, the Psalmist sang of it, the Prophets urged it. World Brotherhood is the central theme of the New Testament, as it is of the Old. The Kingdom of Heaven which Jesus preached, the New World which the democratic forces are laboring to bring forth, is the product of the World Brotherhood of man proclaimed by the People's Institute of Applied Religion.

This doctrine is needed today, desperately needed. Oh, of course, we've heard it before. Thousands of times, no doubt. Everyone of a liberal mind believes in it. But it has usually been preached in a vague, indefinite manner, as if it were merely a personal opinion of the preacher. This is different. The leader of the People's Institute is the Rev. Claude Williams, a Presbyterian minister, and like a real Fundamentalist he quotes Scripture for his beliefs and definitely hits the nail on the head with a "Thus saith the Lord."

The Rev. Mr. Williams and the members of the People's Institute do not mince words in dealing with the pro-Fascist elements which are entering into our churches. "Any organization," say they boldly, "for 'native-born, white, Gentile, Protestant American citizens only' is anti-Christ, no matter how much Scripture its leaders can and may quote."

"Any religion or faith, church, or doctrine, which discriminates against any nation or people or tongue is not of God and must be of evil."

The People's Institute of Applied Religion declares unequivocally for the principles of the American Youth for Democracy, which should be those of the American Youth for Christ, but which are not. It advocates the principles for which the Mobilization for Democracy is fighting, which should be the same as those for which the churches are fighting, but which are not. It opposes unreservedly the Gerald L. K. Smiths, and all their followers and relatives, distant and near. It is for the Bible, the word of the People's God, as is with no unusual personal interpretations placed upon it.

Councils for the study of Applied Religion are being organized in Los Angeles, and all who are interested are urged to join. Personally I have believed this way for years, as no doubt many of you have, too. But it surely will be a good thing to be able to give chapter and verse for our beliefs, to refute those who are giving chapter and verse for hteir Pharisaical doctrines.

Incidentally the Rev. Mr. Williams heartily recommended the little book I have written, and which Mrs. Bass is promoting—Stories from the Workingman's Book. I have taken stories from the Bible, the Workingman's Book, the People's Book, and interpreted them from the workingman's Book, from a more theological point of view.

A LAYMAN'S VIEW

By Leon W. Steward

PEGLER STIRS A HORNET'S NEST

Following the long tradition of the Hearst press and his own penchant for attacking labor unions, Negroes and all other groups which the Fascist forces of our nation would decry, condemn and exploit, Westbrook Pegler, the darling of the hate and disunity breeders, took time out recently to resume his fight on the Negro press, the Negro soldier, and the Negro in general, plus the liberal element of our body politic.

Nothing has happened of late to provoke greater anger among the people during the past two weeks than has Westbrook's folly as of April 19. Not having spent a penny for a Hearst newspaper for the past 20 years, we had not seen this article until a neighbor called it to our attention. Ever since, where ever we have gone this was the inescapable topic of discussion. When it, along with a long list of other aspects of the same problem of some people trying to keep the Negro down, was brought before the NAACP executive committee, new impetus was given that anger. And that body was one hundred percent interested in doing something about it, but found itself so divided as to what to do when the clock struck 11, the president, in order to facilitate the desire for action without spending the night debating it, referred the matter to a standing committee, to which many of those showing interest in the discussion belong, with instruction that its recommendation would be acted upon at a special meeting.

We have long been aware of what has appeared to us to be a determined effort on the part of the major news and propaganda agencies, which includes the press, radio and the movies, to follow a pattern designed to discredit the race for the obvious purpose of exploitation. Pegler is and has been, to our mind, the very pen and personality of this movement. Witness his hatred of labor unions, Mrs. Roosevelt, the late President Roosevelt, Henry Wallace and the late Wendell Willkie, as expressed in his column. Note that those who generally appear to oppose the Negro's advancement usually include these groups and personalities in their hates. Note also that each of these news and propaganda agencies is under the control of business interests outside of themselves and the motives behind this program are clearer . . . that is, the motive of exploitation for profit's sweet sake is clearer.

Thus if the NAACP plans to do something about this matter, it appears that one of the most necessary problems is how to strike at the profits of the Hearst press and his advertisers. One suggestion is to get NAACP members to write Hearst's advertisers that their businesses will not be patronized by them as long as Peglers' column and anti-Negro and anti-labor hate appears on the pages of the Examiner in which their ads appear. This suggestion already has been made by a member of that committee. Another has suggested that NAACP members, who are so thoughtless as to be subscribers of the Los Angeles Examiner, drop their subscriptions in protest of the Pegler column. There may be many others. Maybe you, reader, have some suggestion for the committee. Send it to this columnist, who is also on the NAACP committee in question, and who recently asked a Negro newsie, "Son, do you not know that that (Examiner) paper is against your race?" After a brief pause the lad replied, "Maybe so, Sir, but a lot of them buy them."

In the meantime remember, this week begins the NAACP campaign for members. It is hard for us to conceive of a sane and thoughtful Negro who is not, by this time, more than convinced that money and time invested in that movement is both wisely spent and sure of contributing to our best interest. We met a man the other day who wasn't sure on this score but he quickly came to his senses when we called his attention to how he and we wished, when we first heard of the Columbia, Tennessee, riot, that we could do something about it, and even while we were thus thinking the NAACP was already on the job at Columbia. "So WE were down there, weren't we?", we suggested. "I'll say we were," said he. "Yes, our money was there with the NAACP."

SELECT YOUR PHYSICIAN WITH CARE AND CONFIDENCE
★ The study of medicine is a selective process in itself. Seven years of intensive study in college, plus one year of practice in a hospital, are the minimum requirements. It is wise to trust your precious health only to a conscientious physician of recognized standing. Avoid the quack, the charlatan, the "cure all" type of doctor. Almost invariably they do more harm than good. Select your physician as you should your pharmacist—with care and confidence.

which she said she received when she slapped her hand down on the gun on the dresser during a heated argument over the payment of a telephone bill.

She returned to her home after leaving a jewelry store on Seventh and Central, to find Kirby enraged over a bill from the telephone company which he argued should have been paid. During the argument she struck the gun which she said went off, wounding her in the hand. She told police that the bullet ricocheted off her hand and entered Kirby's body. She said that only one shot was fired from the gun.

Police found one empty shell and one bullet deeply imbedded in an overstuffed chair in the living room. The coroner reported that a bullet was also found in the body of the deceased. Ballistics experts proved that the bullets had been fired from the gun, a .32-caliber automatic pistol, registered under Mrs. Kirby's name. Officer Camp of ballistics testified that for the gun to have been fired, a five-pound pressure must be exerted on the trigger with a co-ordinated squeeze on the grip safety. He said that the gun had two safeties, the conventional lock type and the one on the grip. The gun was found fully loaded with one round in the chamber and seven rounds in the clip.

Neighbors who saw Mrs. Kirby in the backyard with a bloody hand testified that they only heard one shot.

The Kirbys, both middle age, had been married for over 19 years.

wood as he says on Central avenue, she added.

Kenny did not indulge in the usual political promises. Rather he let his record speak for him—a record of ceaseless battling against hate groups and for a united America in which all groups would be integrated in dignity and equality.

He left for others the role of condescending savior, of the great man who single-handed would solve all problems. Instead, he outlined the problems in a simple, straightforward talk, charted the attack, called on the people to push it home by retiring from office those who had betrayed their trust, by electing men and women who have proved their sincerity.

He urged a ceaseless attack on fascism and its race hatred propaganda, pointed to the necessity of long term planning, of taking into account the relationship between native and foreign fascism, between American foreign policies and our domestic problems.

To correctly appraise the danger of fascism, we must look at the whole world scene, he said. During the war we learned of the intimate connection between race baiting which was organized in Munich and race baiting which was organized in Atlanta, Georgia. Again today, we see the connection between the attempts to revive European fascism and the revival of the Ku Klux Klan and other hate organizations in this country, the renewal of mob violence such as at Columbia, Tenn.

He cited increasing job discrimination against Negroes, Jews and other minority groups as proof that the fascist threat is real, urged the American people to take it seriously.

To defeat native fascism it is necessary to organize the sources of goodwill, he said, develop an organized, active, not passive, public opinion. In this, proper leadership at the state level could assist, he declared.

He stressed the need of a state FEPC, of fair public health and educational practices as well as fair job practices, of equal opportunities for qualified Negro nurses and doctors, warned of current attempts to impose racial quotas in GI schools, and called for the ferreting out of bigots and hate peddlars as was done at Big Bear, Calif., where he initiated his present investigation of the Ku Klux Klan in California.

The meeting was opened by Thomas A. Griffith, Jr., president of the local NAACP. Invocation was delivered by Rev. Paul Marshall; closing benediction by Rev. George Garner, who also lead the audience in the singing of the National Negro Anthem.

The meeting heard a brief but stirring address by Revels Cayton, president of the National Negro Congress.

people behind him as he proceeded east on 41st street. When he stepped aside to let the people pass, he was grabbed roughly from behind while his hat was pulled over his eyes. He was then struck on the head with a lead pipe, but fortunately for Kerr it was a glancing blow. While falling Kerr drew his gun and fired three shots into the body of one of the attackers, Leo Davis; then fired two shots at the dead man's fleeing companion, who made good his escape.

Kerr was exonerated by the coroner's jury on justifiable homicide and self defense. He suffered a three inch laceration on his head from the blow. Investigating officers Collins and Bradley found the pipe the next day.

Davis, who had a long criminal record, was to answer a narcotic charge in court on Tuesday. Police are now determining whether or not a suspect, now being held, was the companion of Davis on his fatal exploit.

Six such robberies have been reported to Newton street detectives, all with the same modus operandi. The police believe that the pair who attacked Kerr are responsible for the other robberies.

KINLOCH'S ☆ KORNER

By Y. S.

Dedicated to the memory of my childhood chum, John Kinloch, who died in the struggle to destroy Fascism.

Dear Chum:

I am hurt. To the very depth of my being. You see, many a month has passed and I still haven't heard from G. E. Scott.

Who is G. E.? Well, she's a gal out Pasadena way. One of those Youth for Christ fanatics. She only wrote to me once, but I have been looking forward to hearing from her again. As a matter of fact, I publicly begged her to answer a few questions, but to date, I haven't heard "boo" one.

I guess it's just the old "silence" treatment, but I don't like it. Not at all. Since G. E. won't write to me, once again I address this column to her. Once again I invite her to answer.

You see, chum, G. E. Scott and I are a-feuding, but it's more than just a clash of personalities. It's something more vital. More dangerous. It boils down to a life-and-death struggle between fascism and democracy. Slavery and freedom. In championing the Youth for Christ movement, G. E. has aligned herself with the forces of fascism. In challenging and exposing YfC I do so in the name of the freedom and security for which peace-loving peoples of the world dream and work and pray.

Well, this is the way it started. In early January, I wrote a column in which I rejoiced about the exposes of the vicious YfC movement. In that column I charged that YfC was backed and supported by reactionaries and native fascists like Gerald L. K. Smith, William Randolph Hearst and millionaire R. G. LeTourneau. I also reported that YfC solicited Negro membership on a jim-crow basis and expressed deep concern because misinformed and misguided Negro religious leaders are being induced to back the drive.

G. E. didn't like my report because in her letter she said: "I am of the opinion that the immeasurably influential results aginst sin and vice unquestionably justifies the aim and goal of this organization which is world evangelism." But she didn't stop there. Oh no! She injected an element other than religion in her letter when she said:

"To those who were emphatically hostile and to the misinformed who would undermine and wreck the faith of our Negro youth in this movement which points to the only way of life, faith in Jesus Christ and love for all mankind, I write these words of defense and caution."

She then assured me, almost without a period, that the leaders of YfC are "sincere, earnest Christians with a zeal for lost souls, regardless of race, color, class or condition." Touching, isn't it? But wait, read on: "The publicity given YfC by the Hearst publications is unsolicited and unpaid," the letter stated, "and no profits or monies are given to this group. . . . Gerald L. K. Smith is not a sponsor as the roster of the committee on page 4 of the YfC magazine discloses. (Yes, she even sent me literature.)

"Mr. R. G. LeTourneau is a former Californian who has dedicated his life to Jesus Christ and has been entrusted with money. We know that he has denied himself and his family some small luxuries we ourselves enjoy that he might send money to support missionaries and native workers in Africa, India and China, and he is not on the executive committee."

Bro——ther! One bare-faced lie after another.

Well, chum, I have been awfully busy since I heard from G. E. Collecting information about YfC, you might say. From many sources. These are the facts I have learned:

YfC has received more than $1,000,000 worth of publicity in the 19 Hearst papers throughout the nation. Each Hearst paper was ordered to become the center of the YfC movement in 13 of the big Hearst cities, particularly New York City, San Francisco, Chicago, Boston, Baltimore, Detroit, Milwaukee, and yes, even Los Angeles. You see, it's nation wide.

Heap big chief number one native fascist Gerald L. K. Smith has declared: "I am for the Youth for Christ movement 100%." (No comment necessary.)

Jack Wyrtzen, 32-year-old leader of YfC, declared he was not participating in political controversies but was leading a campaign against communism because "no man can become a Christian and remain a communist."

It's amazing, really. They are dishing out the same old Nazi lies and using the same old tactics. Like Hitler, Wyrtzen attempts to win support by opposing communism and like the "master," he will suddenly turn upon and try to destroy those who brought him and his organization to power. This same youthful American Fuhrer declared: "A labor leader might become a Christian, but I doubt if he could keep on being a labor leader."

Speaking of labor, YfC is subsidized by the powerful enemies of labor—the bankers, big business and corporation men. Thousands of dollars are spent on newspaper advertising and radio programs. And among outstanding fascists who have spoken at YfC rallies are Rev. Gleason L. Archer, Jr., an anti-Catholic, anti-Jewish fanatic; Rev. Harry J. Hager and Dan Gilbert, all notorious anti-Semites.

This, dear chum, is but a fraction of the recent exposes of YfC. And as for G. E.'s statement that LeTourneau "has denied himself and his family blah, blah," I refer her to an advertisement which appeared in the March 30 issue of the Los Angeles Examiner, announcing the public appearance of Robert Gilmour LeTourneau at the Church of the Open Door, Sixth and Hope, Sunday, March 31, at 2:30 p. m.

According to the ad, the poor little rich man who denies himself of the small luxuries of life "flies to his church engagements to save precious time," is "founder and president of five great industrial plants," and "manufactures over 50% of the world's earth-moving machinery used in building highways, dams and airports." Incidentally, he does "a yearly business of over 20 million dollars."

You know, chum, I have the strangest feeling that they think we're dopes. And we would be if we swallowed their lies en toto. However, we are not going to be fooled, because although the cagey scoundrels are masquerading under the guise of religion, they still stink of the evilness and corruptness of fascism.

There is only one clear-cut path to follow.

We, the youth of this nation who have pledged our lives to building the peace and working for true democracy, must investigate, expose, condemn, and finally, destroy Youth for Christ. And we must do this despite the Smiths and Hearsts and LeTourneaus. It's a big job, but together we can do it!

Your chum, YVONNE.

Head of Purdue Endorses Bias

LAFAYETTE, Ind. — Negro young people who wish to attend Purdue university, a tax-supported state institution, should come back in four years.

This was the answer given recently by Acting Dean of Women, Clare A. Collidge, to the desperate housing problem of Leola Anderson, a first-year student at the university.

Miss Collidge's stand was fully endorsed by School President Frederick L. Hovde. Informing Miss Anderson that he was unable to solve her problem, President Hovde stated that the only practical suggestion was that she solve it herself, perhaps "by indicating your willingness to work for your room by attending children in the evening, etc."

President Hovde added, "I do know that it (the racial issue) will not be solved by fighting about it and creating more antagonism than already exists."

Watts AYD Group Has Eagle Editor As Guest Speaker

"Study the records of your political candidates," warned Mrs. C. A. Bass, EAGLE editor, who was guest speaker at the Friday evening meeting of the Watts AYD club, held at the Watts USO.

Invited to speak on the coming elections, Mrs. Bass pointed out that she did not want to tell the young people who to vote for, or who to campaign for, but she wanted them to "find out who your friends are." Mrs. Bass also said that AYD would be branded as communist, "but don't let that scare you," she added. "Some people will try to frighten you, discourage you because they hate to see you get together to work and play—and fight for the things that belong to all free people."

Paying honor to a Negro flyer who died in World War II, Watts AYDers voted to name their club after Major Treswell. The group also had a report on the Festus Coleman case and voted to send a resolution to Washington supporting OPA without crippling amendments.

Urges Educational Campaign on Sex Hygiene in Schools, Homes

Speakers at a venereal disease and human relations institute held recently at the State Building under the auspices of city and county health departments warned leaders in the battle against venereal diseases that an education barrage would have to be conducted into homes and schools.

A state survey in 1945 showed an increase over the preceding year in primary and secondary syphilis cases of 27 per cent and a rise of 45 per cent in gonorrhea in the 20 to 24 age group.

"Venereal disease is not primarily a medical problem," declared city health officer Dr. George M. Uhl. "It is a social problem with a medical aspect.

"Possibly one of our past weaknesses has been the failure to grasp the importance of family ideals and training in venereal disease control."

Dr. A. Frank Brewer, chief of the state department of health's venereal disease bureau, declared:

"It would seem to me much sounder to carry on with such point-to-point advertising, continuing adult education programs, radio programs and working in the schools to encourage the incorporation of sex hygiene and acute communicable disease programs into their curricula than to try short term mass surveys."

WHAT'S DOING IN THE SOCIAL SET

By JESSIE MAE BROWN

Jessie Mae Brown

THE VOCAL OFFERINGS of James Patton received a rousing round of applause last Tuesday night when he stepped forth with a partial fulfillment toward his master's degree in music at the University of Southern California. The recital was given in Bowne Hall of the Philosophy Building and included the recitative, "Ye People Rend Your Hearts" and the aria, "If With All Your Hearts," from Mendelssohn's "Elijah." The flower song from "Carmen" was included on the program. Patton will appear in another recital on June 12, completing his fulfillment, receiving the degree at commencement exercises on June 15. At present, he takes pride in being a part of the Madrigals, highest-ranking musical group on the campus. Aside from his school connections he is one of the leading tenors in the Chapel of Remembrance group at Fisher's Mortuary.

There are many who [illegible] James Patton, and have not the slightest inkling that he is the same James Patton now winning musical acclaim. This young man-about-town mixes in wonderfully with the group, and has little or nothing to say about his career. When asked if he was preparing for the concert stage, he could give no definite answer, but left "ye scribe" with a fairly good reason to believe that the idea is being considered. However, before taking that step, he will more than likely head back for the Trojan campus in search of a doctorate in music.

Yes, indeed, these young musicians are stepping ahead. Gloria Roberts is spending long hours rehearsing for her coming piano recital in June. Her plans for entering the Julliard School of Music next semester are just about completed, and she is one happy young lady.

GAY POINTERS

The old fun circuit is being hit from all angles. In the limelight last week-end, of course, was the grand finale to the basketball series. My girl Friday tells me that you were all there to see the Alphas take over the victory from the Kappas, who have been the series holders for several years. Aside from the usual Music Town gathering the Alpha men and their lovely ladies partied at the Alpha Bowling Club until the wee hours. Though defeated, the Kappa brothers carried on in the usual Kappa spirit with much tripping of the light fantastics, etc.

Tonight, Pasadena Civic, and I do mean the main ballroom, will be the jumping off point for another hilarious evening. White trousers, dark blue coats and a nautical atmosphere will reign when the grad chapter of the Alpha Phi frat takes over.

The girls in white, Wenifred Davis, Jessie McDaniel, Melrose Johnson and other members of the nurses sorority, Chi Eta Phi, are keyed up over the progressing plans for their benefit dance scheduled for May 19, at the Plantation club. Understand that the proceeds will be used to provide additional university work for registered nurses.

Too bad the Monday night jubilee isn't broadcast here in the States. I can assure you, the boys overseas get a real treat. I attended the broadcast last Monday eve and enjoyed the offerings of Peggy Lee, Earl Hines and orc, and a bit of M. Cing in the Whitman manner. By the way, Ruth Ford is doing a swell job as script girl at the studio on Hollywood bldv. . . . Before leaving the gay pointers of the week, the popular Philadelphians have several hundred announcements in the mail, heralding their coming Mexican Fiesta to be given May 26 on Marilyn's bandminton court. . . . The Cosmos, that new club that you are all buzzing about, have scheduled June 1 as their date. Just what will come off, they seem to be keeping a dark secret. . . . The Crop 'n' Tail riders, on the other hand, are announcing July 3, the eve of the 4th, as the night for that much-talked-about Summer Cotton Formal. Invites will be out soon bidding you to the Riverside Rancho, where the girls will hold their initial affair.

A BIT SERIOUS

The different interracial panels that you hear and read so much about are part of the Religious Conference building at UCLA. Monday night, the conference held its annual dinner, with such noted figures as Governor Warren, Mayor Bowron, and Emily Kimborough in attendance. Gloria Ford, who is active on the Panel of Americans, and William Elkins, who stars on the Panel of Veterans, took their places at the speakers' table. Reports have it that William's talk was executed in such grand style, it brought fourth a grand ovation and called for one or two extra bows on his part.

Aside from my Fourth Estate duties here of late, I have been preparing a program for the annual "College Night" at Second Baptist church. The date is May 19, and I am proud to announce that Dr. Bloom, foremost exponent of the social science department on the Bruin campus, will be speaker of the evening. The program will take place at 7:30 with Bill Terry from S.C., Bob Rogers, UCLA, and Roy Loggins, C.C., taking part. Space will not permit the complete program, but it is chalked up to be one of interest.

The Norman Benjamin Houstons will receive Sunday evening from 5 until 7 o'clock. The young couple took vows in New Orleans on Feb. 21. The recent bride is the former Lorraine Marie Frederick and will graciously greet the nucleus of L. A. society along with Mrs. Doris Talbot Houston and the Norman O. Houstons.

WELL! WELL! WELL!

Nothing more interesting than jottings about L. A. fellows on the Howard U. campus. Marion writes this week. . . . Edward Allen McFarland, '42 grad of Manuel Arts now attending H. U., was married recently to Althea Louise Gibson, AKA, West Virginia State college grad, from Macon, Georgia. It was a surprise marriage. Edward attended San Jose State and expects to enter H.U. Law school . . . Edward C. Gibson who is busy doing grad work in the school of religion there sends hellos to Leonard McClain and Rev. Hamilton Bosewell . . . This summer will find the Petty brothers from Wilmington, Delaware, trekking to the city of Angels. Both graduated from H. U. in June. Leon Petty, a major in psychology expects to do grad work at either SC or USLA, and his brother Edward will graduate from the college of dentistry. They plan to make L.A. their home. Both are Alpha men, Yes, they are both single; the line forms at the right.

Rufus Jaddy Blake is going over in a big way . . . In a triangular meet between H.U., Virginia and Hampton he won the broad-jump and repeated one week later vs. Morgan college and Lincoln university . . . SAaa-y L.A.'s Joe Dow is both a student and a "press-agent" (Howard's slang for "lover-man") . . . Roberta North is Miss Popularity of the H.U. campus . . . Betty Wright recently visited Evelyn Braxton in D.C., can't think of their married names . . . Dr. John Rout sends hellos to the L.A. gang . . . Wendell Dow, Joe's brother visits the district every week-end He is stationed at Camp Lee, Virginia . . . So much for Howard.

Willie Patterson has returned on the local scene . . . Kenny Williams will become a married man next week . . . Barbara Lambert will leave for Connecticut in July as Deloris Bell's house guest . . . "Mothers Day" will be observed by a large group of young family builders . . . I bring this week's jottings to a close just in time to hop down town and get my wonderful mother a gift. I still haven't definitely decided just what.

TILL NEXT WEEK

La Jovials to Honor Club Mother Sunday

With plans for a trip to Murray's Dude Ranch and other summer sports heading the agenda, the La Jovial Girls held a very interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. Fannie Dean. The club plans to recognize Mother's Day, by honoring the club mother, Mrs. Nettie B. Reese with a gift, and by attending her church, Independent Church of Christ, on Sunday.

Following the meeting, guests and club girls joined in bridge and pokeno. Mrs. Ruth Buttler, La Jovial president, and the members extend many thanks to all who made their recent Easter Sunday Fashion review an all out success.

G. W. B. A. Club

With overwhelming success the Contract Bridge Club and the ladies' auxiliary of the G.W.B.A. sponsored a tournament. Although it was directed by Mr. Lewis Woods, credit also goes to three ladies without whose untiring efforts in planning the program the pleasures enjoyed by everyone present would not have been entirely possible—Mrs. Blanche Woods, Mrs. Louise Roan and Mrs. Margaret Hale.

A total of $12 in prizes was distributed to the winners. The winners and their scores were: Mr. and Mrs. Swafford, first prize, 6770; Mrs. Julia Asberry and Mr. Syra Johns, second prize, 6410; Dr. A. L. Wallace and Mr. Ellis L. Veil, third prize, 5630. As a capper to these events a ham was raffled off with Mrs. Lillian Tanner being picked as the lucky lady.

The popular Tuesday night plays for the month were won by Mr. Wilson. The Friday night plays were won by Dr. Dorthula Matthews and Mr. George Wisenant.

SAPPHIRE GIRLS IN SPRING FETE

The Sapphire Girls held their first annual Spring Tea recently at the west 30th street home of Mrs. W. M. Dawson.

The house was beautifully decorated with flowers carrying out the color scheme of the club.

Musical selections were rendered throughout the afternoon by members Mary Smallwood and Jessie Hatten.

MOTHER'S DAY will have special meaning this year for lovely Mrs. Lowell Steward, who poses proudly with her three-month-old daughter, Pamela Odessa. The baby's father, Captain Lowell Steward, served 15 months with the army air force in Italy, received the Distinguished Flying Cross, 7 oak leaves, and is still serving at Tuskegee Air Field. Mrs. Steward is the former Helen Jane Ford, daughter of Mrs. Helen F. Woodward and granddaughter of Mrs. Lula Brown, well-known pioneer of the city. Little Pamela marks the third generation in this prominent family. Mrs. Norman Steward is the paternal grandmother.

Egyptian Court No. 5 Convenes

Last Saturday was a gala evening for Egyptian Court No. 5, Daughters of Isis. Despite the street car strike, the members turned out in large numbers, coming from Riverside, El Centro, Pasadena and San Bernardino.

After a busy but profitable meeting, 10 candidates were brought in for initiation, which was a beautiful ceremony.

The evening closed with a banquet, the nobles joining in and merriment and laughter resounded until a late hour.

The illustrious commandress, Mrs. Ida M. Robertson, and her staff of officers, were at their best in making the newly-elected member and the nobles feel welcome during the evening.

Sunday, May 19, the Court will assemble at Neighborhood church for the annual thanksgiving service. Egyptian Temple of Shrines are to be special guests at this evening of service.

'DENA CHIT-CHAT

By

JOHNETTA ARMSTRONG - FREDDY WARD

It seems as though practically all the younger set in Dena awakened to a beautiful Sunday morning and got the same idea. Where shall we go? The beach, of course. And so they went to Venice, Ocean Park, Castle Rock and Santa Monica. Down at Castle Rock, Paullyn Fisher was having a beach picnic birthday party for her husband, Wilbert. He and two of his fellow club buddies, Joe Spaulding and Leonard Grimes, wore shirts so loud you could hear them long before you saw them. The host of the party who enjoyed the surf, sand and good food were Billy Roberts, Alfonsine Paltrone, James and yours truly Armstrong. Everyone had a swell time. Late in the afternoon we went down to Santa Monica.

Why do we segregate ourselves? The portion of Santa Monica that we use as a race is the eyesore of the whole beach area . . . no sand, all rocks and large slabs of concrete where the sand used to be. In fact, it seems unsafe. If one ever fell on those rocks going down to the water the injury could be fatal. Why, just because we have gone there year after year do we continue to go?? There are other beaches!!!!!

Lucille Harrison, Jessie Arnold and Lora Jacques in stunning bathing suits, and Betty Benson were together. Talked to Alva Rae Neblett who was with Harrison Bailey, and Mr. and Mrs. Moody. Saw J. T. Morgan with Crystal Jones, Paul Mack was surrounded by a group of lovely bathing beauties, while Lois Prince was with some new. Irene Huff looked good in a darling blue summer cotton dress. Hallie Huff, Barbara Gammaez were there, too.

Saw Don Barksdale, Henry Jones, and I. J. Ruffin. Chester and Alvin Johnson seemed to be having a gay time. P. J. King, Bebe Daniels, Ralph McAfee and his fiancee, Eddie Johnson, and several others were arriving as we left. Hear that the Earls, wives and girl friends made it down just before nightfall.

Have you heard that the Ebony Earls are going to play basketball? They practiced at the "Y" with the Phalanx and the Triple "C's." It will be something to see. Cookie Cooke was over last week and she told of her experiences and adventures while in the Spars. She likes the East coast and plans on returning some day. By the way, as we're writing this column, Cookie is celebrating her 21st birthday, May 6. The Zae Restrictive club of Pasadena Junior college received their pins last week and they're really clever. The gold "Z" is accented with tiny pearls and the "ae' is in onyx.

Early Sunday morning has found some very early risers at Brookside Park playing a fast game of tennis. This week the group was enlarged and they had a swell time. Ronald Sutton and Ples Griffin beat Mr. Fletcher Smith and Mr. Arden Edwards. Barbara Durham, Buddy Foster, Mr. Barney Durham and son Archie made up some of the other teams.

The Tuesday Morning club's tea at the Casita del Arroyo May 5 was very successful. The club is trying to do something useful for the community. Their aim is to build up a scholarship fund for use as loans, grants and to aid deserving students of Pasadena in furthering their education. The club members are all active in community affairs. The officers are Fay Poindexter Brooks, president; Mary Jane Strong, vice president; Zalia Edson, secretary; Helen Holloway, corresponding secretary; Lillie-belle Montgomery, treasurer. Members are Lu Dema Brown, Thelma Blake, Fenola Crawford, Bernie Dyson, Flora Grant, Leona Lee, Macea Moody, Claudia Radcliffe, Winifred Sunday, Edna Thompson, Lucille Bowlin, Bernice Burch, Feralyn Carter, Lillian Ford, Christine Hill, Dorothy Moore, Melvina Phillips, Cleo Ringer, Beatrice Trowell, Aldine Young, Marian Moore. Tea was served from 4 to 7.

Wilfandel Club Gives Mammoth Afternoon Tea

On Sunday, April 28, at the Villa Arlington, the Wilfandel Club acquainted the people of the community with their plans and objectives by sponsoring a mammoth afternoon tea.

The realization of the growing need for a building to house a womens' club, as well as serve as a recreational and guidance center for young people sparked the organization of the Wilfandel Club in January of this year.

"In times of crisis we admit the full stature of our women. Then when normal times return, we fall back on our prejudices. We shall now admit our mistakes and plan to accept feminine participation in all walks of life." These more than significant remarks were made by Dr. Rufus Clements in his address to the Club and its guests, who numbered over 500.

Dr. Clements, followed the objectives of the club, illustrated clearly the need for such organizations. He called particular attention to the "problem areas," where problems of health, sanitation and juvenile delinquency are rising at an alarming rate.

The club would serve also in fostering and contributing to the community, projects of cultural value and achievement. Dr. Clements explained that there are also "cultural areas," where good fellowship, art and intellect and literary pursuits could be promoted.

The Wilfandel Club has as its objectives, the sponsoring of wholesome, cultural, recreational and philantropic activities as will develop complete and symetrical womanhood.

The Georges will visit the Bay City, and from there go to Old Mexico, where they will climax their stay in the Southland. Guests at the affair were: Miss Eve Cole, Miss Lucille Burnett, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Wilson, Professor William T. Wilkins, Mr. Thomas Reed and the honorees, Dr. and Mrs. Anthony George.

Sojourner Truth Home in Spirited Membership Drive

Mrs. Buelah Arnaud and Mrs. Lovie Town were the two contestants in a spirited membership drive held by the Sojourner Truth Home. Both contestants and their co-workers worked zealously until the very last day of the drive.

After the final count, Mrs. Lovie Town was announced winner and presented with a token of appreciation from the organization. Both Mrs. Town, the winner, and Mrs. Arnaud put in more than the required amount of time to make the drive a success. They held as their objective, "A better and larger Sojourner Truth Home."

The membership drive was decided upon after Mrs. C. A. Robeson and other officers thought to increase the membership and solicit funds in the payment of dues.

At the close of the drive, Mrs. Jessie Terry, educational director, conducted a unique and interesting program. The drive was climaxed by "Open House" on April 29.

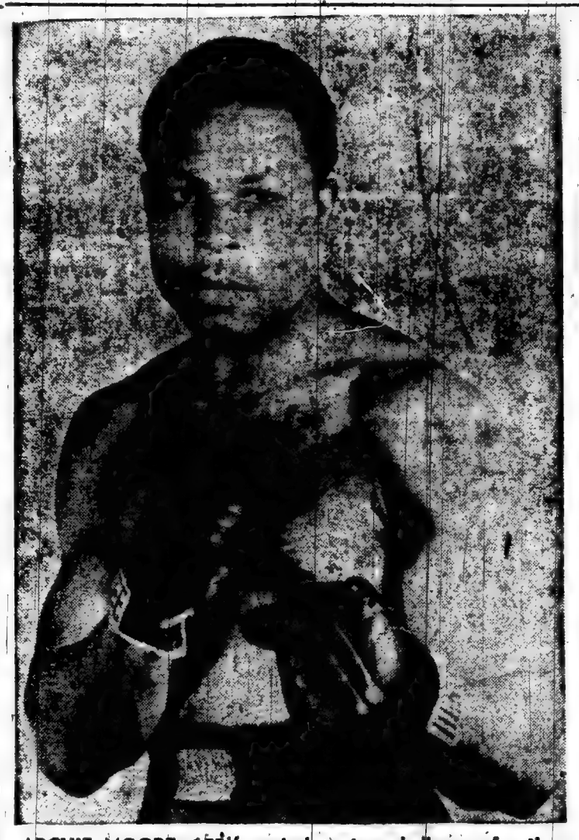
LAYIN' IT ON THE LINE

By EDDIE BURBRIDGE, Sports Editor

BEEF DEPARTMENT—Well, Mates, it looks like our John Thomas has been given the run-around by Connie McCarthy, manager of Ike Williams, the NBA lightweight champion of the world. Before the Bolanos fight it was whispered around town that John was almost certain to get the winner and a chance at the title in another big outdoor show this summer. Most of the experts were almost convinced that Ike would beat Enrique, and they weren't wrong. However, after the fight, while Ike flew on to Philadelphia McCarthy stuck around and Bert Lewis, manager of Thomas, went to work on the possibility of signing his boy up for Williams. Seems it was no dice. McCarthy confided to one newspaperman that he intended getting back to New York to ascertain whether the bout between his boy and Bob Montgomery, styled by New York state as the champion, was going through or not. This bout was supposed to have been signed already by Mike Jacobs to clear up the title and crown one champion for the division. McCarthy stated that if the bout with the "Bobcat" fell through he'd be willing to have Ike meet anybody in the country but he had to look to that stack of blue chips first, for which you can hardly blame him. An outdoor show in New York City at heavy prices will draw more than one here for this reason—fans will pay more money to see a fight in N. Y. than they will here. Personally, we believe that Thomas can beat both boys, Ike and Bob, so if there is to be a fight between the two to clear up the title, it may be that John will get his chance after all sometime before summer ends. We have comparatively warm weather here up until Christmas so the atmosphere won't interfere with a fight in September or October. One thing that might mess matters up is the collegiate and pro football season. The best time for the fight would be just before the grid season opens. L. A. is a fight-conscious town, however, and even a football game the week of a big fight may not harm it too much to prevent a financial success. Nevertheless, this department is sorry that McCarthy did not arrange for the match while here. John Thomas has had bad breaks all along in his quest for the elusive lightweight title. He was all set to battle Juan Zurita for it when Uncle Sam hustled him into the army. Instead Williams traveled to Mexico and knocked Zurita kicking to grab off the crown. Thomas was the logical choice when Ike fought here on April 30 but for some strange reason Enrique Bolanos was chosen. This despite the fact that Thomas had beaten guys in the class that the Mexican youth wasn't yet qualified to enter. Men like Willie Joyce and Henry Armstrong. Bolanos proved he wasn't yet ready to mix with such talent by getting himself stopped in 8 heats. Well, Mates, no use crying over spilt milk. Question is, when and if John Thomas is going to get a crack at the title?

SPORT SHORTS—Rumor has it that Henry Armstrong and Fritzie Zivic will go to Honolulu for a fight. Ye Gods, what next? . . . Sunday afternoon at San Francisco Carlisle Perry's Los Angeles White Sox tangle with the Sea Lions of that city in one of the openers of the West Coast Baseball Association. According to the Sox mentor he has a good team representing L. A. for the current pennant race. We hope he has. Sunday's opener will give us a slant . . . Looked forward to with interest is the May 14 date Jackie Wilson has with Fritzie Zivic at the Olympic . . . Mike Jacobs is going to rent a large Broadway theatre to show television takes of the Louis-Conn fight. Of course, this will be going on direct from Yankee Stadium to the screen and should be well worth watching. . . . This scribe keeps on wondering what would have happened in the Jimmy Bivins-Johnny Haynes fight recently if Johnny had rushed Bivins off his feet as he did Pete Morelli in his last start, said Mr. Morelli becoming a quick kayo victim. It might have worked with Bivins also. Surely it would have looked better to have used that method of attack. Instead Haynes laid back and let Bivins carry the fight to him and as a result our outstanding prospect was knocked out. Haynes looked like a champion against Morelli but it seems that he's gunshy whenever he meets real competition. Against Arturo Godoy he couldn't seem to become untracked. A relentless attack from round one on might have offset Godoy's vast experience. When you are a fighter and haven't much experience the best deal is to be as aggressive as the very devil, not giving your opponent chance to perform any of his cute tricks. Henry Armstrong was such a fighter. He gave his opponents so much hellfire and leather and set such a terrific pace that said opponent was so busy protecting his anatomy at all times that he didn't have time to try any boxing skill or display his savvy of the game. So file this away Johnny in your little diary on boxing, it's certain to stand you in good stead at one of those glove parties at the Olympic or elsewhere . . . Bobby Yeager, that smart and hard-punching lightweight from the Bert Lewis-George Tolson stable, goes to the post on May 17 against Fidel Aguilar at Hollywood Legion Stadium. Bobby is a stablemate of John Thomas, Kenny Watkins, Louis Wise and Henry Roberts, one of, if not the most successful on the Pacific Coast. The consensus of opinion is that if John Thomas should fail to win the world's lightweight title Yeager might be the fair-haired boy to turn the trick. However, John, due to his amazing boxing ability, is the logical choice. If he's given a chance we feel sure California will be able to boast of a new world's champion.



ARCHIE MOORE, 175½, rated as top challenger for the light-heavyweight title, knocked out Verne Escoe, 182½, Toronto, in the seventh round of a scheduled 10-round bout at Orange, N. J., last Thursday night.

L. A. White Sox Ready For Debut at Frisco

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif.—Sunday, May 12, is a red-letter day along the Pacific Coast for that's the day the new West Coast Baseball Association begins its championship play.

The opening day's schedule of double-headers has Los Angeles at San Francisco, Oakland playing Fresno at Stockland, Calif., and Seattle and Portland, on their way home from spring training and a long exhibition tour, meeting at El Paso, Tex.

Everywhere throughout the circuit enthusiasm is waxing high over the new league and the opening day is slated to be marked by elaborate fanfare. All six teams came through their training seasons impressively and it looks like a close, hard-fought pennant race in store for the fans.

The comments of the six team managers runs like this:

Paul Hardy, Seattle: "I'm highly pleased with this West Coast setup and think it looks very promising. My ball club is in grand shape and we'll be up there all the way."

Wesley Barrow, Portland: "It's amazing the vast amount of interest being shown in the new league by the fans and press. My players are happy about the whole thing and rarin' to go."

Carlisle Perry, Los Angeles: "I predict that within a few years the new West Coast Baseball Association will be ready to challenge for premier Negro baseball honors. Out in Los Angeles, it fills a decided need and the fans are 100% for it."

Harold ("Yellowhorse") Morris, San Francisco: "Look for my club to be fighting for the pennant all the way down the line. The boys looked mighty good in spring training and are getting better right along."

Eddie Harris, Oakland: "With a boosting organization like the Oakland High Marine Social Club backing us, we just can't miss."

Roy Parkes, Fresno: "I'll let the others do the talking—we'll just do our best on the playing field and perhaps surprise a lot of people."

Officials of the circuit also are a happy group now that their formulative plans for a successful league are ready to go into operation. Typical was the statement issued by Jesse Owens, the great track star who has the Portland Roses' franchise and is traveling with that team. Jesse said:

"We're breaking fast and will hit the finish tape a winner."

Woody Strode Inked by Rams

The two, who formed one of the greatest forward passing combinations in Coast football history, played together last year with the Hollywood Bears. Strode was a star performer for three years with the 4th Air Force.

Manager Charles F. Walsh of the Rams purchased Strode, as he had Washington, from Paul Schissler, coach and owner of the Bears.

Strode will make his Ram debut in a night game Sept. 6 when the Los Angeles club plays Washington Redskins in a game sponsored by the Time Charities.

Mile Race Provides Thrill of Dual Meet

The Generals of Washington High School scored their first track victory over Jefferson in 19 years last Friday in a dual meet taking a 62-42 decision to clinch the Southern League dual meet crown.

Strutting their stuff before a yelling crowd of 3500 fans the meet was crammed with fine performances with the mile standing out.

Dick Knorr of Washington and Raul Morales of Jefferson were the opposition in this event. Knoor took command in the last lap and held a 10-yard lead rounding the final curve. Here Morales, whose previous best time was 4m. 47s., cut loose with a tremendous sprint and passed Knorr 30 yards from the finish. As he did so he jumped around with his hands raised and Knorr whizzed past him and held on to win by inches. The times, fastest in the city to date, was 4m. 35.1s.

The high-flying Alphas, materially aided by that wizard of the court, Don Barksdale, breezed in the winners of the Inter-Fraternity basketball series and became the champions of 1946 by defeating the Kappas 50-40 last Saturday night at Loyola High Gymnasium, Normandie and Venice.

The mighty Barksdale tallied 22 points for his team with teammate Bill Jones trailing with 16. Glover Samuels rang up 10 markers to lead his mates in scoring.

In the preliminary game the Deltas trounced the AKA's 16-9 in the battle of sorors. Vivian Johnson sunk 12 baskets to lead the Deltas in scoring and gain high point honors with the petite and lovely Pat Russell throwing six through the hoops for the AKA's.

The Joy of Living

"The bathing season is here again,
And to the beach we tramp,
And gladly view the shapely miss,
In a suit like a postage stamp!"

—The Sepia Sage.

YOU SHOULD KNOW—Billy Berg, owner of a supper club in Hollywood, has purchased a half interest in Shepp's Playhouse. Joe Liggins' Honey-Drippers are booked into the club next and big floor shows are in prospect, according to the management. . . . Barry Ulanov's biography of Duke Ellington is a new best-seller. The mockly publicized story of the noted band leader has gone into a second large printing . . . Bandleader Hawkins has agreed to participate in the projected CIO forum against sports bias tentatively scheduled for the middle of this month at Town Hall in N.Y.C. . . . Tiny Bradshaw was lucky to be playing in Louisville on Derby Day and to be sure of a winner purchased a two-dollar ticket on every nag in the race . . . Kitty Murray, vaudeville comedienne who is a featured performer in Olsen and Johnson's "Hellzapoppin'" had a part in Red Skelton's newest flicker, "The Showoff." Rochester is also cast in the picture . . . "No Leave, No Love" is the title of the MGM pic in which "Sugar Chile" Robinson appears . . . Marian Anderson is vacationing at her Danbury, Connecticut, home . . . Ella Fitzgerald is the cover girl on the latest issue of ::Metronome" . . . Mrs. Nat King Cole has undergone another operation for appendicitis. The M.D.'s must have missed it the first time. Mrs. C. is hoping to have recovered sufficiently by May 14 to plane to N.Y.C. . . . DOWN GOSSIP LANE—Mr. and Mrs. George M. Harnett, Jr., who reside on South Wall Street, have a splendid garden in which from time to time they entertain friends. George also has an outside bar which he can ready for an affair in less than an hour. Persons who see things after a few drinks need not become alarmed if they see fish swimming around in a lighted pool. This is part of the Harnett garden . . . Mrs. Ida M. Dades is another Wall Street matron who spends quite a lot of time gardening and has a fine array of varied plants to prove it. . . . From the April 30 issue of "The Daily People's World" we give you an interesting slant by Elly Ott on why "Jazz at the Philharmonic" has been banned. "Too many Negroes," the management is reported to have said. Here it is: "Jazz at the Philharmonic" ain't anymore. That "ain't" doesn't refer to the jazz, but to the Philharmonic Auditorium.

Jazz has been booted out. Not that the Philharmonic has any objections to the music; it's the people who attend such concerts that the Philharmonic management can't abide. . . . while, specifically, the Negroes who have packed the Philharmonic at the dozen-odd jam sessions put on there this past year. Too many Negroes, claimed Ceylon H. Brainard, manager of the Los Angeles Philharmonic Auditorium Building.

So "Jazz at the Philharmonic" moved to the Embassy Auditorium for the recent session, and Norman Granz, local jazz entrepeneur, told the audience why. HERE'S WHY: I learned the details from Granz, after the show. It seems that the Philharmonic management, in the person of Mr. Brainard, was at first delighted to rent the auditorium to Granz for his jazz concerts. It meant extra revenue on the traditionally slow Monday evenings. The jazz shows became sell-outs and Brainard began finding objections, all of them centered on one point: there were too many Negroes in the audience. Mr. Brainard imposed restrictions. He didn't want Granz to advertise in Negro papers, or post announcements in the Negro community. Then he objected to the publicizing of the concerts by "disc jockeys"—"Make Believe Ballroom" radio announcers. But the Negroes kept coming. Mr. Brainard claimed that they "loitered," and that they became "surly" when policemen kept them on the move. Granz urged the use of Negro policemen and ushers (which he had to pay for, incidentally), but Brainard would have none of that. Finally, Mr. Brainard decided he would have none of Granz and his jaz concerts. That is, unless—well it would be all right if Granz brought in Benny Goodman. And maybe even Duke Ellington, if the ratio of whites to Negroes in the audience were kept 60-40. So the new home for "Jazz at the Philharmonic" is the Embassy Auditorium. It was a big show that Granz put on recently, with the virtues and faults that all jam sessions have in common. Some of the improvisations were inspired, some helter-skelter. But the rough spots will undoubtedly be ironed out on the tour this troupe has embarked on. Only six musicians will be jamming, and their best known solos will be featured. Coleman Hawkins will play "Body and Soul"; Lester Young will do "Lester Leaps In"; Buck Clayton, "My Old Flame"; and Kenneth Kersey, "Boogie-Woogie Cocktail." Shadow Wilson and Billy Hadnott will round out the rhythm section, and there will be added specialties by Helen Humes, the "Be-baba-le-ba Girl" and Meade Lux Lewis, famous boogie-woogie pianist. Among the West Coast cities that will be visited are Seattle, Portland, San Francisco, Oakland, Fresno and Vallejo. . . . FINAL ADD—By all means catch that great show at the Orpheum featuring the King Cole Trio, Johnny Otis and Orchestra, Eddie Green and other fine acts. It's grooveareenie . . Superfine and right on line.—Ollie Wortham.

George Bolles Views Antwerp Night Life

By GEO. BOLLES

ANTWERP, Belgium—Here in the "Diamond City" of the world life goes on just as before the War. This Scheldt river port (largest in Europe) is crammed daily with ships whose flags represent the principal nations of the world. Money-changers are doing a rushing business (U. S. dollar black market currently 2-1) and so are the "commando girls."

Copper colored Tony Wells, Europe's greatest (jazz-classic) pianist and his "blanc ensemble" is making his first appearance in Antwerp at Chez James', the classiest cocktail lounge in the "diamond city."

Josephine Baker, "cafe au lait" queen of Europe, Africa, and Asia for the past twenty years, is more popular today than ever . . . Doing a three day benefit at the Winter Garden (largest music hall in Antwerp), Josie set an all-time record for attendance. Que's three blocks long (including hundreds of U. S. blancs) braved sleet and rain for hours, to see the woman who made the Casino de Paris the show-place of the continent and the world.

Skipper street (sailors and GI's Broadway) has doubled its police patrol and the military "gestapos" are demanding passes of all U. S. (colored) forces; especially when in the company of blonds . . . Skipper street joints are selling beer suds at 60c and cognac is still $1.40. The blonds still insist upon sitting on "chocolate boys" knees, and the "Bilbo boys" broil and like it . . . Like the rest of Europe there's no color bar on the dollar or, the hand that holds it.

The Century Hotel is ritzier than ever. Unlike many of our democratic American hotels, Negroes enter and leave via the front door with a "native bland" opening and closing it for you. Any suite of rooms in any hotel is yours if you can pay the tariff.

Last week, a situation of situations came to pass. A Texas lieutenant (blanc) from one of the boats in port attempted to register at the Hotel Roi Albert (second largest hotel in Antwerp) and was turned down cold-flat. He lingered nearby at a cigar counter. I stepped up and registered and a bevy of "blanc" porters whisked my luggage off to my suite of rooms. I need not say . . . the Texan was literally thunderstruck!

In the U. S. A. this would have been indeed a situation beyond imagination; but in Europe (despite U. S. blanc propaganda) a man is recognized not by his color but, by his class.

A REAL VET

When actor Donald Meek calls himself a "veteran performer" he speaks with undue modesty. He has been on the boards, all told, for 57 years and in front of the cameras ever since there have been cameras to front. His latest picture is the Warner Bros. comedy, "Janie Gets Married."

PETE NUGENT, tap dancing star, has been offered a prominent position by Leroy Prinz of Warner Brothers to teach the art. Pete, who was recently discharged from the service, was a major attraction in Irving Berlin's "This Is the Army."

'Rhythm Town' Opening Date Set at Beaux Arts Theatre

"Places everybody, curtain going up!" For six long months of hard working cast of stars of tomorrow have waited for this call which soon becomes a reality for an all-colored cast of 35 opening May 22 at the Beaux Arts Theatre, 8th and Beacon, in "Rhythm Town."

"Rhythm Town" is the same musical comedy which was known in previous announcements as "Jump, Jive N' Jam." However, Reb Spikes and his co-producers decided that the former title gave the impression that they were presenting another so-called "hot musical revue" and not a full musical comedy play with a complete book story with comedy, romance and unusual song and dance production numbers, which is contained in "Rhythm Town."

Mrs. J.T. Gipson's Candid Comments

(The column this week is being penned by our faithful secretary, Beulah).

Dear Mrs. G:—Knowing how you feel about a lota things we thought we'd sorta take over for you this week and let you relax . . . In spite of them letting you down just when you needed them most . . . "The Johnny Otis Band" opened this week at the Orpheum theatre with a bang! !, the bang being the great way in which they were received . . . of course the King Cole Trio as usual provided the same downright solid entertainment which always knocks us out and that chick Tina Dixon always gasses us . . . in other words G.G. we think the show provides one hour of fast moving entertainment . . . It was a dirty low down trick, that deal, that was pulled on your friend Artie Graves . . . you know, I mean about some thug stealing his car, money and practically all of his clothes . . . he must be jealous of the guy . . . Say boss! what was Allen of Snooks and Allen doing so much beefing the other day, bad enough having them disappoint you without him wanting everyone to know that he is a (professional dancer) and oh! ! "sirch langwich" . . . Clarence Muse, we understand, is readying the opening of his ranch in Elsinore and he's callin it "Muse Awhile" it gonna be a good deal (in every sense of the word . . . Aside to Prince Spencer: And we called "you" a Buddy!!! . . . Mrs. G. in spite of you mentioning something about not exactly liking the new style of the Flennoy Trio, I know you'll hate seeing them leave the show at the Club Alabam. Understand they opened Monday at "The Streets of Paris" . . . Did Floyd Ray mention to you about his great plans and also work he has for that group of Teenagers he's working with? . . . Believe me G. G. when I tell you he has some kids in there that can out-blow many horn-tooters I've heard . . . Chatted with the charming Mrs. Wright from the "windy city" who is here on a vacation list, she's a friend of your ole pal, Floyd Snelson, who is now in the Big Apple . . . Whatta you think about that well-known sportsman who spells his last name "$mith" who wants to invest $1500 in Jimmy Smith, wants to have a short made of him but whether he invests or not Jimmy's act is definitely headed for big time stuff, don't you agree boss? . . . We heard Gene Rogers talking with you the other nite at the Jamboree. If a lota other show people had that real, sincere attitude of his, they couldn't help but climb that ladder fast . . . Gee! we think he's "great" in every sense of the word and that goes for his pretty wife Velma too . . . Speaking of people whom we know you appreciate and who you'll go out on the limb for ANYDAY . . . we'll include Ford. Harris and Jones and The Trehier Twins . . . Sonny Howard and his capable lawyer, Walter Gordon, won their case and now the D.A. investigators have moved right in on the case . . . We know you agree G. G. when we say that Eddie Beale and his swingphonic Four are definitely worth writing about . . . Pretty Velma Miles Plummer won't be in the Big Apple for the big fight but will give up her penthouse and come back to the coast . . . Joe (Smoke-rings) Harris is now the congenial host at the Jungle Room along with Taps Harris, the proprietor, and Walter Hawkins . . . In the Rose Room the other even'g I overheard this, tee, hee: "Who do you think you are Santa Claus?" Why, no! ! "Then leave my stockings alone! . . . IMPORTANT: If anyone can get in touch with Buck Clayton immediately . . . please contact this column at once, because of the serious illness of his mother, his family is trying to locate him . . . Johnice Graves will in a few months be "preacher hunting" . . . If its soft lights . . . frantic drinks, and a groovy atmosphere, then its Nelson Creswell's Spot you're speaking of . . . Sudden Thawt: The tonsil tickling of Sonny Woods is ultra! ultra! ! meaning oh, so great . . . The Lincoln theatre we understand will bring back that funny man "Pigmeat Markham" and start booking big name bands . . . the theatre is now under new management . . . If you're looking for the "regular crowd" after-hours and you can't seem to locate them . . . then run down to Stuff Crouch and his Backstage Club . . . They'll all be right there . . . Say G. G. Harry Bigelow admits that "Man is the only animal that can be skinned more than once" . . . We wanta know why Lorenzo Flennoy gets so excited whenever he sees his name in your column . . . Your Unc Sid Dones is ill, he's suffering from "softening of the hearterries" . . . Saw Mack Pinkston the other even'g . . . says the only way to not make the column is to stay out of your sight . . . Sudden Thawt: Our sympathy to the man who comes home dog tired, only to find his wife feeling kittenish . . . I know you feel proud having friends like Wardell Robinson who always help out just when they are needed most . . . Well boss, I'm gonna bring the column to a close with this: its sorta nice to remember, every morning, when I leave my house, I say to myself, "Today I shall meet an impudent man, an ungrateful one, one who talks too much. It is natural and necessary that these men be thus; therefore do not be surprised." Bood bye now, your ever faithful sec.—Beulah.

Fields Tells How White Man Feels Playing in Negro Ork

CHICAGO—Whites and Negroes alike often refuse to believe that Lionel Hampton's ace alto sax man Herbie Fields is white simply because he plays—and lives with a colored orchestra and likes it.

"White Man in the Negro World" in the May issue of Negro Digest, reveals Herbie Fields' experiences as the first white musician ever to work a full year with a colored name band.

In his travels with Hamp's popular combination, Herbie has been Jim Crowed when the band was, and is a complainant in a suit now pending over refusal of a West Coast bar to serve him because "You're colored." Negroes think Herbie is colored because he always refuses to use "For White Only" facilities unless they are available for the entire orchestra.

Now Playing at United Artists

"The Spiral Staircase," which sparkles with class from every angle of its make-up—script, cast names, brilliant performances, direction and production mounting—is now playing at the United Artists Theater, 933 South Broadway, downtown Los Angeles. There is also a Walt Disney cartoon.

'Jo-Jo' Is New Alabam Singer

"Jo-Jo" the famous blues singer has invaded the Avenue and is being featured each night at the Club Alabam. He is the same Jo-Jo that won the blues contest against Wynonnie Harris and T-Bone Walker. Now he is one of the very best Broadway has to send to the coast. Be sure that you do not miss Jo-Jo. He's on all the shows given twice nightly.

The "Two Business Men of Rhythm" are still holding their own with their pair of dancing feet.

By public demand, the brilliant Jimmie Smith is a hold over with his marimba.

New dance music will greet you: Orville Cox and his combo have opened up with the new show. You will enjoy the sweet swing of the great aggregation. In all the Alabam Cafe has something to give you and beside the best in the entertainment field they give you service with a smile from Oklen Levy to each waitress. Curtis Mosby, the well-liked manager and owner, is on hand to greet you and see that each member of your party is a pleased patron. Make the Club Alabam on your rounds. 4215 S. Abrams Brings 'Rhythm Town' To Santa Barbara In June

OXNARD, Calif.—Plans are underway to present the much talked-about musical production, "Rhythm Town," formerly known as "Jump, Jive 'n' Jam," in a grand opening at Santa Barbara next month, according to E. Richard "Dick" Abrams, president of the Dick Abrams Amusement Enterprises, of Oxnard, Calif.

"Our organization has made plans to underwrite the staging of this production in Santa Barbara's largest theatre," said Mr. Abrams this week. "Our directors decided to take this step as a means of assisting the authors in getting this fine musical before the public."

The Dick Abrams Enterprises is one of Southern California's leading promotional setups. The unit specializes in promoting musical events and leading theatrical artists in the smaller towns and communities throughout the Southland area.

Dick Abrams, its founder and president, is one of Oxnard's leading citizens. Former member of the original Lafayette Players, Mr. Abrams is president of the local NAACP branch and is owner and operator of the Hotel Abrams and the Times Square Gift Shop in the heart of this town's main business district.

'Jamboree' Is Great Success

The "Midnight Benefit Jamboree" staged at the Club Alabam last week was a pronounced success, according to Mrs. Gertrude Gipson, chairman. The club was crowded from front to back and Mrs. Gipson wishes to apologize to those who bought tickets and were unable to find seats.

As a result of the dance Carver junior high school was presented with a sizable check which completed payments on an organ for the school. Thanks again to all who attended and contributed to this worthy cause.

Show-stoppers of the "Jamboree" were comedians Ford, Harris and Jones and the Trenier singing twins.

Hamptone Records Is Termed Going Concern

NEW YORK—Marking the first time that Negroes have launched a record company equipped to offer competition to any of the major wax firms, Mrs. Gladys Hampton, announced this week that Hamptone Records is now a going concern.

Mrs. Hampton, wife of the dynamic band leader, Lionel Hampton, who is rated the biggest box office attraction in the swing world, heads the new label and stated the disc firm has a three-fold purpose.

"I feel," she said, "no great effort has been put forth by the major firms to give proper attention to Negro performers. Today, records have been the making of the majority of our new bands and singers. We intend to give many more an outlet to prove themselves.

"Not only will we specialize in hot jazz and swing, but also in the classicals and other varied forms of folk music. Hamptone in time will offer employment to young men and women interested in the technical and distributing side of the game," she concluded.

Russell Daville Scores at IFRG

Russell Daville, sensational young folk singer, scored at the IFRG cocktail party sponsored by the International Film and Radio Guild Saturday evening with an unusual presentation of socially significant songs.

Daville, a native of Martinique, recently recorded four numbers for Alco Records, 8913 Sunset Blvd., which seem destined to become best sellers of the first rank.

They are "Trouble, Trouble," "Cal-i-for-nia," "Mi Dinero" and a French number, "Ile des Amoureaux."

This marks Daville's first recording effort and already the sales are approaching record proportions. Heavy demand is coming from representatives of liberal and other civic groups before whom Daville has appeared during the last several months.

He leaves this week for New York for extended engagements.

SHE'S STILL A DREAM

Merle Oberon was christened Estelle Merle O'Brien Thompson. She adopted Oberon from "A Midsummer Night's Dream."

'Jubilee' Again Scores Heavily

The program "Jubilee" from NBC, which is emceed by the personable Ernest Whitman, scored another tremendous hit last Monday when Mr. Whitman rounded up Earl "Fatha" Hines and orchestra, which scores heavily, Peggy Lee, blonde singer; the Les Paul Trio, Rickey Jordan, and the Town Criers for duty on the Armed Service program.

Hines was good with arrangements on "Rosetta" and "Symphony," both vocalized by Lord Essex, and "Why Was I Born," sung by a great new discovery Art Walker, who also plays a fine trumpet. The program lasted a full hour.

You may live to fight another day if you fight and run away, but it doesn't add to your reputation.

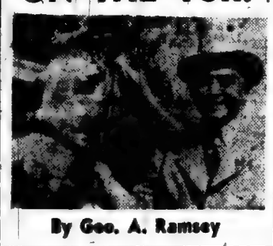
ON THE TURF



By Geo. A. Ramsey

HIPODROMO DE TIJUANA—Carrying 126 pounds and with little Jockey Cassity loaded down with lead, Golstreworth, the Canadian champion, son of the famous Papworth-Gold Streak II, won the Coronado handicap last Sunday from some of the best sprinters on the grounds and established himself as the possible favorite for the ten grand Tijuana handicap to be run this Sunday. Although the distance will be a mile and one-quarter as compared with the seven furlongs he traveled last Sunday. Taking the lead at the break he won by a neck in a brilliant finish, paying in the mutuels the good price of $8.80 for $2. Air Glory was second and Spring Drift third. The former sprint queen, Miss Laurella, whom the public made a slight favorite in the race, finished fifth.

Count Mio made every post a winning one on the turf course although he had to be hard ridden to stave off the challenge of Valiant Boy, but lasted to win by a nose, paying $7.00.

The longshot players had something to shout about in the eighth race when 10 year old Silver Horn won, with Jockey M. O'Halloran riding his first winner on any track. Silver Horn paid $62.80. The best the form-players could do was to click with three favorites out of 12 races.

The daily double paid $20.60 when High Ace won the second and Wise Fox the third. The quiniela payoff returned its backers $45.60 when Patched Pants and Muscatel ran one-two.

All in all race fans witnessed some very exciting finishes where only the camera could pick the winner.

This Sunday General Manager Agustin Silveyra will be host to one of the biggest crowds of the season as the feature attraction, the Tijuana handicap with an added value of $10,000 at 1¼ miles will be run. Invaders from Bay Meadows and Hollywood Park will try to reap gold and glory from the home town steeds. No passes will be good this Sunday. See you there.

So-Long, GEORGE.

OF CABBAGES AND KINGS

By Vaughn Platzer

Hot fashion tip for the ladies: Gowns in ANN SHERIDAN'S new wardrobe are either all black or dead white. On Ann they're colorful . . . In a scene for "Clock and Dager" at Warner Bros., LILLI PALMER, a fragile beauty armed with a heavy knife, was supposed to knock out actor RAY SPIKER, formerly heavyweight champion of the U. S. Marines. She did! ! ! Studio had to adjust Mr. Spiker's pay, upwards . . . Technicolor breakfast sequence in "Life With Father," took 11 full days to film . . . and WM. POWELL, who appeared therein and throughout says that he is now "replete with ham." . . . BETTE DAVIS, acording to script, wil be kissed 27 times in "Deception"; 26 to be administered by PAUL HENREID; CLAUDE RAINS smears her lipstick once. . . . GEORGE RAFT'S real life pal, MACK GRAY, will be his screen pal again in "Nocturne." Tough guy JOHN GARFIELD is arising at 6 a.m. these days to feed his new daughter her breakfast bottle. It's the only time he can talk to the gal, due to the heavy production schedule of his current Warner Bros. film "Humoresque." RICHARD CORTEZ, who is resuming his acting career in "What Nancy Wanted" after several years of directing, is the only actor ever to be billed above GRETA GARBO in one of her pictures.

OUTSTANDING STAR—Here's rugged Dane Clark who was voted the winner in a national magazine's nationwide theatre poll. Playing the role of a two-fisted newspaper columnist, Clark may be seen in his newest hit, Warner Bros. "Her Kind of Man" in which he co-stars with Zachary Scott and Janis Paige which opens Friday, May 10, at Warners Hollywood, Downtown and Wiltern theatres.

"HOLLYWOOD BANDSTAND"—Bill Anson, new disc jockey for KFWB, arrives here from Chicago Friday. He will be heard on the program, "Hollywood Bandstand," starting on May 20, which will be heard from 11 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. every week day.

SCREENODDITY

Zachary Scott, who learned to ride before he could walk on the Texas cattle ranch of his grandfather, is cast as a "city slicker" in Warner Bros.' "Cheyenne," rides a gentle old mare and falls off practically every time the aged equine sneezes.

FOR THE BOOK

The cowboys, the hero, the heroine and most of the name cast in Warner Bros.' current outdoor epic, "Cheyenne," were not only sunburned, but seriously so, during the first day's shooting out of doors!

Order Second Execution of Youth for Today

ST. MARTINVILLE, La.—More humane than a Southern court which condemned a 17 year old youth to die, an electric chair refused its victim after he had been strapped in and the switch thrown.

The condemned youth, Willie Francis, squirmed and jumped as much as the straps would permit as the current was applied. But when the current was turned off, he was still alive. He had a little difficulty in breathing, but otherwise showed no ill effects.

Ignoring the question as to whether another attempt could legally be made to execute the youth, Gov. James Davis has ordered that another attempt be made on May 9 (today).

Francis was sentenced to die for the slaying of a white St. Martinville druggist.

Sheriff Leonard Resweber, in charge of the execution, was unable to account for the chair's failing.

Powerful New Group to Pep Up Drive for FEPC, Push Fight On Fascists

NEW YORK—Abolition of the Wood-Rankin Un-American Activities Committee, establishment of a permanent FEPC and defeat of the Case Bill were set as three of the immediate campaigns of the newly-formed Civil Rights Congress in a continuations committee session here following a two-day conference in Detroit. (An exclusive report of the Detroit meeting was published in last week's EAGLE).

To aid in ending terror against Negroes and protecting the fight of Southern labor to organize, the Congress will also undertake to join in the defense of five Negro unionists in Little Rock, Ark., now appealing long prison terms, and drives for investigation and prosecution of police officials involved in violence against Negroes in Columbia, Tenn., Freeport, L. I., and other cities.

Honorary co-chairmen of the new congress, which is made up of labor, farm, educational, religious and other groups, are Dr. Harry F. Ward, former professor at Union Theological seminary, and Dr. Benjamin Mays, president of Morehouse college, Atlanta, Ga.

Establishment of a board of 85, representing various groups throughout the country is underway by the continuations committee, which has named George Marshall, chairman of the National Federation For Constitutional Liberties, as chairman of the board of the new organization. The committee will meet again in New York on May 11 to complete the oragnization of the Civil Rights Congress.

A coordinating center for existing civil rights organizations and other groups, the congress will absorb organizations such as the National Federation for Constitutional Liberties and the International labor Defense. The Detroit Civil Rights Federation and the Chicago Civil Liberties Committee will be directly affiliated branches of the Congress and the New York Conference on Civil Rights is expected to join as the New York branch. Plans to establish similar community organizations in Los Angeles, Seattle, Texas and other states are now underway.

Milton Kaufman was elected by the continuations committee to be executive director of the new Congress. Louis Coleman and Milton Kemnitz will also serve on the Congress executive staff. Headquarters of the new national organization are 205 East 42nd street, New York, N.Y.

Electrical Union Would Arbitrate;

The CIO United Electrical Workers Union, Local 1421, this week announced its acceptance of the proposal of six California congressmen that the issues of the 116-day strike at U. S. Motors be submitted to arbitration. The company has made no response to date.

The proposal for arbitration of the strike was made by Representatives Ellis E. Patterson, Helen Gahagan Douglas, Clyde G. Doyle, Ned Healy, Chester A. Holifield and Cecil King.

Bowron Asked to Appoint Negro to Police Commission

Mayor Fletcher Bowron this week was requested to appoint a qualified Negro to the Los Angeles Police Commission. The request was made by the Elks' Civil Liberties League and the Community Political Action Council following the resignations of E. N. Martin, president of the commission, and Pegram Whitworth with a third possible resignation of Van N. Griffith.

Under separate communications to the mayor by the two organizations, the problem of police brutality and its present serious state was pointed out to him. It was also pointed out that Negro and Mexican citizens are the special victims of police brutality.

The Elks Ballroom is used for presenting "name bands" in Los Angeles.

GET 3 WAY RELIEF FOR YOUR MISERIES

Penetro applied to the chest and back helps to break up local congestion.
Medication gets into skin and relieves pain at nerve ends. You feel better.
Vapors help you breathe easier, at phlegm loosens, coughing lessens.

Lucky for you this 3 way relief is ready to help you. For colds are raging all around now. So when a cold gets your chest muscles tight and aching, sore from coughing, and you feel "choked up", get Penetro. It works fast on Grandma's old reliable idea, using mutton suet to help carry medication to do its local pain-easing. Only Penetro is Grandma's idea made even better by science. That's why people everywhere count on Penetro.

You rub Penetro on chest, throat and back. As its medication reaches nerve ends in the skin, pain eases. And Penetro draws more warm rich blood to those parts faster, to help break up local congestion. Right then, chest muscle tightness, soreness, are relieved and distressing muscular aches and pains are eased. Phlegm loosens, sore throat, hoarseness and coughing lessens. That "all in" feeling disappears. Its soothing vapors help you breathe easier, too. And for hours, Penetro keeps on working in a natural way to make you feel better. You rest more comfortably, especially at night.

These are the reasons so many people everywhere are using Penetro, and why your druggist so often recommends it—only 25c, double supply 35c.

In Memoriam

In memory of our loving mother and grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Edwards, who passed eight years ago, May 9, 1938.

"Eight years have passed since that sad day; that called the one we loved away. Forget no, we never will, for in our heart she liveth still. The blow was great, the shock severe. We little thought the end was near. And only we who knew her well, can of the parting tell. She bade no one a last farewell, she said goodbye to none. The heavenly gates were open wide. A gentle voice said 'come.'

"Her loving face is ever enshrined within our heart. Her soul to God. Her memory to us. Rest dear one!"

Her devoted daughters, sons and grandchildren, Mrs. Cora Spencer, Jennie Fora and family.

Christian Science Topic 'Adam and Fallen Man'

"As in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive." This statement of Paul to the Corinthians will be the Golden Text of the Sunday Lesson-Sermon on "Adam and Fallen Man" in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston.

The Lesson-Sermon includes this Bible citation from Genesis: "And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth. So God created man in his own image, . . . And God saw every thing that he had made, and, behold, it was very good . . . . Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them."

"In Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" Mary Baker Eddy says, "All that is made is the work of God, and all is good. We leave this brief, glorious history of spiritual creation (as stated in the first chapter of Genesis) in the hands of God, not of man, in the keeping of Spirit, not matter,—joyfully acknowledging now and forever God's supremacy, omnipotence, and omnipresence."

BIBLE QUESTIONS ANSWERED BY THE VOICE of PROPHECY
INTERNATIONAL BIBLE BROADCASTER

Question—Is China mentioned in the Bible?

Answer—Not as "China," but it is thought by some that the "land of Sinim" in Isaiah 49:12 refers to China. "Behold, these shall come from far: and, lo, these from the north and from the west; and these from the land of Sinim."

Q.—What is the best way to learn how to be saved?

A.—Study the Scriptures, which contain all knowledge necessary to salvation. 2 Timothy 3:15: "And that from a child thou hast known the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus." (See John 5:39.)

Q.—I know Christ was divine, but was He really a man too?

A.—He was. "And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth." John 1:14. "And being found in fashion as a man, He humbled Himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross." Philippians 2:8. Read also Hebrews 2:14, 16, 17.

Q.—Don't you think the devil mentioned in the Bible is just a bad thought?

A.—How bad would thoughts have to be to drive two thousand hogs to suicide at one time? (Mark 5:1-16.) In Matthew 25:41 we read of "fire prepared for the devil and his angels." In Luke 4:5 it is said that the devil took Jesus up into a high mountain. James 2:19 tell us that the devils believe in God. All these texts indicate personality.

Q.—Is the Holy Spirit divine, or just the good in society?

A.—The Holy Spirit is the third name with the Father and the Son in Matthew 28:19: "Baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost." ("Ghost" is the old English word for spirit.) The Holy Spirit is not the spirit of society, but the Spirit of God and of Christ (Romans 8:9) and proceeds from the Father in the name of Christ (John 15:26; 14:26). He has creative power (Psalm 104:30); power to raise the dead (Romans 8:11).

DR. ZETAR SAYS:

Our methods attack the basic cause of many common ailments. Backache and joint pains and most of the rheumatics, such as neuritis, lumbago, rheumatism, arthritis, neuralgia and sciatica, etc., are due to joint distortions or toxemia, therefore, unless the basic cause of these ailments are treated only temporary relief can be accomplished.

It is no illusion with me after years of successful practice, but it is a scientific fact, based on exact observation and correct thinking that Chiropractic treatments do bring wonderful results, especially in the rheumatics, joint-distortions, nerve and circulatory disorders and most of the gastro-intestinal ailments; also Dr. Zetar has specialized in the correction of Foot Disabilities for many years, so if you are in need of FOOT COMFORT, why suffer, when there are tried and proven methods of treatments to help you. You will not go wrong to consult us on these problems.

THE SCRAPBOOK OF LIFE

From Ed V. Durling's column we picked up this bit of history. The Story of Casey Jones. "Wallace Saunders, a Negro worker at the Canton roundhouse of the Illinois Central Railroad, was the composer of the song 'Casey Jones.'

"Saunders always sang while working and made up his own songs. He knew Casey Jones, the engineer, well. This inspired him to make up a song about the now celebrated accident in which Jones was involved.

"This he sang around the roundhouse. It had such a strong appeal it was soon being sung by railroad workers throughout the South. It was never printed and consequently never copyrighted. Therefore, though the song became one of the greatest hits of all time, Saunders never profited from it financially."

Street Scenes: Mae Johnson, sepia sultry siren currently appearing in the farce, "Two in a Bed," dashing across Jefferson boulevard to her coupe. Willie Best, film comic, loping like a jackrabbit to the City Hall to make the City of Angels two dollars richer for parking too long.

Thomas M. Southern and Bee Alton Davison with a face full of smiles after presenting Ronald Reagan, film actor, with an American Veterans Committee's Award on the Warner lot as pretty Alexis Smith watched.

Pretty Artie Brandon Reed, fresh in from Frisco, along with Foster Johnson, planning their show routine for the reopening of the Finale Club on First street. . . . Lillian Cumbers dashing to get out the next edition of her magazine.

Sights to See: Jimmy Smith out at the Club Alabam. Here is a guy that is most unique. Jimmy plays the Lionel Hamphones or marimba, if you wish, with his feet. I mean he gets on top and dances and plays a tune. Along with seeing Olivera street —add Jimmy Smith to your list.

I met Jimmy Smith about 15 years ago. He is still the same quiet Jimmy. He has fallen in love with Los Angeles and has moved his family here.

We know that few Negroes in Los Angeles and environs have not heard of Judge John Beardsley of the Superior Court.

And we know that no one who has consistently read this column has not been apprised of the integrity of Superior Judge John Beardsley.

He was among the first to place a Negro officer in his court room. First there was Arthur Adams and later James Polk. Polk, as you may know, has the Ceneral avenue strip beat as a police officer for the City of Los Angeles.

Then along came the great Earl J. We have been in the courtroom of this wonderful man for over two years. We have had a chance to be with him—to get to know him and to love him. We have met his family. And his family definitely is a chip off the old block. His wife is a member of the executive board of the American Civil Liberties Union. The judge, his wife, his sons, his daughters-in-law and his grandchildren are all great Americans. We mean that in the sense of the constitution. John Beardsley devoted his whole life to upholding the principles of the American constitution.

John Beardsley is absolutely devoid of racial, religious and national origin prejudices.

We are telling you this because he is being attacked — simply because of this. We hope that the readers of this column will not forget who their friend is—if he ever needs your support.

The sheriff now has seven sepia sheriffs in the criminal division, main office. The county has employed two colored electricians and a carpenter. Thought you would like to know.

NAACP Starts Probe Of Discrimination At Mountain Resort

Investigation of discrimination at Lytle Creek Canyon, near Rialto, had been begun this week by the Los Angeles Branch of the NAACP following the complaint of two Los Angeles couples that they had been refused service at the mountain resort.

The case was taken up with the NAACP by Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson R. Ammons, 4027 Woodlawn avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Amato, 1221 S. Elva Ave.

"We laid this before the NAACP because we feel that it is a violation of civil rights which is all too prevalent, and which ought to be stopped as soon as possible," said Mrs. Amato.

"Negro and white picnic parties have enjoyed the canyon in the past with no friction whatever," she added.

Elks Appoint New Education Director

Prof. W. A. Payne, educator, of El Centro, Calif., was recently appointed director of education for the seventh regional district of Improved Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks of the World, replacing James M. Etewart, who resigned.

PROF. W. A. PAYNE

Payne was presented with his commission by grand traveling deputy of western states R. Bentley Strather, assisted by the grand district deputy of Southern California, John C. Lewis, at a recent meeting of the Past Exalted Rulers Council No. 41, where nine lodges with their representatives were present. Golden West Lodge No. 86 acted as host.

Crippling of OPA Would Destroy People's Savings, Wreck Vet. Housing Program

WASHINGTON—If price controls are removed too soon, the resultant inflation would destroy the savings of the people, Secretary of the Treasurer Fred S. Vinson warned the senate banking and currency committee yesterday.

Shortly after Vinson had testified in favor of continuing OPA without crippling amendments, Wilson W. Wyatt, housing expediter, took a similar position. The discarding of price controls, he said, would place the entire veterans emergency housing program "in serious jeopardy."

In the opinion of the committee chairman, Senator Wagner (D-NY) such testimony, coupled with mail and wires from back home, is softening the attitude of the committee toward OPA. Other observers, however, stressed the need of continued protest from the people and their organizations if OPA is to be saved.

Griggs Appointed to Carver Co. Board

Ulysses S. Griggs, Los Angeles insurance man for more than 16 years, recently was appointed to the board of directors of the $5,000,000 Carver National Life Insurance company. Griggs has worked in various capacities with a local insurance company throughout his career.

Commenting on the appointment, C. O. English, vice-president of the Carver company, said: "No finer appointment could have been made than that of Mr. Griggs." Griggs and English were personally associated in the insurance business for more than a decade.

The appointment of Griggs comes on the eve of the company's complete financial qualification with the state insurance department and brings to eight the number of Southern California directors.

Home offices of this steadily progressing firm are in Oakland. The Los Angeles office, headed by C. O. English, is located at 1895 W. Jefferson boulevard.

Stock in the firm is still available to individuals or organizations and is recommended by numerous present stockholders as a wise investment.

Griggs, English and Dr. Charles L. Ennis spent last week end in San Diego completing arrangements for a mass meeting stock sales rally in that city on or about May 24 to make it possible for residents there to procure shares.

Burglary Nets Apple, Dollar

Mrs. Ida M. Dades, 4205 South Wall street, drove a friend out to Beverly Hills to look at the sights Sunday night and while she was absent burglars took the opportunity to enter and look over her beautiful home. The intruder or intruders entered via a bedroom window about 9:30 p.m.

One of Mrs. Dades' tenants in a rear apartment returning home early probably caused the thieves to beat a hasty retreat, leaving a broken padlock upon an alley gate as evidence as to the method of departure. Net loss: a one dollar bill, an apple garnered from the Frigidaire and two miniature bottles of whiskey.

Wyatt Assures Negro Vets Fair Share in Housing If Cities Curb Restrictions

By CONRAD CLARK

WASHINGTON—Wilson W. Wyatt, national housing expediter and administrator of the National Housing Agency this week said that "every effort will be wade to assure Negro veterans and veterans of other minority groups equal considerations under the Veterans Emergency Housing Program."

The aim of the program is to construct 2,700,000 low and medium cost homes and apartments for veterans and their families by the end of 1947.

"The Federal Public Housing Authority has adopted and is pursuing definite policies and procedures regarding occupancy by Negro and other minority group veterans in temporary reuse housing under the Veterans Emergency Housing Program," said Wyatt.

Approximately one million Negroes, nearly one-tenth of the Negro population of the country, served in the armed forces during World War II.

These veterans must return to old neighborhoods that now are crowded or find new living space.

"Because of neighborhood resistance and restrictions upon the use of land, new home sites for Negroes are often difficult to acquire," Wyatt continued. "During the war these restrictions often delayed and sometimes completely blocked private and public efforts to produce housing for essential Negro war workers. An early solution of this problem is required if the Veterans Emergency Housing Program is to succeed in providing needed homes for Negro veterans. Cities have been asked to make special efforts to provide sites for Negro housing."

"The problem of adequate housing for Negro veterans cannot be solved by the Veterans Emergency Housing Program alone.

A long range program such as envisioned by the Wagner-Ellender-Taft Bill is needed to encourage private enterprise to build housing for minority groups, to aid communities in providing public housing for the lowest income groups which cannot be served profitably by private enterprise and to assist cities in clearing slums and blighted areas and assembling land for low cost housing," Wyatt concluded.

Charge U.S. Britain Aid Nazis

Col. James F. Carlon of marine raiders fame and Singer Paul Robeson, co-chairmen of the National Committe to Win the Peace, yesterday issued a joint statement in commemoration of V-E Day, calling for complete fulfillment of denazification agreements included in the Potsdam declaration.

The statement charged that Britain and the United States were not carrying out the Big Three pledge but were actually giving aid to "conservative and reactionary German political forces which under Hitler collaborated with the Nazi regime," and at the same time seeking "to discourage the unity and freedom of action of the genuine anti-fascist forces of Germany."

Business World Is Told, Reform or Die

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. — Eric Johnston, retiring president of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, this week warned American capitalism is must reform, recognize human values, put men above machines, or face extinction.

"I say to you in deadly seriousness," Johnston said, "we in business must liberalize or face the threat of economic liquidation. The law of life applies, adapt or die. We can't run away from destiny down some secluded rabbit trail."

'Free Membership' The Bunk, Say Two Chamber Leaders

That offer of free membership in the Eastside Chamber of Commerce became a moot question this week when two officers of the local body popped up to challenge, deny and deride a statement given to the press last week by another officer to the effect that all and sundry could join the organization free of charge.

The "free membership" offer was made in a statement released to the press by E. Jay Bullock, new president of the chamber. It was vigorously denied this week in another statement to the press, issued this time by Secretary-Manager Leroy R. Ingram and Field Secretary Robert G. La Mar, who said Bullock's release "was not properly channeled for publication and lacked the approval of the executive committee."

Last Rites For Paul Abrams, 71

Final rites were held Saturday afternoon at the Angelus Funeral Home for Paul Abrams, 71, a resident of Los Angeles for 42 years.

Abrams, a 32nd degree Mason and well known in civic circles, died Monday night, April 29, in the arms of his wife, Eva, at their home, 1606 East Santa Barbara avenue. Two children, Lucile and Paul Jr., also were at the bedside.

Abrams was born July 15, 1875, at San Antonio, Texas, one of nine children born to Virginia and Samuel Abrams Sr.

Among the survivors are two brothers, Edward (Dick) Abrams, former member of the famed Lafayette Players and now a prominent merchant in Oxnard, Calif., and Leonard Abrams, a resident in London and Paris for 22 years, now in business in San Francisco.

Abrams also is survived by 42 nieces and nephews living in the state of California at the present time.

OUR GUIDING STAR

The secret of a successful existence are lofty objectives. If we live for small things alone we shall be trifling people. If we strive for uplifting and constructive aims they will make us glorious. The commonest intellect becomes great if inspired with a brilliant ambition.

The star of destiny glows by night and day, and leads to greater sacrifices and mightier endeavors. Remember there is nothing so paralyzing as the spirit of self-complacency. Nothing so important as to have an object in view big enough to keep us from ever resting short of doing our very best.

Dear Prof. Herman: I never gave much thought to my Lucky Stars and Guiding Planet until a few days ago. And then I decided to write you for my Horoscope, and to my surprise the information that this wonderful reading consisted of was so interesting and true that I have decided to obtain a large reading for the year. Thanks again for the answer to my questions, your honest and frank opinions are certainly appreciated. Sincerely, R. B.

A. B. W.—Will I get an answer soon?

Ans.—It seems to me that the reply for which you are anxiously waiting will be delayed due to a misunderstanding, but it will not take long to get everything straightened out. Just be patient.

M. A.—Can you give me any information regarding the man I met last September?

Ans.—Probing into the matter I find that you met this sailor on a train last September and have been corresponding with him ever since. In his letters to you he conveyed his love and promised to see you when he was discharged. But up to this time you haven't heard anything, and you are wondering if he has married someone, and dismissed the entire affair. I would rather answer this question privately, as it seems to me that O. G., has treated the matter a little too lightly. I suggest you write in for a private reply at your earliest convenience.

Mrs. W. P.—Dear Sir: I am a constant reader of your column and would like for you to help me regarding this matter. Will I receive anything from the policy?

Ans.—It seems to me that you should investigate this matter more thoroughly. It depends upon who your sister named as the beneficiary, and if this person can be found, etc., as to whether you will receive anything from the policy. I suggest you do so at once.

L. S.—Will I ever be happy?

Ans.—Your Lucky Stars and Guiding Planet indicate your finding happiness and companionship in the very near future. Since your friend of long standing fails to show the proper respect and affection, then you should find someone else that will. You have spent ten years of your life trying to make him happy and doing everything you can to bring about a better understanding and feeling, and he still seems to take you for granted and treat you without the proper respect due you. It is time you devoted your time to someone that would appreciate it.

B. B. R.—The nature of your question requires a private reply. And in the meantime I also suggest that you and your wife consult a good physician for an examination at once.

L. A. Leads State in Social Disease—Uhl

According to George H. Uhl, city health officer, Los Angeles had more syphilis and gonorrhea in 1945 than the rest of California.

Although Los Angeles has only 20.4 per cent of the state's population, it contributed 37.6 percent of syphilis and 29.4 per cent of gonorrhea, Dr. Uhl said. "It is right here in Los Angeles," he stated, "that California's main battle against venereal disease be fought."

"Statewide results," continued Dr. Uhl, "showed that there was an increase in 1945 of venereal cases in juvenile and young adult groups."

by c. a. b.

AFTER A BUSY day at the Los Angeles City College attending the "Win the Peace Conference," a Mother's Day feast, and a visit to Willowbrook witnessing the launching of a cultural club headed by Mrs. St. Clair Amarto, my most pleasant, highly instructive Sunday revery ran into a mental headon collision Monday morning. It came in the form of an announcement that "Ku Klux Klan or its counterpart struck in Los Angeles last night using a flaming cross as its sign of terrorism."

The cross burned on the front lawn of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Hickerson, at 134 West 56th St.

The Hickersons are a quiet, hardworking couple. By the sweat of their labor they purchased the home on West 56th Street, and they live according to the rule of good, decent American citizens.

Some months ago Mr. and Mrs. Hickerson reported to the Home Protective Association, of which they are members, that they had been threatened with "ouster proceedings on the "restrictive covenant" plan. The organization advised them to sit tight.

What can be done about this Ku Klux uprising?

Well, here is what has happened in New York. "Legal action to dissolve the Ku Klux Klan which showed signs of revival in New York State recently, was begun on April 29th by the State's Attorney General Nathaniel Goldstein."

Denouncing the "mere existence" of the K.K.K. as a "constant menace," he obtained an order from Supreme Court Justice Benjamin F. Schreiber starting proceedings to revoke the charter of the Knights and Women of the Ku Klux Klan.

Robert W. Kenny, State's Attorney General of California, has struck a withering blow at the Klan in the State of California. Let us, the people of the Golden State, support "Bob" Kenny in his efforts to rid the State of all such organizations that threaten our peace and our security as a united nation, as does the Ku Klux Klan.

New York has declared that it will dissolve the Klan's charter. California must do likewise.

All the people, whites and Negroes, gave too much and freely in the two world wars to submit willingly and supinely to such brutal attacks as those at Big Bear, Fontana, and now the

Drowned Man Victim Of Gang-up Attack By White Navy Men

SAN DIEGO (NPB)—The mysterious death by drowning of Alton Collier, following his disappearance over the side of a ferry the evening of April 27, is as yet unsolved.

Collier, an employe on the "millionaire" island of Coronado, was one of two Negroes on the ferry boat "Coronado" while the vessel, owned by J. D. and A. D. Spreckels, wealthy sugar tycoons, was en route through the inland channel waters from Coronado to San Diego.

About 30 other passengers outside the crew were aboard. Most of the travelers were navy per-

'Executed' Youth Wins Reprieve; Fight Planned

ST. MARTINVILLE, La.—Bowing partially to nation-wide protests against a second attempt to execute 17-year-old Willie Francis, following failure of the first attempt, Acting Gov. Emile Verret has granted the youth a 3 day reprieve.

Verret acted upon the request of State Chief Justice Charles O'Neil. In New Orleans, a spokesman for the court told the press, "In view of the many legal angles, we asked the governor to delay the execution to give us time to study the case."

The move for postponement originated with Attorney Bertrand Deblanc, discharged war veteran, who took Francis' case on the eve of the scheduled second execution which was set for last Thursday.

Deblanc's line of defense was indicated in a statement he made to the governor over the telephone, in which he pointed out that the condemned youth "walked up to the jail on the day of the execution, sat down in the chair and never faltered. But the state fell down on its job.

Catholics To Ignore Cry Of 'Red' In Fight To Abolish Jim Crow

A report on the campaign for a state FEPC will be given by the Catholic Interracial Council Thursday evening, May 23, at a meeting at the Blessed Sacrament school, 6657 Sunset blvd., council secretary Angelo Cane announced yesterday.

The council's committee against restrictive covenants will also report on its work. Attorneys for the committee are requesting permission from the supreme court of California to file a brief attacking the restrictive covenants as unconstitutional in a series of cases, including the Laws family case, to be argued on the June calendar in Los Angeles.

The meeting will include a discussion of a preliminary survey of diversive tactics obstructing interracial justice, with particular reference to the practice, among reactionaries, of attacking as "Communistic" all progressive movements aimed at wiping out injustices and racial and religious hatreds. The survey on this aspect of the problem will say, in part:

"What a Communist should support as an objective of interracial justice should not deter the Catholic from supporting it also. Catholics should not be prevented from participating in an effort for interracial justice by the 'Red-baiting' cry of Communism."

Ed. Jones, Racket Head, Nabbed by Armed Men

(Special to the EAGLE)

CHICAGO — (Via Pacific Press Syndicate wire)— Chicago's Southside was thrown into a dither over the weekend when news broke of the kidnaping Edward P. (Ed) Jones, 48, one of the Jones brothers, well known sportsmen and businessmen of this city.

Although the rumor quickly spread that Jones, who is considered the "brains" of the policy racket combine headed by the brothers, had been slain by his abductors and his body found in Lake Michigan, this was quashed by police here.

At press time, no further news was reported by officers and no contact has been made with the family by the kidnapers, according to a spokesman for the family.

Authorities expressed themselves freely as of the opinion that a war by the old Capone mob for control of gambling in Chicago was the motive for the abduction.

Jones was kidnaped late Saturday night by four masked men, two with machine guns, who cut off a pursuing police squad with a blast of bullets.

Investigators further expressed belief Jones would be held until he agrees to relinquish his control of the number rackets or be killed.

A second theory was that the kidnapers were white men who were prison mates of Jones when he served 28 months in the Terre Haute, Ind. federal prison for income tax evasion and that they would try for a ransom.

Gerald Smith To Support Vandenberg

WASHINGTON—Gerald L. K. Smith this week announced he would support the candidacies of Senator Arthur Vandenberg (R-Mich.) Representatives Rankin (D-Miss.) and Hoffman (R-Mich.) for re-election.

Vanderberg, Rankin and Hoffman are only three of 121 candidates for the house and senate that the national director of the America First party is backing.

The candidates, 78 of whom are in the present congress, according to Smith, will be fully discussed at a "national congress" called for May 28 and 29 in St. Louis.

Some 68 organizations, all holding the same fascist views as the self-styled rabble-rouser, will be represented, he said.

AN EDITORIAL

Jack B. Tenney, reactionary Republican highlight and California State Senator, is scheduled to address the Young Republicans of Beverly Hills, Tuesday evening, May 23, 8 p.m., at the El Rodeo school auditorium. Mr. Tenney, head of the interium "Witch Hunt" Committee which has the Editor of the California EAGLE on its list, will speak on his pet subject, "Un-American Activities."

We wonder if Jack "Little Martin Dies" Tenney will take up, during the course of his address, the two most outstanding Un-American activities of the week, the KKK fiery cross-burning on Mr. and Mrs. Hickerson's front lawn and the reimbursement which the Chamber of Commerce has given to field workers in return for the promotion and encouragement of race restrictions in the Beverly Hills district.

This is an appeal to our Republican compatriots to attend this meeting and ask Mr. Tenney to give his stand on residential covenant restrictions, the Ku Klux Klan, the FEPC and the OPA.

These are the "at home" issues which concern us most! Somehow we are of the opinion that Stalin is quite capable of taking care of Russian affairs and that any communistic activities in the U.S.A. are far less harmful to our American way of life than the Ku Klux Klan, those who foster restrictive covenants and oppose OPA and FEPC.

How on God's green earth can any man—Republican, Democrat, Communist or Christian, talk about all men being created equal, when he has never lifted his voice to protest such national crimes as the poll tax, denial of equal rights and civil liberties and the unwritten lynch law? How can he convince, even a Beverly Hills group (bent on promoting covenant restrictions), that all men are created equal, even according to the reactionary Republican concept?

IT HAPPENED RIGHT HERE IN LOS ANGELES!

United Action to Be Mapped; Leng Home, Kenny Main Speakers

Angered by the appearance last Sunday night of a flaming cross on the front lawn of the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Hickerson, 134 West 56th street, defendants in a restrictive covenant case, community organizations promptly swung into action this week to demand that city and state authorities investigate this latest act of terrorism, afford the Hickerson family adequate protection.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Hickerson

Answering the Klan threat, the Home Protective Association called on the community to turn out en masse to the anti-Restrictive Covenant Rally at the People's Independent church, 18th and Paloma, Sunday at 8 p. m. to protest the outrage and push home the attack on housing restrictions and the undemocratic, terroristic forces behind this undemocratic practice. Hickerson will be one of the speakers at Sunday's rally.

The Los Angeles branch of the NAACP announced that it had contacted city officials and Attorney General Kenny's office to demand action, and would place its full resources behind the fight to crush this latest manifestation of Ku Klux terror. The People's Victory Committee also went into action, holding a protest meeting last Monday night.

Fifty percent of the 319 grocery stores in the Eastside shopping district were found, through a survey just completed by the local OPA Price Control Board 5.40, to be charging more than ceiling prices for the most popular canned fruits and vegetables, Mark Keyser, chairman of the board, announced today.

The survey covered canned green beans, corn, peas, toma-

Bel-Vue Group Wins Job Fight

Negro clerks will be hired in the grocery department of a new super market opening shortly at 120th street and Central avenue, as the result of a two months' campaign conducted by the Bel-Vue Improvement League, of which Mrs. Juanita Wilson is president.

The market is being opened by Van Markets Co., with offices on Gage street, near Vermont.

As soon as the plans for the new market were announced, the league, which includes most of the families in the section, got busy, interviewed officers of the company on the question of fair

Meet Cheers Kenny's Attack on Ku Kluxism; Urges Amity With USSR

Delegates from the liberal organizations of Los Angeles and vicinity who met at City College last Sunday afternoon in a Win-the-Peace Conference, applauded enthusiastically as Attorney-General Robert Kenny urged as determined an organization to win the peace as there was for victory during the war. They implemented their enthusiasm later by adopting resolutions that would internationalize atomic energy, grant complete independence to India, harden the breaking friendship with the Soviet Union, and destroy the remnants of Fascism which is rearing its head again in this country as well as in Europe and Asia.

"We are engaged in the last desperate struggle against Fascism," declared Attorney General Kenny. "It was the common people of England and the United States that saved the world from Fascism by winning the victory of World War II. All the peoples were eager, they came alive in their desire to sacrifice for democracy. But the war had scarcely ended when the race

Civil Rights Congress to Defend Framed Miss. Youth

NEW YORK—The fight to save the life of Willie McGee, 30 years old, of Laurel, Miss., who is under death sentence on a criminal assault, has been taken over by the newly-formed Civil Rights Congress, it was announced this week.

At the same time, Arnaud d'Usseau and James Gow, co-authors of "Deep Are The Roots," appealed for contributions to aid the CRC in the campaign.

Charged with assaulting a white woman whose only identification of her assailant was that he "had kinky hair and wore a sweatshirt," McGee was convicted, according to CRC officials, on the basis of an "unbelievable tale of rape without waking a child in the same bed, another in the same room and a husband in the next room."

McGee was given a brief sanity trial and sentenced in one day despite protests of court-appointed attorneys that there was not time to prepare a defense and that his physical condition was such that he was incapable of communicating with them. Sentenced to die in the chair, he was granted a stay of execution on appeal for a new trial.

"Willie McGee faces the electrical chair because he is a Negro— and because he lives in Mississippi," d'Usseau and Gow charged in their appeal for funds. "The cry of 'rape' has long been a rallying cry for lynchers, for those forces in America, who, through such terroristic methods, seek to keep white and Negro in subjection and divided. Here is a legal lynching—no less vicious, no less the result of inflamed race hatred."

ughes, Barthe, ooks Receive cademy Awards

EW YORK—Langston Hughes, ous poet and playwright; mmond Barthe, Mississippi- n sculptor, and Gwendolyn Brooks, young Chicago poetess, were among 23 persons selected by the National Institute of Arts and Letters and the American Academy of Arts and Letters to receive awards to be made jointly by the Institute and the Academy and presented at their annual ceremonial in New York on May 17.

The grants, which carry a cash prize of $1000 each, are awarded each year to young non-member artists as an aid to furthering their creative work and as tribute to past achievements.

Hughes' poetry is known throughout the world, having been translated into a dozen foreign languages. Since 1926 he has published eight books and has written many articles, stories and poems in various magazines. His novel, Not Without Laughter, has been published in Russia, England, France and China. He has written several plays, including "Mulatto," "Don't You Want to Be Free?" He is currently writing the lyrics for the Elmer Rice musical, "Street Scene," which is scheduled for a fall opening.

Barthe, one of America's best-known sculptors, a graduate of Chicago Art Institute, and a private pupil of Charles Schoeder, began his career as a painter in 1924, changed his medium to sculpture four years later.

Miss Brooks, with the publication of her book of poems, A Street in Bronzeville, has drawn much acclaim from the critics. Wrote William Rose Benet: ". . . the work of a remarkable poet, . . . her book, throughout, has dramatic vigor and unusually expressive phrase . . . she is saliently individual."

Fights Attempt To Railroad Teen Age Girl

SAN PEDRO—An attempted frame-up of a junior high school girl was brought into the open this week by a Communist party committee which is investigating charges of assault with a deadly weapon lodged against 13-year-old Maggie Jacquet by a white bus driver.

According to Maggie's story, she was trying to get on a tightly packed bus when an altercation arose between her and the bus driver. When he shoved her back and used abusive language, she jabbed him in the arm with a pencil, Maggie says.

The bus driver, Leonard R. Sullivan, called police and told them he had been stabbed with a knife. The San Pedro News-Pilot, local Scripps-Howard paper, spread the knife story on its front page. To date, the alleged knife has not been produced.

Maggie was taken to juvenile hall. After a pre-detention hearing before Judge A. A. Scott, she was ordered held for trial on June 22.

Merchant Marine Captain William Morel, head of the investigating committee, expressed the belief that the incident was provoked by racial discrimination. "The important thing here is to see that Maggie is not railroaded to reform school for trying to defend her rights and also to prevent any further incidents leading to racial antagonism," Morel said.

U. S. Official Praises Work Of Migrants in Saving Crops

CHARLOTTE, N. C.—With the start this week of the annual northward trek of nearly 50,000 Negro migrant laborers, the U.S. Department of Agriculture paid high tribute to these transient workers whose present migration means food for the hungry world.

Only with their help, say Department officials, could the growers of quick-ripening, quick-perishing crops hope to harvest and market their products.

"They sweep across the fields like a band of hungry locusts," said J. B. Moore of the department's labor office, which operates more than 100 farm labor supply centers for the thousands of laborers. "During the war we raised one-third more food in the United States with one-third less labor. I don't know what we would have done without these transients, and they're as important as ever today, of course."

There are two groups of the workers—domestic migrants, nearly all natives of Florida, who this year total about 25,000, and imported West Indians, numbering about 24,000.

Yergan Flays Anti-Labor Policy of S. African Gov't

NEW YORK—Supported by prominent CIO and AFL leaders, Max Yergan, executive director of the Council on African Affairs, 23 West 26th street, this week sharply assailed the anti-labor policy of the ruling class in the Union of South Africa, which denies unionization and collective bargaining rights, as well as political freedom, to millions of exploited African workers.

Yergan, whose organization is sponsoring a D-Day rally, June 6, at Madison Square Garden on "Big Three Unity for Colonial Freedom," called upon American trade unionists "to close ranks behind the just demands of the oppressed and starving workers [redacted] vent British, American and other monopolists, who control the gold mines and other valuable resources there, from undermining American living standards and provoking another war."

Yergan appealed for a mass demonstration of labor solidarity at the Garden rally, which will climax the Council's six-month nation-wide drive to aid 4,000,000 famine-stricken African natives.

Bandits Hold Up, Rob Couple

Two unidentified Mexicans robbed Vernon White of 1467½ E. 23rd st. and attempted to criminally assault Mrs. White, late Friday night at 12th and Paloma sts.

The bandits, driving a car, stopped the couple and asked them if they wanted a ride. The Whites refused whereupon the assailants drove on to the corner. When the Whites reached the corner, one of the duo held a gun on White and demanded his wallet while the other forced Mrs. White into the back seat of the car and attempted to assault her. Mrs. White put up a struggle and received a blow on the head. Her person was not violated, however.

The Whites described the bandits as Mexicans of medium build, one about 27 years old and the other about 37. Police are questioning known offenders for connection with this crime. White's wallet contained approximately seven dollars.

REV. CLAYTON D. RUSSELL

Ministers Offered Bribes to Withdraw Support of Russell

From a reliable and confidential source, it was learned this week that attempts have been made to bribe the leading ministers of the Watts area in an effort to get them to renounce their pledge of support to Rev. Clayton D. Russell, militant young minister, who is candidate for supervisor of the second district, at the June 4 primaries.

According to our information, several leaders of the South-East Los Angeles Ministerial Alliance were contacted by Negro and white political workers. They were first offered $500 but rejected the bribe. Later in the same week, another offer of $1000 was made, and was likewise rejected.

Rev. M. H. Duvalle, president of the South Los Angeles Ministerial Civic Alliance, confirmed the report. "Yes, the story is generally true," he said. "We do not know from what political candidate the offers came, but we do have an idea. We refused, all of us, and I am proud of the fact that the Ministerial Alliance has clearly demonstrated UNITY, in the thought that profit is not to be made from the misery of the people. We are 100 per cent behind Rev. Clayton D. Russell. He has clearly demonstrated civic and social leadership, and we shall work for his election."

Rev. J. J. Hicks, executive secretary of the South Los Angeles Ministerial Alliance, also confirmed the report, stated, "Yes, the story is true, but the time has passed when religious ministers of our race can be bought out. We stand for the correction of the social ills that beset our people—and will work for the election of Rev. Clayton D. Russell."

Meantime Russell this week had received additional endorsements from local organizations, including The Treswell Club, AYD, of the Watts area; and the Home Owners Defense Council, as well as from citizens, led by Mrs. Corene Spencer and Sam Butler, who organized the Women's Committee for the Election of Clayton D. Russell, and the Westside Committee for the Election of Clayton Russell.

Monkeys Picnic In 'Lil Ole N. Y.'

NEW YORK—Some 100 monkeys, fugitives from a pet shop, made a jungle playground out of Lower Manhattan for several hours last Saturday.

Scampering Simians climbed into open windows, frightening office workers, dashed over rooftops and squealed with delight as they scanned wearing apparel in some of New York's swankiest shops.

Midday tipplers in a tavern received unexpected stimulation when the jibbering animals entered, sampled some beer, then turned to more potent libations. Ten patrons left with checks unpaid.

Man's playful little cousins were finally rounded up by police, firemen and storekeepers armed with nets, laundry bags, empty barrels and what-not.

Prominent Socialite Takes Wedding Vows

Mrs. Mattie Seldon recently surprised her friends by her marriage in Seattle to Sgt. Samuel Chenault, retired from the 25th Infantry.

Mrs. Seldon is prominent in Los Angeles social circles and is being entertained lavishly by her many friends. At the present time she is in Los Angeles until the end of the current school semester when she and her lovely sub-deb daughter, Lorraine, who attends Manual Arts high, will join Mr. Chenault in Seattle for permanent residence.

'Enemy Shells Know No Color', AVC Head Says, Opening Drive To Recruit Vets in Colleges

WASHINGTON—The American Veterans Committee opened its membership drive in the nation's Negro colleges today with a mass meeting at the Rankin Memorial Chapel, Howard university, with Charles G. Bolte, national chairman of the AVC as the principal speaker.

Speaking to a majority of the 700 veterans attending the institution, Bolte declared that veterans, having seen the desperate need for teamwork in the winning of the war, must realize the need for such teamwork in the winning of the peace.

"Enemy shells," he said, "never stopped to inquire as to the color of a soldier's skin nor the name of the church he attended. All veterans, therefore, without regard to race, color, creed or sex are welcome in AVC."

"The American Veterans Committee believes," Bolte continued, "that veterans are citizens first and veterans second. We believe that veterans should not benefit at the expense of the rest of the community. We believe the veteran is best helped by measures which help the community as a whole — and the veteran as a part of the community."

As illustrations of the AVC position on various community problems Bolte described the support rendered by the organization seeking the establishment of a permanent FEPC, the extension of OPA without crippling amendments, the anti-poll tax bill, the 65c basic minimum wage bill, and efforts which culminated in the acceptance of Japanese-Americans in the navy.

Bolte was introduced to the Howard assembly by James H. Baker, former vice-chairman and currently a member of the executive council of the AVC Washington Chapter, and one of the chapter's Negro delegates to the Committee's national convention at Des Moines in June. Baker described his own election to office as "an object lesson in the fact that AVC's basic attitude against segregation and discrimination is no mere group of meaningless words. We say it and we act accordingly," he declared.

U. S. Veterans Centers Doing Little to Combat Job Bias, Survey Shows

CHICAGO—A survey to investigate the manner in which minority veterans are being treated at veterans' centers throughout the country is now being made by Vincent Malveaux, a former combat infantryman, it has been announced by the American Council on Race Relations. Results of the survey are expected to aid in the solution of problems facing minority veterans.

Former Staff Sergeant Malveaux served with the army in the European theatre of operations for two-and-one-half years, and though he went overseas as First Sergeant of the 509th port battalion, he volunteered for a reduction to private and front-line combat duty in a mixed battalion, and fought from the Rhine River to Wupperthal, Germany.

Malveaux was one of the GI's who, in October, testified before the board of generals detailed by the War Department to consider the status of Negro troops in the postwar military organization. Reports of this conference served as the nucleus of the official army report on utilization of Negro manpower in the postwar army, recently made public.

Malveaux first began his fight for fair handling of Negro soldiers when, two months following VE Day, colored combat platoons were taken out of the mixed divisions, grouped at replacement depots and informed that they were scheduled for assignment to the South Pacific as replacements in service units, thereby losing their combat status.

Together with three other sergeants, he went directly to General Eisenhower's, headquarters and presented their complaint to the general's staff. Within three weeks, Major General W. S. Pauls completed an investigation of the case, which resulted in all Negro combat troops with 60 or more points being redeployed through the United States with combat status.

In his first report on the results of his survey, Malveaux stated that at the Veterans Information and Advisory Center in Philadelphia, he found a lone Negro counsellor described as a social worker. However, all the Negro veterans visiting the center were being directed to this one counsellor, regardless of their problems. The white veterans were being assigned to the white counsellors designated to handle specific types of problems.

The Center realizes, Malveaux adds, that the Negro veteran faces handicaps and prejudice in seeking employment in Philadelphia, but no one seems to have the initiative and courage to set up a program that might help him overcome his obstacles.

The ideal "one-stop" center to handle the needs of the veterans is located in New York, Malveaux reports. Advice concerning education is given by two workers on loan from the Board of Education. They are at the center full time and their services are primarily those of counselling and guidance. The counsellor interviewed said that he had advised a number of Negro applicants, but the number was small in comparison to the population.

The Veterans Information Center in Chicago acts as a referral agency but will attempt to give veterans the full answers to their questions. All veterans are interviewed in turn, without discrimination. The center has no colored counsellor, but the director stated that the issue had not been raised, and that he is ready to discuss the idea with Negro leaders in the community.

In Birmingham, Ala., Malveaux discovered that most of the job gains are now fast disappearing, with no new openings in employment.

In the Twin Cities of Minneapolis and St. Paul, Negroes have been unable to find employment in line with their army training. No colored veterans are sharing in the apprentice training program, and both Negro and white spokesmen stated that certain of the craft unions were responsible for closing the doors to Negro veterans even in shops where employers were receptive.

The USES office has been offering colored veterans jobs as porters or window washers. In the Veterans' Information Centers in both cities, a total of 19 counsellors and clerks are employed, none of them Negroes, although qualified Negroes have applied.

The Houstan, Texas, Veterans Information and Advisory Center is one that can be used as a er while waiting to be called. The center officials both expressed the opinion that white veterans returning to Houston were more open-minded than many of their neighbors who had remained at home.

However, the Houston USES office applies racial segregation. There are no Negro office workers, and the majority of Negro applicants are advised to "get unemployment compensation." Negroes who apply for apprentice training are told that the openings have already been filled.

Malveaux's final report, which will summarize the major problems facing Negro veterans and the way in which community centers are meeting them across the country, will be presented to the American Council board and made available to other interested agencies.

Industry Holding Vast Stores of Goods From Commodity-Starved U. S.

WASHINGTON — The contention of OPA opponents that price controls are holding up production was blasted this week when the cotton textile industry admitted that vast quantities of cotton goods and yarns had been withheld from the market.

In testimony before the senate banking and currency committee hearings on extension of the price control act, C. T. Murchison, president of the Cotton Textile Institute, revealed that producers of colored yarns had piled up two months output in warehouses in an effort to force OPA to raise ceiling prices.

The picture presented by Murchison is believed to be true of industry in general, with many manufacturers keeping their goods off the market in the hope that the present drive to cripple OPA wil be successful. That drive is sparked by the National Association of Manufacturers.

Large stocks of food are also being withheld from the market by speculators, according to Walter C. Berger, grain expert for the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

"There is plenty of food for all in the United States," Berger said. "Getting it out of the hands of speculators is another matter.

"Why? The 'specs' are waiting to see if OPA goes pfoof!"

Berger listed eggs, poultry and cattle and hogs on the hoof among the commodities being held off the market.

"Uncertainty over what is going to happen to OPA is primarily responsible for this situation," he said.

Seaman Wins $110 Damages When Barber Refuses to Shave Him

NEW YORK—A Brooklyn barber has learned that race discrimination is costly, especially when practiced against a Negro member of the National Maritime Union. The seaman, Linwood Carrington, of 365 Hancock street, Brooklyn, this week collected $110 from the owner of a Nostrand avenue barber shop, who refused to give him a 50-cent shave last month.

Carrington, who had sailed American merchant ships into dangerous war zones througout the war, visited his neighborhood barber shop on April 16 for a shave. When the barber refused to accomodate him, Carrington called in a policeman who informed the barber that he was required under New York State law to give the shave. The barber still refused.

The seaman brought the matter to the attention of the National Maritime Union, whose attorney, William L. Standard, promptly obtained a magistrate's summons against the barber for a misdemeanor and also sued him in the municipal court, charging violation of the Civil Rights Law. Sections 40 and 41 of this law make it illegal for anyone to refuse to serve, or withhold the facilities of a place of public accomodations from, a person on account of race, color, or creed.

Faced by the determined efforts of the National Maritime Union to secure justice in this flagrant case of discrimination, the barber made several attempts to buy off Carrington with offers of $20 and then $50. On May 6, when the case came up in magistrate's court, in Brooklyn, Carrington, who had wanted to prosecute the case because of the principle involved, felt that he could no longer afford to remain ashore and accepted the $110 settlement.

Jeannette Cohen Returns to L. A.

Jeannette Cohen, former California EAGLE columnist who has been in New York for the past two years, this week returned to Los Angeles to resume her residence in California.

Miss Cohen was a visitor to the EALE's office last Monday evening.

Trio Assault, Rob Beautician

Police this week reported that a white beauty operator of the General hospital, forced to walk part way home because of the yellow car strike, had been criminally assaulted early Sunday by three men who beat her, pulled her into an automobile and drove into the Elysian Park hills.

The woman, Beatrice Schneider, 26, of 706 Edkeware Road, is under doctor's care.

Police said the three men robbed her of a watch, a ring and other jewelry valued at $215.

Two Candidates Hit Klan's Cross Burning

Two state assembly candidates in the two districts involving the bulk of restrictive covenant cases in Los Angeles' low income sections, this week denounced the appearance of a flaming cross on the west side last Sunday night.

The two candidates were Vernon Robinson and Lloyd Saunders, candidates respectively in the 63rd and 65th districts.

Robinson told The EAGLE, "I detest any such un-American, un-democratic action as took place last Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hickerson. It seems to me that here in California there is room for us all to live, and that we should be able to live wherever we choose, without regard to race. We cannot hope to have international, interracial understanding and fellowship in world affairs, unless we can begin it in our own neighborhoods."

Lloyd Saunders expressed himself in similar vein when interviewed by The EAGLE.

British End Sham Gesture On 'Free India'

LONDON — That Britain will not voluntarily withdraw from India was demonstrated anew this week by an official communique announcing that negotiations to establish India as an independent state had collapsed. Reports from India said a British cabinet mission now in that country would return to London.

No specific reason for the negotiations collapsing was given, and the New Delhi radio said both the Moslem League and the National India Congress party had agreed that the conference proceedings would "be treated as confidential for the time being."

Anti-imperialist circles here are awaiting the usual British alibi: failure of the Indians to agree among themselves.

Scientists Opposed Use of Atom Bomb On Japanese Cities

CHICAGO—Two months before the first atomic bomb was dropped on Hiroshima, atomic scientists had urged the secretary of war not to use it first on a populous city, the bulletin of the atomic scientists disclosed this week.

Instead, the publication said, the scientists proposed "as the first step a demonstration of the bomb to the nations of the world, including Japan, in an uninhabited locality."

He Wanted Sugar

The Salvation Army at 836 Stanford ave. reported last Friday to Newton street police the theft of 300 pounds of sugar.

The thief entered the building through the rear window and left through the front door. The police found his footprints on the window sill and under the window. No arrest has been made to date.

FARM CO-OPS DONATE TO STRIKE RELIEF

ROCK, Michigan—The Co-op Store and oil association of this Upper Peninsula farming community donated $100 to the relief of striking miners in the Michigan iron mines, while the smaller Co-op Store in nearby Ishpeming gave one-half of its $200 total net earnings for 1945 to the same cause. The donations were voted by the recent membership meetings of the two associations.

CIO Unions Pledge Support To Tenth NNC Convention

NEW YORK—Indiana and New York City labor joined hands recently in a simultaneous expression of support for the forthcoming Tenth Anniversary Convetion of the National Negro Congress scheduled for Detroit May 30 to June 2. The Indiana State Industrial Union, CIO through its state secretary, Wal-Frisbie, pledged its all-out support in the form of official affiliation with the NNC on behalf of its 200,000 members.

In releasing this announcement, Revels Cayton, executive secretary of the NNC, also revealed that the Greater New York CIO Council in an official letter addressed to Dr. Max Yergan, president of the NNC, "unanimously voted endorsement and support to the tenth anniversary convention of the National Negro Congress. The CIO Council represents some 300 unions with 600,000 members in this area."

Other endorsements received by the Congress this week came from Districts 4 and 6 of the United Electrical, Radio & Machine Workers of America, CIO.

Thomas R. Richardson, international vice-president of the newly-combined United Public Workers of America, CIO, announced from Washington, D. C., that the International Board has voted formal endorsement of the convention and will send four delegates from that body to the Detroit conclave. Richardson called upon all member locals of his organizations to take immediate actitve steps in electing a large delegation to attend the four-day session.

Overcrowding of Schools Leads to Shorter Sessions

Los Angeles now has 14,000 children attending school at half-day sessions due to crowded school conditions, the board of education disclosed today.

The revelation was made when members of the Crenshaw-Buckingham Community Improvement Ass'n. petitioned the board for a new elementary school and voiced a fear that half-day sessions will have to be inaugurated next year in that area.

"Your area isn't any different from a lot of others," said board member Roy Becker. "Fourteen thousand of our students are now attending only half-day sessions—and you are complaining because such sessions threaten your district next year."

The board informed spokesman Dr. Kenneth L. Treffitzes that property was being purchased for a new school in that area and that temporary structures would probably be moved in to accommodate classes by next September.

Ask FEPC Law For St. Louis

ST. LOUIS, Mo. — Endorsing the campaign for the passage of a Fair Employment Practices ordinance, more than 70 delegates from trade unions, clubs, religious and fraternal organizations here have pledged to push the fight.

Nathan Oser, speaking to an FEPC conference Sunday, pointed out that the race issue is used to weaken the labor and progressive movement.

"Labor," said Oser, "is faced with the Bilbos and Rankins, who destroy OPA, labor and progressive legislation. Men like Bilbo and Rankin could not maintain their places in government if it was not for the racial issue they exploit to gain power and votes.

"For this reason it is vital not only to the groups that are discriminated against to fight for fair employment, but the majority groups have an important stake in this fight."

Scares Off Team of Negro-White Robbers

A Negro-white robber team made its appearance in the Lawnsale section this week, according to Vermont sub-station sheriff's deputies.

The pair visited the home of Willie Rasberry, white, 4424 W. 145th st., caught Rasberry with his pants down, literally, and tried to hold up Mrs. Rasberry.

Rasberry and his wife Elsie said she answered a front-door knock as he was stepping into the bath and a Negro entered with a gun, demanding money. Rasberry, nude, rushed the intruder. He was shot in the left thigh but was winning when, the Rasberrys said, a white man entered from a rear door and clubbed him with a blackpack. Both intruders fled after Rasberry fell.

Reports Workers Urgently Needed in Dress Industry

To tap the huge pool of veterans and displaced war workers who are needed to alleviate the crtical labor shortage in the expanding apparel industry, a three-way cooperative program of the California Apparel Creators, Women's Division of the Chamber of Commerce, and the Frank Wiggins Trade School is in progress.

The aim of this program is to create interest among this labor pool in adult training for positions in the industry. The first step in prompting this is the co-sponsorship of an exhibit by Frank Wiggins Trade School's clothing department, which will feature 90 creations, originated and produced by students in training at this free public school.

More than 1000 invitations have been issued to civic leaders for the event, which will be held at the John Francis Polytechnic high school auditorium, 400 West Washington boulevard, May 16 at 8 p. m.. The manufacturers, to further student interest in the exhibit, are offering cash prizes—first, second and third, in each of three categories, with two honorable mentions in each division.

Wages in the apparel industry to trained craftsmen range from $35 to $125 per week.

Gathering "know-how" is a continuing process. Edison has been adding to its electrical "know-how" for more than fifty years. Every year in the history of the Edison Company has its record of some outstanding development of electric generation, transmission and distribution service.

The engineering and construction tasks that made these advances possible were revolutionary and tremendous—free enterprise jobs. As its territory has grown, so has the company expanded its service to provide the electrical strength for community development.

Ninety-three thousand stockholders and four thousand employees are this "company" of electrical service owners and operators.

EDITORIALS AND COMMENT

THE CALIFORNIA EAGLE

These Have Qualified For Your Support

Three liberal organizations — the National Citizens Political Action committee, the Congress of Industrial Organizations Political Action Committee, and the Independent Citizens Committee of the Arts, Sciences and Professions—are pooling their efforts to elect progressive candidates to Congress this year.

Harold L. Ickes, who resigned from President Truman's cabinet because he realized the President was not carrying out the policies of the late Franklin Roosevelt, will be the head of the new group. In a conference held at Washington, the three groups signed a statement which said that they represent a broad people's movement which has sprung up to support the principles of the late president.

"The people recognize the nature of the crisis and the need for a continuance of Democratic leadership; we are determined to carry forward this people's movement as our firmest guarantee of peace, security, and democracy."

"A liberal voter can vote for either a Republican or a Democrat," said Harold Ickes, "and when there is no choice we'll see if we can't find an independent candidate."

This welding of the three outstanding liberal groups of the country to insure the election of liberal candidates to Congress and to all State offices, is a sign of healthy political thinking. The men and women who comprise the members of these groups are the political leaders of the liberal forces of the country. As they lead let us hope the people of the country will follow.

Each week, now until the June election, we shall mention candidates whose records we have studied and now offer for your voting delectation. Among these—Rev. Clayton D. Russell, candidate for supervisor, 2nd Supervisorial District; Ellis E. Patterson for United States Senator; Robert W. Kenny for Governor; Helen Gahagan Douglas, Congress, 14th District; Augustus Hawkins, 62nd Assembly district; Chet Holifield, 19th Congressional District, incumbent; Clyde Doyle, 18th Congressional District, incumbent; and Claude Welsh, opposing Jack Tenny as candidate for state senate.

Negroes Should Do Some Re-Thinking

Negroes should stop thinking of themselves as members of a special race, whether spelled with a capital "N" or a small "n," and to think of themselves as American citizens only.

This was the advice given by Eric E. L. Hercules, author of "Democracy Limited," in an address at the weekly Civic Forum held at Bethel A.M.E. Church last Sunday afternoon.

There should be no race consciousness. All are human beings, all breathe alike, no matter of what complexion he or she may be.

"But," contends Mr. Hercules, "the average Negro still thinks that sugar from a white store is sweeter than the sugar from a Negro establishment."

Perhaps we do think along that line too much. Perhaps some of us also think too much along the line of "the Negro only," even if the white man might be able to do a better job. Both lines of thought are a mistake. Each human being should be evaluated for his real worth to the community, regardless of his race, his color, or his native origin.

"A man's a man for a' that," as Robert Burns said. It's the man that's in you that counts.

Editorial Quirks

Browder goes to Europe. Well, it would not be a bad idea if he would stop at the Port of Spain. Franco might be able to use a smart man like Browder.

Thomas Richardson, newly elected Vice-President of the merged United Public Workers of America, CIO, called upon "every local of our newly merged organization to formally take steps to elect a large delegation of Negro and white representatives to the 10th Anniversary Convention of NNC", it was revealed today by Revels Cayton, Executive Secretary of the National Negro Congress.

The CALIFORNIA EAGLE requested action by the mayor and city council last week in an Eastside clean-up campaign. In the name of the people it now demands action.

There Should Be a Better Understanding

Willie McGee, a 30-year old Negro of Mississippi, has been condemned to death by electrocution after a jury deliberated only two minutes upon the charge of rape by a white woman.

Said the woman, "A man crept into my bed in the dark. I never saw him. He had kinky hair. He wore a sweatshirt."

The jury was picked from the courthouse steps. There was no presentation of witnesses in his behalf. And Willie McGee, dazed, confused, speechless and helpless, was condemned to death by this jury after only two minutes of deliberation!

There has been a stay of execution, however, obtained through the efforts of the National Federation for Constitutional Liberties and the Southern Negro Youth Council. They are planning to appeal the case, to take it to the United States Supreme Court, if necessary.

They are planning to educate the people of the South and of the North against such atrocious injustices. It is only through education, through a better understanding—even if forced upon us by such revolting circumstances—that real justice can be secured. The California EAGLE condemns such a manifest miscarriage of justice as that of the McGee case. It is one of the many we must be prepared to fight, in our own community as well as in the South.

That Man Riker Again

William E. Riker, who resides in what he calls "Holy City," about fifteen miles north of Los Angeles, is again running for governor of California.

His platform contains some of the most atrocious planks it is possible for any decent American to imagine. And he supports his claims by misusing the name of God as the founder of his principles! He opposes every minority group, Oriental as well as Negro, and claims that God—and Abraham Lincoln—intended to keep them inferiors.

"I say it is God's will," he states, "for the sake of peace on this earth, to keep them (meaning the minorities) at our feet. The only substitute for this principle is to put them back in their own country where God originally put them, and also what Abraham Lincoln intended to do, if he had lived."

Speaking of the Orientals, he has the following to say: "The only difference between one kind of yellow race and another is that each one attacks differently as does a deadly germ that gets in the body, but the outcome of their undermining tactics is the same."

"Race crime," he says in his race-baiting literature, "is worse than any kind of murder. Race crime causes Lost Souls, half-breeds, to be born into this world. Race crime invokes the curse of God upon all who are guilty. Race crime is the works of the Devil and a sure path into a hellish life with all mankind." And so on, blah, blah, blah.

One can scarcely conceive of anything so contemptible being sent through the United States mails. Yet, here in the State of California, this monster is a candidate for governor, the highest office in the state! Of course, he will not be elected. But how many dupes, deceived by his high-sounding phrases, will vote for him? He should, and of course will be, snowed under completely. So completely, let us hope, that he will never be able to crawl out again.

Even the loosest conception of the rules of the political game should bar such a candidate as Riker from even entering the race for any office. How is it possible that the great state of California permits him to be a candidate for governor?

Robert W. Kenny, popular candidate for Governor has asked Gov. Warren to call a special session of the Legislature to solve the housing problem. Governor Warren has refused to relieve the sufferinf particularly of our war veterans and their families by taking action in the matter of providing houses.

Kenny calls for subsidy payments to keep rents low—for $35,000,000, immeditely, for emergency housing for veterans and non-veterans in distress—complete outlawing of discrimination and restrictive covenants—amending of present State housing laws to permit immediate clearance of slum areas.

Just how any sane person would object to Price Control is beyond any reasoning power. Let's keep our letters and telegrams rolling on our Washington representatives demanding continuation of the OPA.

Drive out the Black Market.

BRITISH IMPERIALISM TRIUMPHS IN INDIA

The repeated failure of Indian political parties to agree to the formation of a common national constitution is a God-sent opportunity to the English tories to put back the clock of Indian freedom and liberation for at least a generation.

The purpose of the British Mission to drive a wedge between contending Indian political factions and warring parties has been accomplished with tact and diplomatic precision that speaks volumes for the ingenuity and cleverness of British imperialism and for the abilities and legal acumen of British negotiators, who are intrusted with important affairs of state and political controversies.

The two members of the Mission, Cripps and Lawrence, are the undisputed leaders of the English bar, and are well-versed in all the intricate and dubious courses of diplomacy. The former, on more than one occasion, has been engaged in diplomatic chicanery in order to offset hostile combinations in Europe against the vested interests and the supremacy of the British empire.

Attlee, the Labor prime minister, has every reason to be proud of Cripps and of the victory which the British Mission has scored over the leaders of Indian political parties. British imperialism and Indian nationalism are engaged in diplomatic tussle, and the temporary defeat of Indian nationalism has enormously strengthened the stranglehold of British imperialism over the resources, lives, and liberties of one-fifth of the total population of the globe. The cleavage which the British have created between the Hindus and the Muslims will persist for generations to come, and there is not the smallest doubt that England will seek to exploit and bloodsuck India as she has done for the last three centuries.

The only hope for India that is now left is to recognize the tragic circumstances and the unhappy situation in which she finds herself placed and to cast her eyes towards Russia, the only nation that can be of moral and material help to her in her days of trial. She is united to her by all the racial and cultural ties which lead to eternal friendship and harmony. The connection with England is wholly undesirable and unnatural, and the sooner it is snapped the better for the good and glory of India and the world.

Dear Editor:

There are two people running for re-election in this state that stand out in my mind as being the greatest enemies of the Negro people—as such they are detrimental to the welfare of the State of California. These gentlemen are Jack Tenney and Don Allen.

Mr. Tenney will long be remembered for his verbal vivisection of innocent 18 and 19 year-old students in regards to their participation in a picket line, alongside their relatives and friends. Mr. Tenney's investigation was a deliberate attempt to stifle any progressive action on the part of students in the State of California. UCLA is known for its liberal and progressive attitude throughout the country, so Mr. Tenney chose to ride high on their necks, despite the fact that students from two other schools were known to have been on the picket line.

In his subsequent investigations held at the State Building, Mr. Tenney mis-labelled every large inter-racial, church, and liberal organization in Southern California as a communist organization or a communist infiltrated organization. Why? Although Mr. Tenney accepted a chairmanship of the California Un-American Activities Committee in good faith, he, like Dies, Rankin, and Wood, has turned out to be a "witch hunter" to ferret out for humiliation purposes, people who demand inalinable rights as guaranteed to them by the Constitution, rights that a large segment of our population does not enjoy.

These people make it uncomfortable for Mr. Tenney by pointing out obvious negligence on the part of him and his committee. His line of reasoning is exactly like that of the notorious Mr. Smith. They both play up to the emotionally unstable. Despite the demands made on Tency, he never got around to investigate the lie that the Hearst press circulated about the State school system; he never investigated our boy, "Gerry", nor has he considered the Klan un-American. His only hope is to make a career out of harassing innocent people who point out inconsistencies in our way of life.

Mr. Don Allen, voting like mad for an appropriation of $20,000 for the Tenney Committee, is all for continuing this infamous "witch hunt." Mr. Allen has been conveniently absent when the really crucial votes for the establishment of a California FEPC have been needed. He has done absolutely nothing to aid Gus Hawkins' Child Care Bill. He voted to kill the only long-range comprehensive housing bill to come before the Legislature in 1946.

Mr. Allen and Mr. Tenney are the biggest threats to the common people of California. They both should be defeated at any cost. Mr. Tenney probably prefers to write songs like "Mexicali Rose" anyway. He should be retired so that he can spend more time composing catchy ditties.

Dear Editor:

Our committee has today launched a financial campaign to help win justice in the Freeport slayings, and to aid the widow and three little children of Charles Ferguson, a soldier, slain by a white policeman in Freeport, Long Island, February 5, 1946.

It is our greatest desire to build a trust fund for the children, orphaned because of race hatred and injustice, to help them gain an education.

Won't you please help us with a column in your paper?

The enclosed material will give you all the information. This material has gone out in a nation-wide mailing. If you have any further questions, please do not hesitate to call.

Sincerely yours,

DOROTHY LANGSTON,
Executive Secretary,
New York Committee for Justice in Freeport.

Dear Editor:

I am incensed and troubled by reading of the unjust conviction of Festus Coleman upon such flimsy, prejudiced evidence. It stinks of rank, rotten, American Fascism. I went through hell two and one-half years. I thought I was fighting for freedom and human rights. Before I'll put up with this, I'll fight some more.

Many other white veterans feel the same way. I haven't the slightest doubt as to his trial being a hypocritical farce and his conviction the result of a stinking frameup.

His sentence is fantastic in relation to his offense. I am helping circulate petitions on his behalf and donating money to the defense committee. I wish I could do much more.

Maybe some day enough of us can change such a miscarriage of justice and bring about true equality. But that's scant consolation to him now. I wish I could do more. I'll do all I can.

Respectfully yours,
DAIL DELANEY.

VA Offers Jobs For Physicians, Stenogs, Others

An urgent appeal for additional physicians to help in rating a backlog of compensation and pension claims was made today by L. C. Chapman, Los Angeles regional manager of the Veterans Administration.

Medical rating specialists will have no hospital or medical duties, Chapman said. These permanently established positions offer a yearly salary of $5,542 for 44-hour work week, with 26 days annual vacation with full pay, 15 days sick leave, and other Civil Service benefits.

In addition to medical rating specialists, the Veterans Administration has hundreds of openings for psychiatrists, physiotherapists, training officers, social workers, stenographers, typists, hospital and mess attendants, Chapman said.

Applicants may apply to Veterans Administration Regional Offices at 1380 Sepulveda Blvd., West Los Angeles Veterans Hospital, Wilshire at Sawtelle Blvds., the downtown V.A. office, 1041 South Broadway, or to the nearest United States Employment Service office.

3 Welfare Agencies

NEW YORK—Three Protestant welfare agencies which formerly had barred Negro children from their institutions for foster care are now accepting children regardless of race, creed or color, so they have informed Welfare Commissioner Phatigan.

They are the Brooklyn Home for Children, the Lakeside school and the Industrial school, the latter two operated by the Edwin Gould Foundation.

The change of heart followed agitation in the city council for the withdrawal of tax exemption privileges from welfare institutions which practice racial discrimination.

W. J. WHEATON SAYS:

In a recent conversation with an eminent jurist, the question of equal opportunities in the occupation of housing facilities was discussed. It was agreed that in justice to all there should be no discrimination that action should be routined according to the filing of the application.. "But there is one thing puzzling to me," he said, Why are there so many organizations seeking the same objective? Why don't they consolidate their efforts? They seem to be working to the same end."

We have been watching that trend for a long, long time, and have tried to prevent duplications whenever possible. The reason is obvious, leadership for personal aggrandizement. Just as long as adversaries to a truly popular government can keep minority strength divided, just so long will discrimination against minorities exist. If we truly desire to eliminate the abuses so prevelant, and growing in intensity, if we are in earnest and have the welfare of all groups who are under the heel of oppression . . . without bias as to color or racial origin . . . we must consolidate our strength, pool our efforts, and subordinate self for the betterment of all.

It would be well to scrutinize, examine closely, every plan put forth in the interest of the minorities. There are always unprinicpled persons who take advantage of adverse situations to further selfish interests. They are not hard to discover. They are mostly oilly demagouges, who having obtained their end and will desert the cause for which sincere people sacrifice. It is not the loudest declaimer against human wrongs who is truly sincere. So many have their price. Any minor appointment of a political nature will close the month and cease the ranting of most. When an aspirant for leadership shows the inclination to fight under all conditions; that aspirant should be given all encouragement.

As the date for the primary elections draw near the political caldron begins to boil but not with the intensity which will be attained in the November general elections. In California this year party lines are well defined. A few of the candidates are using the bi-partisan policy, but it is hardly expected that any candidate will receive sufficient votes to elect him at the primaries. As to registration: the Democratic party has the edge by a substantial margin. But the vote of California is hard to define. From a political angle it is one of the most difficult states to diagnose.

There are two outstanding personalities seeking the suffrage of the voters in California. Earl Warren, incumbent, and Robert W. Kenny, attorney general of the State. It will be an interesting contest to watch. Attorney General Kenny has endeared himself to the proletarian. He is proven a champion . . . not by mouth only . . . but by act and deed . . . that he stands for equal justice for all and has a firm belief that every citizen is entitled to and must have a fair and equal break. Those attributes of Robert W. Kenny are going to make him a very hard contestant to beat.

Then there is a California tradition, and only one candidate for governor has broken that tradition. That was the late Senator Hiram Johnson who was elected governor for the second term and used it as the stepping stone to the U. S. Senate. Others have tried it in vain.

Richard Welch, in the 5th Congressional district will have some opposition, but Richard is so strongly entrenched in the district and he will be hard to dislodge. In the 4th the incumbent, Frank R. Havenner, will encounter stiff opposition. It will arise from the old feud of the PGE who have a grudge over the old Raker act of Hetch Hetchy days. Great stress is laid on the defeat of Havenner, and the old Elephant has begun to trumpet the war cry of "Defeat Havenner" The 4th District has a goodly population of Negro voters and the GOP has centered on diverting that vote to that party. They have sent emmissaries from other states and transplanted them where they might prove effective in swinging the vote. But Havenner, like Kenny, has proven himself a champion of the discriminated and it will take considerable cajolery to divert the vote of the workers and commoners who are too alert to be fooled.

We have been keeping an eye on the supervisors, and their stand in the proposition of the housing project. The recall of Mayor Latham is going on apace. The committee of 11,000 say they have sufficient registered signers to call the special election in June. If they should succeed it will be interesting to watch the trend of events. At present, according to what one learns through public opinion, if the election is held the mayor is doomed to defeat.

LABOR ON THE MARCH

By Martinez Hewlett

Last week we wrote about the L. A. Transit Lines strike, which has not been settled at this writing. This week we intend, with your kind permission, of course, to look into the terrible situation caused by the coal strike.

We have never agreed with John L. Lewis and his tactics, nor all of his past turnabouts, but we do wholeheartedly support the demands of the miners in this present strike, and we place the blame for the terrible conditions brought on by this strike on the heads of management who refuse to meet the just demands of the miners.

Now just what are these demands? Are these demands unjust? Are the miners asking for preferred stock in the companies? Of course not. The miners are asking the mine owners to install more efficient safety measures and to set up a fund which would care for injured miners and their families and for the families of miners killed in the mines. With these two very humane demands there is also a wage increase, but union spokesman, John L. Lewis, has refused to talk about a wage increase until the demands for safety measures and for a welfare fund are met.

When you read some of the papers you get the impression that the miners are trying to demand ownership of the mines. By and large the American press does the bidding of selfish interests. Just such a thing is going on in the coal strike. The American people should and must know exactly the position of labor in all of these crises. Labor never has made any unreasonable or unjust demands of management. Experts are employed by the various unions to study the situation, the income and the profits of the firms. It is logical to assume, then, that labor would not make any demands upon a firm which would force it to go out of business and cause mass lay-offs of union members. The union has as its primary function, security of the workers' jobs.

Why then this great hue and cry each and every time a strike gains major proportions? When management is reasonable and not pig-headed and selfish, differences are settled with little or no difficulty. The unions cooperate to the fullest with this type of management. But in the case of these mine owners (known the world over as among the most brutal exploiters of labor) human values are not considered. All they seem to be interested in, is coal and more coal to bring in money and more money. The men who get this coal are just so many cogs in their wheel of production.

We agree that the coal strike has caused a terrible situation to exist in the United States. Plants dependent on coal have closed down. Cities dependent on coal for power have curtailed and in many cases have rationed power. These are the hardest hit centers. Railroads are curtailing freight and the post office department has cut down on its tonnage. Tie-ups of every nature are occurring daily. Yet in the face of these things management still refuses to meet the demands of labor.

Government intervention seems to be imminent but even the President has failed to see how unreasonable management is, in not granting these demands. He has asked the coal miners to dig coal for 30 days. Why doesn't he ask management to settle the strike?

THE NEGRO IN LATIN AMERICA

By Harold Preece

LATIN AMERICAN FRIENDS IN N. Y.

I always try to give you, who are my readers, the latest "inside information" on anything affecting our Negro and Indian brothers of Latin America. And, for this reason, I am delaying for a few weeks my promised expose of the activities of the controlled Spanish Falange to move in from Latin America and to neutralize Negroes in this country against the great struggles for freedom which lie ahead in our hemisphere.

Now, I know that the representatives in this country of Spanish

Dictator Francisco Franco's international spy organization will try to make something out of my delaying this. They've been trying to wage attacks on me in one or two newspapers but my record, as a Southern white man, specializing in Negro culture and history, speaks for itself over a period of 15 years.

I don't have to apologize to a certain pro-Falangist priest in Detroit and his clique now trying to muscle in on the Negro press in order to keep the Negro from raising the sand he ought to stir up to insure complete democracy in our hemisphere of Lincoln, the white Kentucky mule-skinner, and of Guerrero, the black Mexican mule skinner.

I'm holding back this expose in order that I can assemble and collate some fresh new evidence of Falangist activies in this country. The Falange, to new readers of this column, is the international ku klux which the Nazis started in fascist Spain to undermine democracy and racial equality in those countries of Latin America which were once part of the now-dead Spanish empire.

I am writing this in New York where I can feel the pulse and the tempo of more than 300,000 Latin Americans, many of them Negroes, living in our country's greatest city. This morning, up around 116th street and Madison avenue in Spanish Harlem, I ran into two pretty Puerto Rican girls—one white and the other colored — canvassing the stores and the sidewalks for money to help the people of Spain get rid of Franco and the Falange—as the people of Mississippi are trying to get rid of Bilbo and the Klan.

The day after we got in town, May 1 to be exact, I saw one of New York's finest Latin American Negro artists — Josephine Premice, talented dancer from Haiti via Brooklyn. I wish my limited space permitted me to publish Josephine's picture, although it might make some wives and sweethearts start worrying about their menfolk if I did. But she's a coming Lena Horne, and some day, you're going to see her on the silver screen.

JOSEPHINE SENDS REGARDS

You will remember that I published an interview with Josephine in this column, two years ago. She asked that I send all of you her regards. And she also asked me to remind you that Haiti's presidential election is due in just a few days—and that our brothers down there will be voting against "white supremacy" characterized in the little island republic by the rule of the Creole mulatto aristocracy over the vast majority of the people who are black.

"Not that all of the mulattoes take the side of their class," Josephine told me. "One notable exception is my friend and your friend, too, Max Hudicourt, editor of La Nacion. He's sailed back to do his part in rooting out the little tinhorn Bilbos who are ashamed of being mixed blood and often object to being called Negro."

My wife and I will miss Max Hudicourt, a welcome guest at our table when we were in New York, two years ago. We consider him to be one of the great editors and one of the great souls of Latin America. Fallen Dictator Elie Lescot exiled him from Haiti for exposing the way in which the Haitian-American Development Corporation, controlled from Wall Street, had uprooted thousands of black farmers from their homes in a silly effort to make rubber out of weeds. But we're hoping that we'll some day see Max Hudicourt in the Haitian capital of Port au Prince.

Josephine has asked us over to her home in Brooklyn to discuss Haitian affairs with her father, scholarly, courageous Lucien Premise, secretary of the Haitian-American Democratic Association (no relation to the Democratic party in this country). It will be a great evening with Josephine singing Haitian folk songs. Right after the Haitian elections, we'll publish any analysis of the results in the form of an interview with her father.

Well, we're having a great time with our Latin American friends of both colors in New York. Many of them have done me the honor of telling me that this column is looked upon as a link of friendship between Negroes in the United States and Negroes and Latin America. Which is what I've been hoping that it would become.

Changing climates so abruptly has given Celia and myself both bad colds which we're trying to kill with aspirin and grapefruit juice and just about every other darned old thing. The colds have kept us from circulating around Spanish Harlem and the other Latin American sections as much as we would like.

But we'll get rid of the colds quick so that we can visit around. And through this column we'll take you with us on these visits. After all, it's mighty good to breathe the free, if colder air, of New York after having straight doses of Dixie for so many months. We'll be going back to Dixie, of course, because that's the place for any progressive white Southerner. But we'll be carrying something of Spanish Harlem back with us.

A LAYMAN'S VIEW

By Leon W. Steward

MOTHER'S DAY A LA 1946

As this is being written Mother's Day is being celebrated, thanks to gentle (?) reminders by the Prophets of Profits and to a fortunate tradition on church calendars and in a large number of homes. So, this column takes on the atmosphere of this emphasis. What of Mother's Day, 1946?

A cruel war is almost over. Many of Mother's beloved sons have returned and others are returning daily from the wreckless slaughter of humankind which has not yet wreaked its full vengence on a world which dared to arouse that pestilance called war. America has begun, though half-heartedly, to beat its guns into plowshears. American politicians are caught between the twin necessities of settling al almost unsettleable international peace on the one hand and the almost unsettleable domestic peace on the other.

The Ku Klux Klan has come to the aid of the reactionary or fascist forces of the land to see to it that American youth does not bring more freedom and economic and social democracy to these fair shores after giving the more extreme reactionaries and fascists of Europe and Asia a bit of discouragement by means of arms. And capital's resistance to the wage demands of labor deprives Mother of street car service to church, coal for her hearth, and many prewar comforts in her home, and the struggle between our relatively young liberal government and the money-changers of the land deny her butter for her toast, bacon for her breakfast and clothes to cover her body adaquately, and a decent place in which to dwell and in which to bring up her next brood of Americans. WHAT A MESS!

But regardless of the failure of all too many mothers of the past to instil the ideals of fair play, cooperation and respect for human personality in these so-called Christion nations, we hail her as the only hope of these virtues without which there can be no peace in the world. And if she is now convinced that peace is much more necessary to our civilization since the advent of the atomic bomb and will take time from such distractions as dollar-chasing, keeping up with the Joneses, bridge and neighborhood gossip and will extend her domain, seeing after her children so as to include in it the entire neighborhood which helps her to educate them we believe there is strong hope for the future.

When we think of men like Hitler, Bilbo, Avery and such, we wonder just what kind of mothers they might have had. Surely they must have had little interest in these virtues or had too little time for instilling them into their sons. We cannot forget the impressions we have gotten during many years we have spent working with youth, when we have visited a home, in an effort to account for certain favorable or unfavorable traits we had discovered in boys, only to find the real explanation resident in the mother or in the kind of home or community in which the lads reside.

Surely have we found relatively few boys of high ideals and admirable characters whose mothers were of other ideals and character. Often this was true even when the father was a poor example for his son. Mothers usually have no difficulty in giving their sons the right start in life providing they give sufficient time and thought to being mothers. We have noticed for many years that regardless of her economic and educational level, whenever we have invited mothers to see their sons in activities and exhibitions only the mothers of the good boys would attend. It was the obvious lack of time or interest that resulted in the problem boys. Their parents never attend the affairs.

Every Negro and sincere friend of humanity was certainly thrilled to learn that Mrs. Emma C. Clement, who quite incidently is a Negro, was selected "American Mother of 1946." Ask her why every one of her seven children have been such as to recommend her for this high honor and we think she would among other things say "I had the inclination and the time to devote to them from their cradles to the day when they answered the call of the world." Which of course pays high credit to her husband. The man's big responsibility is to give her the time and the peace of mind to devote to her children. His being a bishop is apart from the question since all bishops' sons have not always been a credit to their mothers.

Every mother may well read with profit The Golden Rule Foundation statement as appears in Time, May 13, along with the family picture, "A mother of children who are devotedly serving their country and their people, a partner in her husband's ministry in his lifetime, a social and community worker in her own right." And, friends, if we are to build a successful race, a truly great nation or a peaceful world, this noble woman gives us the pattern for the mother whose job it, after all, most certainly is.

Books and Authors

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA COUNTY By Carey McWilliams, 378 pp., New York: Duell, Sloan and Pearce, $3.75.

Reviewed by OSCAR LEWIS, Author of "The Big Four," "California in 1846," "Lola Montez in California," etc.

Any reader who picks up this book expecting yet another slick and superficial guide book manufactured for the tourist trade will be well advised to put it down again. For he will find here no catalogue of places to eat or drink or to acquire a suntan, no annotated tours to the homes of the movie stars. On the contrary, it is a comprehensive, well documented and uncommonly able answer to a question the rest of the nation has been asking for years: What is Southern California, and how did it get that way?

Evidently it was intended originally to call the volume the Mission Country, and it is so listed on the back of the jacket, but the title under which it appears fits it far better. Not that McWilliams neglects the mission period, that familiar and well publicized era that has formed a romantic prelude to countless California books; he devotes in fact one of his longest and most captivating chapters to it. But here as elsewhere he departs sharply from the usual pattern, and thereby not only renders a badly needed service to history, but also does considerable violence to a romantic tradition built up over the years.

Readers of Carey McWilliams' earlier books will not be surprised to find in the present work a constant concern for the plight of small minorities and a vigorous castigation of those who oppress them.

Drawing liberally from the voluminous studies of Dr. S. F. Cook, he presents an impressive and often harrowing picture of the callous exploitation of the Indians both before and after the Conquest. Not alone the Indian, but other "foreign" groups—the Mexican peon, the Chinese, the Negro, the native-born Japanese, the migrant laborer—each in turn has his trials and problems examined.

For all the author's serious intent and his concern with sociological problems, the result is not, as it might well have been in the hands of a less competent craftsman, either heavy or dull. On the contrary it is racy, entertaining, full of variety and color. With much skill, McWilliams traces the evolution of Southern California, taking up one of the diverse influences that produced the phenomenon and shrewdly evaluating the contribution of each. The amazing aggregation of persons, movements and trends that have gone toward the creation of the enigma are all present, and on most of them the author is able to throw revealing new light.

Climate and geography each receives—and properly—a chapter of its own, as do also such potent influences as the successive estate booms, oil, oranges and the emergence of Hollywood. But it is the people and their curious habit of following strange leaders toward strange goals that provide the most instructive reading. All come in for attention, as diverting a galaxy of bizarre characters as the country has even seen: Katherine Tingley, the "Purple Mother" of theosophy, Guy and Edna Ballard who founded the fabulous I AM cult, and half a dozen others, leading up inevitably to the incomparable Sister Aimee of Four Square Gospel fame. In politics the list is only slightly less picturesque: Upon Sinclair and his EPIC (End Poverty in California) campign that in 1934 put him in control of the Democratic party in the state and all but placed him in the Governor's chair; Dr. Townsend's old-age pension plan which with its related "Ham and Eggs" movement, spread far beyond the confines of Southern California. Truly the region, as McWilliams points out, was the remains the nation's "great laboratory of experimentation."

Through all this welter of flamboyant material the author makes his way with authority and restraint.

The amount of work that went into the preparation of this book is staggering. The author has obviously dipped into the prodigious mass of printed material about the region—books, magazine articles, government publications, newspapers, fiction, booster literature—and his paragraphs are studded with brief and pertinent quotations from an extraordinary variety of sources. Southern California County is far and away the most detailed, authoritative and shrewdly reasoned analysis of the why and wherefores of Los Angeles and its environs now in print or likely to appear for some time.

That Tired Feeling and How To Get Rid Of It

By JOHN F. GERNHARDT, M. D. Medical Director, Los Angeles Sanitarium

In Two Articles—No. 1.

It is not God's purpose that His children should be weak, feeble, and constantly tired and that they should suffer from all kinds of ailments and deformities. The cause for these conditions are to be found in man's unwillingness to eat proper food, in his disobedience to the natural laws God made for mankind.

When our daily food is derived from the vegetable kingdom, we are by nature blessed with good health and prolonged life, with the greater vitality that seeps from perfect internal functions. When God created Adam He prescribed herbs and fruits bearing seeds, and thus blessed him with a selected food that can maintain health and long life. Adam lived to the ripe age of 930 years, Noah 950 years and Methuselah 969.

As soon as man included flesh foods in his diet, his life was greatly shortened. Abraham, for example, lived to be only 175 years old, a considerable decrease in longevity from the early days of man. The use of flesh foods not only has shortened man's life, but also has brought about many undesirable conditions even while man lives.

WHAT IS THE CAUSE?

The chief cause of that tired feeling is found in those foods, particularly flesh foods, that are highly acid forming and consequently produce inflammation in our internal linings and glands. The balanced diet must consist of about 80 per cent alkaline foods and 20 per cent acid forming foods. When this formula was reversed and people ate 80 per cent acid forming foods and only 20 per cent alkaline food elements, high acidity of necessity brought about physical complications, among them that tired feeling.

Acid forming foods cause inflammation in all internal linings, breaking them down and forming toxic poison in the system, allowing bacteria to invade and poison the whole system. When absorbed they cause colitis, appendicitis, gall bladder infection, gall stones, arthritis, kidney and bladder disorders, high blood pressure, arteriosclerosis, heart disorders, and paralysis.

Meat always contains putrefactive bacteria, and in addition contains a surplus of uric acid. Normally a 24 hour specime should contain only from 2 to 5 grains of uric acid in 24 hour. But one pound of beef contair 19 grains, and a pound c chicken or fish contains 1 grains.

A SURPLUS OF URIC ACID

Uric acid will be found in a flesh foods, including fowl, fis oysters, eggs, and even grains small amounts. THINGS I SEE

By Marian Inglewood

A new South is beginning to dawn below the Mason and Dixon line, and those who have their ears to the ground predict that within the next ten years we are going to see one of the greatest fights that ever was staged anywhere. The people of the South—the Negroes, the poor whites, the common people—are beginning to wake up, to stretch, to flex their muscles, and like the giant that they are, to realize their strength.

It's about time, too, considering all the headlines in the papers about the KKK demonstrations in Georgia, and the fact that one of the candidates for governor of that state is running on a platform of "white supremacy." That's Eugene Talmadge, former governor, who is making another bid as a pro-fascist to head that southern state. He will doubtless get the licking of his life at the polls this fall. And in other southern states the people will send into political oblivion the Rankins, the Bilbos, the Eastlands, and their ilk.

We hope! Within the next ten years, at least. Yes, the election this year will be only the beginning of the battle royal. Things don't always come as easily as we expect them to. In fact, they seldom do. And with all our optimism the fight will never the less be long and hard.

It will be the continuation of the fight that started even before the Civil War in the struggle to destroy slavery. The victory won by that war aroused a hope that burned brightly in the few short years that followed when the common people—the former slaves and the poor whites—struggled honestly and earnestly to build a new world out of the shattered bits left them of a once proud civilization.

They did a good job, too. Too good to please their enemies—their former masters, the slave holders. In the conventions where black and white met on equal terms, they wrote constitutions for their new governments which provided free education for all, they legalized equality of race and color not only in the schools but in all government positions also — on the juries, as judges, as members of the Legislature, of Congress. Even as governor or as president of the United States, if anyone wished to seek those high offices! Their constitutions provided for secret ballots at all elections, a caution needed desperately to assure them the political freedom they were striving for. And finally, in some of the states, they even discussed dividing the great plantations of thousands of acres, and giving each one his share!

It was a real Utopia planned. And IF they had had a chance to work out their salvation in peace, they might have won their goal. But you know the sordid story. The fearful Klan was organized and it murdered, burned, tortured, struck terror into the hearts and souls of every decent man and woman of the Common People in the South. By connivance, by corruption, by cheating, their precious right of suffrage was taken from them. They became slaves again, white men as well as black, through the miserable share-cropper system. And the old imperialists, whom we would call Fascists and Nazis today, once more gained control.

The freedom they had within their grasp and which burned so brightly for a few short years, died. That is, to all appearances, it died. But deep within those blackened embers, it still smouldered. Now it is bursting out anew, and burning more brightly than ever. Today men and women, young and old, black and white, are determined it shall not die again.

A new world is definitely being created in the South. The CIO is on the march. It is organizing the factory workers, the share-croppers, the working people, the common people, everywhere. The Church is putting its shoulder to the wheel, and as never before it is singing a Hallelujah Chorus as it follows a vision of liberty and justice, of unity and freedom for ALL.

The women of the South, black and white, are organizing in groups. To study the Bible, yes. But to study politics, too. To study and learn about their government, and how to get rid of the Bilbos and Rankins, and elect members to Congress who will truly represent them.

Oh, it is coming. Surely. The dawn is breaking. And although the light is still dim, the people of the South have determined that this time that light shall not die, but shall grow stronger and stronger instead until it envelopes the earth.

L. A. Citizens to Vote June 4 on Vital School Expansion Program

The schools are taking their plight to the voters.

On Tuesday, June 4, the citizens of Los Angeles are being asked to provide funds to expand school facilities to keep pace with the city's phenomenal growth in population and to recondition schools neglected for five years during the war.

The board of education, after careful study of the imperative school needs and the trend in school enrollment, has concluded that the 75 million dollars needed for buildings, land, and equipment, for the next decade can be raised only through a bond issue. Therefore, at the board's meeting of April 22, a resolution was adopted to have a building and improvement bond issue placed on the ballot June 4, when the general primary elections are held.

"Los Angeles has about one-fourth of the total school population of the state of California," states Lawrence L. Larrabee, president of the board. "The war years have prevented an expansion of the building program for this school district and there are now 14,000 children going to school for only half-days because of the shortage of classrooms."

Thirty-five thousand children are housed in 1047 temporary one-room bungalows, and thousands of others attend classes in wooden frame buildings built 40 to 50 years ago.

The school bond election is held at this time in order to give the voters an opportunity to vote on the issue at a regular election and thereby save the expense of a special election. The voters will cast their ballots at their regular precinct polling places throughout the school districts. They will sign a separate register receive a special ballot containing this proposition, and the ballot will be dropped into a separate ballot box. A majority vote is required to authorize the bonds.

He entered the federal service as a field planner in Homestead Subsistence Division and later served as cost and estimating engineer in U. S. Housing Authority.

The riots, expressive of the anger of Haitian citizens over extensive fraudulent practices in Sunday's election of national assemblymen, followed similar demonstrations here in which troops used tear gas and stores were closed in fear of looting by impoverished peasants and workers.

Tape Under Buttons — Spring and summer clothes of thin fabric are likely to suffer most from buttons that pull out, taking some of the fabric underneath with them. A simple way to prevent such damage, suggested by clothing specialists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, is to stitch tape on the inside of the garment under the button line.

Pest Control and Sanitation

By THOMAS C. JACKSON

WHAT IS PEST CONTROL?

Several hundred years ago George Herbert wrote "Flies come to the feast unasked." This year for the first time it is possible for the home owner to keep uninvited flies away from the dinner table. Postwar pest control methods entirely erdaicate all flies, roaches, bedbugs, fleas, moths, mosquitoes, beetles, rats, mice, ants, and other pests from homes, apartments, hotels, stores, theatres, restaurants, churches.

When you call upon your pest control operator (often called a PCO) for help, he visits your building and makes a thorough inspection. Even though he sees no insects or rodents at that moment his trained eye notes evidences of their presence at other times, often at night when they are least likely to be disturbed. Usually the PCO is able to determine whether there are many pests or few.

Then he recommends a method of treatment.

His choice is based upon the type of pest, its habits, the degree of infestation, the temperature, and the humidity (moisture in the air). For instance when killing bedbugs a cyanide fumigation destroys both adult bedbugs and the eggs. But roach eggs are more resistant so a fumigation to destroy the grown roaches must be followed by use of a poison which will kill the baby roaches when they come from the eggs.

It is not enough to kill all the flies and mosquitoes with the antiquated fly swatter or hand spray since more come in whenever a door or unscreened window is open. Therefore your pest control operator applies a fog-type spray, using a new and highly efficient dispenser. This spray covers walls, ceilings, light cords, floors, and all surfaces where insects may light. There is no powder or oil to mar your furniture, but your house and furnishings are insect-proof for many months. Any fly or mosquito which enters your house is killed within a very short time. Window screens and screen doors may be treated so that you will not be bothered with flies buzzing around those openings during the summer months.

In addition to adding to the comfort and cleanliness of your home, pest control is a soldier in the defense of public health. The germs of infantile paralysis, malarie, bubonic plague; typhus fever, trichinosis, dysentery, typhoid fever, and tuberculosis are only a few of the disease organisms carried by flies, rats, and other pests. Therefore pest control is a very necessary service for people who find pests of any kind in their homes or gardens.

Home remedies may reduce the number of pests present but seldom is it possible to get rid of all the trouble in this way. Eventually you spend more on sprays, spray-guns, powders, and assorted remedies than a reliable pest control operator would charge for a complete service. You undoubtedly will save time, trouble, energy and money by calling a pest control operator at the first sign of trouble.

Next week we will discuss the points you should consider in selecting your pest control operator.

Atty. Townsend Victor in Suit

In a civil action against the United Artist Theatre which was tried in Division 12 of the Municipal Court a few days ago, with the Honorable Ida Mae Adams presiding, a judgment of $500 was entered against the United Artists Theater in favor of Atty. Vince Monroe Townsend.

The action was an action for damages for humiliation and embarrassment, and was brought by Mr. Townsend, Director of the Elks' Civil Liberties League, and Assistant Director of the Community Political Action Council, who on or about the 18th day of August, 1945, went to the United Artists Theater in the evening together with his wife and a house guest, Mrs. Florence Thomas.

Upon the purchase of the tickets, Mr. Townsend was short-changed $2, and when requesting his change, charged that he was humiliated by the ticket seller of the theater, one Barbara Quinn, who, upon his insistence for his change, called the assistant manager of the theater, David S. Hall, Jr., who in turn summoned a police officer to the scene.

At the trial it was pointed out that a long line of other customers were on the scene. Judge Adams found that Mr. Townsend had been unduly humiliated, and that the action had been brought in good faith, and awarded Mr. Townsend a judgment for $500 damages for the humiliation. The attorneys for the United Artists Theater have filed a notice of appeal.

Names General Chairman of College Fund Drive in L. A.

Mrs. Julian Sieroty, prominent in social, civic and business circles, has accepted the general chairmanship of the United Negro College Fund campaign in Los Angeles, it was announced this week by Dr. Rufus E. Clemen, member of the UNCF board of directors and president of Atlanta university before his departure for the east.

Dr. Clement said comedian Bob Hope will be co-chairman of the local drive along with Attorney Loren Miller, who already has been active in the campaign.

Further contributions to the local campaign to raise $40,000 were also revealed and included $125 from the First AME Zion church, $50 from Lucius Lomax, Jr.; and $50 from George A. Beavers, Jr.

The sponsoring committee for Los Angeles has been enlarged to include Bishop W. Bertrand Stevens, Episcopal diocese; Bishop John J. Cantwell, Roman Catholic church; and Vern Wood, vice-president of the Security First National Bank, Dr. Clement stated.

Los Angeles area headquarters have been set up at 1105 East Vernon avenue, Room 8.

POLICE HUNTING HIT-RUN DRIVER

Citizens this week were asked by the Los Angeles police to be on the lookout for a Ford V-8 coupe, possibly 1934, maroon in color with black fenders. The car, driven by an unknown person, struck and killed a Los Angeles reserve police officer at Georgia and Olympic last Saturday, 7:15 p.m., and failed to stop at the accident to render aid or assistance.

More than 23,000,000 people in the U. S. have some chronic disease or physical impairment.

☆ Youth Activities Throughout The Nation ☆

Edited by Yvonne Shepherd

KINLOCH'S ☆ KORNER

By Y. S.

Dedicated to the memory of my childhood chum, John Kinloch, who died in the struggle to destroy Fascism.

Dear Chum:

It's heartwarming and inspiring to see the way young people are buckling down to the serious business of becoming today's and tomorrow's good citizens. And what is perhaps the most encouraging angle is that they are channeling their zeal into organized effectiveness. Why even the crackpots who condemned yesterday's youth as a "lost generation" have been squelched into a state of speechlessness.

Yes, chum, look closely and you'll see a dazed expression on the faces of the cranks who screeched the loudest about "crazy jitterbugs." They have been caught with their mouths open, you might say, but nary a sound comes out.

It's pretty hard for them to realize that the grave young man urging them to sign a petition to place FEPC on the ballot is the same kid they branded a "ne'er-do-well." They are stunned when they hear the youth earnestly explain that only when we get a permanent Fair Employment Practices Committee can we guarantee that all men have the right to work on a job regardless of race, creed, color or religion. That there be no discrimination in hiring—or firing.

And that's not all, chum.

The busybody's mouth drops open wider when he hears the young girl (who used to giggle incessantly) launch into a well-informed, intelligent discussion about the importance of an effective OPA. By the time she finishes explaining the disastrous effect a mutilated OPA will have on the purse of Mr. and Mrs. American Citizen, the older folk make a bee-line to the nearest telegraph office. Their mission? Wiring senators and representatives to pass OPA without crippling amendments.

In California, the youth of Los Angeles, in particular, are demanding the vindication and release of Festus Coleman, the young Negro railroaded to jail on a trumped-up charge of "robbery and rape." Just ask the young people. After they finish relating the dramatic details, they've won a new friend who will become equally vocal in demanding Coleman's release.

Today, from coast to coast, in the remotest sections of the nation, youth is preparing for the coming elections. Some will vote for the first time. Others are not old enough to vote yet, but they are still determined to make this a better, finer America. That's why youth must, study the political record of candidates, and then endorse the man who remembers the people—the little, "insignificant" people—when he casts his vote.

However, that is not the whole picture of youth's political activities. After they choose their candidates they arm themselves with campaign literature and invade local communities, urging voters to cast their ballot for the man with the best record. Regardless of party affiliations.

This, dear chum, is today's awakened youth. Courageously, intelligently, they are tackling the nation's problems. The vital issues. And they are taking an affirmative stand — the right stand.

Take restrictive covenants, for an example. Without hesitation, all young Americans who are really interested in democracy and fair play condemn racial residential restrictions. Further than that, they have thrown their energy and support behind those fighting to abolish restrictive covenants.

Yes, chum, young people are doing a splendid job. But there is only one thing worrying them now.

They are wondering if they can depend on the older folk to do their part!

Your chum, YVONNE.

Slashed School Budget Stirs Up Student Protest

PORTLAND—Student leaders of ten Portland high schools planned further steps this week in their political action campaign to restore slashed school funds.

The school kids launched their battle early this month when thousands left school rooms to parade through downtown streets protesting drastic cuts in school activities and programs.

Republican governor Earl Snell's refusal to call a special session of the legislature to correct a $1,750,000 deficit in the school funds touched off the demonstration. Indignant students picketed the Multonomah hotel where the governor was at first believed to be hiding.

Carrying signs reading "To Hell with Snell," and "We want Sports," student leaders declared that programs facing curtailment include kindergartens, music, industrial arts, home economics, dental, health and visual education. Interscholastic athletics and adult education will also be abandoned they charged.

Kinlochers to Campaign Sun. Have Picnic; and Attend Mass City-Wide Anti-Covenant Rally

Dr. Wallace Ford and Don Derricks were guest speakers of the John Kinloch AYD Club at the Monday evening meeting held at the EAGLE office.

Pointing out that it is essential for people of the eastside to have hospital facilities, Dr. Ford asked for support for the proposed Westview Hospital. A non-profit organization, the hospital will accept as members of its staff, and as patients, people of all races, creeds and religions.

Derricks, who was asked to speak on the coming elections, made suggestions of candidates to be endorsed. "However," he said, "I strongly urge you to appoint a legislative committee who can collect background material on candidates. "Study their records," he warned, "and then decide who you must support."

Kinlochers voted to meet again at 10 o'clock Sunday morning to hear the recommendations of the legislative committee. They will then proceed to various churches in the community, armed with FEPC petitions and campaign literature.

At 2 o'clock, members of the Kinloch group will meet at South Park for a short picnic. They will assemble again at 8 o'clock that same evening at Independent church, 18th and Paloma, for the mammoth city-wide anti-restrictive covenant rally.

UCLA Students Protest Against Land Rezoning

Issuing a call to fellow Bruins to "come out and support housing," about 85 UCLA students, led by members of the Four Freedoms club of American Youth for Democracy, formed a mass picket line Tuesday protesting the proposed rezoning of the tract of land on Le Conte avenue bordering Westwood boulevard, which would clear the way for construction of a department store.

"This land can be used for badly-needed housing facilities on our campus," declared angry students. "The regents are voting on housing Thursday (today). Shall Bullocks have a department store, or will we have a place to sleep?"

Bruin students are waiting anxiously for an announcement of the regents' decision.

WHAT'S DOING IN THE SOCIAL SET

By JESSIE MAE BROWN

THE GREAT FUTURE TOWARD which we move offers its best to the college graduate. While not losing the common touch, too much emphasis can not be placed on the necessity of our young people acquiring their degrees. Realizing the profound thought that this phase of our life should embrace, Dr. J. Raymond Henderson has led out by founding our first annual "college night." Must say, the collegiates are all-out to assist in making this night the success it should be. All the Greek letter orgs and colleges will be represented on the program that is spurred to create a definite interest in seeking higher education.

Jessie Mae Brown

Legal-minded Bill Terry, who has just about completed his studies at SC law school, will join with Roy Loggins, City college campus squire, and Bob Rogers, UCLA's political figure, in a panel-discussion. Omega brother James Chappel will take part on the musical section of the program, headed by Alpha man Albert McNeil. Clara Fentress will take the limelight for Zeta Phi Beta, while Elizabeth Garrott will do likewise for the Deltas. The Kappas will be represented by Bill Elkins and the AKAs by Benzell Graham.

Scheduled on the program is a group of numbers by the Pepperdine men's chorus and a solo by the popular Miss Marjorie Day. Dr. Leonard Bloom, one of our favorite UCLA profs, will take the position of guest speaker for the evening, giving highlights on "The Value of a College Education." That's just about it, aside from a few minor details. Believe me, it's been lots of fun working up this program. Here's hoping that all of you will be on hand at 7:30 Sunday night, Second Baptist church, 24th and Griffith avenue ,to see the collegiates in action.

SUNDAY IS THE DAY

Popular Jessel Reid and Leslie King, much feted couple, will take to the center aisle Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock sharp, in what is previewed to be one of the most outstanding weddings of the season. The bride-elect, a bit nervous but as charming as ever, entertained her bride's maids Friday night, and presented each with a gift. For the past week or so, Leslie King has been the incentive for many a stag party. The reception will be held at 5:30 immediately following the ceremony.

Dorothy Kahn, who will recite vows with Rev. Lloyd Galloway on June 9, will be luncheon honoree at a linen shower Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Much pre-nuptial celebrating is in the offing for this young lady.

Last Sunday afternoon, Gloria and Arthur Mitchell left the single realm via a beautiful garden wedding. Ole Sol was kind to the couple for the day was kissed by sunshine and the delicately bright processional left the group of guests with something to long remember. During reception, chatted for a brief spell with Connie Duffy and Ruth Scott, debs we see little of nowadays, Bob Edwards, Donald Derricks and mother, Dorothy Locklear, who is back in L. A. for keeps, and a host of others. Dr. and Mrs. Mitchell are off to a one month honeymoon in Detroit and neighboring towns in the East.

HERE AND THERE

Crossing the sands of "Hell Week" approximately 20 Delta pledges are being put through the paces leading up to initiation that will take place on May 25. Among those approved are: Joan Pierson, Bessie Catchings, Elizabeth Garrott, Gwen Mumford, Maxine Collins, Dorothy Jenkins, Maetilde Kenner, Yvonne Cole, Ruth Wilkins, Eddie Mae Harris and Lucile Jones. . . . The Delta pledge raffle party held Saturday night in the YMCA gym proved quite a success. With Rose King, an AKA selected to pull the lucky numbers, Edmund White and Willie Woods walked off with the prizes. . . . The Deltas have a big program scheduled for their National May Week, starting Sunday.

Saturday night at the Villa Arlington, Omega Psi Phi frat will honor their basketball team with an informal dance. A trophy will be awarded to the team's most valuable player. John Shackelford, James P. Perry, Harry Penn, Glan Lockett, Ernest Kilgore and the rest of the group are completing plans for the gathering.

Official business will bring Ann Beachman Brown to the city over the week-end. Regional director of the AKA sorority, she will address the joint body at a breakfast meeting Sunday morning at the Woodlawn YW.

The 12th annual Kappa Mother's Day Tea, sponsored by the Scroller pledge club, was held Sunday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Clare Downey on S. Howard blvd. So happens that brothers Regan, Brewer, Merrill and Webb originated the mother's tea in 1934. Led by Bob Green the "Sweetheart song" was dedicated to all mothers. Judge Edwin Jefferson's mother was presented with a corsage by the fraternity. Assisting the Scrollers were Betty Wallace, Gwen Rumford and Betty Hall.

The Cosmos members were much in evidence at the reception honoring club members Norman Houston and wife, Lorraine, Sunday afternoon at the Villa Arlington. The Houston reception was all that we expected (see special story in Social section). Leonard Grimes, public relations man of the Cosmos, is genuinely excited over the club's initial affair scheduled for June 1. It will be a Val Verde Caravan that will start at 7 a. m. and end the next morning at 1 a. m. Swimming, horseback riding, dancing at Dudley's Inn, hay ride and other interesting highlights are scheluled for the all day and night gathering. All proceeds will go into the Cosmos scholarship fund. Sounds like a fine plan.

WELL! WELL! WELL!

Billy Faulkner, home from the wars, and the very lovely Barbara McMorris are in Dan Cupid's clutches. . . . Wonder who the ensign might be, winning cheerful smiles from Jane Criner as they strolled down the main stem t'other day? . . . Frank and Pauline Gurrido were among those present at the Houston reception. A fine looking couple.

The opera "Cavalleria Rusticana" should go over in a big way. Tickets are selling rapidly for the Thursday and Friday night performances. . . . Norma Ross is busy keeping things straight at the OPA office. . . . The Jackson's, Lula and Dynamite, will start on their motor trip to New York in the next few days. . . . So, Paulette Dejoie and Ira Johnson make up the recent twosome. . . . Earl Griffin's wife is a modiste, and a comely one at that.

Wonder if the recent Maethilde Kenner, Hank Milton break up is serious . . . James Stasher is deeply interested in Dodie Bell. Regrets to learn that she will not return to Los Angeles when she leaves for the East in July. . . . The Wilford Hines are parents of a baby boy. . . . Making the deadline.

TILL NEXT WEEK.

Tribble-Mitchell Garden Wedding Most Beautiful of Current Season

In the tranquil setting of a late spring garden, the former Miss Gloria Tribble exchanged sacred vows with Dr. Arthur Mitchell at 3:00 p.m. sharp Sunday afternoon, with the Reverend Hamilton Boswell officiating.

Mother Makes Gown

To the immortal strains of Lohengrin, the bride on the arm of her brother, Thomas Tribble, marched down a white' beribboned garden walk. She was beautifully gowned in glimmering white hand beaded satin, complemented by a full length illusion veil. The style of her gown was dated, featuring the padded hips of the "Dresden" doll. Her bouquet was a profusion of white butterfly orchids. The gown was made and beaded by her mother, Mrs. Manuela Tribble.

The entourage included seven of her close friends who wore alternate yellow, pink, aqua and blue gowns, featuring the "Dresden" hipline of the bride's gown. They wore large crownless picture hats and carried colorful sweetpea bouquets. Mrs. Lucille Wilson, the bride's cousin, served as matron of honor; Sara Jones, Gladys Ben-Ezra, Norma Amato Green, Kathryn Weigel, Mildred Hamilton and Evelyn Roberts were attendants. Little Marcia Mariette was flower girl. Dr. Milridge Moore of Detroit served as best man, and ushers included Drs. English, Lincoln Shumate, Joseph Hays, Walter Davis, John Coleman and Welles Forde. The bridal song was sung by Miss Elizabeth Garrott, accompanied by Mrs. Fannie Benjamin at the organ.

Reception in Garden

The reception immediately followed, with the bridal party forming a receiving line headed by Mrs. Manuela Tribble, Gloria's mother, wearing a turquoise blue chiffon gown with orchid corsage, and Mrs. James Rucker, Dr. Mitchell's mother, who arrived from West Virginia especially to attend her son's wedding.

Assisting hostesses were: Misses Jewell Lockett, Paulette Dejoie and Mmes J. Hays, Welles Forde, Mary Jones, Ella Davis, Bobby Bryce, and Dorothy Locklear.

The popular couple have been honored with pre-nuptial gatherings climaxed by a bridal luncheon given by Mrs. Gertrude Crisman Friday afternoon at her Westchester home and a bachelor party given in Dr. Mitchell's honor by his best man, Dr. Moore, on Saturday night. The wedding was held in the garden of Dr. and Mrs. Walter Davis, S. Arlington Manse.

The couple is enjoying an extended eastern honeymoon.

THE NORMAN BENJAMIN HOUSTONS received Sunday afternoon from 5 until 7 o'clock along with their parents at the Villa Arlington. The popular couple recently returned from New Orleans where they were married. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred B. Frederic of New Orleans.

Villa Arlington is Scene of N. Huston Reception

The N. O. Houstons, one of Los Angeles' leading social families, received more than 200 of their friends Sunday evening from 5 until 7 at the Villa Arlington. The affair was occasioned by the return of Norman Benjamin Houston to the city with his bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred B. Frederic of New Orleans.

The charming couple and Mrs. Doris Talbot Houston received. The bride wore a beautiful white satin gown, while her mother-in-law received in a pale blue marquisette creation. Assisting hostesses were: Misses Phylippa Jones, Marcelyn Cobbs and Ella Mae Crossland.

The young couple received many beautiful gifts. Norman presently joined the workers at Golden State Insurance company where his father is president. He is a member of the newly organized Cosmos club.

BEAUTIFUL BRIDE is Mrs. Arthur Mitchell, who is enjoying an Eastern honeymoon with her popular doctor husband. Her white satin gown was made and hand-beaded by her mother, Mrs. Manuela Tribble. The wedding was officiated Sunday afternoon by Reverend Hamilton Boswell in the garden of the S. Arlington manse of Dr. and Mrs. Walter Davis. The bride is a graduate of UCLA, is a member of the Delta Sorority and the Crp 'N' Tail club.

Report Tonight on Plans For Westside Chamber of Commerce

Plans to lay the ground work for a west side chamber of commerce were discussed last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Lorraine Armstrong, 2915 So. Western. Business, professional, and civic leaders representing a crosssection of 17 different types of business were present.

Acting under the direction of its organizer, C. E. Wigginton, former San Diego publisher and more recently public relations director for the Pacific Parachute Company, discussions both pro and con on the purpose and intentions of the proposed chamber were entertained, and a committee of six was appointed to make investigations of chamber of commerce activities and to report its findings along with recommendations to the body at its next meeting.

Following this investigation a meeting was held by the committee at Brock's Service Center, and reports were made of the findings. A five point program was outlined, to be submitted to the entire body at its meeting tonight, Thursday, May 16, at 2915 South Western.

Housewives can make waxed paper do a double job in the home by reclosing bread wrappers, cereals, crackers and other foods in their original waxed paper wrappings.

Omegas in Mother's Day Church Program

Phillips Temple, like most churches was filled beyond its capacity Sunday morning. An overflowing congregation is to be expected on Mother's Day, but the appearance of 40 of our finest young men, most of whom have recently retutned to civilian life, was indeed an unexpected and inspiring spectacle, a vivid testimony to the power of Mothers' prayers.

Congratulations to Laurance L. Woodard, president of the Pledge Club, and Arthur Watts, dean of pledges, for their thoughtfulness in remembering Mother, the creator and protector of all that is beautiful and sacred.

Pledgee Price served as master-of-ceremonies. Brother John Shackleford played a beautiful organ solo, "Go Down Moses" and Brother Charles W. Thrash eloquently outlined Omega's Four Cardinal Principles: Scholarship, Perseverance, Uplift and Manhood, concluding the Fraternity's alloted share of the service.

'DENA CHIT-CHAT

By

JOHNETTA ARMSTRONG - FREDDY WARD

By the looks of the daily local papers one would wonder whether we're living in pre-war Germany or the United States of America. The burning cross which is a symbol of the KKK seems to be blazing quite frequently. It seems that everyone has forgotten what the recently won war was about. Was it not so that people could have the Four Freedoms? Our only source to fight this diabolical organization, besides the State's attorney, is the NAACP. United we can put the pressure on persons who can see that something is done. Renew or join your local NAACP today. Don't wait or it may be too late.

The day we have set aside to remember Mother has passed but there are still 229 days left in this year to show how much you love your Mother. Churches were packed with Mothers and their children. At some of the churches they honored the youngest and oldest mothers. Jerri Dickens Coe was the youngest mother present at A. M. E. While Charlotte Edwards Cummins and Rose Butler were the youngest at Friendship. Mrs. Williams, mother of Mr. Abe Williams, was the oldest mother at the same church. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wilson had their baby, Brent Kenneth, godparents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Ferguson, blessed; also Mr. and Mrs. Tytell (Cleo Swinney), had their daughter Cherly Ann blessed. Her godparents are Mr. and Mrs. Coleman and Mrs. Sarah Turner, great aunt of the baby, stood with the group.

Mother's Day teas were given by or for several of the churches. Mrs. Kinchlow, at the lovely home of Mrs. Lacey for Women's Day at the A. M. E. church. Mrs. Piersonal gave a tea for Scott's church camp fund.

Friendship's evening service was especially interesting. It was given by the young people honoring their mothers. The mistress of ceremonies was Jessie Arnold. The scripture was read by Delores Patterson. Prayer by Ellsworth Thompson and the welcome was delivered by Hallie Huff. Barney Burham, Jr., played an organ solo. Harriett Peterson presented all mothers over 70, the youngest mothers, and the mother with the largest families. Other musical selections were given by the Arnold Sisters, Mrs. Francis Bailey Moody and Gloria Stevens. Tributes to Mothers of Today, War Mother and to memory of Mothers were delivered by Barbara Durham, Timothy Harrison and Mrs. Savannah Jones, respectively. The refreshments were furnished by the Men's Bible Class.

The Colemans gave a reception for their new godchild, Cheryl Ann Tytell, after the baby had been blessed. Mrs. Constance Washington and Mrs. Bee Stewart acted as hostesses. The baby was showered with many lovely gifts by family and friends. Some of the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Swinney, Mrs. Alberta Davis, Fay Brooks, Bernice Gibbs, Penny and Skeet Lundy, Mr. and Mrs. Muett, of Los Angeles and Mr. and Mrs. Coleman of the same city.

Mother's Day, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fuller gave a wedding reception for their sister nee Annabelle Fuller, and Walter Hamilton. It was a lovely affair and the bride wore white-flowered organdy. Their many friends showered them with lovely gifts.

Received announcement of the marriage of Melroke M. Palmer to Donald E. Bland, Monday, April 29, in Los Angeles, Calif. The couple are now at home. Congratulations, Mr. and Mrs. Bland.

Mrs. Louis Louis will entertain the Zodiac Bridge Club, Thursday. The club members are Anna Mae Woods, Alberta Davis, Louise LaGrand, Ernestine Cole, Lucille Bowlin, Alice Hill, Reba Compton, Pecolia Coleman, Constance Washington and Bessy Remba who is now in New York to attend hte funeral services of her brother.

You really should have been to the Ebony Earl-Phalanx basketball game. It was truly the classical game of the year. The Earls played football on the basketball court. Bill Irving got in full stride and put that ball in from practically every spot on the court. Cousin Philip Harrison didn't do so badly either. It was so comical that it gave Clyde Beatty's Circus a hard way to go. At the dance which followed we noted Bernice and Jack Gordon, Thelma and Alva Neblett, Harrison, Alvin Johnson who agitated the Earl's wives during the game. Barbara Durham, Thelma Jackson, Aaron Fairfax who is now the owner of a Buick. Stand back girls! Willie Bands, Esther Owens, Raymond Jones, who may be leaving us for Detroit, Myrtle Martin, Winfred Eckely and many more enjoyed both the game and dance.

We would now like to put a question to the parents of this community. Why don't you supervise your children? There were young people at that dance who really should have been in bed. Where are you, PARENTS? You talk and talk about child delinquency, but what are you doing about it? We bet that 90 per cent of you don't know where your children are half the time. You had better become interested in your obligations before it's too late for you to worry.

Two of our prominent citizens, Mr. and Mrs. James Woods, will leave us for points East Sunday, May 19. They were given a luncheon by Mr. and Mrs. Ford and were feted May 13, by Mrs. Laura Bailey. They will go to Hot Springs, Ark., where Mr. Woods can enjoy the baths. Mrs. Hall is leaving for the East also.

Quite a few Pasadenans went to recently-discharged James Smith's party at his home in Pomona. They tell us that everyone had a grand time. The Las Amigas are going to have a bridge tournament at the La Casita Del Arroyo. Tickets are now on sale. Don't forget the Ebony Earl's Pre-Memorial Dance at the Civic with George Brown and his orchestra.

That's all for now.

By Grace Fisher Atkins

Togs for school children are of primary importance. The personalities of children are potently affected by the clothes they wear to school. Perhaps, children's emotions and adjustments to situations are conditioned by their apparel. Through the medium of observation and study the attire of the school child has as much as 25 per cent influence on his conduct and ability to learn.

Many parents purchase clothing that is too large for the child. They intend that the garment will be worn until it ceases to be wearable. If average growth is compared to the average durability of the fabric, garments can fit and yet serve to the best of the cloth.

When a child must attend school in "too-large" a garment, he is embarrassed because he is slovenly and unkempt. Other children lose respect for him. He is also annoyed by parts of his clothing falling off the body. The apparel is subjected to greater destruction as the result of added "pulling-in-place" and catching on various objects.

Most children appreciate well fitted clothing, in order that they may enjoy free activity and expression.

The most desirable means of securing school clothes is for mother to make them. Patterns are available in various sizes. Mother can exercise some of her own ingenuity in "depths of hems," lengths of sleeves and the like. Necessary fittings for the individual can be done during the process of construction.

If mother does not manufacture her own children's wardrobe then the next best thing is to have a capable person do it. Then last, if the clothes must be purchased they should be selected to fit slightly larger and then altered to the individual requirement.

Parents must remember that their children are probably more affected by their wearing apparel than adults.

BOBBY YEAGER FIGHTS REGINO AGUILA FRIDAY

Classy Lightweight Ready For Action In 10 Rounder

Bobby Yeager, the Bert Lewis and George Tolson lightweight protege, who kicks like a mule with either hand, takes on Regino Aguila in the 10-round main event at Hollywood Legion Stadium Friday night and as usual is expected to sell the house out. Everytime Yeager battles at the Hollywood arena hundreds of fans are turned away for lack of space.

In Aguila, Bobby will be meeting one of the top men at his weight in Mexico. He has appeared here several times. He scored a technical knockout over Al Coutoure late last year and then himself suffered a technical loss to Don Lee. In Yeager's last appearance he decisioned Tony Chavez in Hollywood. Other fights found him waging three battles against Memo Llanes, tabling one victory, one loss which was questionable and one draw, which was also disputed.

George Tolson is the efficient trainer of Yeager and always sends his charges into the ring in tip-top condition, the principal reason why boys trained by him are consistent winners. John Thomas of the same stable is another shining example of Tolson's training.

Although a natural lightweight, Bobby will have to put on poundage for this one, as the boys are scheduled to fight as welterweights.

Matchmaker Charley McDonald has arranged some excellent prelims to round out the card.

LAYIN' IT ON THE LINE

By EDDIE BURBRIDGE, Sports Editor

DOTS AND DASHES . . — . . — Rumor has it that as a result of conferences here between Connie McCarthy, manager of the NBA lightweight champion, Ike Williams, and Bert Lewis, manager of the foremost challenger on the West Coast, John Thomas, a tentative match between the two boys has been scheduled for this summer. Let us hope that the bout is clinched soon . . . There are varied opinions among local fight experts but the majority think that Thomas will take Ike's measure and cut him a brand new suit titled "Ex-champ." They base their assertions on the fact that John has turned back the best in the division with his good left hand and proclaim that Ike will be no exception, regardless as to the fact that he holds the diadem. This writer is inclined to agree with these experts. It is true that Williams is a cold-blooded killer in style and hitting power but it is also true that Thomas has met and defeated many other hard punchers and emerged the victor. Thomas doesn't punch them into defeat, he cuts them to ribbons with a snakelike left jab and tantalizes the opposition with short uppercuts to the head and stinging hooks to the body. Added to this efficient assortment of weapons John has amazing boxing ability. He is like a wraith in the ring, flitting in and out delivering his punches and going under or moving aside from the punches of his opponents. We've seen him fight some boys that missed as many as seven straight punches, a lot of the would-be smashes hitting the upper ring rope where John had stood a split second before. Some of his opponents have become wild with rage in trying to hit the elusive boxing master and lost their heads entirely, this sad state of affairs making them easier prey for Thomas. It must be terribly exasperating to continually throw punches at a guy who never is there. We don't give out with this info as praise for Thomas. These are cold, hard facts gathered by this scribe in covering every local fight John has participated in over a period of years. That's why we think that Ike will look like a handcuffed prisoner in a bout against the local pride and joy and that if the two are brought together this summer in a match Los Angeles will be the home address of the new lightweight champion of the world . . — . . — MAYBE YOU KNOW, MAYBE YOU DON'T—Jackie Robinson is still playing heads up ball with the Montreal Royals . . . Manual Arts beat Jefferson High 4-1 in a prep baseball game last Thursday . . . Marshall High defeated Fremont, 63⅓ to 49, in a dual track meet at the Coliseum last Thursday afternoon . . . GO SOMEWHERE THIS SUMMER—With the doors unlatched and thrown open by the end of gas rationing and the war, this summer will really see a boom in vacation trips via auto, train and plane. Why don't you take a trip this summer? There's such a thing as a vacation trip for all, whether well-to-do or belonging to the daily bread-winners. Especially in California are we fortunate in being so placed as to have plenty of recreational facilities within the reach of all. Change of locale for two or three weeks will give you that needed spark to get back to work and tackle your problems with renewed vigor. Every individual needs to get away from the grind and strenuous routine of every day business life. I think that routine in time will ruin the life and ambition of any man. It is variety and change of scenery that makes life worth living to the hilt. There is a certain amount of routine you have to take with any job but there is definitely more in some than others. At one time in my town the postman was considered a man of importance insofar as Negroes were concerned and commanded a greater salary than any other similar work. I decided to become a postman. For five years I stuck it out. I can remember the routine clearly. I arose at five every morning, dressed, ate my breakfast, hurried to the postoffice, gathered my mail and delivered it. I had an hour for lunch, gathered my evening mail, delivered it, checked out and went home to dinner. I took in a motion picture or went dancing, returning home early because I had to be up at five the next morning. On Saturdays I delivered mail once, retired to my home, dug around in my garden, ate dinner, read a book and went to bed. On Sunday there was breakfast, church, and an early dinner. Then another show and to bed. Monday morning I was up at five to start doing the same darn thing all over again for another week. It got me, this daily routine. I also got to thinking that if I lived to have hair as long as a Chinaman I'd be doing the same thing daily until I was retired on pension or checked out. Then being ambitious it occurred to me that I'd never get to be postmaster general or even a superintendent (I lived in the South). That decided it. I resigned and became a newspaperman. This filled my want for variety. There's always something new cropping up to provide additional pleasure in the work and routine plays only a very small part in the game. Perhaps I am over allergic to routine but I suppose nearly everybody wishes that something different would happen in their humdrum lives once in a while. After that rather lengthy detour I think I still can get back to the original thought. To enable yourself to return to work feeling like a new person, if you take a vacation, get as far away from your present surroundings as possible, and find new ways to have a good time out of the category of boating, fishing, games, hiking or what have you. Banish all thoughts of work and home, try to get into that blissful state of complete relaxation, and fellow citizen, you'll sure be glad you did it when winter comes again. Besides being refreshed you'll have plenty pleasant memories to drag out and dust off from time to time when things get dull.

CINCINNATI, OHIO (Special) —The good folds of Cincinnati—and Indiana—pools, too — have Sunday, May 19, circled in red on their calendars for that's the date of the beloved Clowns' first 1946 appearance in those cities, with their opponents no less an attraction than the Cleveland Buckeyes, Negro American League and world's champions.

The Clowns and Buckeyes clash at Crosley Field in Cincinnati in an afternoon doubleheader, then cut fast tracks for Indianapolis where they officially open the Negro American League season there in a night game that same day.

Rams Will Play Philly Sept. 29

When the world champion Los Angeles Rams play their first 1946 National League game in the Los Angeles Coliseum next September 29, they will be up against their toughest opponent of the 1945 season.

The only team that was able to defeat the Rams in 1945 was Philadelphia, and it is against Philadelphia that the Rams open their 1946 campaign in defense of their title. The Eagles not only conquered the Rams once, but they turned the trick twice.

The 1946 Rams have added Kenny Washington and Woody Strode to their roster.

West Coast Baseball League In Successful Opening Week

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif.—The New West Coast Baseball Association goes into Chapter Two, Sunday afternoon, May 19, following a successful opening week marked by enthusiastic response of the fans to the pleasing baseball unfolded for them.

The second week of play opens on May 19 with Seattle at San Francisco, Oakland at Sacramento and Los Angeles at Fresno. The West Coast newspapers gave the new circuit a fine send-off. Bill Leiser, sports editor of the San Francisco Chronicle, devoted his entire column to the league and quoted Jesse Owens, president of the Portland team and first vice-president of the league, as saying: "We don't want anyone to watch us just because we are Negroes. We want to show you baseball that you'll want to pay to watch."

First looked upon as a "weak sister" of the league, the Fresno Tigers, managed by Dick "Pee Wee" Bradley, a retired officer and first sergeant, have made everyone sit up and take notice.

The Tigers have made arrangements to use Italian Park, with a seating capacity of 10,000, several times a week.

NO FOOLING

By Eddie Burbridge, Theatrical Editor

TO MUSIC LOVERS

"Are you a refined music lover,
Or do you simply go nut-ty,
When Slim Gaillard plays and sings,
'Cement Mixer, Put-ty, Put-ty'.?"

NOTES TO YOU—Nat (King) Cole and trio were up to par during their one week stand at the Orpheum Theatre which closed Monday and the rest of the show was generally good. Johnny Otis, despite the fact he has nineteen men in his orchestra, could use a couple of soloists in his reed and brass sections. The ones he uses are not ready for big time. Johnny himself is great on the drums. Eddie Green appeared as a droll emcee, Tina Dixon did all right in songs, Leon Collins cut quite a few intricate steps in a dance act and the Trenier Twins, Claude and Cliff, nearly stole the show with their vocalizing and the unique manner in which they put over their act . . . Dauneece Wilson, interprative dancer, currently appearing at the Club Alabam, combines her beauty with graceful talent. Last Sunday night Dauneece had a busy night, doing two shows and making a hurried trip in between shows to the Elks Ballroom to hear Floyd Ray's orchestra. This gesture proved profitable as the talented Miss Wilson won a pair of nylons and was duly photographed by Maceo Sheffield, who happened to be there. Dauneece, in addition to other spots, has appeared at the Rocking Chair Club in Seattle, the Cave at Vancouver, the Acme Club at Portland and Shepp's Playhouse here in Los Angeles . . . Jimmie Lunceford and his excellent orchestra take over the Orpheum stage for one week starting Tuesday, May 21. Rumor has it that the maestro may front his aggregation in a new musical film at Hollywood here. Interesting fact about Jimmie is that his Decca disc of "The Honeydripper" has sold over 800,000 copies to date. Featured with the Lunceford ork will be Marilyn Kilroy, lovely new singing star; the Lunceford vocal quartet and baritone Nick Brooks . . . Mel Rogers has leased the Elks Ballroom for dances every Sunday. Thus far he has presented Earl Hines and Floyd Ray. Sunday coming Johnny Otis, a favorite on the "Avenue," will bring his large orchestra into the hall. In addition to good music the Rogers man is giving away plenty free pairs of nylon hosiery to the ladies. This policy will continue every Sunday indefinitely . . . Ella Fitzgerald opens at the Club Bali in Washington, D. C. Friday night to begin her twelfth year in show business. She started her career back in 1935 with the late Chick Webb's orchestra . . . Mabel Fairbanks, bronze ice skater, traveled to Hynes, California recently to the Iceland Rink where she performed on the "Children's Hour" session. There were about 500 white children present that day and they waxed enthusiastic over the ability of Miss Fairbanks, so much so that she was besieged for autographs . . . Ethel Waters went into the new show of the Club Baron in N.Y.C. Wednesday . . . Deek Watson and his Brown Dots open at the Five O'clock Club in D.C. Friday . . . Kitty Murray heads the new show at New York's Elks Rendezvous . . . The Rimmer Sisters dance team, Dorothy and Marvelle, wrote from D. C. where they have been appearing with Lionel Hampton's Orchestra at the Howard Theatre, to say that they are on tour again with Hamp's ork. They both love California and expect to get out here again when Hamp hits L. A. in a couple of months or so. Original habitat of the attractive dancing kids is Chicago. While here about a year ago they appeared with "Pops" Hampton at the Orpheum and later filled a night club date at the Club Alabam . . . Mury Kagen, brother-in-law of Joe Glazer, "name band" booker, has purchased the Tip Top Club on South Central Avenue . . . Slim and Sweets, comedy dance team, have been signed to appear with Louis Armstrong in his new Musical Revusical scheduled to begin a tour of theatres today (May 16) opening in Newark, N. J. . . . Harris, Burnham and Scott, three side-splitting comedians, who co-starred with Peg Leg Bates during his engagement at the Elks Rendezvous in N. Y., will start a long tour which will eventually wind up here in L. A. . . . Lou Swarz takes the role of a comedienne in the all-Negro film "Stars on Parade." Reviewers say that Miss Swarz was very good in the pic, which is termed the best all-Negro pic ever made . . . Bunk Johnson and his New Orleans Jazz Band are currently playing the Stuyvesant Casino on New York's lower East Side. Bunk has made an album for RCA Victor titled the "New Orleans Jazz Album." It contains eight sides . . . Arthur "Big Boy" Crudup took his guitar along to RCA Victor and waxed "I'm in the Mood" and "She's Gone." He sings both . . . DOWN GOSSIP LANE—El Herbert, who fronts an excellent small combo, recently had his contract renewed by the Waldorf Cellar . . . Met Winifred Allen at Maethilde Kenner's home. She's sweet as hard to get honey, and has a disposition definitely sunny . . . Florence Gibbs is a new California resident from St. Paul, Minn. . . . Xenephon Lang has bought into a laundry which has branches all over the city . . . Lt. Walter Goins, cousin of Donald Goins and Gene Hilyard, the EAGLE's circulation man, who recently returned home from the wars is causing quite a bit of heart fluttering among the local femmes . . . Success crowned the efforts of Martin and Rene Hewlett, Gene Hilyard and Yours Truly on a crayfishing trip last Sunday. Mrs. Felice Hewlett, mother of the two Hewletts, boiled the delacacies Creole style and they were excellent. Most Californians have never seen a crayfish and those who have think they're used as bait. They were never so wrong. The Southerners out here place the crayfish in the same high standing as the lobster, the former tasting even better than the lobster when properly cooked. Ever eat crayfish beiste? That's stuffed crayfish to you. A dish fit for a king, Mates. FINAL ADD—Alberta Hunter, just returned from an overseas trip heading a USO camp show unit, is now in Los Angeles.

AMUSEMENT BRIEFS

TONY PASTOR vocalizes on both sides of his newest release —"If You Were There" and "Azusa" on Cosmo.

VAUGHN MONROE's ten- millionth record was just pressed by Victor.

Overheard by DEAN HUDSON: "See that little girl? Her neck's dirty." "Her does?"

HAL MCINTYRE says he won't mind if his next vocalist is a coloratura since he has no race prejudice.

☆ THEATRES—NIGHT SPOTS ☆

NYLON NIGHT AT THE ELKS—The ladies had a ball in more ways than one last Sunday night when the management of the Elks Ballroom gave away free nylon hosiery to quite a few lucky ladies. Top photo shows the glamorous Daunece Wilson, interprative dancer, who is currently appearing at the Club Alabam, immediately after receiving her pair of nylons from Bandleader Floyd Ray, on right. On the left Nolan Sharp, promising young heavyweight boxer, holds Miss Wilson's furs. Sharp is the doorman at the ballroom. Lower right shows two other lucky girls who won free nylons. The policy of the Elks will be to give away plenty Dupont nylons every Sunday night. —Photos by Sheffield.

'St. Louis Woman' Dispute Is Settled Out of 'Court' as Ingram, Nicholas Write Apologies

NEW YORK—Broadway's historic, precedent setting "showdown" battle between Muriel Rahn on the one hand and Rex Ingram and Harold Nicholas on the other arising out of Miss Rahn's brief appearance in the cast of "St. Louis Woman," was settled amicably among the principals involved in the controversy here last week. The settlement followed the receipt of Miss Rahn of an apology from Messrs Ingram and Nicholas, in which they denied having any intent to impugn the artistic abilities of the famous singing star.

Miss Rahn had contended that statements made by the Messrs. Ingram and Nicholas before several in the cast of "Woman" cast aspersions on her temperment and impugned her artistic ability. She sought redress before the council of Actors' Equity. That redress was to take the form of public censure to the actors whom she felt had wronged her from Equity on the basis of their action being irregular union behaviour; an apology from the two men. There had already been hearings before the Equity council. There was another hearing that promised to be quite explosive, with a number of witnesses appearing for both sides, scheduled for last Wednesday.

During the interim between the hearings, Clarence Derwent, incoming executive of the actors' union, talked to the three principals individually and discovered a basis on which discussions might be opened looking toward a settlement out of the hearing room. As a result of Derwent's intervention there was an exchange of letters between the pricipals. The letters were the Ingram-Nicholas apology and the Rahn acceptance. Following this acceptance Miss Rahn withdrew her action against the two men and the hatchet was buried.

Meanwhile despite the difficulties "St. Louis Woman" has become a solid hit. Miss Rahn's contract which had until July to run is still in effect and therefore the singing star's feelings are being somewhat assuaged by by substantial weekly pay checks. In other words, everybody is happy once again and everything is hunky dory with "St. Louis Woman."

ZIGGY TALENT, VAUGHN MONROE's ace comic, has heard of a new miracle drug which prevents intoxication . . . Sulfadenial!

Tiny Grimes at Down Beat Club

NEW YORK—Tiny Grimes and his Sextet opened at the Down Beat Club recently for their first appearance on Gotham's famed 52nd Street. The six-piece group features singer-trombonist Trummy Young and includes Marlowe Morris, piano; Eddie Nicholson, drums, John Hardee, tenor sax, and Gene Ramey, bass. Once again guitarist Grimes will be on the same bill as Art Tatum, who is also featured at the Down Beat, and with whom he made musical history as part of the fabulous Tatum Trio.

Will Warble At El Rancho Vegas Resort For 4 Weeks

When the Delta Rhythm boys croon their final note on the Amos 'n Andy broadcast May 28 they will have completed 36 sensational weeks as a regular feature of the popular NBC program.

The amazing musical combination—four voices and a piano—will take off the very next day for Las Vegas, Nev., where they open a four-week engagement at El Rancho Vegas hotel.

The Delta Rhythm Boys are no strangers in the famous Nevada resort. Their debut two years ago at the Last Frontier hotel marked the first time in history that a colored act had played that popular spot.

The engagement, which extended to four weeks, also marked the first time any act ever had been held over two additional weeks. This is considered something of an unusual feat when it is recalled that many of the greatest white acts in the business have been featured there for years.

Members are: Carl Jones, first tenor and arranger; Traverse Crawford, second tenor; Kelsey Pharr, baritone; Lee Gaines, bass; and Reno DeKnight, pianist and arranger. (Pacific Press Release.)

BUDDY RICH and his orchestra is currently wowing swing fans at the Downtown Orpheum theatre backed by a great stage show.

'Rhythm Town' Musical Opens Wednesday Nite

Book and lyrics for "Rhythm Town" were written by Reb Spikes. Music is by Austin McCoy and John Spikes.

Downbeat, Operetta, Two-In-A-Bar, Syncopation, Discord and numerous other musical terms will be used as names for the 35 character parts featured in the musical.

DARDANELLE has heard that the price of Scotch is steep because of the high cost ob-livion.

Nash Singers at Embassy in Opera 'Cavalleria Rusticana'

When announcement is made of some novelty in the entertainment world, the public rushes to see it. Sometimes it is pure curiosity which prpmpts them, sometimes other motives.

However, whatever prompts the public to see the first colored performance of the opera "Cavalleria Rusticana" by Mascagni, will be more than satisfied, for they will hear a perfectly trained group to do a finished performance. It will be sung in Italian.

Braheen Urban is producing two performances only at the Embassy Auditorium on May 16th and 17th. Mario Silva will conduct. The Luvenia Nash Singers, popular in pictures and radio, will perform this opera. Mrs. Nash, founder and director, has spent much time trying to break down the idea that colored singers can do nothing but spiriautls. In addition to these she has trained them in all the standard classics, other forms of music and now opera.

The principal characters, Olga Karma, soprano, as Santuzza and Julian Oliver, tenor as Turiddu, are the guest artists. The other artists are Margaret Pett, mezzo soprano as Lola, Elise Boone, contralto as Mamma Lucia and LeRoi Antoine, baritone from Haiti, will play the part of Alfio.

Lamplighter in Award to Hines

"Fatha" Hines, whose band set a dizzy pace during a recent week's engagement at the Orpheum theatre, was signally honored when he received the Lamplighter's Merit Award as "Musician of the Week" at Sunday's Lamplighter jam session at the Streets of Paris club here.

Ted Yerxes, better known as "The Lamplighter" to thousands of theatrical devotees in the film capital, presented the trophy as

Alberta Hunter Relaxes Here After USO Trip

The personable Alberta Hunter, a standout favorite in American theatrical circles, is in Los Angeles enjoying the balmy weather and seriously considering locating here. Miss Hunter is staying at the home of another star, Miss Ethel Waters, 2127 South Hobart Blvd., and enjoying a period of relaxation.

In 1943 the singing star was chosen to head a USO Camp Show Unit which traveled via

ALBERTA HUNTER

New York to the China, India-Burma War Theatre, entertaining over a million servicemen. Her biggest thrill was performing before 40,000 persons at the Sports Plaza at Neuremberg, Germany, where war trials are now being held.

Miss Hunter arrived in New York about 2½ months ago from overseas and has been in Los Angeles for a week. She asked her agent not to accept bookings until she is fully rested from her strenuous trip abroad. Another thrill came to her here when she was informed by wire that the War Department had awarded her Campaign Ribbons for meritorious service. While here many social courtesies are being extended Miss Hunter. However, the many admirers of her talent will not be satisfied until she has returned to her chosen field.

THE KING LOOKS THE SITUATION OVER—"What a time we'll have in New York," Eddie Duchin, recently discharged piano genius, tells Nat Cole. "Yes, but I hate to leave Hollywood," is the King's answer. The two will meet again this week at the first broadcast of the Kraft Music Hall summer show on May 16, where the King Cole Trio, Edward Everett Horton and Russ Case's Orchestra will reign supreme for 13 weeks. As soon as the Trio flies in on the Constellation, rehearsals begin for the initial broadcast in which they play a very definite and important part.—Calvin's News Service.

Record News And Reviews

That singin' man who makes the keyboard really jump, Jazz Gillum, pounds the ivories with an unusually provocative rhythm, stressing the philosophy of "Keep On Sailing." He showcases his unique method of delivery on the vocal, which will make his fans plenty pleased with this side. On the reverse, "Fast Woman Blues," Gillum, with some scintillating background music from Alfred Elkins on string bass and Leonard Caston on electrical guitar, hits a hot jive groove on this latest jazz hit disc.

A major wax debut, one which will cause plenty of commotion over the record counters, is that of the Deep River Boys, who sound off in fine fashion with "The Story of E Bobbo Lee Bob" and "That Chick's Too Young to Fry" for RCA Victor.

Newcomers to wax are the Harmoneers Quartet, four singers with an unusual, toe-tapping style who sing "Crown Him King" and "Where Could I Go?" After building up a wide reputation down South, the Harmoneers now debut for RCA Victor and their stimulating performance will win a wide following.

Brilliant Contralto Gave Program Of Spirituals

NEW YORK—Carol Brice, the brilliant young contralto — discovery of Dr. Serge Koussevitsky and Dr. Fritz Reiner, performed Brahm's Alto Rhapsody with the Union Theological Seminary all-male chorus recently.

Miss Brice is just 27 years old and is the first of her race to win the Walter W. Naumburg as a tribute to the excellence of her artistry and vocal technic.

Last Sunday Miss Brice appeared at the St. George Episcopal Church at its annual Negro Spiritual Service and sang several of the spirituals for which she became known at St. George's while soloist there.

The story of how Miss Brice became a member of St. George's choir is interesting. When she won the five year Juilliard Fellowship she was assigned to study with the famous baritone Francis Rogers. After hearing her sing, Mr. Rogers immediately called Harry T. Burleigh, famous Negro composer and baritone soloist at St. George's, to hear her. Mr. Burleigh called George Kemmer, director of the choir, to hear her. The latter placed her in the choir where she later advanced to the position of contralto soloist.

Carol Brice remained a member of the choir from 1939 to 1943 at which time she resigned to take a job at Trinity Church in East Orange, New Jersey.

ON THE TURF

By Geo. A. Ramsey

Hipodromo de Tijuana — He came, conquered and departed. That's what Can-Jones, famous son of Catalan-Miss Jones, did in the feature attraction of the spring stake season last Sunday before 10,000 fans. It was the Tijuana handicap with an added value of $10,000 at 1¼ miles.

Arriving only 6 hours before the race from Bay Meadows Can-Jones won as his rider, pleased with Jockey A. Skoronski up.

The Canadian champion Golstreworth who had won four out of his last five starts at the border course made a poor showing. Jockey F. Wilbourn tried to make the champion run but he refused to extend himself and finished next to last beaten by 26 lengths. The public made the mutual field the favorite at 4-1, with Spring Drift, The Gray Ghost the choice in the field. Can-Jones was second choice at 5-1. Spring Drift finished third.

The winner paid $12 to win, $7.40 to place and $4.00 to show. The time was 2.05 flat. The 16th running of the famous Tijuana Handicap will go down in history and the name of Can-Jones will be placed besides other great winners such as Golden Prince, Seabiscuit, Gallant Sir, Victorian, and others, whose pictures now grace the horsedom hall of fame.

The secondary feature, named after the great Carlaris, a sprint for the speed burners. Vettura, once the queen of the border course, came back after a year's absence and won the 5½ furlongs sprint by five lengths in the fast time of 1:05 4/5, paying $6.40. The crowd got the biggest thrill in the ninth race when Creole Pass came from out of the clouds to win by a nose. He was well bet and paid $7.60. The Daily-Double backers received $65.80 and the Quiniela $24.80. Until next Sunday, so-long and keep smiling, George.

a "salute to one of the greatest exponents of modern jazz."

Hines and his crew left Wednesday for Oakland, Calif., where they opened an eight-week engagement at the Swing Club.

The unit returns to Hollywood in July and tentatively is slated for a feature role in a forthcoming picture to be produced by one of Hollywood's major studios.

Gene Rodgers To Swanee Inn

One of the film capital's most unusual artists is 250-pounder Gene Rodgers, aptly termed "rajah of the keyboard," whose particular brand of classical swing is becoming the talk of the town.

Rodgers, who closed a four-week engagement at Low Leroy's new Cotton Club on the Sunset Strip last week, is set for a gala return next week to the Swanee Inn as a headline attraction.

Genial Gene was a regular feature for eleven consecutive months at the Florentine Gardens here prior to his embarking on an eastern tour of the Eastern seaboard. He played record-breaking engagements in New York at the Three Deuces, opposite Coleman Hawkins at Orsatti's in Philadelphia and in Detroit at the Paradise theatre.

Returning to Hollywood, Rodgers was featured attraction for twelve weeks at Tom Breneman's of "Breakfast in Hollywood" radio fame.

Phil Moore '4' In Rapid Rise

NEW YORK—Phil Moore and the Phil Moore Four have risen quite rapidly in the music world in the short time the group has been formed. Not long ago Phil was in Hollywood as musical director and arranger for M-G-M and other picture studios. He was offered the opportunity to form his own band and play at Cafe Society Downtown, which he did, but soon decided that a small group was more to his liking. So the Phil Moore Four came into being and soon caught on with sophisticated New Yorkers. After playing at Cafes Society Downtown and Uptown and the Copocabona, Phil took his Four on tour, where they continued their success. Their first 52nd Street engagement at the Down Beat Club resulted in a four-times holdover for the group. Phil and the Four will go to the Club Bali in Washington, D. C. on May 31 for two weeks.

Phil is the composer of "Shoo Shoo Baby," "I'm Gonna See My Baby," and many other songs, and has trained many popular singers, including Lena Horne.

Philharmonic Ork Gets New Prexie

At the annual board meeting recently of the Southern California Symphony Association, which sponsors the Philharmonic Orchestra of Los Angeles, Harvey S. Mudd, president of the organization for the past 12 years, resigned his office to be succeeded by Henry Duque.

SULLIVAN SIGNS

Barry Sullivan, Monogram contract star whose latest film is "Suspense," has signed with C. B. McGregor of Hollywood to star in radio playlet, "Power of Faith." Transcription will be released in June on the Skippy Playhouse.

L. A. White Sox Drop Two In Loop Opener

SAN FRANCISCO—A crowd of 5216 fans, including Governor Earl Warren who tossed the first ball, saw the Sea Lions of San Francisco win a doubleheader over the Carlisle Perry's L. A. White Sox last Sunday. Tommy Maloney Assemblyman from the Mission District, served as catcher for Gov. Warren.

Art Demery, fireball right-hander for the San Franciscos, limited the Los Angelenos to five hits and struck out 11, In the third inning he retired the side on strikes and in two other frames whiffed two men consecutively.

The Los Angeles right-hander, Orinthal Anderson, was no slouch, either. He held the locals to six hits and except for a lapse in the second they might be playing yet, for the defense was tight as evidenced by lack of errors. Anderson issued a walk to Jim Hamilton, first man up, and Jake Page beat out a bunt. Eddie Kinnon forced Page, but Jewel Day delivered a double to right for Hamilton's run. Jack Brown grounded out, short to first, allowing Day to check in.

SOX TALLY

San Francisco's third tally came about in the fifth on Demery's single, Griffith Lomax's sacrifice and Bill Flowers' fluke single to center. Demery was touched for three hits by the Sox in the seventh and their solitary run. Velma Revada doubled, Bill Sommers moved him up with a single and Ray Lott brought him home with a liner into right.

In the short game, the left-hander Jim Brown threw a three-hitter at Los Angeles but his orthodox rival, Schoolboy Thomas, didn't last long. Schoolboy was clouted for triples in the second by Page and Day, a double by Brown and singles by Hamilton and Jesse Alexander before Manager Wayne Carr himself relieved Thomas.

Score Ads of New Night Club As Anti-Negro

Advertisements featuring insulting, anti-Negroid caricatures were used indiscriminately as part of the publicity campaign which marked the opening of the new Cotton Club here recently, creating a furore in Hollywood's liberal circles.

Chief target is Lew Leroy, owner of the new night spot, located in the heart of the film capital's famous Sunset Strip, only a stones' throw from such noted clubs as the Trocadero, Mocambo and Clover Club.

The main ad, run concurrently in local dailies and trade papers, featured a caricature of a pickaninny with the customary large white thick lips and kinky hair peeing from behind a Cotton Club sign, uttering in dialect fashion: "Heah Ah is, Boss!"

Above the main entrance of the club is a large multi-colored neon sign depicting a large bale of cotton with two figues slouched in a dozing manner on each side in typical Mississippi levee fashion.

Critics point out that Hollywood has developed into one of the country's most progressive cities and that the insertion of this type of ante-bellum advertising harms the cause of interracial adjustment.

Louise Franklin Pajama Expert In Daring Play

Louise Franklin, playing in the daring comedy "Two in a Bed," starring Louise Beavers, at the Musart Theater, has become so adept in slipping on her pajamas underneath the bed sheets so many times during the past twelve weeks in one of the scenes in the play that she has clipped off three minutes from the length of the performance.

GIRL SCOUTS celebrating the 34th Anniversary of Girl Scouting in the United States. Girls of all races, creeds, and colors participated in the activities built around the theme: "Citizenship in Action Around the World." Thousands of Negro girls throughout the United States took part in the celebration. Negro girls have joined Girl Scouting in large numbers during the past few years, more than a 300 percent increase being noted in their numbers from 1940 to 1945. Many young people are on the waiting list to join the Scouts, simply because there are not enough trained adults to aid in setting up and conducting new Scout troops.

Dares Powers to Show Famed Models Against Negro Girls

Neil Scott, public relations and publicity man of New York City, has written an open letter to John Robert Powers, nationally famous for his Powers Models and considered as the foremost authority on beauty, challenging him to exhibit a number of his prize models against a like number of Negro models at a pro-designated public place and let the public be invited to judge whether or not the Negro woman's beauty noes not entile her to a permanent place in the modelling profession.

Scott pointed out that although there are many beautiful Negro women who have developed skill in modelling they find themselves blocked from making a decent living in this highly profitable field of endeavor because of their race.

"GHOST BUSTERS"

Vera Lewis and Chester Clute have been added to the cast of "Ghost Busters," Monogram comedy starring Leo Gorcey and the Bowery Boys. William Beaudine is directing for producer Jan Grippo.

Dallas Is Negro Flicker Center

DALLAS—Production and distribution of seven new all-Negro cast motion pictures for the season 1946-47 has been announced by Bert Goldberg, pioneer producer of Negro pictures, of New York, and Alfred N. Sack of Dallas, head of the Sack Amusement Enterprises, pioneer distributors of Negro films.

Duke Ellington At Paramount

NEW YORK—It's amazing to report that during all the years that Duke Ellington has occupied the top-notch spot as America's leading bandleader-composer, he has never brought his world-famous band to the Paramount Theatre, one of New York's most celebrated showplaces. He is now in there for a four-weeks engagement.

BIBLE QUESTIONS ANSWERED BY THE VOICE of PROPHECY
INTERNATIONAL BIBLE BROADCASTER

Question—How many verses are there in the Bible, and how long does it take to read the Bible through?

Answer—I have never counted them, but one authority says there are 31,173 verses. It takes about sixty hours to read the Bible at average speed.

Q.—Why is the devil so often pictured as red?

A.—Possibly because the "great red dragon" described in Revelation 12:3 represents "that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world." Verse 9.

Q.—Did not Joshua's long day (Joshua 10) break the continuity of the week?

A.—No. The day did not end till sunset. (See Leviticus 23:32.) The number of days, not the elapse of times, makes the week. "The sun... hasted not to go down about a whole day." Joshua 10:13.

Q.—What is the "third heaven" mentioned in 2 Corinthians 12:2-4?

A.—According to that passage, it is Paradise; and Paradise is where God's throne is (Revelation 2:7; 22:1, 2), or heaven. Matthew 6:9 says, "Our Father which art in heaven." (1) The atmospheric heaven of heavens about the earth; (2) the starry heavens; (3) the heaven of God's throne.

Q.—I can't understand how Christ could be both God and man.

A.—Nor can anyone else, but the Bible teaches it. Like creation, we cannot comprehend it, but we believe it on the evidence presented in God's Word. As the apostle says, "And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory." 1 Timothy 3:16.

Q.—Does 1 John 5:13 teach that we have eternal life now?

A.—It says: "These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God." (See also verses 11 and 12.) We accept Christ by faith, and we have eternal life in Him. (John 1:4.) Many confound eternal life with immortality which we receive at the resurrection. "For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality." 1 Corinthians 15:53.

Minister Pins Bias Growth On Tory Coalition

Rev. Claude Williams, crusading pastor of Detroit's Institute of Applied Religion, this week told a press conference in Los Angeles that "racial problems are growing because there is a coalition of reactionary forces, growing stronger daily in the face of the rising world-wide budding forth of democracy."

He cited the Catholic hierarchy, the world Sunday School Association headed by Eddie Rickenbacker, the National Association of Manufacturers, the Christian Businessmen's Assn., Youth for Christ, Moral Re-armament, Guideposts, Inc., Spiritual Mobilization and the Ku Klux Klan.

"All of these groups," said Williams, "under the guise of attacking 'Atheistic Communism' are really attacking the democratic people's movements concerned with bread and peace."

Long connected with the fight in the Couth for the rights of labor and minority groups, Rev. Williams is in Los Angeles to speak at the invitation of the Committee for Rev. Claude Williams at various meetings. Carey McWilliams heads the invitational committee.

GOP Official Director of Ku Klux Klan

NEW YORK—New York State Republicans were slightly dizzy this week trying to explain how a leading member of their party, a public official, was a founder of the recently revived Knights and Women of the Ku Klux Klan.

He is Queens County Motor Vehicle Commissiner Horace A. Demarest. He was appointed to the post by Gov. Thomas E. Dewey.

Demarest admitted last Tuesday he signed papers in 1923 which made him a director of the klan.

"I was only a dummy." Declared Demarest.

He admitted he reecived $100 for becoming a director of the Alpha Pi Sigma, cover up for the Klan. The organization became a fullfledged KKK, with Demarest an offieer, in 1925 through a certificate change of name.

NEW YORK—Dr. Ira De A. Reid, chairman of the department of sociology at Atlanta (Ga.) university, has been appointed the first incumbent of a visiting professorship of Negro culture and education at the New York university school of education, for the coming year, Chancellor Harry Woodburn Chase announced last night.

The new chair has been established for a three-year experimental period under a grant of the general education board, Dr. Chase said. The late Dr. James Weldon Johnson was New York university's first Negro professor and taught courses in racial contributions from 1934 until his death in 1938.

Dr. Reid, in serving as visiting professor, has been granted a year's leave of absence from Atlanta university to initiate the experimental program.

In Memoriam

To the lovely memory of VERNILLE PONCE DE LEON, who passed May 13, 1945, and who was loved by all the family and her many friends.

THE TRAVELER

She has put on invisibility.
Dear Lord, I cannot see—
But this I know, although the road ascends
And passes from my sight,
That there will be no night;
That You will take her gently by the hand and lead her on,
Along the road of life that never ends,
And she will find it is not death but dawn.
I do not doubt that You are there as here,
And You will hold her dear.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dennis (parents).
Mrs. Helen Flake (aunt)
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Doyle (aunt and uncle).

It is estimated that half the deaths of women in childbirth and a third of infant deaths could be prevented if known measures were fully applied.

DR. ZETAR SAYS:

Our methods attack the basic cause of many common ailments. Backache and joint pains and most of the rheumatics, such as neuritis, lumbago, rheumatism, arthritis, neuralgia and sciatica, etc., are due to joint distortions or toxemia, therefore, unless the basic cause of these ailments are treated only temporary relief can be accomplished.

It is no illusion with me after years of successful practice, but it is a scientific fact, based on exact observation and correct thinking that Chiropractic treatments do bring wonderful results, especially in the rheumatics, joint-distortions, nerve and circulatory disorders and most of the gastro-intestinal ailments; also Dr. Zetar has specialized in the correction of Foot Disabilities for many years, so if you are in need of FOOT COMFORT, why suffer, when there are tried and proven methods of treatments to help you. You will not go wrong to consult us on these problems.

Native Californians Officers Installed

The Native Californians met recently at the home of Mrs. Adele McGruder, 4328½ South Main street, to install the newly elected officers of the club for the ensuing year. Mrs. Yola Brinson was chairman of the committee in charge of the installation. The installing officer was Mr. Frederick M. Roberts, former assemblyman and member of the firm of A. J. Roberts and Sons, morticians. The choice could not have been more appropriate, for Mr. Roberts and his family came to California many years ago and have seen Los Angeles grow.

The retiring officers were presented with beautiful perfume bottles for their service. These included Mrs. Naomi Dorsey, president; Mrs. Estella Broady, recording secretary; Mrs. Maggie Shepard, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Viola Jackson, treasurer, and Mrs. Ethel Hampton, chaplain. Mrs. Adele McGruder was given a token for her self-sacrificing work during the year as chairman of the sunshine and congratulatory committee.

The new officers are: Mrs. Estella Broady, president; Mrs. Bessie Burke, vice president; Mrs. Anita Wright, recording secretary, and Mrs. Cecil Jones, chaplain. The corresponding secretary and treasurer remain the same.

Mrs. Naomi Dorsey has given four years of faithful and efficient service as president of the Native Californians and expressions of appreciation were heard from the members for her loyal service. Deserving of much praise also is the retiring secretary, Mrs. Estella Broady, who has been very valuable to the club.

Mrs. McGruder and Mr. McGruder served a delicious repast as the members and guests reminisced of early Los Angeles.

Christian Science Text 'Mortals and Immortals'

"Mortals and Immortals" will be the Sunday Lesson-Sermon subject in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston. The Golden Text is from II Corinthians: "Henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we him no more."

In Mark's Gospel is it related that Jairus, a ruler of the synagogue, came to Jesus "And besought him greatly, saying, My little daughter lieth at the point of death: I pray thee, come and lay thy hands on her, that she may be healed; and she shall live . . . . While he yet spake, there came from the ruler of the synagogue's house certain which said, Thy daughter is dead: why troublest thou the Master any further?" But Jesus said unto him, "Be not afraid, only believe . . . . And when he was come in, . . . he took the damsel by the hand, and said unto her, . . . Damsel, . . . arise. And straightway the damsel arose, and walked."

Mary Baker Eddy writes in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures:" "The human concepts named matter, death, disease, sickness, and sin are all that can be destroyed." "Man's individual being can no more die nor disappear in unconsciousness than can Soul, for both are immortal."

'Circuit' Is Smart Woman's Magazine

In Chicago there is published a monthly periodical, "A Smart Woman's Magazine," titled Circuit. This magazine is edited by two Negro women who started with an idea and a pamphlet.

Seeing the growing decay in Negro communities, they felt that our women, themselves, could change the pattern.

This idea caught fire at once. Out of it grew Circuit magazine, which is about the size of Time magazine, on enameled paper, bound in covers designed by the art director, Leroy Winbush, who is famous for his impressionistic paintings.

Circuit magazine is carefully planned and the composition of each page is appropriate to the information it features. Circuit is concerned with community problems and brings to its readers timely articles by thinkers in this field.

Pride of race is evidenced by Negro women who are pioneering in new fields, contributing to inter-racial integration, and taking the leadership in political, economic and domestic problems.

Mrs. Alone Feaman, editor, and Mrs. Mildred Proctor, associate, are still amazed that the tremendous interest in their pamphlet has caused the birth of "A Smart Woman's Magazine."

Dr. Leonard Bloom To Be Main Speaker

Dr. Leonard Bloom, professor of social science at University of California Los Angeles campus will speak Sunday evening at Second Baptist church, 7:30 p.m., on the annual "College Night" program.

The program is planned to create interest in the high school seniors to continue their educations.

Negroes who gave freely of their blood and tears to clean up Facism in Europe are not afraid to do some sacrificing to clean up the homeland.

The Klan attacks are not aimed solely at the Negro people. The motive of these terrorists is deeper than just trying to scare Negroes from securing and living in decent homes.

The so-called white supremacy protectors see at work the powerful labor movement rolling across the nation, uniting workers of all classes, colors, and creeds. Signs of the times point to the eradication of the reign of capitalist terror. "The New World is a-coming."

And as helpless to prevent it as they would be to stop Niagara with a dam made of toothpicks, they are resorting to the cowardly use of striking fear into the hearts of their victims by burning the Cross—symbol of sacrifice in a holy cause. Like Haman, however, they themselves may be impaled on the instrument of torture they designed for others.

"We must change our foreign policy. The friendship of the United Nations is anchored in the unity of the Big Three. It is but a small band of willful gangsters who are gambling for world domination. There must be an international guardian of atomic energy. The Security Council of the United Nations must be a council for peace, not a bargain counter with the United States holding the atom bomb as a threat to get the best bargain."

"And we must remember," said Attorney General Kenny, "that peace begins at home. In order to have peace in our own country, in our own state, we must have full employment, full equality at work, there must be no discrimination of any kind anywhere."

Panels for discussion occupied about half the program. Questions were asked freely. The dominant one, What can we do to better these conditions? was answered by a vigorous "VOTE" by the leaders. "Vote on June 4. Elect representatives to congress, to the legislature, who will carry out your wishes."

Following the panel sessions, the delegates met again en masse and adopted the resolutions which had been drafted in the panel sessions.

Among those resolutions were: Discontinue the use of the Security Council as a weapon against the Soviet Union; oust the Franco government from Spain; international control of atomic energy; ration food again; condemn the use of food as a weapon for imperialism; withdraw American troops from China; withdraw British troops from Palestine; complete independence for India; educate for legislation; support full employment, social security, a public health program, 65c minimum wage law, extension of the OPA, an emergency housing program, opposition to anti-Semitism, jim-crowism, and all un-Americanism and fascism everywhere.

A resolution adopted with great applause was that requesting Secretary of State Byrnes to resign, and asking President Truman to appoint Senator Claude Pepper in his place. Another resolution which seemed to meet wholehearted approvel asked for the cancellation of the Bikini bomb test as a "waste of the people's money."

Over 40 per cent of the nation's selectees were found unfit for military duty. Of these at least one-sixth had remediable effects. Many more of the defects were preventable.

members of the old Capone mob had been planning for several months to take over from the Jones boys. They reported the mob had been joined by mobsters from Detroit who were successful in operating the number racket there.

These sources further reported that only three weeks ago a strategy meeting was held at a ranch owned by one of the mob leaders near Phoenix.

Jones, who heads the combine reputed to obtain the largest "take" from the estimated $5,000,000 annual profits of the policy rackets here, was kidnaped in front of the south side home of his cashier, Frances Myles.

Jones, along with his wife Lydia; his chauffeur and Miss Myles had arrived in front of the home when two of the gunmen, handkerchiefs covering their faces, stepped up brandishing machine guns. The gunmen slugged Jones and attempted to seize Miss Myles. She broke away and ran into her home to summon police. The gunmen pulled Jones into their car and drove away.

The kidnaping of Jones has aroused the entire Southside, as well as Negroes in various other cities where the story of the fabulous Jones brothers is well known.

Negroes are quick to cite that, although the policy racket is the source of the income, the brothers nevertheless have done Chicagoans plenty of good, also. A number of large business are owned by the Jones boys and operated entirely by Negroes. These include a department store, dairy, five-and-dime store and other holdings.

Originally there were three Jones brothers. McKissack, the youngest, was killed in an automobile accident here two years ago. George, the second brother, was vacationing in Mexico when news of his brother's abduction reached him.

sonnel, including two officers. An argument ensued between Collier and two white navy men. During the fight that followed, Collier was either knocked, pushed, or leaped overboard.

Since the disappearance of Collier and the recovery of the body several days later, no investigation has been made to determine how the man went overboard to his death. Mrs. Georgia Collier, widow of the dead man, sensing foul play, repeatedly asked authorities of San Diego and Coronado to launch an investigation. Both declined to act on the grounds they lacked jurisdiction.

Mrs. Collier finally contacted the office of Attorney Walter L. Gordon Jr. of Los Angeles, and on May 3, Gordon sent Atty. Everette Porter and office investigator Atty Roger Q. Mason to San Diego. The two men succeeded in enlisting the aid of police chief J. W. Jordan of Coronado.

The investigators uncovered information of a startling nature, indicating that several sailors had ganged up on Collier. The investigators quoted a witness as stating that Collier was near the stern of the boat when he was approached by two sailors, one of whom made the remark, "There's a 'N——r' now." Collier, evidently sensing trouble, began retreating toward the bow of the vessel. When crowded, he is said to have drawn a knife.

One sailor is said to have struck Collier and to have received a cut on the arm in exchange. An outcry from the injured sailor brought other navy men to the scene, and the crowd began milling menacingly toward Collier. All this time, eyewitness asserted, no attempt was made by the crew or the two navy officers to halt the disturbance.

According to the eye-witness, one of the sailors seized a grappling hook and struck Collier, causing him to fall overboard. Collier was heard to scream as he fell into the water. The warning cry "man overboard" was sounded and the boat stopped, putting a life boat in the water. The ferry, however, immediately continued on to its San Diego berth to discharge its passengers.

Collier's rescue was not effected. Four days later, his body was washed ashore with the face in a badly decomposed condition.

toes, tomato juice, peaches, pineapple, pears and fruit cocktail, which represent about 60 percent of all sales of canned fruits and vegetables.

Prices were checked on the brands and types which were on the grocers' shelves regardless of whether they were or were not listed on the "Community ceiling price lists." Space is limited on the posted price list so that it is impossible to include every brand and type of item.

"The survey was conducted," Keyser said, "to see how many of our grocery stores are complying with OPA price regulations.

"It is disappointing to know that 50 percent of the grocery stores in our area are not complying with the regulations.

"The manager or owner of the stores that were found to be charging over ceiling will be called before the local OPA price panel for a conference, where necessary measures will be taken to insure compliance.

The board is asking the cooperation of the consumer in aiding in their fight against the black market meat situation.

employment practices. Finally, Van Co. Personnel Manager Stonebarker agreed to the hiring of Negro clerks, checkers and stock people in the grocery department which is under the direct control of his company.

Mrs. Wilson, president of the league, told The EAGLE her organization would continue the fight to assure the employment of Negroes in those departments leased to concessionaires, such as bakery, butcher, vegetable, etc.

According to the agreement reached with the Van Market Co., 75 percent of the workers in the grocery department will be Negroes.

Approximately 15,000,000 Americans, living in 40 percent of the counties, do not have any recognized general hospital.

APPLIES FOR GUN PERMIT

Following the burning of a cross on his property, Hickerson applied to the police for a gun permit. The application, made on Monday, was "taken under advisement," according to the police.

Mrs. Hickerson saw the blazing cross late Sunday night as she and her husband were preparing for bed.

Hickerson said he did not think his neighbors were responsible for the act but that the newly revived Klan, learning of his court fight through the newspapers, had committed the act.

"I'm not going to let them scare me out, though," Hickerson said. "I'll stick here until the supreme court hands down a decision."

Hickerson, a roofing contractor, has been involved in a two-year court battle attempting to break a property owners' restrictive covenant on his block. The case is now pending before the state supreme court.

If you get the blues—or just plain tired—take a trip to Elsinore. That is what we did. We, being the grand gal that has papers on me, my wife; my brother-in-law, Virice Hayes and his wife, Bernice Hayes, and of course, me.

Less than 20-odd miles up in the hills—across the lake—is a hot springs. It is so mellow that it is claimed that people suffering from all sorts of ailments have thrown away their crutches and the "misery" vanishes completely.

We cannot vouch for the authenticity of the baths—but we know that we felt like new people. Besides it doesn't cost one penny to bathe in these natural hot and warm waters flowing out of the bowels of Mother Earth.

It is only free this year—because next month — a million-dollar hotel resort will be built and it will be out of the reach of people like me.

So hie tail it up to Elsinore this summer.

Any Elsinorean like Earl Dancer, Ira Pettigrew, Eddie Ellis, his wife, will tell you how to reach the free hot springs in the hills. And if you feel romantic you can coast for seven miles or so and you will be in the beautiful San Juan Capistrano mission, made more famous by the Rene song, "When the Swallows Come Back to Capistrano."

One of the outstanding new citizens of Elsinore is George Moore. You remember him? He was the dimunitive guy who ran a gas station and sold bodles of tires at Santa Barbara and Central, next to Gene Sorrail's place.

First of all here is a little guy that is the champion of fathers, his wife recently gave birth to their tenth child. All living. George even sings in the community programs composed of all citizens of the staid little resort of Elsinore.

But George is also making history in another way. He has under construction one of the finest health resort projects in the nation. When completed it will contain 25 rooms for sleeping—each with a shower. A restaurant, a beauty shop, a sun deck for sun bathers, a tennis court, a swimming pool and a gas station. He plans to sink a well so that his guests will be able to bathe in the hot springs without going up into the hills 20 miles away.

George Moore, the champ, hopes to have his project ready by Decoration Day. It will be most mellow.

Eula M. Reeves and Mary E. Baker operate the Elsinore Inn, more popularly known as "The Hotel." This is a fine spot and one can have plenty of fun at the "hotel."

Elsinore has long been the playground of Angelenos — one can enjoy nearly all sports such as hunting, fishing, hiking, swimming, etc., in and near Elsinore.

And if you want to rest—why the town is so quiet—they take i nthe sidewalks as soon as it gets dark. And boy, how you can sleep. Ask big Gus Robinson when you see him.

Civic Leaders Push Plans For 300-Bed Interracial Hospital

"Open to every race, creed and color in the finest tradition of American democracy."

With this as its guiding principle, final plans have been formulated for a community-wide campaign to finance construction of a 309-bed, non-profit hospital on a large site at 54th and Main streets, now owned free and clear by West View Hospital, Inc., it was announced this week by D. A. Hawkins, M.D., president of the institution.

Ultimate goal of the drive is $1,000,000, sufficient to build and equip the 300-bed institution, but plans provide for start of construction on the first 50-bed unit as soon as enough finances have been obtained. Architect Paul R. Williams has so designed the hospital that it can be built in 50-bed or more units.

First incorporated last August, West View Hospital today is a well-established and going organization. In addition to President Hawkins, officers are W. W. Davis, M.D., vice president; W. E. A. Forde, M.D., secretary, and E. W. Hardimon, D.D.S., treasurer.

More than 85 of the general community's most outstanding civic, business, religious, fraternal, educational, labor and other leaders have accepted membership on the community advisory board, which is to have its first joint meeting with the hospital's board of directors tomorrow (Friday) at the Los Angeles County Medical Association headquarters, 1925 Wilshire boulevard, at 8 p.m. At this session, plans will be outlined and set into motion for the conduct of the building fund campaign throughout the city.

At a press conference at the Clark Hotel, President Hawkins, Jarvis, Executive Secretary Robinson and other speakers told the background history of establishment of West View Hospital, reviewed the critical need for additional hospital facilities for Los Angeles as a whole and for the Negro community in particular, and went on record with the declaration that the organization's objective covers not only building of West View Hospital but breaking down the bars of racial prejudice in hospitals throughout the city and county.

To Award Music Scholarships To Best Boy and Girl Singers

With band concerts scheduled for every week day noon and diversified programs in various sections of the city, National Music Week will open May 5 and will end in Hollywood Bowl May 12 with a huge program sponsored by the Municipal Bureau of Music.

Eight hundred young people from 14 junior and senior choruses of nine city districts will combine their vocal effort in the Bowl with Roger Wagner, supervisor of youth choruses, directing.

Soloist for the Bowl program climaxing Music Week will be Lauritz Melchior, famed Wagnerian tenor of the Metropolitan Opera. Cornel Wilde, celebrated motion picture star, will be master of ceremonies. Three hundred seats will be reserved for Gold Star mothers as a special mothers day tribute.

Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy, noted singers, have donated $500 scholarships each for the boy and girl first place winners; Frank Vitale and the Filippa Pollia Foundation have given $250 awards for second place winners, and the Hollywood Bowl Association will present Bowl season books for third places.

Chickens Operated Phones, Took Bets

Sheriff's vice squad deputies had a poser this week when they discovered a chicken coop equipped with two telephones, betting markers, scratch sheets and form charts. The coop is located back of 1226 Corana street, Hermosa Beach.

The mystery was solved when they discovered that the original occupants of the coop had been dispossessed by Arlene Young, 36, and Jack O'Keefe, 45, both white, of 1226 Corona street. The pair was arrested as "backyard bookies."

Contractors Want Housing Program Killed

One of the groups which helped in crippling the administration's housing program when it came up for action in the house of representatives and have since prevented the program being put into effect, this week charged that the untried program was a "dismal failure."

The group is the Building Contractors of California, Inc., whose board of directors has now called upon President Truman to abandon the home-building program sponsored by National Housing Administrator Wilson W. Wyatt, and stymied to date by congress.

The construction industry has one of the most powerful lobbies in Washington working against passage of the emergency housing program. That lobby, together with the real estate lobby and the NAM, bears the chief responsibility for the recent slaughter of the housing bill in the house.

Picket Woolworth Stores in 2 Arizona Cities; Protest Bias

TUCSON, Arizona—Negro and white veterans and non-veterans this week were picketing Woolworth stores in this city and in Phoenix protesting the postwar policy of the company of refusal to serve Negro citizens at its lunch counters.

The decision to picket Woolworth was voted by inter-racial mass rallies held recently in both cities and addressed by Pettis Perry, Los Angeles Communist leader.

Demands raised by the pickets include:

No discrimination at the lunch counter.

Hire Negro girls as clerks at equal wages.

Unionize Woolworth.

For an Arizona civil rights bill and FEPC laws.

NAM States Goal: Blackmarket Prices

SAN FRANCISCO—Robert R. Wason, president of the National Association of Manufacturers, this week indicated that what NAM wants, in seeking to destroy OPA, is the right of its members to charge prices now prevalent only in the Black Market. Urging abolition of price controls, Wason said

"Prices would not go any higher than they are now, when you take into consideration what the people are now paying in black markets and poor quality. The actual price tag would be up 25 percent but you would be getting as much or more for your money."

Price Violators Settle With OPA

Four firms in the area served by the 82.5.40 Price Control Board, 4504 S. Central avenue, were among the record high number of 443 in Southern California who made cash settlements last month with OPA boards because of asserted over-ceiling sales, according to Mark Keyser, board chairman.

The sum of $150 was paid by asserted violators in this area, with the total for the Southland being $30,859.82, Keyser said.

As a result of the price agency's action, many cash refunds were made to customers who had been overcharged, Keyser added.

Monseigneur O'Grady Urges Support of Wagner Housing Bill

In a short but dynamic address to a large gathering of public officials and prominent citizens at a luncheon sponsored by the Citizens Housing Council of Los Angeles, Inc., Tuesday in the Banquet Room of the downtown Clark Hotel, Monseifneur John O'Grady, national secretary of Catholic Charities and member of the National Public Housing Authority, urged militant support of the Wagner-Taft-Ellender Housing Bill.

Father O'Grady, long a fighted for the people's cause, said, "The Wagner-Taft-Ellender bill is the most far-reaching piece of legislation that we have ever seen in our time." He continued: "If we are to have any housing at all, we must support and urge passage of this bill. It is our immediate objective. We must have a strong, practical national housing program. If we have this, we can go after the other things and objectives we seek. Such an enactment would be an important step toward complete advancement in the fight for better housing."

He also warned the gathering that unity of purpose must be achieved from all of the organizations engaged in the struggle, especially those of minority groups who are hardest hit by the housing emergency. On this point Father O'Grady advised that a broader scope should be taken, "We must reach out on a broader scale, not only in this but in all social movements. We must include all of the people."

The Monseigneur, in his discussion of present day construction, charged private enterprise with gross failure to alleviate the housing situation. "When certain controls were relaxed they bought up factories and a lot of the building materials getting a virtual corner on the market." He further stated, "even though many of our young veterans have priorities, two-thirds of all building materials go into the construction of homes for people in high income brackets or for commercial building."

In urging support of the bill, Father O'Grady pointed out that the many provisions contained therein would help to solve most of the immediate problems confronting the people of the United States in the housing emergency. "Not only does it provide for low income housing, cooperative housing, urban re-development, rentals, low interest, longer mortgage periods, but it provides FHA and other Federal Housing agencies with new implements and induces investment from private enterprise," he said.

Other speakers at the luncheon were Dan Marshall, attorney and lay Catholic leader, Monseigneur O'Dyer, president of the Council and labor leaders.

Dan Mrashall, in citing the famous Laws' restrictive covenant case said that before the articles of incorporation of the Citizens Housing Council were signed, an early meeting would be held by the executive committee to consider restrictive covenants and to add an article covering this important matter.

N. J. Man Wins Fight For License, Sues Biased Inspector

HIGHTSTOWN, N. J.—Thomas R. Williams, local plumber, finally got his plumbing license after appearing before the town council, but he is still pressing a $5000 damage suit against Thomas Malone, fascist-minded plumbing inspector.

When Williams applied for his license some three months ago, Malone punched him in the eye and growled, "I am not going to give a damn n—r a plumbing license."

Earlier Malone had tried unsuccessfully to bar Williams by telling him that there was a $15 examination fee and $25 license fee. The lie didn't work because Williams was informed by Charles Ely, local water commissioner, that the total fee was $5. And that is what Williams paid when he finally got the license.

Bitter Court Battle Looms in Divorce

Mrs. Lillie Mae Hendricks, 744 E. 33rd st., personal maid to a prominent Hollywood movie star, has filed suit for divorce against her husband, Johnnie Hendricks, charging extreme cruelty. Claiming over $10,000 in community assets, Mrs. Hendricks secured a blanket restraining order, freezing all the community property, and citing her husband to court for attorney fees and costs of suit.

Immediately fighting back, Hendricks engaged the services of Attorney Curtis C. Taylor, who filed a sizzling answer, denying the charges, and a cross complaint, charging a long course of extreme mental cruelty.

Both of the warring litigants are asking the court for a division of the community property, which consists of considerable cash and realty. Unless a settlement is reached a bitter court battle is expected to develop.

State Settles Damage Suit in Auto Wreck

A compromise settlement was effected last Friday in the $50,000 damage suit brought by Mrs. Susie Wesley, 4464 Mettler street, against the state of California, following a conference between Attorney Curtis C. Taylor, representing Mrs. Wesley and her co-plaintiffs, and attorneys for the state. The case had been scheduled to go to trial that day before Judge Dudley Valentine.

The suit grew out of an automobile accident on highway 101 on January 9, 1945, when a state-owned fire truck collided with an automobile in which Mrs. Wesley and six of the members of her family were riding, overturning, wrecking the car and severely injuring the occupants, all of whom were treated at the Oceanside hospital.

The exact amount of the settlement was not disclosed, but it is understood to run into five figures.

OPA Says Evictions Now at High Mark

Near the all-time high mark in point of volume, 4064 petitions for certificates of evictions were received last month at the district OPA's rent offices, according to Ben C. Koepke, Southern California rent chief for the government agency.

Koepke said that only March, when 4500 petitions were turned in, exceeded last month's volume. The rent executive pointed out that last September only 2300 such petitions were filed but that each succeeding month has seen a rise.

Thirty-five hundred certificates of eviction were issued in April with 1000 petitions denied, the rent chief disclosed.

TO ASSIST YOU IN MAKING WISE DECISIONS

FREE: Your question will be answered in this column only when a clipping of this feature is enclosed with your question, your full name, birthdate and correct address. YOUR BOND

Some folks make promises easily, knowing very well that they are unable to perform them, and make little effort to do so. Although it may be an easy way out of a difficult situation for the time being, in the long run these same folks become known for what they really are . . . undepenable.

On the other hand, there are others who promise largely with the honest intent of making good because they are sincere and have the ability.

However, it cannot be helped when circumstances prevent, fortunes vary, and sadly they confess their inability to fulfill to the letter all of their promises. But whenever this can be avoided, faithfully carry on, for a promise means keping your word, because "your word is your bond."

Dear Prof. Herman: It has been quite sometime since I wrote you, but everything has been going along so well, that I just let the matter ride. I wish however to express my gratitude for the many things you have done to bring about this chance in my life, and thank you again for your help.

T. W.—What is wrong with my husband?

Ans.—After giving your question careful thought I find that your husband needs expert medical attention. He is not well, and that is the reason why he acts as he does. No one is to blame for this, except himself.

M. C. J.—Will my sweetheart come back soon?

Ans.—My Psycho-Mentalist Crystal reveals many events taking place that will bring you much happiness, one of which will be the return of your loved one, perhaps within the next few months.

L. G. H.—What should I do?

Ans.—It seems to me that you are worrying entirely too much about this affair, for I think everything will work out alright for you without your saying anything more regarding the matter. Some things are better left unsaid, so I suggest you wait and let matters take their own course.

N. E. W.—Dear Sir: This is my first time to write you, but I have been reading your column each week and find it very interesting and helpful to others as well as myself. I was supposed to have married a soldier upon his return home but since he has been back he doesn't wish to go through with it, and doesn't come to see me. Will he ever come back to me and ask me to be his wife?

Ans.—Your problem is no different than many others, for it seems that many of the men that return need a period for readjustment. Their physical conditions are not always as strong as they should be thus effecting their nervous system and resulting in their restlessness. I suggest that you be a little more patient and give him time to get situated, find employment and get settled into civilian life again, and then have another talk with him. The results will probably be more satisfactory then.

R. Y.—Is a "mirage" an illusion seen only on deserts?

Ans.—No, a mirage is also often seen at sea, on arid plains or deserts and on the icy wastes of the Polar regions. It is an optical illusion, or phenomenon in which distant objects, such as ships, houses, clusters of trees, small lakes and in the Polar regions, great crevassed areas of ice, may be seen near at hand and in places where one knows they are not supposed to exist.

Four Crosses Flame In City; Kenny Wins Court Ruling Outlawing Klan

Outfit Ruled Illegal in State

In a resounding court victory for the forces of decency, the Ku Klux Klan was outlawed in California by a ruling of Superior Judge Alfred E. Paonessa. The decision was handed down late Tuesday afternoon.

The terrorist order was eliminated from legal recognition after Atty. Gen. Robert W. Kenny appeared with several witnesses and numerous exhibits to prove that it violated its charter and instead of being "a benevolent and eleemosynary organization, fostered racial hatred and bigotry with force and violence."

Tiny Wife Kills 204-Lb. Husband

Mildred Jackson, 19, was arrested Sunday night and booked on a charge of murder for the fatal stabbing of her husband, Ivory S. Jackson. Mrs. Jackson who weighs 100 pounds is alleged to have fatally stabbed her 204-pound husband in the family home, 1422 East 23rd st. The dead man was 27 years old and employed as a porter.

Mrs. Jackson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Fitzgerald of Long Beach, Calif. A tiny, beautiful young woman suffering from recent illness, she told the police a story of long suffering at the hands of her husband who, she stated was a heavy drinker. He had, she said, beaten her many times. Due to his size and great strength she had always been helpless to defend herself.

Last Sunday night she defended herself with an army mess knife, stabbing Jackson once in the region of the heart. She asserted that his last dying effort, even after he had been mortally wounded, was to strike her.

She has retained Attorney Earl C. Broady to defend her.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. — The $64 question-whether or not the DAR's invitation to the Tuskegee Choir to give a concert in Constitutional Hall, Washington, represented a change of policy—was answered this week in the negative.

The answer came in a blast directed against Rep. Claire Boothe Luce by Mrs. Julius Y Talmadge, president general of

J. E. Butler, director and founder of the International Welfare Committee located at 236 E. First st., told The EAGLE this week that he and a party of friends had been refused service at the Los Gatitos Cafe, 1963 S. San Pedro.

Butler and his party immediately retained an attorney to file suit against the owners of the restaurant.

His party, Butler said, were met at the door by "a big, burly, hardfaced man," who informed

Convicted On Woman's Testimony She Assumed Attacker Was a Negro

By HARRY RAYMOND
Staff Correspondent, Daily Worker

HAMLET, N. C.—Major Benton, 26-year-old Negro war veteran from this busy little railroad town, is languishing today in the death house in the Central State Prison in Raleigh.

He is awaiting execution in the gas chamber, for a crime he did not commit.

He was convicted April 13, by an all-white Richmond county jury on a charge of criminally assaulting a white woman on Christmas eve, 1945. He was sentenced to death by County Judge Donald Phillips.

Major Benton did not receive a fair trial. If he had been a white man he would

Mass Rally Sets Goal of Victory in Laws Case Appeal in June

Girding their loins for the test battles on restrictive covenants before the state supreme court next month, Los Angeles citizens last Sunday night packed the Peoples Independent church, despite the current street car strike, in an anti-restrictive covenant rally sponsored jointly by the Home Protective Association and the California EAGLE.

In the audience and on the platform were members of various minority groups, labor, church, and civic organizations, members of the H. G. Hickerson family, on whose front lawn the Klan recently erected a flaming cross, and members of the Henry Laws family, whose appeal against an adverse restrictive covenant decision will be heard by the state supreme court in early June.

The meeting was chaired by Mrs. Charlotta A. Bass, editor of The EAGLE. Other speakers included Attorney General Robert W. Kenny, Lena Horne, Al Jarvis, H. G. Hickerson, Frank Laws, a brother of Henry Laws, Assemblyman Gus Hawkins, William Bidner of the Mobilization for Democracy, Dan Marshall of the Catholic Interracial Committee, Don Wheeldin, World War II veteran, Calton Moss, author of "The Negro Soldier," Attorney Vince Monroe Townsend of the Elks Civil Liberties Committee, Dr. Claude Hudson, of the local NAACP.

Attorney General Kenny was presented by William Bidner of the Mobilization for Democ-

USC Students Denounce Burning of KKK Symbol At Jewish Frat House

Four more flaming crosses flared the Klan messages of racial and religious hatred and national disunity across Los Angeles this week. Both Negroes and Jews were the objects of the latest manifestation of Klan terrorism, which followed by one week the burning of the first cross on the front lawn of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Hickerson, 134 West 56th st., Negro defendants in a restrictive covenant case.

One of the fiery crosses appeared Tuesday night on the lawn of the home of Mrs. Loretta A. Aubrey, her husband and five children, at 1333 East 58th drive. Many other Negro families live along the short street.

Another flaming cross was discovered by a University of Southern California fraternity pledge on the parkway of the Zeta Beta Tau, Jewish fraternity house at 2:15 a.m. last Monday. The front walls of the building had been painted with the letters "KKK".

University police are still searching for the culprits who are also believed to have erected a fiery cross that set a field on fire at Hill drive and Eagle Rock blvd., Sunday morning.

Still another cross was burned on USC campus early yesterday morning.

Vandals had also desecrated Temple Israel of Hollywood, 1740 Ivar ave. by scribbling on the walls and destroying synagogue property. Officials of the temple reported that the build-

CIO Council, AFL Unions Endorse Clayton Russell

Rev. Clayton D. Russell, candidate for supervisor of the second supervisorial district, Los Angeles county, this week had been endorsed by the Los Angeles Industrial Council, CIO, and the Retail Clerks, AFL. Russell previously had been endorsed by the Dining Car Cooks and Waiters Local, AFL, and the Chair Car Porters' Union.

The militant young minister of the People's Independent Church, 1025 E. 18th street, has also received the support of the American Veterans' Committee, which in a recent newsletter commended him as a candidate most likely to support the progressive policies of the AVC.

During the same week, Russell received an honorable doctor of divinity degree from the Sam Houston college of Austin, Tex., an accredited member of the As-

On The Sidewalk

By C. A. B.

It happened here in San Francisco, but to date not a mumbling word of protest has come from Jack Tenney's investigating committee on un-American activities.

"There's going to be a riot in Detroit this summer that will make the last one look like child's play."

On the evening of April 3, Mrs. Rosa M. Farber, erstwhile friend of Laura Ingalls, convicted Nazi agent and co-worker of many native Fascists, made that statement to a group of women in the home of Mrs. T. Petroff, 50 Colby St., San Francisco.

Farber sent out to the West Coast to contact "Mother" group leaders; to unite and revitalize Fascist front women's groups that went underground after Pearl Harbor.

MRS. VAN HYNING

On April 4, Mrs. Farber attended a luncheon at the San Francisco YWCA. It was arranged by Mrs. Petroff (a White Russian emigre). The purpose was to familiarize Mrs. Farber's local co-workers with the new program of "We, the Mothers Mobilize for America, Inc."

National head of We, the Mothers is Mrs. Lyrl Van Hyning. Mrs. Elizabeth Dilling, Washington treason trial defendant, was instrumental in organizing "We, the Mothers," with Mrs. Van Hyning.

Present at the YWCA meeting were: Miss Lettye McMeans, 737 Hyde street; Mrs. E. Maxine Johnstone, 341 Willard Street; Mrs. Ann Power, 742 Lisbon Street and Mrs. Petroff, all of San Francisco.

After the luncheon, Mrs. Farber and Miss McMeans held a private conference off in the corner of the lounge room. Miss McMeans later told the Farber amplified her prophecy of the impending riot with the assertion:

"The cops are on 24-hour duty. We're going to do a

Man Slain, Woman Hurt in Double Shooting

It might have been poetic justice or it might have been some queer psychological mix-up. No one knows for sure. But whatever it was, the law calls it murder and is holding Jesse Grant Mathews, 69, of 4020 S. San Pedro for the shooting and killing of Ples C. Eskridge, 24, waiter of 160 W. 57th street, and for shooting Mrs. Hattie Brown, 25, of 713 E. 43rd street.

The facts surrounding the shooting shed little light on the hidden situation. They seem only to muddle up the plot.

Last Sunday night, while most of the city was just finishing a pleasant holiday, Lonnie and Ples C. Eskridge, brothers, stopped at 713 E. 43rd street to pick up Mrs. Hattie Brown. Just as Mrs. Brown entered the car, a fusilade of shots fired from across the street into the side of the car drove Mrs. Brown and Ples C. Eskridge from the car. The assailant continued to fire as they ran down the street. Mrs. Brown dropped with a wound in the leg. Ples C. Eskridge fell a few feet further, mortally wounded.

When police arrived on the scene they found Ples C. Eskridge lying on the sidewalk, unconscious and Mrs. Brown bleeding badly. Both victims were removed to Georgia street receiving hospital where they were transferred to the General hospital for surgery. Eskridge died of gunshot wounds a few hours later.

Lonnie Eskridge, brother of the murdered man, summoned the police and stated that his brother and Mrs. Brown had been shot by someone from across the street. Police questioned Mrs. Brown and she named Jesse Mathews, elderly carpenter, as the man who fired the shots. She said that she and the deceased knew him personally. Police also found a .22 caliber rifle on the scene.

Newton street detectives staked out near Mathews home and arrested him early Monday morning as he drove his car into the driveway.

The motive for the shootings are given as jealousy and revenge but many questions still remain unanswered. Mrs. Brown said that Mathews was in love with her and was prompted by jealousy. But which of the three men he was jealous of, Brown or the Eskridge brothers?

Governor Hastie Returns To Capital for Hearings

By CONRAD CLARK

WASHINGTON, D. C. (Pacific Press Syndicate) — Within five days after leaving here for his inauguration as the first Negro governor of an American territory, the Honorable William Hastie returned to the capital with the same group of government officials and newspapermen that accompanied him to the Islands on Wednesday.

Governor Hastie's principal reason for his return is to appear at the coming hearing being held this week on the Virgin Islands, the writer was told.

The itinerary of the governor and his party which began with his leaving here on Wednesday at 4:30 from the ATC Terminal at the Washington airport included:

Arrival at 10 o'clock that evening at Isla Grande Airport, San Juan, P. R., Thursday; sightseeing plane ride around the island of Puerto Rico to see the Roosevelt roads, and to visit the Cambalache Central sugar mill and the proportional profit farms at Arecibo; next, to visit the mountain resort of El Yunque, where luncheon was tendered in honor of the visitors by Governor Rex Tugwell of Puerto Rico, followed by a trip through Luquillo National Forest (tropical rain forest) and a swim at Luquillo beach.

In the evening at seven a dinner was given at La Fortaleza, the governor's palace, followed by a reception at nine.

Friday, a tour in the morning of the Insular glass factory and paper board mill and the Puerto Rico Planning Board.

Left Isla Grande Airport for the Virgin Islands, and at noon the inaugural ceremonies were held, with Judge Herman E. Moore administering the oath of office.

In his inaugural address, Governor Hastie read a telegram from President Harry Truman, which congratulated the people of the Islands and assured them that he would view their progress with much interest, and regretted that he was unable to be wit hthem at the inauguration.

In the afternoon a reception was held at the Government House, and later on a dinner at Bluebeard Castle hotel, a symbol o fthe days when Paul Pearson, the first civilian governor of the Islands, ruled the Islands.

On Saturday a plane trip was taken over the Islands and later on in the afternoon the part visited St. Croix, the largest of the three islands.

An inspection of the Virgin Islands properties in the afternoon, followed by a reception at the Government House in Christiansted, St. Croix (two towns make up St. Croix, Fredrikstead and Christiansted) and the return to St. Thomas in the evening completed the day.

Sunday the party left St. Thomas for San Juan, there to fly from the Puerto Rico Airport for the return trip to Washington.

Freed On Charge Of Deadly Weapon

LOS ANGELES — Allen Maxwell, 40, was found not guilty of participation in the bloody "Battle of Okay hotel," after attorney Martha Malone Williams told Judge Walter S. Gates that assault with a deadly weapon charges against him were "entirely unfounded."

Maxwell was accused of cutting two of his "best friends," Mathew Ellis and Nathaniel Talley, both of whom live at the hotel with Maxwell. Although police said the origin of the fight was obscure, an entire cordon of officers was needed to quell the battle once it started in a hallway on the second floor.

The two victims were attacked with a 12-inch butcher knife, police said, by the defendant. After three hours of testimony the judge handed down the not guilty verdict, agreeing with attorney Mrs. Williams that there was insufficient evidence to hold Maxwell.

Police Halt Teen-Age Gang Armed Invasion Of Minority Sections

SANTA MONICA—An investigation was under way here this week to determine the origin of an attack on Mexican and Negro communities by white high school youths on May 15. The attack was nipped in the bud by prompt police action.

Police with difficulty rounded up a gang of frenzied youngsters in jallopies, bearing down on the Negro and Mexican sections with ball-bats, tire irons, lead pipes and brass knuckles. They were coming from West Los Angeles.

Forty-one juveniles and nine youths between 18 and 20 years of age were taken to Santa Monica jail. The juveniles were later released in custody of their parents, and the older boys are being held for municipal court on charges of unlawful assembly and refusal to disperse.

The onslaught was an outgrowth of long-term friction. Latest incident was a fight at a Miramar hotel dance a week ago in which a white youth was injured.

Capt. Hudson of the juvenile bureau has questioned the youngsters in an effort to learn whether the attack was instigated by older persons.

Any further action, however, would have to come from the Los Angeles juvenile authorities, as most of the boys live in Los Angeles.

Flare-ups of racial antagonism have been reported recently at the Bundy Theatre and at Garfield school, with a near-riot at Poinsettia playground last week.

UPWA Hits Senate Rider as Anti-Labor

Statement issued today by Abram Flaxer, President of the United Public Workers of America, commenting on the rider to the Agriculture Appropriation Bill, attached by the Senate Appropriations Committee. Mr. Flaxer said:

"The United Public Workers of America has stated on a number of occasions its policy of not striking against the Federal government. The constitution of our organization contains an unequivocal statement of this policy. We have never yet conducted, nor do we intend to conduct, any strikes against the Federal government. Any local union of Federal employees which would attempt such a strike would be dealt with under the enforcement provisions of our constitution.

"Since neither my organization, nor so far as I am aware any organization of Federal employees sanctions Federal strikes, I cannot believe that the action of the Senate Appropriations Committee is directed primarily towards the Federal service. Its only effect at this time can be to attempt to introduce a precedent of legislation by rider for the purpose of paving the way for general anti-strike and anti-labor legislation covering workers in private industry. I therefore believe that the present rider is being used as a cloak by those members of Congress who wish to put across bills to weaken the trade union movement in mass production industries such as steel, auto and electrical manufacturing."

Woman Turns Cafe Into Battlefield

LOS ANGELES — Throwing a jar of mustard at a waitress and then cutting a cook with a knife in a Pasadena cafe were responsible for a lot of trouble for Mrs. Lois Thomas in superior court here today.

Mrs. Thomas, a 34-year-old Negro of 1660 East 17th street, pleaded guilty to simple assault charges. She had originally been charged with assault with a deadly weapon, a felony, but her attorney, Martha Malone Williams, succeeded in getting the district attorney's office to accept the lesser offense.

According to witnesses Mrs. Thomas engaged in the mustard throwing in a cafe at 766 Orange Grove, Pasadena. Her victims were the waitress, Mrs. Helen Klempka, and her husband, Frank, a cook. (Both white).

It was believed the battle occurred after an argument over a ham sandwich. After the mustard throwing Mrs. Klempka and Mrs. Thomas got in a hair-pulling fight, and when Klempka tried to separate them, he said that Mrs. Thomas cut him with a knife, the wound in his back requiring 20 stitches.

Mrs. Thomas will be sentenced June 11. Her attorney asked that she be granted probation.

job this time. Things are going to pop." (I have an affidavit from a witness to the above statement.)

Mrs. Farber went into the plans for the Detroit "riot" more thoroughly in a subsequent conference I had with her.

Mrs. Farber is a crafty woman. It took me four days to arrange an interview with her. I spoke to her over the phone eight times before she consented to see me. She sparred with me for nearly 20 minutes and finally asked for identification.

I produced a membership card from the Christian Veterans of America along with a letter of introduction written on the stationery of a local Fascist group.

I indicated a desire to settle in Detroit.

"We don't need you there," she said. "You can do most good in California. We have a strong following in Detroit." Then the buxom Mrs. Farber grinned. "We're growing. We're growing. All we need is a few million more followers." She stopped grinning and pointed at me: "And we'll get them. Then you will see the day."

I ignored her last statements. "Suppose I went to Detroit. Could I get a job through you?"

"Write down these names," she said, handing me a scrap of paper. "George Wiertersen, 16144 Kentucky and A. P. Wagner, 15738 Princeton. Either of these men could help you. Wagner is an advertising executive for Ford Motors."

"And Wiertersen?" I queried.

"He's a big real estate man," Farber said. "Organizer of Allied White Americans. Several summers ago he helped plan. . ." Mrs. Farber cut her sentence short.

"Helped plan what?"

"It doesn't matter," she said. On that note I took my leave from Mrs. Farber.

The above is a copy of an interview with Mrs. Farber by Eric Webber.

It seems that what failed in Germany is in the making in a big way in this country.

When we think how Byrnes and the other big shots in Washington are raising hell about Iran and Bulgaria and Czecho-Slovakia, and at the same time throwing dust in our eyes, and hoping to blind us as to what is going on in our own back yards, it makes us sick at heart and in our stomachs. We really must get rid of those do-nothing rascals. Thank the Lord we still have free elections in America.

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE ADULT AUTHORITY HEAD

May 19, 1946.

WHY WAS FESTUS COLEMAN DENIED A PAROLE?

We have just received the news that Festus Coleman, a young San Francisco Negro serving 65 years in San Quentin prison on framed up charges, has been denied a parole by the Adult Authority of which you are chairman.

This letter is on behalf of the Los Angeles Coleman Defense Committee. We wish to hereby voice our disgust at such flagrant violation of democratic principles and civil rights of minority peoples by the refusal of your board to grant even a "hollow" parole to California's "Scottsboro" victim, Festus Coleman.

Thousands of people are convinced of Mr. Coleman's innocence and have protested by signing petitions which were forwarded to you and your committee, asking you to correct this injustice and make way for a full pardon.

In denying a parole to Festus Coleman, you and your committee are obviously following in the footsteps of the entire Warren Administration and their refusal to protect the civil rights of our Negro-Americans.

In allowing Mr. Coleman to remain a victim of racial prejudice in San Quentin, you are giving aid to those sinister forces who were responsible for the murder of the O'Day Short family in Fontana. You and your committee's action gives strength to those forces who are today protecting the so-called Restrictive Covenants, which are un-American, un-democratic and certainly not in keeping with the principles for which we have recently emerged a victor in war over Fascism.

Your committee and the Warren Administration will only give fuel to the evil forces that are at work within our state to revitalize the damnable Ku Klux Klan and to further the American Fascists in their drive against the trade unions and our democratic principles as a whole.

Mr. Gordon, the Los Angeles Coleman Defense Committee is asking through this open letter (which will be sent to all newspapers for publication) an answer from you and your committee's denial of a parole to Festus Coleman, a man who is innocent as you or I for the crime of which he was convicted.

Awaiting your reply,

Very sincerely,

ROBERT PATE, Secretary,
Los Angeles Coleman
Defense Committee.

Acquits Pair of 'Bookie' Charge

Willie Jones and Catherine Duncan of 475 E. Vernon ave. were freed of bookmaking charges by Municipal Judge Wilbur Curtis last Tuesday after a brilliant defense by Attorney Curtis C. Taylor who successfully objected to practically all the testimony which the prosecution attempted to enter.

Charges against the pair were filed after officers Wooters and Muhlner of the Central Administrative squad raided the Vernon ave. address and seized a telephone, a note-book and a sheaf of papers containing several columns of figures.

When, however, the prosecution attempted to introduce these items into evidence, Attorney Taylor objected vigorously and in the end was sustained by the court. Defense attorney thereupon moved for a dismissal because of insufficient evidence.

Sees 3066 New Jobs

Completion of 26 new factories and 29 expansions of existing plants, begun or announced last month, will soon bring 3066 new jobs to Los Angeles County, George J. O'Brien, chairman of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce industrial development committee, reported yesterday.

THE FIERY CROSS

The fiery cross burns on the front lawn of the Hickerson home. Temple Israel Synagogue in Hollywood is desecrated. Several Negro citizens, including two veterans of this war, are refused admission to the pool at Bimini Baths. These attacks on the democratic rights of the Negro people must be stopped. As in Nazi Germany, discrimination against one minority precedes an attack on every other minority and on the freedom of the entire nation. These attacks must be understood as part of the program of Big Business to break up the growing unity of all peace-loving peoples.

The Communist Party has always been one of the staunchest fighters in the struggle for Negro Rights, against all discrimination, and for a united America. No single discriminatory episode must go uncontested. The Communist Party of the 13th Congressional District is supporting the mass demonstration called by the Inter-Racial Friendship Committee at Bimini Baths, 180 Bimini Pl. (at First St., one block east of Vermont) on Sunday, May 26, at 2 P. M., to protest the undemocratic discrimination against Negro citizens.

To guarantee democratic rights, Negro people everywhere should ally themselves with the organized labor movement. They should vote on June 4 to defeat the candidates of reaction—Warren, Knowland, Tenny,—and in the 13th Congressional District, Poulson and McClanahan. We must elect those men who are pledged to aggressively fight to outlaw restrictive covenants and the KKK, who will help enact a State FEPC, who will fight for an adequate housing program and the continuance of the OPA.

Woman Held in Mystery Killing Of Her Husband

Mrs. Lillian Kirby of 2918 Michigan street was ordered held for the superior court last Wednesday, by Judge Edwin L. Jefferson in the mystery killing of her husband, William Kirby, two weeks ago.

Evidence produced at the preliminary hearing indicated that both parties had been shot twice. A note of mystery was added, however, by the fact that only one gun was found and that gun had been fired only once. There were no witnesses to the killing.

Police officers testified that Mrs. Kirby at the time of her arrest told them that the shooting was accidental, which the prosecution is going to attempt to prove was impossible in view of all the circumstances.

Defense Attorney Earl C. Broady forced the police witnesses to admit, upon cross-examination, that the defendant had not told them Kirby was shot accidentally, but that she "thought" the gun was discharged accidentally when she struck it with her hand as it lay on a dresser in the bedroom of the Kirby home. She asserted she did not know how her husband received the fatal wound.

At the trial, the date of which has not yet been set, a bitter battle is anticipated. Broady indicated in his cross-examination either a self-defense plea, or that Mrs. Kirby was the victim of an effort by her husband to kill her and then commit suicide.

Kirby was an employe of the Southern Pacific Railroad company, and was prominent in fraternal circles. Mrs. Kirby has held the highest offices in many local fraternal orders.

'Lucy' Must Tell Why She Wed GI, Got U. S. Checks

Eighteen counts of fraud were the dish set before one of California's most celebrated cooks, "Lucy Hicks," who must appear in federal court May 277 to enter a plea following "her" indictment by a federal grand jury.

"Lucy," whose real name, says the U. S. is Toby Lawson, came to court defended by attorney Walter L. Gordon, Jr. Despite the fact that "Lucy" passed herself off as a female cook in Oxnard, California, for 20 years, and had a husband, whose allotment checks she collected while he was in the army, "Lucy" is a man, the government says.

The 18 counts represent 18 allotment checks collected by the expert female impersonator. Another count, that of evading the draft, was dropped, because "Lucy" is over 60 years of age.

In court, Gordon claimed that "Lucy" said his real name is Lucy Anderson Hickerson—Mr., not Mrs.

Burglars Cart Off Gas Station's Safe

A safe containing $50 in silver, $330 in currency and $14 in checks was carted away from the White Sox Park Super Service Station, at 1351 East 51st street, by burglars yesterday.

The office of the station was also ransacked and robbed of $10, Noel Edwards, station attendant, of 1364½ East 20th street, reported to police.

Racists in Flaming Cross Block Want to Oust Chinese Veteran

He crossed many an enemy line, earned a flock of medals, including the Purple Heart, for heroism and devotion to his country, but is now confronted by a "Caucasian" chalk line drawn on the block in West 56th st. that was the scene a week ago of a flaming cross.

"He" is Tommy Amer, 24 year old Chinese veteran of Burma, fighting with Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell, holder of the Purple Heart with cluster, Asiatic campaign with three battle stars, Presidential citation, American theatre, Victory ribbon. And one for good conduct.

Tommy Amer lives at 127 W. 56th st., across the street from Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Hickerson, 134 West 56th st., in whose front yard the Ku Klux Klan fiery cross was lit.

Tommy was born in Los Angeles, went to Polytechnic High school, volunteered for the army June 5, 1942. He trained with the 81st division and shipped overseas with the 164th signal photo co., arriving in India to be assigned to Stilwell and Merrill's marauders.

He made a 500-mile march from Myitkyina to the Burma Road with Lt. Jack Knight, who was awarded the congressional Medal of Honor posthumously.

He has a record as a combat photographer unequalled by any of his buddies. So wide became his fame that Yank did a story on him and he was recommended for the Bronze Star for gallantry.

Tommy was discharged honorably last Nov. 25. He could not find a place to rent, so he bought a house with his brother-in-law, Robert W. Kong, also a veteran, last Jan. 23. Tommy moved in on March 23 with another sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wong.

Tommy was good enough for the army, good enough to risk his life to defend his country, but his white neighbors don't think he is good enough to live in the same neighborhood with them. A group of them drew up a petition, witnessed by Gus Kroeger, Dorothy Show and C. W. Lightfoot, and started suit to deny Tommy the right to occupy his own home.

But Tommy has taken heart from the fight being put up by members of America's largest minority group in the Laws case and other restrictive covenant cases, intends to stay put and "fight hell out of them."

Emergency Conference Sat. To Push Fight on KKK Gang, Housing, Job Restrictions

An emergency conference to map out an action program to combat the renewed activity of the Ku Klux Klan, restrictive covenants, and mass unemployment of minorities will be held Saturday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., at the Trinity Baptist church, 3565 S. Normandie. The conference is sponsored by the local NAACP which has invited more than 250 religious, labor, fraternal, civic and social organizations to send delegates.

Meantime, the NAACP has called upon the mayor and other city officials to take a forthright stand against the terroristic activities of the Klan. Thomas L. Griffith, Jr., president of the local branch, urged the officials to cooperate with Attorney General Robert W. Kenny in his efforts to outlaw the Klan.

The conference will cover three main subjects, "Adequate Housing and Restrictive Covenants," "Employment and Fair Employment Practices," and "Civil Rights and Community Welfare."

The conference will be chaired by Dr. H. Claude Hudson, vice president of the local NAACP. Discussion leaders will be: Frank Wilkinson, special assistant to the executive director of the Los Angeles City Housing Authority; Loren Miller, who has just returned from a conference on restrictive covenants held in Chicago; Charles Bratt, state minorities specialist of the USES; Mrs. Charlotta A. Bass, Editor of the California EAGLE; William Jones, industrial secretary of the Urban League, Leon H. Washington, Jr., publisher; Assemblyman Augustus F. Hawkins, director of the California Committee for a State FEPC; Carey McWilliams, noted writer and lecturer on problems of minority groups.

The findings of the conference will be reported as a public meeting next day, Sunday, at the Trinity Baptist church.

Theives Tunnel Way Into Tailor Shop

Burglars who tunneled their way into the O. C. Booker Tailoring shop, 4052 South Central avenue, during the week-end, robbed the establishment of $1246 in tailored clothing, police reported yesterday.

The burglars entered the building next to the tailor shop, at 4050 So. Central avenue, through a broken window. From there they proceeded to the tailor shop by making a two foot hole in the wall, according to the proprietor, O. C. Booker Jr., who reported the loss.

Maverick to Speak At Conference

Maury Maverick, dynamic wartime Chairman of the Smaller War Plants Corporation and now a practicing attorney in Los Angeles, is still continuing his championship of small business but is concentrating his efforts on the "Protection of Little 'G. I.' Businesses." Maverick will speak on this vital subject at the 9th Annual Conference of the Southern California Management Council to be held at Occidental College, Eagle Rock, Los Angeles, on Saturday, May 25.

Acquitted of Burglary; Held For 'Receiving'

Charges of burglary which had been preferred against Cleveland Simpson, 311½ East 47th pl., growing out of the looting of the downstairs office of the Golden State Insurance Co. on March 23, were dismissed last Tuesday by Municipal Judge Edwin L. Jefferson, after a motion to dismiss had been argued by Attorney Curtis C. Taylor, representing the accused man.

The jurist, however, held the young defendant on a charge of receiving stolen property when it was testified by Orion Thomas, businessman of 1421½ E. 51st st. that he had purchased a Burroughs cash register from Simpson for $75. The machine was identified by Dee Hodge, Golden State supt. as the property of the company. Hodge testified that the machine was in its accustomed place on Saturday evening, March 23, when the office was closed, but on Monday morning it was missing, as was also a safe which was later found in the rear yard, battered and bent, with the combination broken off.

Police officer E. C. McGruder of Newton st. station, who investigated the case, testified that Simpson admitted selling the machine, but had maintained that he in turn had bought it in a Central Ave. alley from two unknown men for $20.

Attorney Taylor did not allow his client to take the stand, but told the court he would reserve testimony until the trial which will not be set until May 30 when Simpson comes up for plea in dept. 44 of the Superior court.

Army Arrests German Girls for Associating With Tan Yanks

NUERNBERG — This German city which was the birthplace of the infamous Nazi racial laws saw the American version of those laws put into operation this week with the arrest of several German girls known to have been associating with Negro GIs.

According to the army, the girls were picked up for questioning in connection with the fatal shooting of two white American sergeants. The army announced a few days ago that Pfc. James Devonne, 22-year-old Negro from Sampson county, North Carolina, had admitted it was his shot fired in the dark on May 10 that accidentally killed Sgts. William R. Timmons of West Haven, Connecticut, and Paul R. Skelton, of McKinney, Texas.

Agents of the army's criminal investigating division, disclosing that the German girls are being questioned, said that the fatal shot was fired from an air raid shelter used as a rendezvous by Negro GIs and frauleins.

The agents would not explain why the girls were being questioned, but said that one was known to have been with Devonne at the air raid shelter the night of the shooting. Admitting that she was not present when the shot was fired, they refused to explain what they hoped to gain by questioning her.

This information was given newsmen after they had been refused a previously promised interview with Devonne. No reason was given for cancelling the interview.

Strained relations between Negro and white troops have existed for some time, mainly because of objections by whites to German girls fraternizing with the Negro troops. That objection is not based on the army's rules, generally ignored, against fraternization with enemy civilians. The same situation exists in France, where white officers have frowned on friendly relations between Negro GIs and French girls.

Russians to Aid Ethiopian Health

LONDON — The Moscow radio said this week the Russian Ministry of Health will open a hospital and dispensary in Addis Ababa at the request of the Ethiopian government.

The broadcast said a group of Russian doctors is now en route to the Ethiopian capital and medical equipment has been sent to Odessa, Russian Black Sea port, for shipment.

Negro, White Artists to Show Work in Detroit Art Exhibit; Air Blow at Jimcrow Practices

DETROIT—An exhibition of work by American artists will open in Detroit, Michigan, at the Urban League, and will continue from May 30 to June 6. The exhibition, entitled "A Tribute to the Negro People," is sponsored by New Masses, national weekly publication, with the assistance of the National Negro Congress, whose convention is being held in Detroit during these same days.

"The Negro people have as great a contribution to make in the graphic and plastic arts as they have made in music, once given the opportunity," the magazine stated this week. "Proof lies in the work of the few Negro artists who have managed to come through the many barriers raised. The people of this country are denied rich and fruitful cultural contributions to the development of our democracy by the very denial and jim-crow practices which stand as barriers against the Negro people and exclude them from participation in major exhibits."

The National Negro Congress' convention will bring people from the entire country to Detroit, and the exhibit promises to raise bold and sharp questions in the whole struggle against jim-crow and race discrimination. The paintings will be sold at auction and 75% of the proceeds will go directly to the artist. The 25% will be turned over to some organization which has not yet been decided upon, whose task it will be to institutionalize this art exhibit and through this means fight to break down all barriers with the hope of achieving equality in the life and works of American culture.

Who The Negro Will Back For President

CHICAGO—Henry Wallace and Thomas E. Dewey are the favorites of Negro voters for President in 1948.

Questioned in the Negro Digest Poll for May, a cross-section of the Negro population in both parties indicated that their choice for the presidential nomination in 1948 pretty much follows their lineup two years ago. Evident in the canvass was widespread opposition to President Harry Truman, whom most Negroes consider a Southerner.

On the Democratic side the question was: "What Democrat would you like to see nominated for President in 1948?" Submitted was a list of ten names. The results were:

Henry Wallace	91%
Harold Ickes	4%
Harry S. Truman	3%
Dwight Eisenhower	1%
Fiorello LaGuardia	1%
Edward Stettinius	0%
James F. Byrnes	0%
James Farley	0%
Alben Barkley	0%
William Douglas	0%

Although Ickes, Eisenhower and La Guardia are long time favorites of Negroes, they did not win much support because in the choice between them and Wallace, the Secretary of Commerce is much more popular. He has a very strong hold on the Negro voter because of his uncompromising stand in the past as a champion of the race and the "common man."

On the GOP side the question was: "What Republican would you like to see nominated for President in 1948?" The tally showed:

Thomas E. Dewey	62%
Harold Stassen	19%
Dwight Eisenhower	6%
Douglas MacArthur	4%
John Bricker	3%
Earl Warren	2%
Eric Johnston	1%
Leverett Saltonstall	1%
Dwight Green	0%
Robert Taft	0%

Dewey has won much favor among Negroes since the last presidential election, especially because of the enactment of a state law against discrimination in New York. Stassen on the other hand, while known as a liberal to many, is relatively an unknown on the Negro problem and in his home state of Minnesota has some opposition from Negroes because of his failure to take a strong stand on racial issues.

Comedy Marks Factional Fight In E'side Chamber of Commerce

The mystery of who rules the roost in the Eastside Chamber of Commerce deepened this week as two opposing factions in the organization released statements to the press, each claiming a devastating victory over the other.

According to one release, carrying the byline of Earl M. Wright, LeRoy R. Ingram, secretary manager, and R. G. LaMar, field secretary, were declared by a special meeting of the directors "inactive officers of the chamber until state auditors conduct an investigation of the books." The books, it said, had never been presented to the board.

Another story, sent out by the Negro Press Bureau, of which Lawrence LaMar is a member, reported that a regular session of executive committee passed a resolution "calling for the ouster of E. Jay Bullock from the office of president of the chamber body."

According to that story, the committee met "for the purpose of clearing up some matters of policy affecting the public utterances of one of its officers."

Several weeks ago, Bullock had announced that the chamber would inaugurate a membership drive, that membership would be free to all and sundry. That statement was immediately ridiculed by Ingram and LaMar.

Negro Doctor Treats Whites In Georgia

CHICAGO—One of the few Negro doctors to act as family physician for white as well as colored patients is Joseph Gilbert Royston, a tiny village in northeast Georgia.

"Not only do white patients travel many miles for treatment by this Negro physician and surgeon," states a photo-profile in the May issue of Ebony, Negro picture magazine, "but Dr. Gilbert is also called in on emergency white maternity cases."

Dr. Gilbert was first called to treat a white patient when the only white doctor was out of town. So successful was his care that a growing list of white patients have come to prefer the Negro as physician for the entire family.

A well-trained scientist, the colored medic has read some of his medical papers before the Georgia Medical Association.

The article says: "Dr. Gilbert has done more to increase interracial good-will than any other person in northeast Georgia."

Christianity Saves Zulu Babies

CHICAGO — The teachings of Christian missionaries among the Zulus of Southeastern Africa are helping crusading doctors to save the lives of many native infants.

Un-Christian mothers refuse to feed an imperfectly formed babe or the second-born of twins. They simply allow such infants to starve to death, explains Dr. James B. McCord in "Delivering Babies for the Zulus," a feature article in the June issue of Negro Digest. But Christianized Zulus, thanks to the guidance and patient teachings of missionaries, have developed the same attitude toward such infants as all other Christian peoples.

Christianized Zulus have even established a special home for the care of twins, most of whom were previously killed at birth by superstitious un-Christian parents.

Russian Request for Probe Irritates Tory

TOKYO — A Russian request for investigation of charges of police repression made by Japanese labor unionists and left-wing parties this week evoked a tempest in a teapot with George Atcheson, Jr., charging Russian "interference" in Japanese domestic life.

Two Youths Hold Up E'side Hot Dog Stand

A hot dog stand operated by Eleanor E. Kales at 3423½ South Central avenue, was robbed of $20 by two teen-aged youths yesterday morning, police reported today.

According to the report, the two boys went to the stand and ordered hamburgers. As Mrs. Kales wrapped up the sandwiches and handed them to the boys they produced revolvers, scooped the money from the cash register and escaped.

Willowbrook Voters Hit Jimcrow Education, Elect Negro to School Board

Jimcrow education took a licking when the voters of Willowbrook, a district notorious for unsanitary and dangerous conditions in its jimcrow school, elected Joseph R. Terry, prominent and progressive Negro citizen of the district, to the board of school trustees. The elections were held last week.

The vote—418 for Terry, 321 for Carl E. Muravez — would undoubtedly have been heavier had it not been for a shortage of ballots. In those precincts in which the Terry vote was highest, the polling places ran out of ballots at 10:30 a. m. Additional ballots could not be obtained until 2:30 p. m.

JOSEPH R. TERRY

Results of the election, climaxing a hot campaign in which the CIO-PAC played a prominent part, were not announced in the usual way by posting tallies outside the polling places, nor would officials of the district disclose the unofficial count to newspaper reporters. Although results of other school board elections were promptly announced, the Willowbrook board secretary claimed that, on legal grounds, his district could not announce the outcome for seven days.

However, Harry Brown, Southern California CIO-PAC director; James Burford, Los Angeles CIO council PAC director, and Attorney John McTernan demanded that school district officials fulfill their responsibility by announcing the results immediately, and on Saturday, the day after the election, the officials called Terry to tell him of his victory.

Terry's victory set a precedent. It was the 'first time that a Negro had been elected to that post in the district. Terry carried at least three so-called 'white precincts."

Working with citizens' groups of the district, the CIO Political Action Committee and the Los Angeles chapter of the National Citizens Political Action Committee, conducted an intensive campaign, main weapon of which was a tabloid circulated the night before election.

The tabloid disclosed that Negro and Mexican children of the community are forced to attend Lincoln elementary school, which admits only two or three Negro or Mexican children 'for the record."

The Willowbrook school has a lawn, a playground, decent sanitary facilities and the usual school equipment. The Lincoln school, on the other hand, is dilapidated and rundown, with ill-kept grounds, shockingly unsanitary conditions, broken windows and no playground worth the name.

The Lincoln school is actually a menace to children's lives, for beside it runs Compton creek with no bridge, no retaining walls and no protection. The youngsters must cross the creek to get to school. A number of children have been drowned in the treacherous gully during the rainy season.

These conditions have existed for a long time. But when they were finally brought to the attention of the people through political action, the public did something about them. The voters chose democracy.

Terry has been a resident of the district for more than 21 years, 16 years a federal employe and operator of a Willowbrook garage.

He later taught in Hampton and in 1881 he was chosen to organize a school at Tuskegee, Alabama. As head of Tuskegee institute he emphasized the importance of industrial and agricultural training. One of the ablest speakers of his time, he traveled widely, and was honored with degrees from Dartmouth and Harvard. He founded the National Negro Business League in 1900. He died in 1915.

NEW AMERICAN CITIZENS GIVEN WARM WELCOME

Several hundred newly naturalized citizens and youths just turned 21 were honored guests at an "I Am an American Day" program Sunday at Hollywood Bowl. The new American citizens were welcomed by U. S. Judge Peirson M. Hall who outlined their privileges and responsibilities under a democratic way of life.

Nearly 15,000 persons witnessed the annual patriotic spectacle, which was inaugurated here by Benjamin E. Neal as an "I Am an American" panegyric in 1939.

Comedian Bob Hope acted as master of ceremonies during the program of musical numbers and appearances by motion picture celebrities.

Ethiopia Has Good Air Force, Visiting Flight Instructor Says

F/O Andrew H. Hester and Leon Stewart

Flight Officer Andrew H. Hester, for several years an instructor of aviation in the Imperial Ethiopian air force, is sharing his visit to his home in Denver, Colorado, with Los Angeles this week and reports that Adis Ababa, Ethiopian capital, is a beautiful and very large city.

Hester disclosed that he and Col. John C. Robinson of Chicago, who flew for Ethiopia during the Italian invasion in 1935, are two of the pilots engaged by Vice Minister of Finance Yilma Deressa when he was in this country in 1943 to go to Ethiopia to aid in developing an air force. Since that time, the Ethiopian air force has grown until now there are many planes, with pilots trained to fly them and mechanics to care for them on the ground, including a growing group of Negro Americans.

Hester got his air training at West Virginia State college in 1940 in one of the first civilian pilot training programs in this country. When the U. S. entered the war, he tried to enlist but got the usual "run around." He finally wound up at Chanute Field, Illinois, as an instructor. It was here that he and Col. Robinson became friends. It was here also that they met the Ethiopian minister.

Hester arrived in Los Angeles by air with Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Smith of Denver. They are staying with Smith's nephew, W. H. Holland, 999 East 34th St.

EDITORIALS AND COMMENT

THE CALIFORNIA EAGLE

Are the Newspapers Agents of Fascism?

What we read in most of the metropolitan papers must be taken with a grain of salt.

We the people of the United States should continue to serve notice on these newspapers that we are more interested in what is happening inside the nation than we are in stirring up trouble in Europe and the Far East. Get the beam out of our eyes before removing the mote from our brother's. In other words let us get our own house in order before attempting to direct the territorial and political affairs of Russia, tell Iran how to set up her house or suggest to the stranded European Jews where they may or may not go, while disorder and confusion lurk in every corner of our nation.

We should demand an honest dispensation of the news by our newspapers and our radios. Let them tell us the truth as to what is happening here in our country that threatens our security, our safety; that even endangers the foundation on which the nation rests.

The aftermath of World War II has brought forth many problems to be solved. Among them are the coal strike, now seven weeks old; a railroad strike, and a woodworkers' strike with their disastrous affect on industry in general.

Among those seriously affected by these strikes, other than civilians in general, are some 14,601,000 war veterans.

Long strikes in nation-wide public utilities such as coal transportation, steel textiles and motors are economic bombs on production which is America's vital necessity.

This perilous strike situation could be remedied if the money interests would face the facts furnished by labor.

But the profiteers who keep the workingman figuring how to feed his children, and wondering where the next month's rent is coming from, use the newspapers and radio to keep you fooled.

They know that once awakened the men and women bought and hired in the labor market like cattle, will rise up and debunk a vicious profit system that keeps them fighting for a living wage. They stop at nothing to defeat the unity and freedom that is guaranteed to a free people.

Even the Congress of the United States uses the people's money to defeat every legislative measure destined to benefit the majority.

Then there is that section below the Mason and Dixon line known as the deep South, where the poll-tax deprives some ten million citizens of the right of suffrage —six million of the ten are white and four are colored—and Negro and white workers are divided and are taught to hate each other in order that they may better serve their boses and slave drivers.

In states like California where there is no poll-tax, racial restrictive covenants levied particularly against Negroes and other minorities, contrary to the 14th amendment to the Constitution, denies certain people life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.

The Ku Klux Klan, every inch as vicious as were Hitler's storm troopers, is allowed to destroy property and terrorize individuals in their own homes

But none of the violent and unlawful acts are protested by our metropolitan press and capitalistic controlled radio. These devices which are supposed to serve the people, refuse to write and speak the truth. From the housetops they scream, "Communism is destroying our American way of life."

If our American way of life is according to the pattern laid down by the Ku Klux Klan, the poll-tax, the fight against organized labor, then we say that if the Communist Party is willing to stand up and fight these things, it seems reasonable to believe that instead of trying to destroy our American way of life, it is trying to develop a decent way of life.

Hats Off to Russia

We have heard how Italy raped Ethopia. That was the beginning of World War II. And it happened while all the world, except Russia, stood by and watched. Russia alone protested.

We know, too, how Great Britain feigned friendship for the darkest empire in all the world. But her words were only words that bore no fruit.

Now we learn that Russia is opening a hospital and a dispensary in Addis Ababa. This is putting words into action that can be easily understood by the downtrodden of all the world.

Our hats are off to Russia for a real solution of the difficult problems of the world.

Whom the Gods Would Destroy

The latest case of Jim Crow injustice by the way of a court trial, that of Major Benton, 26 year old Negro war veteran who was convicted for rape although his supposed victim did not even see her assailant, is one that scarcely admits of belief.

It happened in a little town of North Carolina. "I just knew he was a man and took it to be a colored man," is the kind of testimony that convicted him and for which he is sentenced to die.

One can only think of that description of the devil in the book of Revelation. He knows his time is short, therefore he is filled with wrath and is working all the evil he can in the short time he has.

There is another saying, too, taken from the Greek. "Whom the gods would destroy, they first make mad."

All the horrible stories we are reading lately, this case in North Carolina, the burnings by the Ku Klux Klan, point to the fact that the time is short for these devils in human form, and maddened they are working their own destruction. Their victims and all who love justice in America will rise in a wave of holy anger, soon, and destroy them completely.

Rev. Clayton Russell Okayed for Election

The current wave of interest in the candidacy of Rev. Clayton D. Russell for supervisor from the 2nd Supervisorial District is city-wide.

Rev. Russell has been endorsed by the CIO, most of the ministers and their churches, civic and social clubs, and individuals in all walks of life.

This young minister seeks the office of supervisor on merit, not race. He has served the people of the community in which he lives, in the interests of full and equal employment for all people,, and the right to purchase homes and live like decent citizens in keeping with their financial means.

Those who are denied their civil liberties rely upon him as a fearless leader in their defense.

The quality of service rendered by individuals, organizations or groups is neither racial nor religious, and such has been the type of service given by Rev. Clayton D. Russell. Where there was a need, he never waited to ascertain race, creed or color. Hence, he is a brother to mankind—a citizen of the world. It is this kind of citizenship that fits a man for service in a racially heterogeneous community.

Clayton Russell is eligible for election and should receive the full suport of the people in his district for a place on the Board of Supervisors in the County of Los Angeles.

K. K. K. Must Go—Tom Clark

United States Attorney General Tom Clark, speaking before the National Conference on Citizenship in Philadelphia, mentioned the Ku Klux Klan especially as an example of "organized bigotry" which we must get rid of if we are to stand "before the world as examples of what a free society can do."

"All Federal laws at my command and all that Congress deems fit to give me in the future will be enforced to the very limit in stamping out any organization or group which aims at extermination of our priceless civil liberties," were the ringing words of Attorney General Clark.

Congress cannot grant too much power nor too soon to any executive to rid this country of the Hitlers masquerading under white sheets and hoods, who wish to inaugurate a dictatorship of terror.

A Step Forward

A Labor Subcommittee of the United States Senate recently approved a bill which forbids lower pay for women than for men, if they are doing the same kind of work and other conditions are equal. The bill is sponsored by Senator Claude Pepper (D) Florida, and Senator Morse (R) Oregon.

This is a long step forward from the idea that a woman should be a slave for a man. That idea prevailed not so many years ago, literally. Today they are marching forward side by side, and equal pay for equal work has been a slogan by men as well as women. It is to be hoped the bill will pass both houses of Congress and become a law—one that has been much needed for years.

Don't Let It Die!

From an Indian's Standpoint

By DALJIT SINGH SADHARIA

THE COLONIAL WORLD IN REVOLUTION

Not the least of the debts which we owe to modern civilization is that the thoughts of men and women are widened. And no where is this widening more eminently seen than in the backward areas of the globe. Fifty years ago the peoples of Asia and Africa were mere articles of merchandise in the hands of their European taskmasters to be bought and sold like dumb-driven cattle for their enrichment and comfort. Their lives, properties, and liberties were at the disposal of their European exploiters who did what they pleased with them without the least regard of any human decency and mercy. Religion furnished a pretext to the nations of Europe to exploit, rob, and exterminate alien races and civilizations because pagan races followed creeds and cults diametrically opposed to the teachings of the Christian gospel.

It was regarded as a God-ordained mission on the part of the nations of Europe to penetrate the farthest ends of the earth in search of converts and gold; to bring under the dominion of Christ the benighted natives were looked upon as beyond the pale of humanity and civilization by the theologians and professors of Christianity. The injunction 'Compel them to come in', enunciated by the Founder of the Christian religion, was carried out by his follows in spirit and letter in their dealing with the native races, causing untold misery to mankind; desolating vast and distant regions of the globe, butchering countless millions with all the lust and tigerish appetite for human blood of Chenghiz Khan and Timurne; and violating innocent women with the same sadistic ferocity and passion which characterized the Mediterranean races in their worst days of moral and spiritual degradation.

The tragedies and crimes which the nations of Christendom have visited and perpetrated are too shocking to relate in this age of moral and social progress; and are responsible for violent manifestations of hostility and antagonism which are shown in all non-Christian lands towards the civilization and the missionary enterprize of the western world.

It is this awakening of the native peoples of Asia and Africa to European cupidity and greed under the clock of altruism and Christionization that is the most important fact in the revolutionary thinking that is now causing alarm and apprehension in the breasts of the imperialists and exploiters of the colonial powers. The subdued and oppressed non-white races have awakened from the slumber of ages—awakened to cry a halt to the spirit of depralation and loot which European nations have carried on without opposition for the last 500 years. It is a new birth of the races and civilizations of Asia and Africa.

The future course of human history will be largely determined by the tremendous awakening that is now proceeding with electric speed in Eastern lands, by the ideas and aspirations which are fermenting in the minds and hearts of the native races. He is fearfully cramped indeed who sees in the colossal revolution in Oriental lands an isolated agitation, the ebullition of a few hot-headed fanatics, and the hue and cry of a mob. It is a French revolution the results of which will rock the entire foundation of intolerable system and tyranny of western imperialism erected on the bodies and souls of three-fifths of the total population of the globe.

Revival of Night Riders Finds Negro Ready to Defend Himself

By John M. Lee

NEW YORK—The new era of organized American gangsterism and lawlessness will be presided over by Dr. Samuel Green of Atlanta, Georgia. Unlike the Capones and the Dillingers of a past generation, Dr. Green will enjoy immunity from the law, at least at his base of operations, for he is legally accepted and recognized as the "Grand Dragon" of the Ku Klux Klan, a band of hooded, night-riding terrorists of nation-wide poentialities. Chartered by the state of Georgia, the Klan announces itself, "for white gentiles only." What it doesn't announce is its purpose to return to its former business of frightening, terrorizing and killing in the interest of white, christian supremacy.

Where the Ku Klux Klan exists, there is a breakdown of the law, for the two cannot exist in the same community. California and New York have ordered the Klan to move on, but I am afraid the Klan has moved underground instead. It is hard to believe that the members of this blood-thirsty cult wil submit to the tender persuasiveness of the law.

It would be idle folly to believe that the Klansmen gathered on Stone Mountain and burned mammoth crosses merely to announce its rebirth. It would be wiser to believe that this was the signal for the start of a campaign against the Negro and the Jew. Klansmen all over the nation will take heart from this vivid demonstration of power. From this moment on, Negro rights, property and life itself will be fair game for those hooded hunters who will seek to translate the fear within them into a terror against a minority.

Members of the Klan willingly accept the theory that Negroes are, for the most part, docile, ignorant and unogressive. They plan their terroristic campaigns on these points satisfied that the intimidation of a few will have a frightening effect on the many. They will not admit that they are organized against the Negro, but will insist that they are organized against the whites who uphold the Negro in his wrongdoing.

Originally a property-stealing, land-grabbing band of night-riders, the Klan grew to become something above the law when it came to dealing with Negroes. As the propagators and defenders of lynch-law, the Klan has covered the history of America with shame. Overwhelmed by the wrath and indignation of decent Americans, the Klan was dissolved some years ago, and many of its members were called to account before the law which they had openly flouted.

FACES A NEW NEGRO

Following a long period during which it dared not operate openly, the Ku Klux Klan has come alive again, and apparently expects to find Negroes everywhere just waiting to be frightened and lynched to death. However, there have been some changes made in the interval between the hayday of the terrorist and the present resurgence. Negroes have learned to defend themselves against lawless attacks, and the nation has learned much from the second world slaughter now drawing to a close. It was a racial doctrine similar to that of the Klan's that was responsible for world war two, and the Nazi mobsters who destroyed and crucified acted in much the same manner as the Klansmen do.

It has been reported that the Klan originally adopted the white sheet regalia because it made the members look like ghosts, and Negroes were supposed to be afraid of ghosts. That may or may not have been true back in the days when superstition gripped America so strongly the good citizens of New England were not above executing a woman because she was suspected of being a witch, but this is a new day.

Negroes are not afraid of the most superior Caucasian on a man to man basis, and they are in an improved position to do something effective about superior Caucasian mobs that come looking for trouble. Heretofore, the price a lawless mob had to pay for attacking Negroes has been negligible, and consequently, there has not been too much hesitancy on the part of these gangsters to liven up a dull evening by kicking up merry hell in the Negro section. However, those are no longer the conditions that prevail.

The law is stronger in the sections formerly dominated by the Klan, and the federal government is prepared to take over should the community guardians fail to do their duty. Negroes everywhere are learning that it is no more painful to die fighting back against an unjust and unwarranted attack than it is to stand still and take it without a defense. There may or may not be some disturbed moments in American racial history, according to the limits to which the Klan is prepared to go, but one thing is certain, there will be a few white sheets messed up if the program is to terrorize the Negro.

Dr. Green is reportedly quite proud to be the head of what he calls a one hundred percent American organization, and he must expect that Negro Americans will be waiting to match his Americanism in any way he selects to demonstrate his claim.

W. J. WHEATON SAYS:

The Dove of Peace must have flown back to her cote in utter disgust and put the olive branch in cold storage, at least for the time being. When the bombs were dropping, men, women and even children mangled and dying; the cry was for Peace and the Brotherhood of Man. This was to be one world where the lamb and the lion would skip and cavort in perfect harmony. How soon men forget.

The thousands of white crosses which mark the resting places ... the tombs of those who paid the supreme sacrifice to make this a better world, are forgotten. The old human instinct of avarice, greed and the strife for power has come to the fore and this world today is as turbulent as a volcano in full eruption. Famine stalks a goodly part of the world like a hungry wolf. Misery in its worst form is seen on every side, and yet, leaders of nations squabble over boundaries and division of the spoils of war.

Here in this United States of America where the democracy for which men died is supposed to set the pattern for the world's governments, democracy is strong in precept but lax in example. Fascism, under the guise of patriotic Americanism, is as bold in its terrorism of minority groups as ever invented by the maniac brain of a Hitler. They use the sacred emblem of Christianity as a threat to life and liberty. They plant the blazing cross on the very doorstep of victims of their hate, with dire warnings and threats of murderous intent.

Men who have endured the horrors of war and braved death that the world might prove a better place and that their right to the enjoyment of full and equal citizenship would be secure, have been mobbed and lynched while still wearing the uniform of their country—the country whose cause they raced death to defend. Decry such outrages and you are termed a "Communist," a menace to good government, and all because of hate. Racial hate, hates engendered through ignorance and intolerance, disregard for the law of common decency. The native fascists cloak their putrid demagoguery under the guise of patriotism, America First.

Black men, men of other racial origins who come under the ban fostered by the proponents of racial hates, are determined to fight intolerance in America with the same energy they fought for its downfall abroad. They will strike at the "Den of Iniquity" with the same courage with which they faced the phalanx of Fascism and with the same will to conquer. This will not be one of bullets and bombs, but one where intelligence will rout ignorance and its attendant consort, fear. Already there is a glimmer of light in the benighted realms, and many of the race baiters and hate mongers are quaking in their political boots.

The reign of the Bilbos, Rankins and Eastlands is tottering and when the final test comes they too will be classed with the Talmadges and others of that ilk. The political garbage can will be the receptacle for many a cotton mouth and the venom pulled from their poisonous fangs.

California has some house cleaning to do. We should see that men are elected who are not afraid to not only speak up, but act to rid the state of those who seek to inject the virus of racial hates in order to gain political power. Action, not promise, is what the majority of the citizens want. Action against the charlatans who seek to terrorize law-abiding men and women by planting the flaming cross on their threshhold.

We must see that representatives are sent to the Congress like Douglas, Havenner, and Welch, representatives who place the fight for common decency above petty squabbles. We have such men and women in California. Why not elect them? Why not?

And, oh yes: We must keep a watchful eye on some of US. The quislings who would barter for the "Mess of Pottage." You know who we mean. He is ever with us. He places self above all else and would sacrifice all for paltry pelf. We can give thanks that such characters are in the minority and losing caste. The fellow who used to claim that he had a number of votes in his vest pocket and would deliver them for a price can be smelled a mile.

The recall of San Francisco's mayor is the main topic of political conversation. If one wants to get an earful, let him ride one of the overcrowded street cars. If the election were to be held at this time it would be "woe" for the mayor.

They have succeeded in putting over the ten cent fare and the service has not improved. And we don't include the equipment.

We heard the Hon. Robert Kenny speak the other evening. It was not a political speech ... although the attorney general is a candidate for governor of California, and we might emphasize, would make a better than good governor. The attorney general is a frank and fearless advocate of "Justice for All." His every attitude tends for the welfare of all. His term in office as state attorney general has been an active one in the effort to see that justice is accorded to all. Right now he has hooded gentlemen running for cover and, even though they work in the dark, they scamper like scared rabbits if the moon appears suddenly. If they see a shadow, even if it's their own, they think it's Kenny.

It is a refreshing sight to see so many of our youngsters interested in politics. It bids fair for the future of all. It is the ballot, not the bullet, that will be the weapon of the future. We listened to an impromptu discussion the other evening. It was good.

LABOR ON THE MARCH

By Martinez Hewlett

Every now and then something comes along which gives us a rare opportunity. And when people get rare opportunities they should make capital of them. So be it.

In this column I have the priviledge, if you please, to help expose a few anti-labor movement and to also help in nipping its somewhat viscious plans in the bud.

Parading around in a cloak of kaki and claiming to be spokesman for ex-GIs, an organization called the Yard Bird Veterans' Political Association, is seeking, through petition, to deprive organized labor of its most powerful right —Collective bargaining.

And it does not mean maybe! It plans to have enough signatures to place an initiative measure on the November General Election Ballot, which if passed would outlaw collective bargaining and strikes.

But study for a moment the insidious and underhanded way this movement got started. The name of the organization suggests that it might be made up of ex-yardbirds (GI slang for the lowest category of enlisted personnel) who made up the bulk of the army. But in reality the membership, for the most part, is made up of ex-officers and men who now have fat and comfortable positions as highly paid executives, and who would just love to see the labor movement go up in smoke.

And these boys have funds. Judging from the stationery and the literature being mailed out, the printing bills alone would run into four figures, not to mention the fact that they have an office in an exclusive part of town boasting two telephones. My, my, yardbirds certainly have come up in the world.

A Mr. John Walker, organizer of the Yardbirds Veterans' Political Association, is quoted in their press releases (they have a publicity agent, too) as saying, "This measure will take away the clubs from both parties in collective bargaining". To which, or to what parties are you referring, Mr. Walker?

But this is the pay-off. The following are a representative few from the long list backing this organization: The Motor Car Dealers Assn., Associated Farmers, Apartment House Assn. of Los Angeles, the Western Growers, Metal Trades Manufacturers Assn., Merchants and Manufacturers Assn., California Manufacturers Assn., Los Angeles Realty Board and the California Real Estate Assn.

It isn't strange to note that at every turn we find the same groups supporting organizations which are anti-labor. It isn't strange to observe that these are the very same groups who oppose FEPC, OPA and who foster restrictive covenants and racial discrimination. It isn't strange at all. It should be apparent to all, that these groups represent the systematic organization of the forces which would reduce our high conceptions of human values to that of a chattel or slave.

Then too, when we realize clearly that there is a well defined, strongly organized force resisting our every effort and fighting back with all of their many resources,—money, prestige, radio, press and organizations like the Yardbird Veterans' Political Assn., it should become apparent to us the need for just such a strong organization among the people, who want all of the things these forces are preventing us from obtaining.

THE NEGRO IN LATIN AMERICA

By Harold Preece

HOW U. S. MILLIONAIRES CONTROL HAITI

(Editor's Note—On May 12 the people of Haiti went to the polls to choose a new government replacing the one of Dictator Elie Lescot overthrown by a popular revolution last January. Harold Preece presents as a guest columnist familiar with the Haitian background, Miss Helen Simon, New York newspaperwoman who recently made a tour of the Latin American republics.)

By HELEN STONE
(Guest Columnist for Harold Preece)

In the days of Toussaint Louverture and Jean Jacques Dessalines the enslaved people of Haiti threw off the Napoleonic yoke, rid themselves of the French colonists and established the first and only independent Negro Republic in the Western Hemisphere.

Land was distributed to the former slaves. Education was decreed for all. Sharing their labor at harvest time, the Creole - speaking black peasants carved a primitive living for themselves from the rocky soil of the Caribbean island they share uneasily with the Spanish-speaking Dominican Republic.

Today it is almost impossible to make a living in Haiti. As I drove out into the country from Port au Prince early last month I could see the parched fields. I visited the packed market places where women, old men, children sat crouched all day in the brilliant sun before a pile of pitiful wares. With luck they might earn 50 cents before they would place their empty baskets on their heads and plot barefoot the many weary miles back to their thatched mud huts in the distant hills.

I met men who earned $8-$10 a month in stores or warehouses or fields, laboring for foreign masters.

"It was better before the Americans came," I was told.

I learned that when U. S. marines finally quit Haiti in 1933 after an 18-year stay, the American economic grip was already firm on the land.

FIVE U. S. FIRMS OWN EVERYTHING

Five big American firms own whatever is worth owning: Standard Fruit, National Bank, Railroad Haitian American Sugar Co. (HASCO) and the Agricultural Development Society (SHADA). A few years ago an American engineering firm, J. G. White & Co., squandered Haitian funds to build roads that are already almost impassable.

The SHADA did the most damage when it came in with an unsuccessful wartime experiment in producing rubber-bearing plants and sisal, rope fibre. It rented 50 percent of all arable land, evicting the peasants, tearing down their fruit and mahogany trees.

Run entirely by Americans, it left Haiti a $5,000,000 debt. Its removal of trees contributed to the land's erosion. Returning peasants find that huts and their whole means of life were gone.

MIDDLE CLASS FEEL PRESSURE

The growing impoverishment of the masses is paralleled in the Haitian middle class. Beautiful houses abound, but residents told me that nowadays few families make ends meet without every adult pitching in to work.

The literate few — perhaps 10 percent of Haiti's 3,000,000— scramble for government jobs.

This catastrophic economic condition, even effecting the ill-paid National Guard, had been coupled with repressive dictatorship under which parties and trade unions were banned.

TYRANT FORCED TO RESIGN

The dam burst in January. Students protesting suppression of a left-wing student paper, La Ruce, were joined in demonstrations by all sections of the population. The latest tyrant, Elie Lescot, was forced to resign.

An important factor in Lescot's downfall was the fact—which I ascertained from several sources—that the American-owned companies instructed their unorganized workers to join the general strike. Possible explanation for this move: Lescot's tyranny was becoming embarrassing to American diplomats anxious to present a democratic appearance to the world.

Furthermore, Lescot had just concluded a big deal with a British firm—Brandt & Co.—"selling" it seized German assets worth $400,000 for $35,000.

With a sudden release of long suppressed political forces a myriad of tiny political parties sprang into being and politicians began to vie for power. In face of the lack of agreement among civilians who participated in the strike movement, the Haitian National Guard assumed control.

I talked at some length with Col. Franck Lavaud and Major Antoine Levelt, two of the three members of the top military junta, and was impressed by their apparent sincerity and simplicity. They insist they have no political ambitions.

The political line-up had simmered down somewhat in the three months since Lescot's fall. But there still were almost 900 candidates for 56 congressional seats. Observers agree that politicians who condoned the dictatorship or even served under Lescot are pretty sure to win a majority of seats.

Men of the opposition are not yet well known; moreover old line politicians having accumulated their nest eggs, are openly buying votes. Rumors abound that American money is being devoted to this cause. A Dr. Jean Price Mars is supposed to be the American favorite for president—chosen later by the congress.

It's pretty easy to buy votes when people are illiterate and pauperized.

The mood of the Haitian people can be judged by the fact that perhaps half of the many parties claim to be "Socialist" or "Revolutionary."

But the people are just beginning to be organized. Trade unions are barely starting, and their leadership is inexperienced. And it will take organization to break the American economic stranglehold and begin to realize the fruits of that independence won so heroically 142 years ago.

THINGS I SEE

By Marian Inglewood

Every election time we hear candidates exhorting about "this crucial election." Some of our elections indeed have been crucial. And in some of the most crucial ones, sad to say, we Americans have refused to accept the responsibility that should have been ours and we voted as shirkers to sit still twiddling our thumbs while the world reeled on toward destruction.

Such a crucial election was that of 1920. Then the great question was: Shall the United States of America join the League of Nations and accept the responsibility of one of the great nations of the world for the welfare of the people of the world? You know how we voted. We voted, No. Then like spoiled children we sulked in a corner and refused to play because the game wasn't being played according to the rules we wanted.

World War II was the result of that voting. That isn't merely the matter of opinion. Historians agree upon that. Read any history of the past twenty-five years and you will find that selfish isolationism is ascribed as the principal cause of our second world holocaust. You will find, too, that America is rated as the Number 1 isolationist nation of the world for that time.

It took World War II to get a sense of world relationships knocked into our heads, and this time our representatives voted with only one or two dissenting voices, to assume the responsibility that is ours and to take our place at the council table of the United Nations. Our representatives voted that way because they knew we the people demanded it of them this time. They did not dare disobey the voice of the public.

Oh, of course calamity howlers are pointing to all the disagreements among the members of the United Nations, especially among the Big Three, and are predicting the total failure of this now world organization. And so of course another world war.

But the very fact that members of the United Nations are bringing their disagreements out into the open and discussing them, even if very heatedly at times, is the most heartening indication that there will be no world war again. The disputes are being settled by debate, and by the decision of the Security Council the same as in a court of law. To date at any rate there haven't been as many quarrels and embryonic fights in the United Nations as there have been in our own U. S. Senate.

It is not the disagreements among the United Nations that we need worry about. It is the deadly apathy—a sleeping sickness, almost—that is creeping over the American people in regard to the affairs of their government.

We have never taken very much interest in our government as a people. We seem to think it's "smart" to "know nothing about politics." Yet today in this coming election, one of the most crucial in our history, if we do not arouse ourselves and send men and women to Congress and to the State Legislature who will militantly carry out the program for which our friend Franklin Delano Roosevelt gave his life, the debacle of 1920 may be repeated.

In 1920 there were 54,421,832 citizens 21 years of age or over, who might have saved the world from the horrors of another war if they had been interested enough to do so. Out of this number only 26,705,346 voted at all. Less than half. And from this pitifully small number 16,152,200 voted for an imaginary association of nations, something never heard of before nor since.

The enemies of progress and of peace are pursuing the same tactics today. They are using double-talk, they are confusing issues so that an ordinary person, believing them, would almost think that black is white. Red is the color they use, however, and they are trying to make all liberal, progressive candidates appear red to the voter.

They have cross-filed, so that Republicans are listed as Democrats, and Democrats are found on the Republican ticket, and no one can tell 'tother from which. They are using the slogan of the liberal forces, too, and speak of their "record" as of something to be proud of instead of ashamed of.

Along this line Jack Tenney asks to be re-elected State Senator "on the record!" Of all the unmitigated gall! Jack Tenney, a reactionary equal to Bilbo and Rankin and Eastland! Who heads a committee whose purpose is to smear everything fine and true and progressive! Everything that is done for the common man, for the interests of peace and humanity.

Well, we don't believe any reader of The California Eagle will be fooled by any Hitler-like lie that Tenney puts out. They are too intelligent. They will vote for Claude Welch, a real liberal, with a real record of accomplishment for the working people of California, for State Senator, and will rout the Bilbo-Tenney clique utterly.

Then, of course, there is the Rev. Clayton D. Russell, for supervisor of the Second District. Our own Gus Hawkins for the Assembly from the 61st District, and our Congresswoman Helen Gahagan Douglas for member of Congress from the 14th District. And naturally anyone who has watched Bob Kenney fighting savagely against restrictive covenants, racial discrimination, and for the FEPC will want him to be our next governor.

That Tired Feeling and How To Get Rid Of It

by John F. Gernhardt, M.D.
Medical Director, Los Angeles Sanitarium

In Two Articles—No. 2

The only way to get rid of it, is by reformation in nutrition, by partaking of the proper food elements in your daily nutrition. By including foods which are rich in nature's vitamins, minerals, and alkalinity. The world has been in great error about proteins derived from eggs, fish, fowl, and all other flesh foods, which are highly acid forming, causing all kinds of systemic disorders, also leading to all types of physical ailments, resulting in ill health and premature death.

THE NEWER KNOWLEDGE

All nutrition experts have found that a better health will be obtained if we supply our food elements with vegetable proteins, which will create a strong alkalinity in all our tissues, glands, and organs. This, in turn, will form an open blood and lymph circulation, bringing new blood to our entire system, which, in turn, results in normal growth and repair of our tissues.

FLESH VS. VEGETABLE

Flesh foods contain acid protein.

Flesh foods are deficient in minerals and vitamins.

Flesh foods cause inflammation and intestinal toxemia.

Flesh foods can be invaded by tape worms and trichinosis.

Flesh foods are second hand foods, and cannot provide good health.

Meat eaters shorten their lives through abnormal body functions.

Flesh foods are the chief cause of high blood pressure, arteriosclerosis and arthritis. These are the underlying causes of that tired feeling.

THE REMEDY

In my research laboratory we find that animal protein has a harmful effect on your internal linings, glands, kidneys, and bladder. The epithelial cells which are found in the urinary tract are inflamed, diseased, and half degenerated, losing their normal functions, resulting in a general low vitality, and poor health.

NUTRITIVE FOOD ELEMENTS

Vegetables contain alkaline protein.

Vegetables are very rich in vitamins and minerals.

Vegetables prevent inflammatory conditions, and intestinal toxemia.

Vegetables are free from tapework and trichinosis.

Vegetables are first class food elements that provide good health.

Vegetarians enjoy a much longer and healthier life. Regeneration will be imparted to all who take alkaline proteins found in vegetables, fruits, nuts, and grains. Be a good student, learn the best ways of proper nutrition, by observing the natural laws, and God will bless you abundantly.

BLESSED ARE THE VEGETARIANS

They are wise, for they study each day the preparation of the best foods for their families. In their love for their children, these mothers supply them with natural vitamins and minerals, derived from the vegetable kingdom, being fully aware that these foods contain all the nutritive food elements necessary for the maintenance of good health. Yes, vegetables, fruits, nuts, and grains will prevent many systemic disorders.

Children who are obedient to the vegetarian diet, have a most beautiful complexion, a strong nervous system, and a determined will power—thanks to the vegetarian mothers and cooks.

A LAYMAN'S VIEW

By Leon W. Steward

WELCOME HOME, HAROLD

Many of the recently arrived fellow-citizens of Los Angeles will not know to whom this "welcomed home" is directed, but there will be a large number of others who will. Some of them will remember you as the lovely tenor who introduced the song "Love Will Find the Way" back in the 1920s when "Shuffle Along" was introducing a new phase in Negro theatricals. Some will remember away back when your silvery tenor voice sparked the "Wiley College Quartette" (if they are old enough), but most will have had to run into your charming personality either in New York or more recently in L. A. where you and your very charming wife and daughter have made many friends since moving back to L. A. from London, just before the bombs began falling in that fair city. Many more have read of you in the EAGLE or met you because of your singing or maybe just because the husband of so delightful a little person or the daddy of such a fetching young daughter becomes the object of interest or curiosity to many. Well, we are glad to see you, IVAN HAROLD BROWNING back in L. A. because you have been away for a considerable stretch on a back-breaking, but most interesting assignment in service to our boys who are still over there.

We have known you for many years. We have always admired you for the splendid person you have always been. But now we know more good things about you

One is that you are truly in love with your wife and daughter. Surely you must be or what on earth could have motivated your writing such long and frequent letters to them throughout your wanderings over the world. You took time out to greet your friends from afar. They appreciated it. And, after a historic trip through Europe, the Europe which you have known in its heyday, you return enthusiastic in your willingness to share your impressions and observations with any who, meeting you, would be asking about them.

So you say that Germany is only a heap o' rubble and that years will be required to reconstruct it into its former eligance. You say that Italy is about as bad off, excepting Rome and Florence. Well, these birds asked for it, that is their leaders did—with their blessing—or did it have their blessings? You are not sure. And England is recovering fast from the pasting she took from the Germans. That is, she has cleaned up the rubble and has begun to rebuild (even while she appears to be asking for it again—if we are to believe what the newspapers and radio tell us).

We read in the papers about the reunion of you and Josephine Baker, Miller, and Noble Sissle, your old "Shuffle Along" buddies. That must have been a thrilling experience. So Josephine is still alive kicking and looking good, eh! And the hard times which are inevitable to any group traveling in Europe these days made no exception of your USO troupe. That is not hard to believe after listening to the stories of hardship as told us by Oscar and Mrs. Plant of the USO "Porgy and Bess" troupe which was through here recently winding up a tour of American camps in the good old USA. By the way, the Plants write that they are coming back to L. A. soon to rest and remain. There must be something in this winter sunshine that just about unfits folk for fighting the cold of the East.

Well, let me give you a little of the lowdown on what's been going on back here since you have been gone. O. heck! you'll only want to know about your family. Well, shortly after you left we read one of the nicest tributes we have ever seen in a local paper to a person for a fine piece of volunteer work they had done for the community. It was all about Maurina. Then, too, we have dropped by the house many times only to find that she had just received one of those marvelous letters from you and that was that.

But boy, you should have seen the basketbal games between the Alpha Kappa Alphas and the Delta Sigma Thetas as preliminaries before the fraternity contests. You would really have realized that you little girl has just about "grown up" And isn't she a swell player and a sweller sportsman and doesn't she have personality with which to win and to capture. How very proud you must be of them both.

By the way, you ask about Ed Plumber of Denver. He has moved to Pasadena and is now burrowed in there.

You need not think I won't keep that engagement when you promised to tell me all about your trip, Brother, I shall be there. And Dovie says she's going to be there, too. Well, here is wishing you the very best years of your most interesting life and with the same wish for the family, I am closing until we meet again, but take this as your WELCOME HOME, HAROLD.

Yours glad to see you,
Leon

Final Appeal For Cancer Fund

Nearing the close of the American Cancer Society's cancer control campaign, State Chairman A. J. Gock today again stressed the importance of backing the fight against cancer.

Pointing out that 60 per cent of the fund raised in California will be used for cancer control, education, additional medical service, new facilities, in the State, he asked that all who have failed to send in their contributions do so at once.

"If, for any reason, this important, humanitarian program has been overlooked by anyone, it is not too late to sit down now and write a check," Gock said. "Every contribution will go directly into the fight against cancer, a disease which annually claims the lives of 175,000 Americans."

★ Recently, a study was made to determine the present state of health and well-being of 78 diabetics who had been placed on a diet and Insulin twenty years before. Previous to Dr. Banting's discovery of Insulin in 1922, their chance of survival for more than two or three years would have been slight.

It was found that 77 of the 78, or 98 percent, were alive and living active, useful lives.

Diabetes cannot be cured, but scientific management under the direction of a physician gives comfort and happiness to otherwise hopeless people. Do not be misled by claims for so-called diabetic cures. There is but one safe treatment, and it is thoroughly understood by your physician.

We maintain complete stocks of diabetic supplies, subject to your doctor's specifications.

be free and his accusers would be hiding their faces in shame.

That is my opinion after a careful on-the-spot investigation of all the facts of the case, legal and otherwise.

That is the opinion of a local defense committee of Negro citizens, headed by the Rev. L. W. Wertz, Baptist minister.

That is the opinion of Emanuel H. Bloch, attorney for the Congress on Civil Rights and former counsel for the U. S. Fair Employment Practices Committee.

Bloch, who arrived here after my appeal for legal aid to save the condemned man, has taken steps to protect the legal rights of Benton and to rally the full force of the Congress on Civil Rights for a new trial of the case.

Sentenced to die May 31, execution of the Negro veteran has automatically been stayed until fall through notice of appeal to the North Carolina supreme court, filed by Edgar W. Jones and W. R. Jones, local attorneys for the defense.

But the fight for Benton's freedom, in a tense Jim Crow atmosphere, has just begun.

My investigation of the case, combined with a careful study of the record of the three-day trial of Benton in Rockingham, six miles from here, revealed that:

1. Mrs. Elizabeth Freeman, star witness, testified she could not identify Benton as the man who allegedly raped her on Christmas eve.

2. Benton denied his guilt on the witness stand during the trial, but the jury was excluded from the trial room during his denial.

3. Two witnesses testified Benton was a visitor in two homes far from the scene of the alleged crime during the time the crime was said to have been committed.

4. Chief state evidence was an oral repetition by Chief of Police Albert Gibson and two railroad detectives of an alleged written confession by Benton of the crime. Benton denied making the confession, stating he signed a paper after police threatened to "cut my throat" and refused to give him food.

5. Benton was convicted by an all-white jury, which stood 7 to 5 against conviction from 5:30 p. m., April 12, until 10 a. m., April 13. The "guilty" verdict came an hour later after the judge upbraided the jury for failing to reach a decision.

6. No Negroes have ever been drawn for jury service in Richmond county.

Mrs. Freeman testified she was dragged to a clump of bushes near Hamlet Community Center and raped around 9:30 Christmas eve by a man who "choked" her and threatened to kill her if she hollered.

"I didn't see the man that assaulted me any more after that and I had never seen him before to my knowledge," said Mrs. Freeman, when asked by the state solicitor to describe the assailant.

"The man that assaulted me was a colored man," she told the court. "I couldn't tell how dark he was because it was dark and raining."

Q. Did he appear to be a black Negro or a light-colored one?

A. Well, he had a cap or a hat on his head and it was pulled down over his face and I couldn't tell much about his color; he was a little taller than I am, as well as I could tell. I was frightened. Well, no, I don't have any opinion as to his size.

Climaxing her "description" of the alleged assailant, Mrs. Freeman told the court: "I just knew he was a man and took it to be a colored man."

The record of the trial offers no positive identification of Benton as the assailant of Mrs. Freeman.

Mrs. Anna Leadbetter and Mrs. Elizabeth Gould, local Negro housewives, testified Benton was in the Leadbetter home along with two other persons, far from the scene of the alleged rape, at the time the crime was said to have been committed. I visited these women in their homes and they repeated their story of Benton's visit.

Benton's relatives and leading Negores in North Carolina have asked me to bring this case to the attention of the American people. They told me to appeal to the people to support the Congress on Civil Rights in demanding a new trial for Benton.

(This is the first of an exclusive series of on-the-spot stories of the Major Benton case written for The EAGLE and a number of other papers. For complete reports on this new Dixie Jim Crow frame-up, follow Harry Raymond's reports in this paper.)

racy. Bidner pointed out that the 1946 elections were not just an ordinary campaign, but comes in the midst of a battle against "the forces of darkness, as represented by the Ku Klux Klan." If ever it was necessary to get out and work for the defeat of reaction, that time is now, he said. He warmly praised Kenny for his fearless, consistent struggle for the rights of all the people.

Kenny ured Californians and the American people in general to wake up to the menace of the Klan, its threat to national unity and inter-group goodwill. Recent Klan outrages in Los Angeles have a fanatical look, a fanatical odor, he warned. It is time, he said, to root out the bigots, protect minority groups, stop pretending that these things don't exist. The latter statement was interpreted by many as an allusion to Gov. Warren's attitude.

Fontana, the Laws and Festus Coleman cases, the burning of a cross on the property of the Hickerson family are a challenge to minority groups and all decent Americans, Lena Horne said. A victory in the Laws case would be a telling blow against those who foster race hatred, she declared, and warned that a defeat in that case "would be a green light to those who are trying to snuff out democracy in this country." She urged the fullest support to the impending court battle, called for (1) the punishment of the Fontana arsonists, (2) the freedom of Festus Coleman, (3) Victory in the Laws Case.

Hawkins urged the use of the weapon of the franchise, called on all voters to go to the polls and vote for progressive candidates and against the candidates endorsed by the L. A. Times and the Herald Press.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES

The Woodlawn Branch YWCA will offer a varied program this summer for teen age girls and boys it was announced after a recent meeting of the committee for Younger Girls' Work of which M[illegible]ongre Carey is chairman.

Emphasis will be placed on three areas of work from June 24 through August.

SUMMER CAMP

The L. A. summer camp will be conducted this season at Camp Sealy during the month of July. There are two periods of ten days each with the first beginning on June 30. The last period will end July 20. Girls of Junior high and senior high age may attend. Registrations should be made through the Woodlawn Branch office by the first week in June.

DAY CAMP

For the Stay-at-Home, a Day Camp will be conducted from June 24 to August 1 daily Monday through Friday from 10:00 a. m. to 4 p. m. from the Woodlawn building. Campers will be taken daily on trips to places of interest, beaches, swimming pools and exploring adventures. Activities in music, drama, arts and crafts, games, nature study, swimming and marionettes will afford opportunity for creative expression in many ways.

It is expected that registration will be heavy. Since only a limited number can be served through this program and it is expected that many girls will wish to attend, preference will be given the girls already enrolled in Girl Reserve clubs. This kind of program usually appeals to girls of junior high school age. Parents are urged to enroll their children for Day Camp early in June.

PROGRAM FOR CO-EDS

An evening schedule of events for girls and boys of high school age will be planned by the Tri-Y Inter Club Council. It is expected that emphasis will be placed on social, recreation, such as dancing, weiner bakes at the beaches and in the patio, hayrides, picnics, horseback riding, swimming, basket and volley ball, discusions, parties and week-end trips, exploring trips to nearby places of interest.

N. Y. Firm Hires Negro Models

NEW YORK — History was made this week, another barrier smashed, when Negro girls and women began modeling for a corporation which formerly has used only white women in modeling its clothes. The company that made this revolutionary step was the Spool Cotton Corporation of America, Neil Scott, president of Neil Scott and Associates, is public relations counsel to the firm and it is due to his insistance that Spool Cotton executives made the important decison to use colored models.

"Negro women are just as beautiful and talented as any other women and there is no logical reason why their beauty should not be presented to the world in the most flattering manner and in public mediums," said Scott.

The first models used by Neil Scott Associates were of fine quality and character. They possessed both beauty and talent. Scott says that he intends to keep his models at this high standard. He would like for young women who are interested in modeling, to send photos of themselves immediately to Neil Scott Associates at 400 Manhattan avenue. Include age, weight, height, and other essential measurements.

The first models were: Mrs. Izzy Rowe, wife of Billy Rowe; Mrs. Jack Dabney, formerly Mrs. Bill Robinson; Betty Mays, outstanding woman orchestra leader; Marion Bruce, rising contralto night club singer; Mary Cunningham, talented young model; Yvonne Carol Cherot, granddaughter of Commissioner Battle; Jane White, star of "Strange Fruit" and daughter of Walter White; Thelma Dale, field secretary of National Negro Congress; Mrs. Ethel Sissle, wife of Noble Sissle; Mrs. Josephine T. Lane, wife of Lou Lane, newspaper man, and La Moune, celebrated French delineator of song, currently the rave sensation at New York's Cafe Society Uptown.

The student body of USC, aroused by the Klan invasion of their campus, held a mass rally at Bridge Hall, with 500 students in attendance, and demanded that the college administration and sororities take a stand against the Klan, called on the Daily Trojan, at present controlled by campus reactionaries, to denounce the Klan outrage.

The meeting set up a committee, headed by Bob Peck, newly elected president of the senior class, to work with the progressive forces fighting the Klan. It also decided to hold a mass rally on the campus Friday with Attorney General Robert W. Kenny as the main speaker. Permission for the rally was denied, however, by Chancellor Rufus Von Klinscmidt.

The students were reported planning to hold their protest meeting at Shrine auditorium or some other hall off the campus.

☆ Youth Activities Throughout The Nation ☆

Edited by Yvonne Shepherd

KINLOCH'S ☆ KORNER

By Y. S.

Dedicated to the memory of my childhood chum, John Kinloch, who died in the struggle to destroy Fascism.

Dear Chum:

Last week I paid tribute to the youth of this nation on their "coming of age," and rejoiced in the dawning of their political awakening. Their growing recognition of issues involved. Their youthful, determined eagerness to face problems, study them, take a stand, and then fight for and defend those principles held essential for the realization of a better, finer world.

The progressive young people of America are making rapid strides forward. However, they will face the tremendous tasks confronting them with renewed inspiration after they hear of the heroic struggle waged—and being waged—by the youth of Greece.

Saturday afternoon at the Church Federation, I heard Prof. George Georgalas, organizer of the Greek youth resistance movement—EPON—relate incidents of supreme sacrifice and courage of young Greeks determined to stamp out fascism. To fight for freedom. Democracy.

During the war, Greek youth fought three invaders—Italian, German and Bulgarian — even as hunger, violence and terror stalked the country and as the forces of tyranny tried to enslave an entire people.

Rallying to stem the advancing tide of oppression, Greek youth organizations united to form EPON—the United Pan Hellenic Youth Organization—founded on four great principles: national liberty, a people's democracy, a people's peace and creation of a new Greek civilization.

Under the banner of EPON, young people of Greece served in guerilla bands; some in sabotage groups in the cities. They fought in 200 battles; looked after the welfare and morale of villages; helped establish food kitchens, medical aid and infant stations; built club houses; repaired roads; planted trees; helped keep schools in operation; and rebuilt homes.

But more than that, they gave their lives. One teen-age girl was questioned by the Nazis but refused to betray her comrades.

She was skinned alive. But even as she was dying, said: "I know but I will not tell!"

Students were forbidden to join EPON. Those who disobeyed were expelled. Two were thrown into a flaming oven and burned alive because they were EPON leaders, while others have been imprisoned. Beaten. Murdered.

Although recognized officially today, members of EPON are still persecuted. EPON has a membership of 600,000 boys and girls, 15 to 23, plus 150,000 EAGLETS, 8 to 14.

Young people of Greece made excellent contributions during the war. And now, in this post-war period, youth and the working class are the vanguard of the struggle for democracy.

Empty, bloated bellies are tragic evidence of a starvation diet of 800 calories a day although 2000 is considered a subsistence level. UNRRA turns over food to the British-controlled Royalists who, in turn, distribute food politically.

"The Royalist government does not represent the majority of Greek people," protests Nicos Carvounis, who served as interpreter for Professor Georgalas. That is why EAM (National Liberation Front) demands that electoral votes be recompiled on basis of a census.

Today EPON fights as valiantly as during World War II. It advocates cultural, educational and physical well-being for youth, cultivates understanding between youth of the Balkans and the whole world, is a member of the World Federation of Democratic Youth, is working to help maintain promised world peace, and is striving for the democratic rebirth of their country.

"Youth everywhere is working together for a better world," said Professor Georgalas, "and youth is the future of Greece."

To achieve their objectives, EPON demands a special clothing and medical distribution for young people up to the age of 20 from the Greek government and UNRRA. Immediate setting up of student and food kitchens and special kitchens for infants. General medical examination of all young people. Public health centers and special hospitals for children and youth. Better working conditions for young workers and adjustment of wages to living index. And finally, reorganization of education so that all youth may enjoy it.

In extending fraternal greetings from the youth of Greece to the progressive young people of America fighting for democracy, the gentle-looking Professor Georgalas declared:

"Go forward youth in every country of this world for the common future of mankind!"

Your chum, YVONNE.

City-Wide Confab Slated Sun. By Los Angeles Youth Council

Young people from the schools and colleges, from the major youth organizations and the small neighborhood clubs, from the churches and the trade unions, will gather together at a city-wide youth confab Sunday, May 26, from 12:30 to 5:00 p.m., in Belmont Hall, L. A. City college, under the auspices of the Los Angeles Youth Council.

They will participate in five discussion groups related to the main problems confronting young people today. Out of these groups will come concrete and stimulating projects of activity and study for the coming months.

The discussion on "Winning the Peace" will be led by Fred Mazorik, president of the Jewish Youth Council. "Building World Youth Unity" will have Elena Gerard, Southeast YWCA, as chairman. Chairman of "Building a Secure Future" will be Cornell Ridley of L. A. City College Cubvets.

Two teen-agers will act as chairmen for the panels entitled "Building Democracy in Our Clubs and Schools," led by John Restovich, Westminster Fellowship, First Presbyterian Church; and "Let's Adopt a Town," led by Bob Zakon of American Youth for Democracy.

In the last-named group, plans will be worked out for Los Angeles youth to participate in the program of relief and rehabilitation of war-devastated areas through the exciting project of adopting the young people of a specific city.

Preceding the conference there will be a short business meeting during which new officers for the Youth Council will be elected. Only official delegates of member groups will be eligible to vote.

Young people from this entire area, however, whether members of affiliated groups or not, are urged to attend and take part in the discussions.

N. Y. U. Student Editor Ousted For Rapping Racial Equality

NEW YORK—Mike Schwebel, editor-in-chief of New York university student paper, "The Bulletin," was ousted from his high seat in the editor's chair recently after he penned an article rapping social equality.

In a masthead editorial "Jim Crow Shackles NYU Runners," Schwebel said, among other things:

"We do not, however, propose to suggest a complete social intermingling of the races. It is a basically dangerous suggestion because of the set prejudices of the different races, and of the mutual suspicion and mistrust which accompanies all such suggestions."

Professor Andre Beaumont, chairman of the Committee on Student Affairs, was inclined to let Schwebel off with a probably slight reprimand, but the editorial board, with whom Schwebel had always been in conflict, took a stronger position. His associates denounced him as "fascist-minded," a "sloppy thinker," and "a dumb boy who may grow up."

Both Chancellor Chase and Professor Beaumont evaded the issue raised by Schwebel in his editorial, taking refuge behind the "principle of the freedom of the press." Chancellor Chase, however, emphasized "We make no discrimination. Our student body is selected regardless of race, color or creed, and they meet and mingle on terms of perfect equality."

Predicts Child's Ultimate Height

BERKELEY—A child's expected height at maturity can be predicted with "amazing accuracy," according to a table developed by University of California scientists.

By correlating results obtained when X-rays of the child's hand and knee joints are matched with his height, the ultimate height that child will attain when he is an adult can be determined, declares Dr. Nancy Bayley, research associate at the University's institute of child welfare.

Negro Farm Youth Excluded From National Confab Because of Bias

WASHINGTON—Negro farm youth will be excluded from the National 4-H Club convention to be held here June 11-18, it was learned this week from the Agriculture Department, because white southerners would refuse to attend if colored members were invited.

In attempting to justify the Department's position in excluding colored 4-H club members, Miss Gertrude L. Warren, director of 4-H club work for the Agriculture Department said that plans were already under way to sponsor a separate convention for colored 4-H workers at Tuskegee Institute.

"We have our southern leaders who are very strong about that sort of thing," she said. "If we invited our colored 4-H workers to attend the convention with the whites, we wouldn't get a delegation of white southerners," she emphasized.

LOADS OF LUCK! — Morris Alex Buchanan, first Negro in the history of the Drama Department of Los Angeles City college who has been given opportunity to direct a play. All characters of the drama, "Moor Born," are white.

The son of Rev. J. E. Buchanan, A.M.E. of Pasadena, Morris is in his second semester of drama training at L.A.C.C.

Students Support Bond Issue Drive

Los Angeles City college students are strongly supporting the drive for the Board of Education's $75,000,000 bond issue to be voted upon in the June 4 election. Campus leaders recognize the need for new buildings. The administration building, North Hall, and the Girls gym were condemned years ago but the board has been unable to replace them due to the scant budget.

Among students active in the campaign are James Tattersall, finance chairman of the student Council, editor of the school newspaper, Robert Kneeper, and councilwoman Helen Curry.

WHAT'S DOING IN THE SOCIAL SET

By JESSIE MAE BROWN

MRS. KATE DIXON is a very busy young matron nowadays, chairing the Gloria Roberts Concert committee and keeping up with her teaching at Jordan High school. She informed "ye scribe" that on Saturday, May 25, from 12:30 to 5 p. m. the Los Angeles Federation of Teachers will convene at City college. The Honorable Robert W. Kenny, attorney general and candidate for governor, will give the keynote address at the educational conference, "The teacher as citizen and builder of citizens." Featured during the closing auditorium session will be the new thought-provoking film, "The Races of Mankind,'" which will be introduced by Carlton Moss, noted tan toned screen writer. Prominent members of local labor and government groups, as well as teachers will be represented on the four main panels on such problems of today as Education for Peace; Teachers and Organized Labor; Teachers Salaries and Child Welfare. So happens that the entire conference is open to the general public as well as members of the teaching profession.

PAST WEEK-END

In looking over the past week-end, I find myself wondering just how I managed to make the many events listed from programs to showers. The gay whirl started Saturday night with the Omega Psi Phi Trophy dance. A fine gesture on the part of the Omegas to host the gay gathering honoring their basketball team, with members of the press and interfrat gents and lassies as guests for the evening. The combo music was tops; noted Jack Kelson with the music makers. It's been a long time since Angelenos have witnessed his sax playing. Taking time out to congratulate the trophy winner, Charles Townsend, and joining in the general fling of good fellowship were Bob and Evelyn Green, Dr. and wife, Pat McCloud, Nancy Harris, looking very chic in a spring floral dress; Grace and Eddie Atkinson, Harrison Bailey from Pasadena, the newlywedded Albert McNeils, Omega Basileus, James P. Perry and vice, Harry Penn, Henry Jones, Gene Williams, introducing a very charming lady, Laura and Johnnie Brewer, Teena and Jimmy Robinson, R. B. Porter, LeRoy Beavers, George Sturdivant, Ralph Kauphman, the Earnest Kilgores, and many more.

The Trophy dance marked a first with the Omegas who are steadily becoming one of the leading frats of the city. . . .

At the joint breakfast meeting of the AKAS Sunday morning, noted that the sorors are well under way with plans for the 1946 Boule. Dorothy Redd, president of the Sigma chapter, presided the meeting that was well attended by members of the three local chapters. Regional director, Ann Beachman Brown, came down from Berkeley, Calif., especially for the meeting. Wearing a quietly striped spring suit complimented by a straw derby and brown accessories, the Northern official offered comments to plans suggested by local sorority women. Attending were: Dr. Shelby Robinson, program committee chairman; Ann Gordon, looking very charming in a striking white hat; Vivian Wilson, Mary Coleman, Zenobia Allen, Audrey Jones, Euvolda Morris, Vye Thompson and many others who readily agreed that UCLA would be the conference headquarters where sessions would be held during the third week in August. . .

Almost missed the wedding ceremony for Jessiel Reid and Leslie King Sunday afternoon. Believe me, the wedding started at four on the dot. Arriving a few minutes late, was lucky to get standing room at the back of the church. Never before have I witnessed a more beautifully decorated setting. Peach Blossoms, and the delicate pink shade of the blossoms was carried out in all the flowers and props. The pastel shades of green, yellow, and pink worn by the maids made the setting perfect. Jessel, of course, was beautiful in white sheer with long veil and a bouquet of orchids.

On leaving the church chatted a brief spell with Lou Boswell, who will hostess a baby shower in honor of "Sis" Russell next Sunday; also Fay Thompson, for the first time in ages; the recently engaged Barbara McMorries and Lt. Bill Faulkner; Joe Oliver, with his pleasing line; Mel Temple, Joe Spaulding and a host of others. You can imagine, for the couple, is one of the city's most popular.

Sunday night, the spotlight moved to Second Baptist church where "All College Night" held sway. Orchids go to the collegiates who helped to make the effort a success.

Following the "All College Night," attended the HPA Rally, heard Lena Horne give a dynamic speech, that brought the curtain down on a well filled week-end.

HERE AND THERE

Roy Andrews flew to the Alpha convention held in Austin, Texas. He is back around town now with much to talk about. Says he learned that Jack Terry was in the hospital and would like to hear from his L. A. friends . . .

The National Council of Negro Musicians will hold the final of their concert series. Eleven year old Samuel Lipman will be the featured artist. The club members are very proud over the success of the past season . . .

Dr. Veda Somerville's hill top home was the setting for a well appointed gathering early Sunday. The guest list to the smart affair sparkled with many top names of leading local socialites.

Chatted with fellow fourth estater, Fay Jackson, recently, who is all aglow over the fact that her daughter, Joan Pierson, will be formally initiated into the Upsilon chapter of Delta, 20 years to the day that she helped organize and became the first president of the chapter. She is hoping that in another 20 years her granddaughter, Dale, will cross the burning sands . . .

Edith Owens is ready to take the limelight next Sunday afternoon when she plays in recital to benefit the HPA. The benefit is being held at Bowen Memorial church at 3 p.m. . . .

WELL! WELL! WELL!

Ensign Charlie Duncan (Todd Duncan's son) had a brief stop over in the city last Monday enroute to home in Washington after spending several months in Japan with the service . . .

It was a twofold celebration at Marilyn Guthrie's Willowbrook plaza home last Saturday night. The popular matron celebrated her birthday and tendered a house warming . . . The Phidelphian Fiesta should be tops Sunday afternoon . . . See that June 1 is a popular date. The much talked of Cosmos Val Verde gathering will be held, and the mammoth AYD benefit dance will be staged that evening at the CIO Building . . . By the way, on Monday night, the John Kinloch club will meet at the EAGLE office. All persons baffled by the idea of AYD are urged to attend, in order to find out what it is really all about . . . Marian Goosby Williams is back in LA since hubby has returned from over seas . . . Deloris Anderson leaves for 'Frisco soon as a professional model . . . Daffodil Girls Spring Formal Is Outstanding

The Daffodil Girls spring formal last Saturday evening at the Elks Hall was one of the loveliest and smoothest affairs of the season. Mr. A. J. Anderson, florist at 4629 S. Central, staged the affair, handling the decorations, refreshments, and gift tokens with a master's touch.

The hall, decorated in a garden motif, was festooned with flowers. Little tables for two or more were set around the dance floor and awnings and gay table umbrellas lent a fresh outdoor atmosphere. Tea and drinks were served at the flower-bedecked bar by a bartender and waitress.

Mr. Anderson introduced the Anderson Florist staff — Ruth Draper, Leone Fister, Virgincena Balari, and Ruth Lindsey, who is replacing Mrs. Grimes while she is on vacation. The staff then passed among the guests, giving each lady a buttonhole carnation to present to her escort.

'DENA CHIT-CHAT

By

JOHNETTA ARMSTRONG - FREDDY WARD

We know it isn't very ethical to speak of ourselves but we want everyone to know that Saturday, May 18, 1946, was Johnetta and Jimmie Armstrong's second wedding anniversary. How about that!!!! 'Nough said.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Cunningham's reception, given for them by their folk, Mr. and Mrs. Joel Cunningham, was very lovely. The friends showered them with many grand presents, among which was a set of silver. Mrs. Ernest Cunningham wore a cap-sleeve pink formal with an entwined pink and gold belt. The corsage which adorned her shoulder was made of tiger lily orchids. Her sisters-in-law, Bernice Cunningham, Myrtle Cunningham, Lillian Brown, and Betty Cunningham, helped with the presents and refreshments. Some of the guests present: Bill Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Slater, Mr. and Mrs. Muett White, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Cole, Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Smith, Bobby Ann Berry, Pete McCullough, Mrs. Eva Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Clipper, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, and many, many more.

Surprise, surprise!!!! Arthur Callier was surprised when his family gave him a birthday party and the guests were in turn given a shock to learn that Arthur's sister Carolyn had married William Hennington, May 6, in Las Vegas, Nev. Some of those who joined in the frolic and surprise were Paullyn Garner Fisher having a wonderful time, Herman Sperlock, Mona Hernandiz, Charles Fowler, wearing a beautiful studded watch, Bill Edson, all alone, Charlene and Lois Prince, Charlene and Louis Septda, Elizabeth and Alfred Williams, Paul Mack, who put on a mad floor show, Butter Ellis straight from the Cotton Club on the Strip, Wallace Decuir, Sammy Strange and a few other Comos dropped in a little while and left a few tickets for their Val Verde Caravan.

The Gay Charmettes Carousal was one of the nicest affairs this season. There were games of chance, foods and kisses. Don't get excited, the kisses were candy ones. Those trying to put out a lighted candle with a water pistol were James White, Thomas Floyd, Robert Morgan, J. T. Morgan and others. Some of those munching on hot dogs were Alva Rae Neblett, Harrison Bailey, Thelma Jackson, Barbara Durham, Jefflyn Brown, Walter Ellis, Gradie and Elbie Hickambottom, and many more. The members of the club are Mable Duncan, Odella Bartlett, Myrtle Martin, Baby Lou Bunch, Betty Brown, and Alma Phillips.

The Andaconda's "Injun Hop" was another affair on the social calendar. This was one of the first affairs given by this new club. Some of those dancing in the dimly lit hall were Eddie and Bobby Lawson, B. Wade, Jay Turner, Mary Collins, Bill Edson and oodles more.

The Wilson-Zivic fight drew quite a few Pasadenans to the Olympic. Noted Henriette and Ernest Cunningham, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph James Armstrong, Joel and Myrtle Cunningham and others. Heard from Anita White Benjamin of Berkeley. She said to tell all her friends hello. Joe Baker is now in New York but will soon be in South America starting a new business. The Las Serene-Depity are giving a coffee, Sunday, June 2. Everyone is invited. Jimmie Miller is giving a concert next month at the First AME church. Don't forget to go. The Phalanx gave their mothers a lovely dinner Mother's Day and this past Sunday they caught the boat and went to Catalina for the week-end. The K.K.A.'s had their first club meeting in quite a while. They were wonderfully entertained by their hostess, Mrs. Pallyn Fisher. Her husband Wilbert was present and representing the Comos, sold some tickets for their affair.

Our heart-felt sympathies go out to the bereaved Johnson family.

Mrs. Anna Mae Woods received lots of lovely presents at the dinner given for her by Mrs. Laura Bailey. The guests who enjoyed a turkey dinner with all the trimmings and bridge were Alberta Davis, Louise La Grand, Lucille Bowdin, Lorrette Grant, Pecola Coleman, Natalie Ramsey, Roschelle Vaughn, Mrs. Bailey, of Los Angeles; Constance Washington, Mrs. Pat Elliot, Ernestine Cole, Sarah Turner and Mrs. Wilson.

The Howdy Hop given by the Sir Debuteers was attended by several Pasadenans. Alice and Bernard Harris, Pete McCullough, Bobby Ann Berry, Gloria Hawkins, Mary Collins, and Bill Edson were some of those present.

The Good Samaritans tea given by Mrs. Theresa House was quite successful. Pat Green won the contest and the runner-up was Marge Armstrong.

Bridge Points

By M. L. Milligan, Sr.
Certified Master Teacher

Bridgers in the world of sports—Bridge holds its own—however, it is the one game that after two lessons, or two first games, the average person thinks he is the tops in all of its fundamentals—this is far from true, and such feats would be practically impossible even for Einstein, however, mastery of the fundamental principles merely requires normal intelligence and a cooperative mind; since scientific bridge is first, last, and always a partnership game; cooperation is its' first law.

Last Tuesday night in my class at the GWBA club rooms 1054-56 E. 54th st., two of the leading bridge masters of this city disagreed with me on the following reverse bidding, anent the correct response — example: South Vul opened the bidding with 1D. East overcalled with Int. North and West passed. South rebid 2S. (What is South's Honor-trick holding, and distribution.) East passed. North holding S.XX H.10XXX D.XX C.XXXXX. What is his correct response? These two local masters said pass, Culbertson (the system they profess to follow) said: "A bridge player can have no stronger obligation than to show which of his partners two suits he prefers" 1. With suits of equal length prefer the first bid suit, since with suits of unequal length south would bid the longer first if he reversed the bidding at the level of two or more. South's rebid showed a minimum of 4HT and in face of East's overcall, and his vulnerability possibly more, and 6-5-distribution; hence North's correct response is 3D.

Bridgers, each bid must show a definite minimum in honor-tricks, and if you know the basis of raises, rebids, and take-out bids—the cards you hold, and the bidding can never confuse you, because you KNOW what action to take to be COOPERATIVE and steer the contract into the correct channel.

By Grace Fisher Athins

It is rumored that Mrs. Lucille Pulliam, instructor of clothing at Jefferson Adult Evening school for many years, will soon extend her popular courses during the day for adults at Wadsworth street elementary school. Here is a chance for the housewife and some working mothers of a late shift to learn and receive help on the family wardrobe. They can accompany their children to the school and attend classes.

Clothing budgets, style, and construction are catagories in need of much consideration by Mothers of school children.

The total amount of money that can be allowed for dressing the family is the first consideration. Then a division of this sum into proportions for each member according to activity and occupational needs. For the average budget it usually shows that much ingenuity will need be exercised to make ends meet.

It is almost a requirement that the female members of the family learn how to sew. Even a single working girl must adapt herself to the clothing arts if she is to be attractive. A city school teacher not long ago treated herself to a "Cloth coat" "fur trimmed" which amounted to more than $375. The one garment consumed more than two months of her net salary. Such inconsistency is disastrous for the small income.

Clothing costs will be the chief concern in Mrs. Pulliam's classes. Construction and wardrobe plans will follow with much speed of production.

If you are interested in these classes write or phone the school office before the enrollment period closes, or rather before it opens.

Miss Dorothy Redd, basileus of Sigma Chapter, presided over the meeting that was held between the hours of 9 a. m. and 1 p. m. Over 600 delegates are expected to attend the conference which will be the first since the war period. General headquarters for the conference sessions will be at the University of California Los Angeles campus.

Atty. Martha Malone Williams, basileus of the local graduate chapter, will be general chairman of the boule committee, with Misses Winifred Smith and Dorothy Redd of the undergraduate chapters her assistants. The conference will have its official opening during the third week of August. The other local Greek letter organizations have planned several social functions to honor the 1946 boule.

THOUSANDS JAM JOE LOUIS' TRAINING CAMP

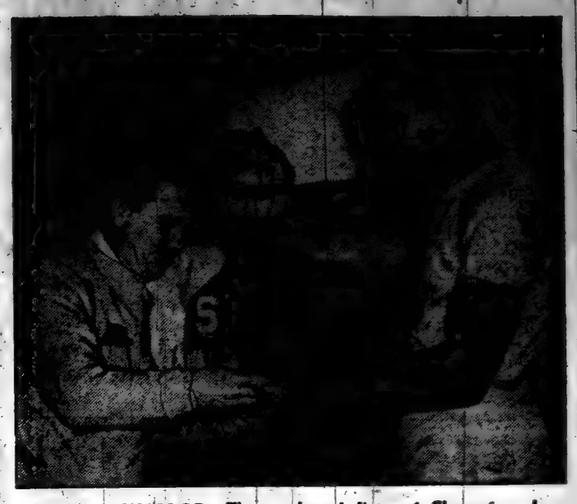
Champion Forced To Cut Training

POMPTON LAKES (N.J.)—More than 2000 visiting fans were turned away and fences were battered down at the Joe Louis' training camp here last Sunday in attempts to gain admission to the already jammed indoor gymnasium.

The gym was so crowded and hot that the heavyweight champ was permitted to box only four rounds instead of the scheduled six. Trainer Manny Seaman refused to permit the sparring to continue, explaining, "it's so crowded, Joe can't breathe in here."

He will do the rest of his preparations for Billy Conn on June 19 in the outdoor ring, if weather permits.

Meanwhile Conn is going through his training paces with a fair amount of fans turning out but nothing to compare with the turnout of fans to watch the popular heavyweight champion do his conditioning chores.



PACKS A WALLOP—Those gloved fists of Champion Joe Louis pack plenty of wallop. That's the verdict of gagster Joe Laurie, Jr., of NBC's "Can You Top This?" as he gingerly feels the Brown Bomber's mighty mitts during a recent visit to his training camp at Pompton Lakes, N. J. Louis, who fights Billy Conn in the Yankee Stadium, June 19, boxed a few rounds while Laurie served as the second. Said Laurie, "On second thought, I'm so small, you'd better call me a split second!"

Billy Smith Is Winner by K. O.

Oakland Billy Smith, 171, scored a knockout over Walter (Popeye) Woods, 168, of New York in 2m. 42s. of the third round of the main event at the Olympic before 6500 fans Tuesday night. The bout was scheduled for ten-heats.

In the six-round semi-windup Billy McClure, 194, nodded Johnny Ebarb, 181.

John Thomas, Ike Williams Bout For Title This Summer Is Called Certain

California's outstanding lightweight, John Thomas, is practically a sure bet to fight Ike Williams for the NBA world's lightweight championship here on or about July 17. This was announced by Bert Lewis, manager of Thomas, to an EAGLE reporter Tuesday.

According to Mr. Lewis, Ike's name is on a contract held by Henry Hall, well known local promoter, who has been behind many successful endeavors here in the line of sports. This week Mr. Hall is due to post bonds assuring the bout, after which he will decide upon the site with Wrigley Field topping the list of tentative spots.

Thomas is currently training for his June 11 Olympic bout against the outstanding easterner, Maxie Shapiro, and has a busy schedule ahead with a tentative date set at Albuquerque on June 21.

YEAGER SIGNED

Bobby Yeager, stablemate of Thomas, fresh from a kayo victory over Regino Aguila at Hollywood last Friday night, has been signed to battle Frankie Fernandez in the Civic auditorium at San Francisco on June 7.

Another Bert Lewis - George Tolson protege, Henry Roberts, who was going great guns before Uncle Sam gathered him into the fold, is reclining gracefully but mournfully on a bayonet somewhere in the state of Illinois. However, the kid just recently became 18 years old and will still be at a good fighting age when discharged. He was crowned the 1946 Times Golden Gloves champion in the lightweight division.

AN INTERESTING SLANT on the Negro in athletics is given by John M. Lee, writing for Continental Features and we pass it on to you. Here it is:

"Long, long ago, the experts who are spending their lives trying to prove that the Negro is inferior to the Caucasion, came to the conclusion that the best way to explain away the prominence of Negro athletes in the various branches of sports was to admit it on the basis that the Negro is more animal than the Caucasian. Well, animal or vegetable, the brown boys are still in there toppling over records in everything from ping pong to heavyweight boxing. There isn't anything new about Negro champions, but every spring and summer when the sports dial begins to spin dizzily, Negro performers dominate the field.

Spotlighted this season, and top attraction for a long time to come, is the record being made by Jackie Robinson as a Brooklyn Dodger minor leaguer. Because of his personality, intelligence, ability and his position as the first Negro to break into the organized game, Jackie will be something of a legend wherever and whenever the game comes up for discussion. There will be some who will look upon him as an accident, and there will be others in his own race who will consider him a superman. Actually Jackie is what the guy who keeps the records of the game will call a top grade ball player.

Along with Jackie are two other high class performers in the great American game. Roy Campanella and Donald Newcombe are Dodgerites assigned to the Nashua club of the New England league. Campanella, a recruit from the Elite Giants who hold forth down Baltimore way, is a faultless guardian of the keystone sack, with a quick eye and a hefty swing. He likes to warm up for his catching duties by blasting out home runs. Newcombe formerly tossed them over for the Newark Eagles, and he is pitching his way to a permanent berth on the big time train. There will be a lot of speculation about both of these boys, but what will outweigh all of the talk is the fact that they are two good ballplayers who knew what they wanted and worked hard to get it.

Joe Louis who occupies the top money-making position in the sports world has been analyzed and studied by all sorts of experts who want to find out why he won the championship, and why some well-fed young Caucasian can't knock him over. They assign all sorts of reasons to his success, but none of them bother to see the simple truth, which is just that Joe Louis is the best heavyweight in the world today, and will be for some time to come.

In basketball, track, swimming, football and many of the hundred other sports, Negro performers exhibit marked ability and championship form. High schools and colleges throughout the north, south, east and west turn up with amazing regularity, Negro boys who show excellent athletic ability. Not all of the crack performers are privileged to be heralded around the world, or to become a part of a championship team. Most of them are destined to have their prowess and acclaim remain a matter for local consumption, but there is no denying the contribution they make to the record of the game they play.

While this piece is concerned with the male of the species, Negro women have also excelled in the sports world. They have proven themselves proficient in such strenuous male pursuits as football, basketball, bowling and boxing. Tuskegee Institute is the proud possessor of a one woman championship team in the person of the speed and stamina of Miss Alice Coachman who for the past several years has run her way into the athletic hall of fame.

Whether or not there is some significance in the consistent superiority of Negro athletes is a point I shall not undertake to resolve. It is sufficient that such is the case, and it is important that it remain the case. All of the propaganda in the world can never be as effective as a sound mind in a strong body acting with coordinated effort to excel in clean, honest sport.

Notwithstanding the fact that some unathletic thinkers with narrow minds are trying to prove that physical triumph is purely animal triumph, Negro boys and girls should take advantage of the fine weather that is on the way and take every opportunity to play hard at some sport. It is a sure way to rid the mind and body of dangerous poisons. The lessons learned on the field of sport will come in handy in later life. Athletics develop the mind as well as the body, and a good athlete is the possessor of some fine reflex actions.

Training the mind and the body to function at their highest levels is the surest way to combat stupid racial propaganda. The law of the American jungle is as ancient as the law of the jungle of the lower animals. To survive it is necessary to be alert and be able to act swiftly. Now that spring is here and summer is on the way, let's start building a finer generation of ourselves by giving the youngsters a chance to take part in sports."

Bobby Yeager Stops Agulia In Fifth Heat

Spotting his opponent four pounds, Bobby Yeager, classy local clouter, scored a fifth-round technical knockout over Regino Aguila at Hollywood Legion Stadium last Friday night before a packed house. The bout was scheduled for ten rounds.

Aguila was badly outclassed and hardly landed a punch on the fast moving Yeager. It was a deep cut over Aguila's left eye which was drawing claret rapidly when Referee "Mushy" Callahan asked Dr. William Carver to inspect the optic between rounds. The physician said that it would be unwise for the Mexican youth to continue so the bout was stopped. Previous to the finish of the scrap Yeager had won every round, using an assortment of snappy left jabs, hard hooks to the body and head and an occasional right cross.

Yeager weighed 143 to 147 for Aguila.

Al Callahan, 167, edged Willie Johnston, 169, in the six-round semi-windup after a bruising battle.

Results of the four-round prelims—Bernardino Ramirez, 133½, dec. Mario Trigo, 133; Johnny Meyer, 158, dec. George Fields, 165; Malcolm Smith, 152, dec. Dal Campo, 148½, and Joe Prada, 127½, draw with Romero Lopez, 126.

Picks Louis to Win Over Conn

CHICAGO — Sports columnist Jimmy Cannon thinks that the Army slowed Billy Conn down just enough for Joe Louis to catch and flatten him in the early rounds of their June rematch.

In a feature article in the June issue of Negro Digest, "What The Army Did To Louis and Conn," Cannon quotes boxing experts who declare that the post-war Conn looks worse than any classy fighter they ever saw.

The Army took Billy's speed but did not affect Joe's punch.

The article says: "Slowing down in front of Joe Louis is like sitting in the electric chair."

"Pigmeat" is slated for a Broadway theatre date next month and there are several recording companies bidding for his services. One company would like to put out a "Pigmeat" Markham blues album for sale in the U.S.A., Canada and Europe . . . The B Hive, which will be opened at Elsinore on May 30 by Goldy Burks, will feature games of all kinds, including ping-pong, croquet and horseshoe pitching . . . The personable Jimmie Lunceford returned to L.A. with a much smoother aggregation than he had on his last trip here. The Lunceford orchestra is currently appearing on the stage of the downtown Orpheum theatre on a bill that also features the Slim Gaillard's Trio, held over for a second week by popular demand, the Business Men of Rhythm, dancers, the Rhythm Boys, William Brooks, Joe Thomas, Edwin Wilcox and Kirtland Bradford. It is a pleasing show and well worth seeing . . .

The street car strike has kinda dimmed the lustre of the "Main Stem" (Central avenue to you). Curtis Mosby, Club Alabam owner, says he's been having the smallest crowds in the history of the famed night club. Many other clubs have fallen into a slump due to the strike also. Dynamite Jackson's popular Paradise Cocktail Lounge, is doing a rushing business, however . . . I THOUGHT YOU OUGHT TO KNOW—Slim Gaillard, who is the most talked about and publicized man about music today, certainly was treated royally by the Orpheum theatre management, being booked for two solid weeks. First time I've seen any artist held over on the Orpheum stage in at least three years or more. Which all goes to prove that Slim must have the goods and can really deliver. He's tops for my gold any day because the guy has something original and doesn't ape anybody, a sad failing among most performers who can never understand why they don't reach the top. The reason is this—every time a new star such as Frank Sinatra hits the top, in a few weeks there are at least twenty guys aping Sinatra and trying to get his style. These are the chumps who are too dumb to think up anything original and lay low waiting for somebody to imitate. They never reach the top because imitations are never comparable with the original. Lately we've heard a few that have cropped up imitating Slim!

Nash Singers Bring Italian Opera to Life

From Turriddu's opening aria, calling the people to worship, to the last tragic chorus, bemoaning his death, Mascagni's famous one-act opera, Cavalleria Rusticanna, as presented by the Luvenia Nash Singers, proceeded almost flawlessly through every difficult passage and action.

Opening night was reminescent of opera nights of years gone by. People flocked in, some dressed in evening clothes and others in everyday wear. But most significant was the sight of so many people, who, heretofore, regarded opera as an institution for the rich.

This presentation culminated music week; and from the nice turnout it more than succeeded in its efforts to bring about a sort of cultural fusion between diversified groups through music.

This rather difficult opera with its many strange melodies but simple story, was presented in its original language. Mario Silva, director, coordinated the orchestra and the singing so well that no cue was missed. He seemed to be in the pit and on the stage at one and the same time.

Fine performances were given by all the principals. But the three standouts were Miss Olga Karma as Santuzza, Miss Elise Boone as Lucia and Mr. Julian Oliver as Turriddu. This presentation was the first Negro production in original libretto.

Before the opera, Miss Luvenia Nash directed the entire ensemble in cleverly arranged spirituals. With a vocal background, Mr. Maceo Sheffield, genial manager of the opera, presented, in his own inimitable style, a prologue to the spirituals.

'Do You Love Me' Sparkles

Previewed "Do You Love Me?" currently playing downtown at 20th Century-Fox studio the other night. Even with the oldest plot in existence, Maureen O'Hara, Dick Haymes and Harry James make it one of this year's best. The tunes are catchy and the dialogue, particularly Reginald Owens, crackles. Interesting too, is the two Romeo treatments instead of one. It rates a 2 plus. —R. B.

Top Acts at Club Alabam

Top Broadway acts are still holding forth at the Club Alabam, 4215 S. Central avenue. Honorary Mayor Curtis Mosby always gets the greatest from the leading N. Y. Broadway productions for L. A. night goers.

The liquors served are of the best and leading brands, prepared by ace "mixologists" with years of service at the nation's best spots.

Nylon nights are still being held on Friday nights. Come out, you may be lucky.

The varied and pleasant music of Orville Cox is still on tap for dancing.

Jo-Jo-Adams, well known blues singer, gives you his bit of entertainment and you should make the Club Alabam a "must" if you wish to see Jimmie Smith, the boy with the dancing feet, scale, tap and toe his marimba with all the grace and ability of the artist he is. To see him is believing that he can do the things he does with his feet to make music for your ears. Call AD. 15488 and make that reservation now.—Adv.

Record News And Reviews

Benny Goodman's orchestra opened at the 400 Restaurant recently with two new men on the stand. Louis Bellson, with B. G. before going into the army, is the new drummer, and Addison Collins, formerly with the Glenn Miller armed forces band, will play the French horn. The horn is an innovation for Goodman who has long been considering using the instrument as part of the sextet. Now, however, with the vibes of Johnny White acclaimed by critics, Benny leaves the sextet intact and replaces one of the trombones with Collins.

Famous Maestro Inks Exclusive Contract

Duke Ellington and his famous band will record exclusively for the Musicraft Record label under the terms of a three year contract effective next November. The new Ellington records for Musicraft will be available to the public in the fall of 1946.

Along with the announcement, one of the most important in recording circles in recent years, Duke Ellington revealed a plan to circulate his music to all parts of the world. This would be accomplished by creating an international library of music, the first of its kind. In addition to his own compositions, Ellington will record the folk and native music of all ethnic groups and these will be distributed in album form to countries in Europe, Asia and the other continents. Along with his recordings of popular dance music for the American market, these other records will be distributed by Musicraft.

'Rhythm Town' Opening Date Now May 29th

"Rhythm Town," the all-colored musical play with a cast of 35, which was scheduled to open this Wednesday at the Beaux Arts Theater, has been postponed. The show will now open the following Wednesday, May 29.

4 Short Films by Firm Now Ready

By Carrie Miller
(Special to the "Eagle")

NEW YORK—Gotham is watching with interest the efforts of Bill Alexander, President of the Associated Producers of Negro Motion Pictures since his first four film shorts are finished and ready for distribution. This energetic young businessman declares that the next production will be a full-length feature presenting Negroes in intelligent and dignified roles, thus setting a rapid pace for Hollywood to follow, if they dare.

In the press conference at his office at 212 East 49th Street, N. Y., Mr. Alexander said that he was inspired to form his firm because for some time he has realized the Negro is a working partner and blood brother on the democratic American scene and as such was an important contributor to the culture of this country but was being neglected and misfitted when woven into everyday life on the screen.

A further statement was; "I'm particularly interested in securing the scripts of competent writers of our Race." It seems that so far Mr. Alexander has received many types of interesting and excellent quality material that shows and proves that many young men and women all over the United States who when given encouragement, can prove themselves able writers.

The four productions about to be shown on a nation-wide distribution are "The Call of Duty" and "The Highest Tradition," based on exploits of the Negro in the Army and Navy respectively. The other two films are musicals featuring the bands of Lucky Millinder and "The Sweethearts of Rhythm."

Stage shows are due soon at the Lincoln Theatre.

ON THE TURF

By Geo. A. Ramsey

HIPODROMO DE TIJUANA—It was the gray ghost Spring Drift that won the last of the spring stakes last Sunday, titled the Tijuana cup. The distance was 1⅛ miles. The old gray mare withstood the bold finish of Vain Knight to win by a head. It was a very popular victory for the fans although Alfy was made the favorite but finished third. The winner paid $10.20 and the time for the race was 2:05 flat.

The secondary feature was the tenth race at 5½ furlongs with the even money favorite Leadman making a show of his field and winning by six lengths in the fast time of 1:05 flat, paying $4.20.

The form players had a good day when six favorites won out of the twelve race program and the second choice horses shared their share. Secor was the only upset of the day when he won the seventh race paying in the Mutuel field, $16.60. The daily-double was also popular for the fans when Black Universe won the second and High Ace the third. Backers of the winning combination received $29.60 while the Quiniela with the first and second choices running one-two, paid $8.40. The veteran Canadian jockey Emil Sporri carried away the riding honors when he finished with four winners. It was a bad day for the hooks.

General manager Agustin Silveyra will present two feature handicaps for this Sunday, the first the "La Alondra," at 1-1/16 miles for a purse of $1200 and the main attraction the San Ysidro Handicap at six furlongs. This race will attract the best sprinters and carries an added value of $2,000. Racing Director and presiding Stewart Judge James J. Murphy promises one of the best programs of twelve races offered in many weeks.

With the opening of Hollywood Park many new horses are expected to compete on Sunday at the border course and with the leading jockeys accepting mounts. Watch next week's paper for my other column entitled "What's Doing at Hollywood Park." So until next week, so-long, and keep smiling.

AMUSEMENT BRIEFS

COSTLY DIALOGUE

Gary Cooper, Vadimir Sokoloff and Mark Lawrence, doing German dialogue scenes in "Cloak and Dagger" at Warners, have the most expensive language coach in the world—one Fritz Lang, born in Austria. Mr. Lang is also directing the production, which, of course, has something to do with the size of his paycheck.

TSK! TSK!

The Hollywood gossip columnists, apparently, are going juvenile. Item recently recorded says Patti Brady and Fernando Alvarado, of the cast in Warner Bros.' "Stallion Road," are a "steady twosome." They are both 8 years old.

MIRACLE!

Monte Blue, star of silent pictures and still hitting the ball as a character actor for Warner Bros., says: "There are no small parts. All roles are as big as the performer thereof." Monte, who has appeared in more Warner productions than he or studio officials can recall, has just joined the cast of "Life With Father."

Ethel Waters is playing a New York night club currently.

Dynamite Jackson is having more than average success with his Paradise Cocktail Lounge recently opened.

Lena Horne is generally conceded to be the most beautiful colored woman in pictures.

Mildred Bailey is hailed as the top female vocalist of the country.

Slim Gaillard is now in his second big week at the Downtown Orpheum theatre.

Bill Robinson recently celebrated another birthday.

Another luminary of stage and screen, Victor Francen, joisn the star-studded cast of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's motion picture story of the atom bomb, 'The Beginning Or The End."

Human Relations New Mame For Committee

LOS ANGELES—Hereafter the county committee for inter-racial progress will be known as the Committee on Human Relations.

The change was announced today by Mrs. Paxton Lytle, chairman of the group who explained that so much progress has been made in eliminating racial discrimination that it was decided to forget "race relations" and work for "human relations."

The Committee on Human Relations now has 53 members, 13 of whom are county department heads, and the name change has been approved by the board of supervisors, sponsor of the group, Mrs. Lytle said.

'Soda Jerker' On Way to Join The Dodo Bird, Bloomer Skirts

A famous American personality . . . and a famous (but debatable) brand of American chatter has passed into history, according to the personnel executives of Thrifty Drug Stores, large Southern California drug store chain. The white-jacketed lads, once known as "soda jerkers" and the occupational slang and antics associated with these fountain-fantastics . . . all have gone into America's colorful past, along with the dodobird, the horse-and-buggy, bloomer-skirts and the like.

The "soda jerker"—the cocky boy who wore a white cap on one ear, chewed gum on the job and whipped up sodas at the corner drug store as a side line to an exhibition in gymnastics—is no more. And his special language is dead.

No longer do customers blink as they hear their orders relayed as "shoot one" (mix a certain drink), "stretch one" (put it in a largs glass), "draw one" (draw a glass of water), or "burn it" (tost that sandwich).

He's now a "dispenser." His successor behind the counter of the modern Thrifty Drug Store is a quiet and efficient man of purpose—and he speaks English in the process of getting his work done. In the trade he is a "soda dispenser" and lives up to the dignity of the name.

According to Edward J. Wardell, a personnel manager for Thrifty Drug Stores, 15 years in the business, the evolution of the soda dispenser was brought about by the program in merchandising. The drug store has been transformed from a virtual alchemist den into a general merchandising business. "The drug store is no longer just a drug store. So, the soda fountain is no longer just a soda fountain—but a restaurant."

FREE SCHOOLING GIVEN

Casual employment practices have been discarded by drug store chains, Wardell says. Men are not just hired—they are selected. And they are given free schooling by the chains to increase their efficiency and prepare them for better jobs.

The "soda jerker" and his slang went out, Wardell commented, when pride and job interest came in.

"But some things die hard," he smiles. "We still have trouble keeping some of the boys from calling "beer" when they mean "root beer."

Randolph Hits NMB Decision

CHICAGO—At the midwestern headquarters of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters A. Philip Randolph, international president, announced that his organization had submitted a brief to the National Mediation Board in protest against the board's decision extending the base and scope of the bargaining unit of the Pullman car cleaners and yard forces to include the shop craft employes.

Randolph charged that the ruling definitely favors the Brotherhood of Railway Carmen and the Railway Employes department of the AFL., which includes machinists, helpers and apprentices; boilermakers, helpers and apprentices; blacksmiths, helpers and apprentices; sheetmetal workers, helpers and apprentices; electrical workers, helpers and apprentices; carmen, helpers and apprentices; powerhouse employes and railway shop laborers, practically all of which have color bars in their constitutions and rituals and those that don't have such barriers practice discrimination just the same.

Colonel Moody Staten, Liberian consul for Los Angeles, has been commissioned by Liberian President William V. S. Tubman as his government's delegate to the International Labor Conference, 28th session, to be convened in Seattle, Washington, on June 6.

Staten's credential accrediting him as delegate for Liberia invests him with full power and authority to act for and in the name of the West African republic at the conference.

Brown Backs FEPC, Gains of Organized Labor

Prominent civic and social leaders met Tuesday afternoon at the Crystal Tea Room in a luncheon with Edmund G. Brown, candidate for state attorney general.

In sounding out the candidate's position many interesting points were discussed.

Brown was asked by Dr. Claude Hudson what he would do as attorney general in the case of Gerald L. K. Smith and others of his ilk. Brown answered that every legal resource at his command would be used to check such people.

Atty. Vince Monroe Townsend questioned the candidate on his position in regard to restrictive covenants. The candidate stated that he was definitely against them and that if it ever became his duty to enforce state laws outlawing such practices he would do so.

The candidate also stated that he was wholeheartedly for FEPC legislation and in favor of the protection of the gains made by Labor during the past 15 years.

Mrs. Blanch Carter Attends Convention

The Western Baptist state convention was happy to see Mrs. Blanch Carter, president of women's work of Southern California, off to attend the executive board meeting of the national Baptist convention. While away Mrs. Carter will have the pleasure of attending the commencement exercises of the national Baptist missionary training school. She also has the distinctive honor of being a member of the school board. The Baptists of California anxiously await her return, when she will give us the high points of the meeting in her own very efficient way.

Schools Grow Four Times In Size

"The city schools have increased four-fold in attendance during the past 25 years; from an enrollment of 77,675 to 331,685. At no time in this period of tremendous growth have the needs for school housing been completely met," states Harry M. Howell, assistant superintendent in charge of the budget division for the city schools.

Is there an urgent need for voting school bonds?

Will the bonds place a heavy burden on the taxpayer?

Will the money, if voted, be spent carefully and judiciously?

These, according to Howell are questions asked most frequently since announcement of the $75,000,000 school bond issue to go before the voters June 4.

Schools Grow Four Times in Size

In answering these questions Howell pointed out that, "At present, 40,000 pupils attend school on a half-day basis. This school population, which is so poorly housed in our city, is about equal to the total school population of San Francisco. In addition to the present inadequate housing situation, Los Angeles by 1950 must provide for 38,000 more children than are enrolled at this time."

Howell explained that California permits its school districts to have a bond indebtedness equal to five per cent of the assessed valuation of the district. Actually the Los Angeles City Schools are asking less than one-third of the amount which legally may be voted.

Before funds are drawn in payment of any contract, the Board of Education controller, the county auditor, the county treasurer and the county superintendent of schools must approve the payment.

"If the school children of Los Angeles are to have normal school housing and not be compelled to attend overcrowded schools and half-day sessions, then certainly there is an urgent need for voting bonds. Protect the future of your child," urges Howell, "by marking YES on your School Bond Ballot on June 4, 1946."

Rev. Bernard Byrd Installed As Pastor of New Hope Baptist

Inspirational service Sunday afternoon, May 19, marked the formal welcome and installation of the Reverend Bernard O. Byrd as pastor of the New Hope Baptist church, 1623 Paloma street.

The installation program committee was under the leadership

Devotional service began at 3 o'clock, led by Deacons McKinney and Webb. The service was then conducted as nearly as possible according to the printed order of worship which included invocation offered by Rev. J. L. Jeffries of Zion Hill, which was followed by Scripture reading and a selection by the New Hope Senior Choir.

REV. B. O. BYRD

A beautiful welcome address to the visitors and the pastor was given by Mrs. A. L. Jenkins, followed by communication from Mayor Fletcher Bowron. Words of appreciation were brought by Deacon Willis and greetings from the Ministers' Union by Rec. C. M. Toney. Greetings from the Second Baptist church were timely, given by its notable pastor, Reverend J. Raymond Henderson, who wisely advised the membership of New Hope to stand by the man they have called from his established place to serve them in the ministry. Mrs. Eloise Lee then sang "I Heard the Voice of Jesus."

The installation sermon was delivered by Reverend B. F. Floyd, pastor of the St. Mark Baptist church and President of the Union General Baptist State Convention of California. Following the invitation, offering was taken by the Rev. D. C. Austin, pastor of Greater Cornerstone B. C. and moderator of the Pacific Coast Association together with a leading missionary worker.

Remarks were given by Rev. R. B. Porter, pastor of the Progressive B. C. and President of the California Baptist State Convention. Closing remarks were brought by the honoree, Rev. B. O. Byrd. The entire program was excellently guided by the Rev. A. L. Thomas who served as master of ceremonies. Sincere appreciation is extended to all who helped in any way to carry out this service and a cordial welcome awaits you at New Hope.

Services will be held at the First A.M.E. Zion church, Pico and Paloma st. today, May 23 at 1 p.m. Interment will be in Rosedale cemetary. Angeleus Funeral Home has charge of the remains.

Christian Science Subject 'Soul and Body'

"Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?" This question from I Corinthians will be the Golden Text of the Sunday Lesson-Sermon on "Soul and Body" in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston.

The Lesson-Sermon includes these Bible selections from the Psalms: "O God, thou art my God; early will I seek thee: my soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee in a dry and thirsty land, where no water is; To see thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary . . . My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness; and my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips." And from I Corinthians, "What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? . . . therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's."

Mary Baker Eddy writes in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures:" "Soul is the substance, Life, and intelligence of man, which is individualized, but not in matter. Soul can never reflect anything inferior to Spirit. Man is the expression of Soul."

Urges Adequate Protection for Today's Youth

"The children of today will be the leaders of tomorrow. As they are nutured, the future of our state and nation will be shaped"

This statement was made recently by Governor Earl Warren to delegates attending the recent first post-war convention of the Congress of Parents and Teachers in San Francsico. The Governor's address had to do with the many activities of government which affect the children of the state.

With regard to the war-time relaxation of certain laws effecting children, Governor Warren emphasized that the time has now come "to get back to normal just as quickly as possible and re-establish all of the protection provided of our children."

BIBLE QUESTIONS ANSWERED BY THE VOICE of PROPHECY
INTERNATIONAL BIBLE BROADCASTER

Question—Can a man accept the gospel after death?

Answer—According to Hebrews 9:27, judgment (not probation) is next after death: "And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment."

Q.—Why doesn't God destroy the devil?

A.—He will destroy him. Hebrews 2:14: "Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, He also Himself likewise took part of the same; that through death He might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil."

Q.—Will we know our friends in heaven?

A.—The apostle Paul says: "Then shall I know even as also I am known." 1 Corinthians 13:12. Jesus was recognized by His friends after His resurrection (John 20:16, 19, 20, 26-28; Luke 24:13-35), and we shall be like Him. (1 John 3:2.)

Q.—I want to know the truth about baptism. There seems to be some disagreement on it. Where can I get it straight?

A.—Read everything the Bible says on the subject, and, if you are sincerely anxious to do God's will, you will know. You might start with these texts: Matthew 3:6-16; 28:19; John 3:23; Acts 8:36-38; Mark 16:16.

Q.—Is there hope for an infidel?

A.—There is salvation for anyone who will turn to God. Isaiah 45:22: "Look unto Me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else." John 3:16: "For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

Q.—Are bishops and elders the same? It seems so from Titus 1:5-7.

A.—It is true that the words are used interchangeably in this passage: "For this cause left I thee in Crete, that thou shouldest set in order the things that are wanting, and ordain elders in every city, as I had appointed thee: if any be blameless, the husband of one wife, having faithful children not accused of riot or unruly. For a bishop must be blameless, as the steward of God; not self-willed, not soon angry, not given to wine, no striker, not given to filthy lucre."

Lies the city four square.

For there is no night there!"

In Memoriam

In memory of my loving mother, Mrs. Mary Greer, who departed this life one year ago. Seems that you are yet near for I feel the influence of your Godly life. I can visualize your wonderful personality, your optomistic perspective of life comforts me in my dark moments. I shall always cherish the years God loaned you to me and I know of no better way of remembering you than to emulate the Christian graces you possessed.

This verse expresses my tribute today.

Mother, thou wast mild and lovely,
Gentle as the summer breeze,
Pleasant as the air of evening
When it floats among the trees.

St. James News

Services were held at church last Sunday. The pastor, Rev. M. J. Gipson, preached a very inspiring sermon, the usher program was very good. Mrs. M. Wall was crowned queen — she raised thirty dollars; Mrs. Emma Reynls was second with twenty-five dollars. The total raised was one hundred and fifteen dollars.

This Sunday at 3 p. m., the Sparrow Singers will render a program. These singers are very good, having Mrs. Minnie Hail as their manager. At 8 p. m. the Senior Choir will render their regular Fourth Sunday night program with the added new members to the choir. This will be a grand musical treat. The pastor will preach at the 11 a.m. service.

Mrs. Willie M. Gibbs, reporter; and Rev. M. J. Gipson, pastor.

DR. ZETAR SAYS:

Our methods attack the basic cause of many common ailments. Backache and joint pains and most of the rheumatics, such as neuritis, lumbago, rheumatism, arthritis, neuralgia and sciatica, etc., are due to joint distortions or toxemia, therefore, unless the basic cause of these ailments are treated only temporary relief can be accomplished.

It is no illusion with me after years of successful practice, but it is a scientific fact, based on exact observation and correct thinking that Chiropractic treatments do bring wonderful results, especially in the rheumatics, joint-distortions, nerve and circulatory disorders and most of the gastro-intestinal ailments; also Dr. Zetar has specialized in the correction of Foot Disabilities for many years, so if you are in need of FOOT COMFORT, why suffer, when there are tried and proven methods of treatments to help you. You will not go wrong to consult us on these problems.

On Man's Best Friend—Himself

By Snoop the Snitch

We will not, definitely not, apologize to the feminine population of the world for the writing of what we think to be a highly informative and educational piece of literature, entitled, "On Fluffs and Stuffs." But since we have received so much adverse comment from the femmes in and about our only refuge, we will diplomatically appease them with a little uplifting reading matter about their fine brothers, us men.

We must consider that men for the most part are a pretty nice bunch of fellows, but occasionally you run across a few who make you stop and think. Now if you are a keen observer and you have what is nonchalantly referred to as an analytical mind, a thing which can tell time without a clock, then you can make the amazing and startling observations which I make. But since I thought of it first, I shall proceed with this enigmatic discourse of the betrayers of the masculine sex.

1. The Big-Time Operator — A long black cigar, followed by something in a combination sports, business and casual getup will serve to identity the guy with the million dollar attitude and the dollar bill camouflaged cut paper wad, which he flashes for his "roll." He always looks as if he has just stepped out of an establishment where suits are pressed, shoes are shined, faces are shaved and massaged, nails are manicured and hair is trimmed, all in one operation. He owes just about every soul he has come in contact with and brushes these "trivial" debts off with nonchalant remarks about how many big deals he has cooking. He knows every hockshop proprietor by their first names.

2. The Perennial College Boy— It's funny but he never gets out of school. He is always a student here or there majoring in this and that. He is a permanent fixture in the gay social set. Mothers and fathers of large families remember him as the fellow who was always at a party. Even though he is faltering in his step and his cheery laugh has been reduced to a forced grin, we find this gay blade wandering about looking over the crop of new female freshies. This guy either has a life-titme lease on a college education or is a spy for the board of trustees. You can always spot him by his nauseating clowning and juvenile bleatings.

3. John Jerk — When better reasons for throat throttling are invented this guy will invent them. He is by far the most disgusting male of the masculine population. He's the guy who always decides to say the wrong thing at the right time or says the right thing at the wrong time. Either way you take it, his antics have caused more lip-biting and fist-clenching among men than anything or anybody. Unfortunately "the jerk," as he is affectionately called, is a member of every strata of masculine life.

We could go on a little further and point out other despised species, but we'd rather save them for future public enlightenment. In the very near future we shall resume with discussions on "the Rat," "the Smoothie" and "the Shark." We also take this opportunity to remind the gentlemen as well as the ladies that we are only having a light bit of fun. No pun intended. We will now stop to take up our ducking and dodging exercises.

Student Play at SC Wins Acclaim

Members of Touchstone Players at the University of Southern California were acclaimed Friday and Saturday following their presentation of "Casualties" a play by Pulitzer Prize winner Martin Flavin. The story was based on the postwar problems of a returning veteran who is broken in health, unable to find a job, and whose wife has been unfaithful. The characters in the play were known only as Man, Woman, and Doctor.

Friday's performance featured Lowelle Peirro, graduate of Hampton Institute, U. of Michigan and who is an SC doctrate student in the speech department, as Woman. Saturday's presentation had Myrtle Pleasant, a promising undergraduate, in the same role.

The male parts were played both nights with Isidro Rieras, who was active with drama groups in high school and the army air corps as Man, and Marcus S. W. McBroom, formerly of Ohio State, Wilberforce as the Doctor.

Baha'i Lecture

NEW LIFE FOR THE WORLD will be the subject of the lecture to be given by Florence Mayberry on Sunday, May 26, at Los Angeles Haha'i Headquarters, 331 South New Hampshire Avenue, at 3:00 p.m.

Baha'u'llah, Founder of the faith, has said: "O ye wise men among nations! Turn your eyes away from foreignness and gaze unto oneness, and hold fast unto the means which conduce to the tranquillity and security of the people of the whole world. This span-wide world is but one nativet land and one locality . . . Appreciate the worth of this heavenly word for it is like unto a ship for the sea of knowledge and is as the sun to the universe of perception."

Riverside Notes

The tide of surprises was turned on a group of relatives and friends of Mrs. Nina De Beal, who had gathered in the home of Rev. and Mrs. W. G. Williams on Tenth street last Saturday night to tender her a surprise bridal shower. Nina had planned to plight her troth with Michael Yancy at the A.M.E. church on Sunday, but due to circumstances beyond their control their plans had to be changed. So, much to the surprise of all who were present the shower included a marriage ceremony also. Mr. and Mrs. Terrence DeBeal, brother and sister-in-law of the bride, stood with the happy couple.

Dr. J. L. Glover performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Yancy will reside in Los Angeles. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mays, Mr. and Mrs. F. Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Tives, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Williamson; Mesdames Cora King, Galena Mackey, Mildred Mott, Letha Jenkins, Elizabeth Daugherty, Lula Johnson; and Miss Kathryn Steel; Mrs. Armeda Robinson, mother of the bride; Misses Betty and June DeBeal of Corona; Mr. and Mrs. George Phillips Sr. of Redlands; Mr. and Mrs. T. DeBeal of San Bernardino and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Carter and Frank L. Whitley of Los Angeles.

Youth Council

Our local Youth Council was granted permission by Mr. McEven, principal of Poly High, to conduct a special assembly in observance of National Negro Youth Week. A very fine program was presented under the supervision of Mrs. J. W. Allen, assistant adviser. Allie Stevens opened the program by singing "The House I Live In." Miss Lorraine Allen gave a brief outline on the origin, purpose and activities of the organization. Miss Florence Marie Bell played "Clare de Lune" by Debussy as a solo and Miss Minnie Carter sang "Star Dust." Each of these youthful participants was well received by the students and faculty members who filled the auditorium.

Miss Nina Blackwell, field representative of the NAACP with headquarters in L. A., gave a short well rounded talk which was well received by the group. She chose for the subject "How Youth Can Contribute to World Peace." The program was closed by Bryant Allen singing "Night and Day." In response to thunderous applause, Bryant returned and sang "Prisoner of Love" as an encore. He was accompanied on the piano by Edgar Hayes. Miss Glenner Wallace did a grand job as mistress of ceremonies.

Mrs. Betty Hill, executive secretary of the Women's Political Study club, was guest speaker at the A.M.E. church of this city last Sunday morning. Mrs. Hill, speaking to a capacity audience, gave a very interesting report of her trip to Washington, D. C., when she delivered to congress a resolution asking for the passage of a law to prohibit the continuation of the pattern of discrimination and segregation which exists in our nation's capital.

Reopening for the first time in four years, the East Side Garden club held its first annual exhibit at the Recreational Center. Judges were Mrs. L. A. Walling, Mrs. Fred Brouse and Roy Coon for the more than 100 entries. First prize was awarded Mrs. H. M. Robinson for her pansies, roses, petunias, ranunculus, iris and large spring basket.

It is wonderful what strength of purpose and boldness and energy of will are roused by the assurance that we are doing our duty. —Scott.

Patterson Calls for Defeat of Jack Tenny

Big donations were contributed to Rep. Ellis E. Patterson, candidate for election to the United States Senate, at a luncheon Saturday at the Ambassador hotel where over 300 women, including representatives of the Negro press, gathered to honor him. Patterson now holds most of the worthwhile endorsements.

Guests watched a fashion show, narrated by Pamela Randall. Adela Rogers St. Johns chaired the event for the women's division of the Patterson for Senator campaign and Gale Sondergard, Margarete Clark and Averill Berman were the rhetoricians.

A glowing endorsement to Claude Welch, Democratic candidate for state senator, was made by Patterson, who declared that Jack B. Tenney, the incumbent, must be defeated.

Sub Deb Celebrates Thirteenth Birthday

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Veal was a happy scene last Sunday evening when their sub-deb daughter, Madie Reed, celebrated her thirteenth birthday party. A large group of her friends, including Jean Logan, Alfred Goodson, Gilbert John, Robert Patterson, Robert Logan, Johnny Pruitte, Joe Sanpe, Sherman Randle, Richard Naples, Alvin Goodson, Ruby Reed, Julius Mayweathen, Crawford Brown, Earsie Harrington, Doretha Harrington, Elitha Pruitte, Mary Logan, Lillie Joyce, Madie Estella Reed and Roy Jean Poole joined in on the fun making.

The little honoree is a popular student at Lafayette junior high school, where she serves as secretary and president in many of her classes.

Detroit Observes Anti-Jim Crow Day

DETROIT — Friday, May 17, was observed here as "Death to Jim Crow Day" by official designation of Mayor Edward J. Jeffries, Jr.

Buttons bearing the legend "Death to Jim Crow" were sold in the downtown area by members of local units of the National Negro Congress.

Anti-Jim Crow Day marked the formal opening of a dramatic series of pre-convention events aimed at popularizing the forthcoming tenth anniversary convention of the congress, which will be held here May 30 through June 2.

Cuban Lab in New Production Program Debut

Phil A. Jones, president of the Cuban Laborstories, located at 3227 Central avenue, manufacturers of the famed cosmetic products under that label, announced this week plans of postwar expansion. Jones also stated he had appointed his son, Roscoe Jones, recently discharged from the army with the rank of captain, as general manages of the firm.

Other appointments included that of D. G. Gibson, of Berkeley, former Bay regions distributor, as representative for northern California, Oregon and Washington. Gibson will continue his headquarters at 1601 Fairview street in Berkeley.

Jones said the expansion program is made possible due to the lifting of the "freeze" order on various container and basic materials needed in the manufacturing and processing of the various products made by the Cuban Laboratories. During the war, due to the container shortage and the resulting non-delivery of orders, a huge back order business has developed.

The head of the cosmetic firm said the program calling for the departmentization of organizational functions and the installation of new and improved machinery for processing the products, is being rapidly put in order in an effort to catch up with deliveries of products long over due.

Cuban Laboratories is the home of the Tuxedo Finish, hair pomade, By-O-Line pressing oil, Hy-O-Line hair and scalp preparation and Samorian Hair Refiner, popularly known as "the perfect straightener."

Misusing Willkie's Name

(From the Pacific Northwest Bulletin, Seattle, Wash.)

Who said this?—"The average Negro mom spends the major portion of his energy in bed in nebulous efforts to prove himself over and over again. Instead of bridge-building, book-writing, and the like, constantly spurring him on, a flirting skirt, a well-turned hip or a nicely-molded bosom gets him up and going. And especially if the skin beneath the skirt is white."

Who is the author of the foregoing scurrilous slander on the Negro people? Bilbo? Rankin? Aloph Hitler? The late lamented Cole Blease, Vardaman or Tom Heflin?

Wrong every time. Believe it or not, the little "gem" printed above is from the article which was awarded first prize in the recent Wendell L. Willkie awards for Negro journalism! It was written by a Los Angeles woman editor, and a committee of white newspaper editors solemenly agreed that it was the best example of Negro journalism in the United States during 1945!

This crude performance, it appears, makes it certain that the first annual Willkie awards will also be the last annual Willkie awards. A most offensive insult has been offered to the Negro press and people of America—and offered in the name of that valiant square-shooter, Wendell L. Willkie! What sacrilege!

It is to be regretted that the phony nature of the Willkie Memorial Foundation was not detected before. It should have been clear that something was wrong when the committee of judges was comprised of a Kentucky publisher, a New York editor, and a highly-paid Missouri columnist. The committee included no representative of the fair-minded working newspapermen who are best able to judge good news-writing.

To make matters worse, the prize was awarded by Dr. Douglas Southall Freeman of Richmond, Va. Dr. Freeman, editor of a white Dixie newspaper, is best known for his ridiculously biased histories of the Civil War, written from the point of view of the Confederacy! No wonder he smirked as he handed over the prize.

The woman editor, Miss Almena Davis, some time ago received another dubious honor. She was singled out for the praise of Westbrook Pegler, when he was raking the Negro press over the coals. Pegler declared that Miss Davis' Los Angeles Tribune was the only good Negro newspaper in the nation.

That this "award" was made as a part of a Negro Newspaper Week, is a shame and an abomination. There must be redoubled vigilance against false liberals, North and South, such as the Willkie Foundation apparently represents. That is the least we can do for ourselves and for the memory of Wendell L. Willkie.

Pan-Hellenic Council to Press For Better Student Housing

COLUMBUS, O.—Ellsworth J. Evans, recently elected chairman of the National Pan-Hellenic Council, said today that the council is launching a campaign for better housing for Negro students on various university campuses and for better housing for other Negro citizens, particularly discharged servicemen. Equalization of teachers' salaries where inequalities exist will also receive major emphasis from the Council during this year.

The Council, according to Dr. Evans, concerns itself with the economic conditions of the Negro, seeking to secure job opportunities and to eradicate discrimination in employment.

Other officers elected at the recent 17th annual meeting of the Council were: Mrs. Chester Harris, New Kensington, Pa., vice chairman; William C. Pyant, Evanston, Ill., national secretary; Miss Vivian Hayes, St. Louis, treasurer.

Sessions of the Council were held in Pomerone Hall on the Ohio State university campus, marking the first time that the Council has held an annual meeting at one of the large northern universities.

The meeting commended President Truman for the appointment of Mrs. Thomasina Johnson as chief of the minority group services of the USES, and the appointment of Judge Hastie as governor of the Virgin Islands. It also commended the NAACP and the American Council on Race Relations for "a splendid job" in the fight to abolish restrictive covenants. It urged Attorney General Thomas Clark to investigate fully the Columbia, Tenn., riot and to make public his findings.

Gloster B. Current, executive secretary of the Detroit branch of the NAACP addressed the Council's public meeting. His subject, "Challenge to Negro Leadership," consisted of five major points,

(1) defeat of restrictive covenants, (2) the fight to save OPA, (3) establishment of a permanent FEPC on a local, state and national level; (4) political action on the part of every citizen, (5) the defeat of hate-mongers.

Must Put Up Money To Beat Covenants

Let's stop playing nickels and dimes and let's stop kidding ourselves. If we are to get anywhere at all we've got to put money, time and energy into our organizations. We've got to coordinate them into a united front against restrictive covenants," Attorney Hugh McBeth told the Home Defense Council Monday night at the Alpha Bowling Club.

He urged that in the coming elections people vote into office the progressive candidates who have shown a willingness to combat restrictive covenants.

• Vernon Robinson, candidate for the Assembly in the 63rd district, gave a short address in which he said: "If I am elected I shall introduce, or if Mr. Hawkins (Gus Hawkins) would like the privilege, a bill which will provide for the abolition of restrictive covenants."

Welford Wilson, who spoke in behalf of Rev. Clayton D. Russell's candidacy for supervisor in the Second district, charged the incumbent as being a party to a restrictive covenanted area.

Southland Crops Set New Mark

Topping all previous records for the eighth successive year, total value of farm products of ten Southern California counties last year passed the three-quarter billion dollar mark for the first time.

Bonelli Announces Campaign For Re-Election

William G. Bonelli, candidate to succeed himself as the Member of the State Board of Equalization from the Fourth District, has announced and inaugurated a different sort of a campaign than ever before has been known in Southern California.

This time instead of the usual campaign of speeches, billboards, etc., Bonelli, at his own expense, has issued a "Questions and Answers" booklet which is being widely distributed throughout the district together with a folder issued by the State Board itself entitled "Information Regarding the State Board of Equalization."

Both publications are educational and instructive as to the duties of the board and the responsibilities of licensees. They give interpretations of the A.B.C. Act and information as to the administration of the Act. Both are constructive and helpful and should be of great aid to licensees in making the law clear and in assisting in easy compliance with the regulations.

Copies of the literature are being distributed free of charge to all interested persons, and a careful reading by license holders should be the means of avoiding unnecessary trouble in the conduct of their business.

Bonelli is a candidate for re-election in the Primary election on June 4th.—Political Adv.

This column is designed to give official VA answers to veterans' readjustment problems.

More than 2500 veterans' children receiving benefits from the VA through a designated agent have their estates supervised by the legal department of the Los Angeles regional office, according to figurs released by Thomas J. Moroney, chief attorney.

This figure is growing at the rate of 75 per month, Moroney said.

"When a veteran dies leaving insurance payable to a minor beneficiary a periodic checkup is made by our department as to the use of these funds after a guardianship has been established," Mr. Moroney explained. "It is our purpose to see to it this money is used exclusively for the benefit of these children after the veteran-father has passed on." The same is likewise true of any pension benefits which may be payable to his minor dependents, Moroney said.

There are 4373 cases in the active files of the legal department and these have been increasing at the rate of 130 per month.

Th legal department of the VA performs two main functions. It has the supervision of the estate of incompetent veterans and the dependents of vetrans who may be classed as incompetent, and minor children entitled to some benefit under federal law. As its second major function this office operates an investigation department for all VA activities. In this capacity it investigates widowhood, overpayment of claims, and other facts relative to the application of any benefits under national law.

There are 13 men in the Los Angeles office, nine of whom are attorneys.

The legal department of the VA exercises no police powers. Its duties are confined entirely to supervision of benefits under federal law. Any corrective measures which may be found indicated in a home must be initiated by the proper juvenile authorities. The department cannot, according to the duties allocated to it, represent veterans or dependents in personal matters.

IN ANSWER TO THE MANY QUESTIONS ASKED by veterans:

The chief attorney's office of the VA does maintain close supervision over the estates of all minor children of deceased veterans who receive payments through a guardian or custodian. The primary purpose of this supervision is to make certain, as far as possible these payments are properly used for care, support, and maintenance of these minors. If the funds are not needed for support, investments in legal securities are encouraged.

Copies of all accounts are carefully audited, corrections made where indicated.

Army Says Doughfeet Still Key Man

LOS ANGELES—The slogging foot-soldier, sometimes forgotten in the new atomic warfare picture, emerged today still the key man, according to the War Department's newest directive regarding re-enlistments of essential men.

For example, the rifleman who was promoted to squad leader or platoon sergeant may now come back to the service in the same grade. Automatic riflemen, mortar crewmen and combat soldiers of similar classification may also re-enlist in commensurate grade, according to Colonel Joseph D. Raney, commanding Southern California recruiting.

Some 425 types of jobs are offered now to veterans desirous of re-enlisting in their old classification and grade, ranging from duty soldiers to highly skilled technicians. It was emphasized at recruiting headquarters that the new offer is good only until June 30, next.

Gregg, Mrs. Bethune On Nat. Committee to Aid Europe's Hungry

NEW YORK — Two Negro leaders are among the prominent Americans serving on the national committee of the Emergency Food Collection for the hungry and starving millions overseas, Secretary of Commerce Henry A. Wallace, national chairman of the drive, announced today.

Bishop J. A. Gregg, of Kansas City, presiding Bishop of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, and Mrs. Mary McLeod Bethune, of Washington, D. C., president of the National Council of Negro Women, wholeheartedly endorsed the humanitarian appeal and pledged their personal and official support.

Ailing Man Victim Of Robbery

LOS ANGELES—Acting under the guise of a good Samaritan, a thief last night stole the wallet of a heart attack victim and escaped.

According to police, Monroe Crews, Jr., 48, living at a hotel at 4225 South Central avenue, was stricken with a heart attack. A man known only as "Slim" entered his room and offered to help.

Crews fell asleep and when he awoke an hour later, he found his wallet containing $350 in travelers checks was missing and his would-be friend gone.

Issue Credentials

LOS ANGELES—According to a report just released by Dr. C. C. Trillingham, County Superintendent of Schools, Los Angeles emergency teaching credentials have been issued to 3,871 teachers in Los Angeles County during the current school year.

Since there are approximately 20,000 teachers in Los Angeles County, the report indicates that one out of every five teachers has been issued emergency credeitials to alleviate the teacher shortage which has become a serious problem throughout the nation.

Say You Saw It In The Eagle

The Common Defense

BAD USE OF A GOOD WORD

Latest reports of un-American activities show that one method subversive groups employ is to lay claim to a respectable word — in the name of which they maliciously contrive to undermine American democratic principles.

The Nazis, of course, used a number of such words—among them, strangely enough, the words "positive Christianity." The people were taught that they were fighting for the things represented by these words. They were taught that they were fighting for civilization, for the Fatherland, for Christianity. But, the upshot was that people were persecuted—condemned to lives of misery in concentration camps—murdered. Priests were stoned. Religious schools were closed and the right to educate children was taken from parents and from the church. Democracy was destroyed, men degraded, and brutal dictatorship established.

In America there are those who, even after the war is over, follow this pattern. They, too, have seized upon and claimed a good word in whose name they attack democracy and the rights of American citizens. They have seized upon the word Christian. In the name of Christianity, whose aim is to create brotherhood of all men, they spread race hatred. In the name of Christianity, which proclaims peace among men, they stir up discord between Christians and Jews. In the name of Christianity, which is identified with truth, they deal in falsehoods, many of which they have taken whole-grained from the Nazis, the enemies of Christianity.

All of this is done in the name of Christianity whose purpose is to reconcile man to God and man to man. To proclaim hatred is bad enough. But to preach hatred in the name of Jesus Christ is blasphemy. In short, this generation, which has seen hatred all but destroy civilization in Europe, is also seeing the same kind of hatred attempt the same thing in America—in the name of a good and noble word, in the name of Christianity. This is the totalitarian way of covering bestiality with the cloak of religion.

And against it true Christians will set themselves like flint.

ANCIENT SCHOOL BUILDINGS—Still in use in Los Angeles are 23 two-story frame school buildings such as the Union avenue school shown above. The school bond issue to be voted June 4 will make possible the replacement of these structures, built between 1887 and 1910. In 1916 Los Angeles citizens voted to make all school buildings fireproof. After 30 years voters are now providing funds to eliminate these hazardous school plants. In addition, there are 1047 one-room temporary bungalows that must be replaced.

Victim of Police Wins $250 Damages

Attorney Thomas L. Griffith of Los Angeles won damages amounting to $250 for Mary Louise Coleman in her suit against San Diego police officers Frank Ashcraft and William Nicholson.

Judge Charles C. Harris, department 2 of the superior court, handed down the decision awarding Mrs. Coleman the damages in her suit which grew out of a charge of assault and battery and false imprisonment against the officers July 16, 1945, at San Diego.

Jobs and Education Now Crucial Problems for Vets, Jones Tells Representatives of 17 Agencies

Negro veterans want to use the skills and abilities they developed in military service, William M. Jones, industrial relations secretary of the Los Angeles Urban League declared before staff members of the Veterans Service Center this week.

The meeting was one of a series arranged by Arthur H. Tryon, executive director of the Center, at Third and Broadway, to better acquaint the personnel and representatives of the 17 member agencies aiding veterans with the over-all veteran picture.

Many veterans from areas where their educational and economic opportunities were limited discovered dormant skills and abilities in service, said Jones. They want a chance to profit from the technical, professional, and administrative work they did there.

"Negro veterans and war workers will have improved in many respects," he remarked. "In educational advancement, in occupational skills, and in health status. Moreover, they will have developed self-confidence, broadened economic contacts, widened social horizons, and they will have expanded their concepts concerning both their rights and obligations as citizens of a democratic nation."

The Negro community in the City of Los Angeles, according to the Census Bureau increased from 67,000 in June, 1940, to 118,000 in April 1944, with 134,519 in Los Angeles county. Present estimates are that there are 150,000 Negroes in Los Angeles proper with an additional 50,000 in outlying areas. "They find that California at its worst," Jones remarked, "is better than the South and certain other places at their best."

Citing employment and education as crucial problems, he said those who came out to work on aircraft, ship, and munition production during the war now find themselves hard hit. Like other semi-skilled workers, such as assemblers and welders, they now find their skills are insufficient to get work.

According to U.S. Employment Service figures, total placement in jobs dropped 22 percent from February to March, whereas non-white placement dropped 25 percent.

Now that many who could never afford school have educational opportunities under the GI Bill, Jones said, they discover educational facilities are jammed. Although a number of schools won't accept Negroes, some have changed their policies. He mentioned one trade school where Negroes now number 300 of 900 students.

He cited three significant facts developing out of the war: (1) a marked shift from farm to factory, (2) greatest advances were made in occupations, industries, and areas where postwar adjustment is most difficult, and (3) upgrading has been substantial, but proportion employed in unskilled jobs has changed little.

The Urban League is not a purely racial group, he said, but offers its services to everyone. Having varied racial backing in its membership and board, it attempts to integrate Negro people into the community.

Granger Urges Radio Industry To Drop Bias

COLUMBUS, Ohio—Radio executives this week were urged by Lester Granger, National Urban League head, to offer equal employment opportunities and salaries to Negroes throughout the radio industry on the basis of their talent, skill and ability. Addressing the 16th Institute for Education by Radio, Granger pointed out that there are "thousands of jobs in an industry that provides 130 million people with almost continuous radio listening, and hundreds of job classifications, from pages, stenographers, teletypists to recording engineers, script writers and analysts.

Granger also asked that opportunity be given name bands, both Negro and "mixed", to participate in commercial programs, that Negro musicians not be limited to spiritual and jazz performances, and that Negro actors and actresses be permitted to demonstrate their abilities without racial identities.

Golden State Wins Suit to Retain Its First St. Offices

In a decisive court victory won last Friday in division 13 of the municipal court, it was decided that the Golden State Insurance Co's. branch office and other sub-tenants of E. J. Bullock would not have to move from the premises located at 249 East 1st Street.

Joe Gertz, owner of the property testified that he sub-leased the premises to E. J. Bullock, who in turn sublet portions of the premises without Gertz's written consent. However, judgment was awarded to the defendant on the grounds that Gertz consented to and knew that the sub-tenants were occupying the premises for over nine months; further, if he had any objections, they should have been voiced long before this late date.

Attorney Human Getzoff, one of the sub-tenants involved, ably represented Bullock, the Golden State Insurance co., Norman Allison and other sub-tenants, whom Gertz attempted to evict.

OBEDIENCE

Perhaps too little is said in regards to obedience and what it represents. All children should be taught the importance of obedience and discipline from the time they are born.

In honoring and obeying our parents we show the utmost respect and reverence to them. Because of their great love for us, we must never let them down.

An obedient child or young person will be saved from many evils, dangers and wicked ways which notably shorten life. If you doubt this, just notice the young people who have been sentenced to prison terms—or various institutions and you will find that most of their cases are based upon disobedience.

Mrs. C. L.—Dear Prof. Herman: I read your column in the paper every week and find it very helpful. Will you please advise me regarding this matter. I feel that I am no longer wanted here. should I leave?

Ans.: The situation that exists between you and your husband makes your surroundings unpleasant and perhaps it would be wise to consider moving to another location. I do not recommend your accepting the offer you speak of just yet, however. I feel that you should have another talk with your husband and get a definite understanding first. I would be glad to advise you further regarding the matter if you will write in for a private reply.

J.W.—Are any of the people that I have in mind responsible for my watch being missing?

Ans.—Probing into the matter I find that you have been very careless and left your watch where anyone in the house could have taken it. I don't vision your daughter as being guilty and think you should be more careful in the future with your valuables.

M.J.—Will I ever be happy and successful with married life?

Ans.—Married life is just like anything else, you get out of it what you put into it. It takes patience and true love to endure many of the things that come up during that period and as you grow older you should grow much wiser and have a better understanding. You will find that your married life will be much happier if you don't jump to conclusions and have a little more confidence in your husband.

L.W.—I am interested in getting some information regarding the oldest clocks, can you help me?

Ans.—It seems that of the oldest clocks known to the world, Germany and English have the most renown. In Germany the first one was built in 1352, since then three different clocks have been built and rebuilt at this famous clock site. In England, the chimes of Big Ben are still to be heard. It has been ticking right along since 1860, and considered the world's champion in regularity among giant-sized clocks.

T.E.—What must I do?

Ans.—First you must make up your own mind, Thelma. You must realize that you can't live as you are doing now and have any peace. By all means be fair with yourself and your husband. I am sure that if you try this, you will also find peace of mind and the answer to your problem.

N.L.N.—Should I continue my college career or get married?

Ans.—I am afraid you must decide this question, for if you marry, you will find the companionship and love you have always wanted. And I see no reason why you should stop your studying entirely because of it. On the other hand, if you continue your college course at the present college, you would have to delay your marriage or give it up entirely for another few years. Somehow, I feel that you would not regret getting married and continuing some course of study at home.

Jobs With Housing Open for Laborers

Housing for railroad track laborers is now available in out-of-town areas, according to Arthur Volbrecht, manager of the USES labor office at Eighth and San Pedro streets.

Living accommodations for single men are provided free of charge in bunk houses or tents, Volbrecht said. In some areas, houses are furnished for families. Transportation will be furnished to the job sites, and board can be obtained at reasonable rates at the mess halls.

Urging men interested in section jobs to apply at Eighth and San Pedro, or their nearest United States Employment Service offices, Volbrecht said the recently granted salary increases for track laborers makes these positions especially attractive at the present time. No experience is necessary, he added.

Asks U. S. Probe Mass Raids and Arrests by Solano County Sheriff

SAN FRANCISCO—U. S. Attorney General om Clark this week was asked to order an investigation of the illegal wholesale arrests by Solano county deputy sheriffs of between 100 and 500 Negro citizens last Friday in connection with the murder of a white groceryman.

The request was made by the American Civil Liberties Union of Northern California which branded the arrests as "lawless enforcement of the law and violation of the federal civil rights statute."

The union charged that deputy sheriffs, without warrants, searched 'countless homes of Negroes" residing in the Chabot Terrace housing project and, also without benefit of warrants, Protest Meet Sat.

The railroad brotherhoods will hold a mass demonstration on Saturday at 8 p. m. at the Olympic Auditorium, Washington and Grand, to protest the strike-breaking legislation of President Truman. The public is urged to attend.

On the Sidewalk

It has been said that the surest cure for cancer is the use of the knife.

Let's face a few facts—the groups designated as minorities are in a state of seriously developing a combined social-economic cancerous ailment that, if not arrested, threatens demolition of our democratic structure—the government.

First we allowed Gerald L. K. Smith to canvass the nation, setting the stage for Ku Klux Klan activity.

Now the Klan is striking in many ways and places, but to date it has struck hardest and fiercest in California: First at Big Bear, then the H. G. Hickerson's, a Negro family fighting racial restrictive covenants, then Palm Springs, terrorizing a Jewish family, then at Eagle Rock, Zeta Beta Tau house on the U.S.C. campus, and Temple Israel in Hollywood.

The burning crosses and K.K.K. have blazed a new path of terror and destruction at Fontana, Calif., and Los Angeles.

At Vallejo, Calif., a few weeks ago when a white groceryman was slain, the local sheriff and his men set upon a housing project used by Negroes, near the scene of the crime. More than 100 Negro heads of families were arrested and thrown in jail. One young Negro, it is reported, was badly beaten by the law-enforcing officers and robbed of $35.

On May 20, six conscientious objectors, known as the "Conchies," allegedly failed to follow instructions of the Director of Selective Service. They were thrown in prison.

One among the number was Richard Stenhouse, a Negro, who was separated from his buddies and placed in a Jim-Crow tank at the jail.

Protesting this action by the authorities, other conscientious objectors and sympathizers picketed the Hall of Justice. One of the signs carried by the pickets read: "Racial Discrimination in Jail." "Is Conscience a Crime?"

The six "Conchies" who were arrested went on a hunger strike to protest the discrimination.

A mixed group of white and dark people were refused service at the Bimini Baths. They were Hugh Wilson, Charles Gross, Dexter Dones, Robert Bennett and Pearl Jackson.

On Sunday afternoon, May 26, a group of citizens, those who believe that the Declaration of Independence meant what it said—"That all men are created equal"—gathered in front of Bimini and held a peaceful protest demonstration against un-American and racial discriminatory practices of the proprietors and operators of Bimini Baths.

In practice, Bimini Baths declares that all men are not equal. On this hypothesis, Bimini is being sued under Section 51 and 52 of the California state law which guarantees civil rights to all people.

The penalty for the crime committed by Bimini is $100. The Inter-Racial Friendship Committee contends that this is not enough.

In Germany, before Hitler, the fine for such offense was $200. Germany sowed the wind and reaped the whirlwind.

While we here on the state front are trying to correct growing evils, it appears that the head of the nation swept out the last remnants of Roosevelt's New Deal with one bold stroke of a Tory broom.

Last Friday, President Truman went before an already imflamed Congress and demanded punitive, repressive emergency legislation, which was not required, to end the nation's greatest rail strike.

In addressing the nation on Friday and Saturday, Mr. Truman presented a one-sided picture of the situation. Not one utterance did he make against the railroad managements for their share of responsibility for the conditions leading to the strike.

The railroad seizure recommended by the President is tantamount to delivering industrial workers—especially Negroes—into the hands of their former slaveowners.

Mr. Truman is trying to undo all that the CIO has done in the South in the matter of freeing poor whites and poor Negroes from slave labor.

The events on the curtain of time pass so fast they stagnate the imagination. While the Senate sweats over the Truman railroad seizure act the Senate and the House make the nefarious Case Bill a law. This is a blow beneath the belt to labor.

What shall we do to be saved?

The people must organize and unite their forces.

Serve notice on all types of political and racial betrayers that they must pick up their beds and walk.

We who believe in the democracy for which we fought in World War II will not betray those who sacrificed their lives on the field of battle. We will give all to achieve democracy and make it work.

Russell in Move To Oust Roach

A move to oust Leonard J. Roach as county supervisor in the second supervisorial district through quo warranto proceedings in court was begun this week.

Roach, while attending a meeting of the board of supervisors, was served with a notice of application to Atty. Gen. Kenny for leave to start the quo warranto proceedings. The notice was signed by Clayton D. Russell and A. Ned Redding, two of Roach's opponents for the position of supervisor.

The complaint charges that Roach was not a bona fide resident of the second supervisorial district when he was appointed to the office in January, 1945, by Governor Warren.

Biased Psychiatrist Sires Racist Attack In N. C. Vet Frame-Up

By HARRY RAYMOND
Staff Correspondent, Daily Worker

HAMLET, N. C.—The Jimcrow trial of Major Benton, former Negro army private, his conviction and sentence to death on a criminal assault charge on April 13, was utilized here [illegible] to launch an attack on the entire Negro population [illegible] to murder [illegible] in the courtroom. [illegible] known not only claims the condemned veteran was framed and demands a new trial for him. Local Negroes are outraged over testimony offered at the Benton trial by a so-called defense witness.

The witness, Dr. J. F. Ovens, psychiatrist and former superintendent of the State hospital in Raleigh, told the court it was his "expert" opinion that the entire Negro population was an inferior race.

Called by defense attorneys Edwar W. Jones and W. R. Jones, Dr. Owens proceeded to tell the court and jury the defendant, in his opinion, had a "mental development of nine years and one month." But, the psychiatrist continued, Benton had "no form of insanity whatsoever" and had capacity to know right from wrong."

What Jones and Jones were trying to prove through this testimony about the defendant, a former high school student and man who met army psychological requirements, was never made clear.

But Richmond county Judge Donald Phillips, trial jurist in the case, and the county solicitor lost no time in utilizing the doctor to prejudice the jury against all Negroes.

Questioned by the Solicitor, Dr. Owens draped his doctor's cloak around the white supremacy theory as the following testimony shows:

By the Solicitor: You have also

Carlton Moss, Noted Author, Sues L. A. Hotel

(By Pacific Press Syndicate)

A $5000 damage suit against the Ambassador hotel, charging racial discrimination growing out of refusal of permission to ride a passenger elevator in the swanky hostelry was filed this week by Carlton Moss, well known Hollywood writer and lecturer.

Moss, who is best known for his work as writer and narrator in the Signal Corps film, "The Negro Soldier," released two years ago, seeks $2500 general damages and $2500 punitive damages.

According to the complaint on file, Moss, in company with a friend, on May 8 made a business call on Mrs. Louise Kamsley, a guest at the hotel.

No trouble was encountered when they rode up, but on the return trip a short while later,

Freeman, a veteran machinist with three and a half years of experience at the Douglas El Segundo plant, has been sent out by the union to other plants where he received the same treatment.

One such plant, on Redondo Beach blvd. near Sepulveda, had a large sign out front, literally

Jeweler Shot in Arm By Bandit; Man Knifed In Furniture Store Fight

Things happened fast on Central avenue Tuesday afternoon.

First a bandit and A. O. Fowler, a jeweler at 4425 S. Central avenue, exchanged shots when Fowler resisted a hold-up. Fowler was nicked on the arm.

While this was going on a woman identified only as a Mrs. Williams died of a heart attack in an automobile across the street from the jewelry store.

A few minutes later Cortez Brandon, 28, of 1264 W. 36th street, approached Thomas Makee, 44, of 727 E. 45th street, in a furniture store at 4700 S. Central avenue. After a brief exchange of words, Brandon began slashing Makee in the neck and face with a knife. As store employes disarmed Brandon, Makee ran from the store. He returned in a few moments with a small caliber gun and began taking pot shots at Brandon as the latter attempted to hide behind furniture. Brandon was wounded slightly in the arm.

The latter action was investigated by Det. Sgt. A. D. Johnson, who was trying to decide whom to jail and for what.

Police believe that the same bandit who held up the jewelry store robbed Motor Freight Lines at 1950 Naomi.

Indian Labor Leader to Address Opening Session Of NNC Detroit Convention

DETROIT—With the railroads running again, Negro and white delegates to the tenth anniversary convention of the National Negro Congress are pouring into this city for the opening session tonight of the four day convention. More than 1000 delegates, from virtually every state in the union, representing labor, church, community and civic organizations, are expected to attend the historic parley.

The opening session will be held tonight at the Bethel church, when delegates will hear an address by the outstanding Indian trade unionist, M. Fazal Elahi Qurban, delegate to the International Labor Office conference which took place recently in Toledo. Qurban is also vice president of the All-India Railwaymen's Federation and provisional president of the Trade Union Congress of Lahore, India.

Other speakers at the opening session will be: James Dombrowski, executive secretary of

AVC, Mobilization Press Fight on KKK Terrorists

All-out war on the Ku Klux Klan and other terrorist organizations was announced this week by the Mobilization for Democracy and the American Veterans Committee. The Mobilization announced plans for a giant mass rally in Olympic auditorium June 14 to urge "prompt and thorough investigation of Ku Klux Klan terror activities."

Denouncing recent Klan outrages in Los Angeles, the executive boards of the California state council and the Los Angeles county council of the American Veterans Committee, declared:

"The American Veteran will not stand by idly while hoodlums, who use the cover of the night instead of the ballot, and hide their faces under pillow cases, try to intimidate the

MASS DEMONSTRATION—Over 150 people, representing outstanding civic, religious, labor and youth groups, including CIO, NAACP, AYD, Jewish People's Fraternal Order, Communist Party and American Veteran's Committeee turned out to picket Bimini Baths Sunday afternoon in response to a call from the Interracial Friendship Committee to protest discrimination at that establishment.

Confronted by the organized protest, Bimini management closed the doors at 1 p.m. instead of the usual Sunday evening hour of 10 o'clock. Refusing to make a statement, the management told telephone inquirers that the Baths were closed because "the water is shut off," and in some instances, the story was that "repairs have to be made."

Action against Bimini Baths was first started when the management refused to allow an interracial group to enter the premises early in February, 1945. Four Negro veterans and a Negro girl, viz: Robert Bennett, Charles Gross, Dexter Dones, Hugh Wilson and Pearl Jackson who were refused admission have filed damage suits which are pending action.

NAACP Reports $1800 Raised In Annual Membership Drive

Tuesday night an inspiring report meeting of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People was held in the offices of Attorney Thomas L. Griffith, president of the Los Angeles branch, at Vernon and So. Central, during which the report of the annual membership drive was announced. $1900 was reported raised to date.

N. W. Griffin, of San Francisco, West Coast regional secretary, in an excellent address told the group and its president that the Los Angeles branch of the NACCP is one of the most outstanding in the nation and warmly praised its work here.

President Thomas L. Griffith was elected to represent the local branch at the national convention to be held in Cincinnati sometime during the summer.

Gleason Speaks For FEPC With Hawkins Sunday

James Gleason will join Lucille Gleason and Augustus W. Hawkins in speaking for the state FEPC Initiative, Sunday afternoon at 3:45 p. m. Through Rev. Clayton D. Russell. The People's Independent church has given its support to the meeting and granted the use of the church. The object of the rally is to secure signatures for the FEPC petition.

In announcing the meeting, Rev. Russell pointed to the importance of gaining signatures to the initiative measure. "It isn't sure that the fair employment petition has enough signatures as yet to insure its getting on the ballot."

He also announced that the choir had volunteered its services, and urged members of the community to bring their friends.

Start Job Drive In W. Oakland

OAKLAND—Immediate action in a determined drive to end job discrimination in local stores is being launched by the West Oakland section of the Communist Party.

In announcing the anti-discrimination campaign, George Edwards, West Oakland section chairman of the Communist Party, said, "Action by progressive groups to end this flagrant discrimination is long over-due.

"The action will be directed against those West Oakland stores, almost wholly dependent on Negro trade, who refuse to employ Negro clerks.

"We want to make it clear that we are not trying to displace the present employes of these stores from their jobs. Nor are we attacking the unions to

City Council Wrangles Over Pay Increases

In the Wednesday morning session of the city council every resolution presented was adopted with little or no opposition except the long tabled proposals for wage increases of city workers in accordance with the prevailing wage.

For over an hour and a half the council wrangled over the adoption of the Warburton resolution, which called for an increase in wages and for the payment of time and one-half for overtime and for double time on Sundays and holidays. After considerable discussion three sections of the resolution were adopted but the fourth section was stymied after a motion passed granting a continuance until Monday, June 3, at which time the council will have a further hearing on this section of the resolution.

The resolution, which has been before the council for some time, has been stubbornly opposed by Councilmen Austin, Holland, Davies, Henry, and Rasmussen, who based their opposition on the grounds that council has received conflicting reports and further that the matter was a very technical one and needed more discussion.

Councilmen Bennett, Warburton and Roden urged adoption, but the motion was carried.

Burglars Take $2000 in Coats At Bridge Party

Burglars crashed the party when the Add Club, an organization of attorneys, doctors and dentists with their wives met at the home of Mrs. Thomas L. Griffith Jr., 5000 Wall street, last Saturday evening.

While the guests played bridge, the burglars raided a bedroom and made off with furs and other effects valued more than $2000.

Mrs. Howard Allen suffered the loss of a silver fox coat, Mrs. Della McDonald, a Peruvian lamb coat, Mrs. Minnie Green, a fur coat, and Mrs. Ivan Johnson III, a Chesterfield coat.

Investigating police officers found a window screen had been cut and the coats pulled off the bed by a pole or other device.

Other persons at the party were, the president, Dr. Howard H. Allen, Attorney Ivan J. Johnson III, Attorney and Mrs. Loren Miller, Dr. and Mrs. Heard, Dr. Augustus T. Greene and Miss Alma Thomas.

You may also expect fewer parties on the lines, fewer rings for other parties and other service improvements.

If you use Long Distance . . . you may look forward to an even better and faster service than ever before. We are working on our part of a nation-wide coaxial cable network for long distance calls and television transmission. Equipment will be provided for nation-wide operator dialing of toll and long distance calls and for customer dialing of toll calls between some communities.

Thousands of jobs . . . millions of man hours of work . . . will be created by this program, the largest in our company's history. Our total plant investment will be increased to over 400 million dollars. STOP THE KU KLUX KLAN

Burning crosses . . . wanton destruction of property . . . threats to lives and homes. This is the reign of terror which has descended upon the people of Los Angeles scarcely a year after the military defeat of Fascism.

This is the work of the hooded sect—the Ku Klux Klan—avidly adopting the horror tactics of Hitler's Storm-Troopers.

The Klan has been legally outlawed in California. BUT ITS MEMBERS NEVER INTENDED TO OPERATE WITHIN THE LAW.

They work secretly, skulking under cover of darkness to terrify and destroy. And they infiltrate the quasi-legal restrictive covenant organizations to take away the lawful rights of minority groups.

Right now, Negroes and Jews are the victims. Tomorrow, a Catholic...a foreign-born citizen...a union member...may find a burning cross on his front lawn.

Bigotry does not thrive on pennies. The Klan is a deadly pawn in the hands of those wealthy and influential moguls who would substitute Fascist rule for our democracy. This is a nation-wide conspiracy.

We here in Los Angeles, Protestants, Catholics, Jews, Negroes, workers and professionals alike, twice demonstrated our vehement opposition to Fascist incitement.

- We ran Gerald L. K. Smith out of town
- We ousted his follower, Meade McClanahan

Acts of terror are not childish pranks. We will not tolerate the Ku Klux Klan.

We have learned that immediate, organized action of the people is the only way to stop the spread of planted hate.

The combined efforts of all the people can stop the Ku Klux Klan.

HERE IS WHAT YOU CAN DO!

- Organize a delegation of the people in your neighborhood and in your organization or club to call upon Mayor Bowron and District Attorney Howser.
- Demand vigorous investigation of Klan terror by City, County and State officials, prompt arrest of those responsible and
- Thorough investigation of the Klan's connection with the restrictive covenant racket.

Youth, Active in Fight On Klan, Attacked By Whites in Dark Alley

Returning from making a telephone call at his mother's home, Richard Aubry, prominent young Catholic leader, now employed at North American Aircarft, was brutally attacked by two unknown white assailants as he passed through a dark alley Sunday night.

Aubry, who lives at 5742½ Fortuna street, is the brother of Paul Aubry, who recently had a cross burned on his front lawn on 58th drive. Both Richard and Paul, together with other members of the family, have been very outspoken over the matter.

The cowardly and brutal beating of Richard may be another attempt to further intimidate the family. Both brothers are active in organizations opposing restrictive covenants and the KKK.

Aubry, a well-known character actor in Pittsburg, was found by one of the neighbors, who heard the noise, lying unconscious in the alley. He was able to see one of his assailants in the light from a kitchen window. A neighbor also saw one of the attackers fleeing over the back fense.

Police arrievd on the scene and escorted Aubry through the neighborhood in search of the assailants after reports had been given of a large black car seen driving slowly along the street previous to the attack.

Aubry, father of two children and resident of Los Angeles for eight months, sustained bruises on the shoulders and a scratch along his ribs, caused by a knife which had cut rough his shirt and undershirt. He stated that he had been struck about the head with a heavy, but yielding object. The blows from this object probably rendered him unconscious.

Living Costs More Than Fifty Percent Above 1939 Figures

WASHINGTON — Food, clothing and house furnishing costs, which represent 57 percent of the average budget, are now more than 50 percent higher than in August, 1939, the bureau of labor statistics said this week in a report on the climb in retail costs.

The consumers' price index now stands at 130.9 percent of the 1935-39 and 3 percent above the average a year ago, despite the curbs imposed by OPA. Without OPA, the price index would be higher still.

Claude D. Jolly Heads Business Venture

Claude D. Jolly, for more than 14 years a representative of the Golden State Mutual Life Insurance Company, during which time he served in nearly every hamlet and community in Southern California as agent, special representative, and district superintendent, resigned his post to take effect June 1.

In commenting on the job opportunity the Golden State offers, Jolly said: "The Golden State Mutual Life affords the very finest in employment for our people and is tops in protection and service to its policyholders."

George A. Beavers, Jr., chairman of the board and agency director, returned the compliment when in answering Jolly's letter of resignation he stated: "It is with much regret that we accept your letter of resignation from the position of field superintendent . . . We feel that through the years you have made a splendid contribution to the growth and development of our company. We want you to know that your service has been greatly appreciated and the entire official family regret that you find it necessary to resign. You have our best wishes for success in your new venture."

Jolly leaves the Golden State to engage in a high class real estate and general insurance business, specializing in services for veterans. He is thoroughly capable of such service by training, background and experience. A graduate of Jackson college and Arkansas Baptist college, Jolly served as assistant principal of the Arkadelphia Baptist academy, and although offered the principalship, he preferred entering the business field.

For several years he owned and operated a modern selfservice complete food market in Memphic, Tenn. In commenting on Jolly's market the Memphis World said that his was a "model market" and that Jolly was not merely conducting a "Negro Business" but a "business". Having a desire to come West, Jolly sold his business for an attractive figure and with his wife and daughter settled in Phoenix, where he soon became a leading figure in business and civic activity. After four years he was lured to the Golden State Insurance Company and began his work with the company in the San Bernardino and Riverside area.

Jolly while in charge of the company's San Diego office, served as president of the local branch NAACP, and was a member of the original ration board serving as chairman of the food panel. He is a member of Holland Lodge F. & A. M., and the Phi Beta Sigma fraternity. But above all of his other connections he values his church relationship. He is a deacon and trustee of the Trinity Baptist church and recently led the Southwest YMCA drive in securing members. He is also a committeeman Troop 157, Boy Scouts of America. Jolly can be depended upon to serve you with absolute honesty and integrity. He together with his wife will be operating under the firm name "Jolly Realty Company", RE. 21087 and solicits the patronage of his many friends and the general public.

Asks FRI to Probe Detroit Hate Group

NEW YORK—The Veterans League of America, 45 Astor place, this city, had this week called upon the FBI to investigate the racist Christian Veterans Intelligence Bureau of Detroit, headed by Larry Asman.

In a letter to FBI chief J. Edgar Hoover, the Veterans League declared:

"Men of all races, colors, and creeds marched side by side in the war. They fought side by side, died side by side. Yet a group headed by one Larry Asman, an assistant of hatemongering Gerald L. K. Smith, and presuming to speak for American veterans is trying to perpetuate the racial superiority ideals which should have been buried with its strongest proponent, Goebbles, beneath the rubble of the Nazi chancellory.

Time To Examine Strikes by Bosses

The time has come to "give a little attention to the sit-down strikes of management in many sections of the country," Emmet Lavery, Democratic candidate for congress in the 16th district, told the League of Women Voters of Beverly Hills this week. "The strikes haven't been all one way in this country," Lavery pointed out. "Management has sat out a few waltzes. Our problem is to develop full production and full employment on a basis that makes labor and management true partners in every sense of the word."

Both at the league meeting, and at the Conference for Democratic Action, Lavery renewed his challenge to Harold Harby and Leland M. Ford to disavow their stand in favor of restrictive covenants.

"Any man who believes in restrictive covenants opens the door to the Ku Klux Klan," Lavery said. "There are no two ways."

Switches Support, Warren to Kenny

Repudiating Gov. Warren's do-nothing policy on FEPC, the Ku Klux Klan and other vital issues, Edward W. Phillips, who several months ago endorsed Warren's bid for re-election, this week has switched his support to Attorney General Robert W. Kenny.

Phillips explained his repudiation of Warren in the following signed statement:

Early in the present election campaign, before the issues became clear, and also before Robert Kenny announced his candidacy, I endorsed the campaign of Earl Warren for re-election. Now, however, when Warren has demonstrated that he is following a do-nothing policy, and when the issues are daily becoming crystal clear—FEPC, housing, veterans' rights, Ku Klux Klan, peace, price control, labor's rights—and also when a man of the stature and courageous record of Robert Kenny is in the race with excellent prospects for victory, I am repudiating Earl Warren, and withdrawing my sponsorship of him, and urge every Negro in Los Angeles to work and vote for the candidate of labor and the Negro people, Robert Kenny.

(Signed) Edward W. Phillips.

Editors Say Judge Westover MUST BE DEFEATED

Editor Leon H. Washington of the Los Angeles Sentinel said editorially on May 9, 1946:

Help Defeat Judge Westover

Judge Myron Westover, one of the candidates for superior court who will be voted on in the June 4 primary, doesn't deserve and shouldn't get, a single Negro vote. A pair of reactionary decisions on race restriction covenants dictate that conclusion.

In the first of these decisions involving property in the Crestmore Tract Judge Westover ordered a Negro couple to vacate their home, despite the fact that the Tract was almost one-third Negro occupied at the time. By the time the decision had been appealed and an appellate court decision rendered the Tract had changed to such an extent that no attempt was made to enforce the injunction. Only a blind determination to uphold one of these un-American covenants could have made Judge Westover so obvious of the kind and character of the change.

In the second decision the occupants of the property were proved to be Indians and Judge Westover blithely held that they were "non-Caucasians" and ordered them ousted. He was so proud of that handiwork that he wrote a decision and procured its publication in the Daily Journal, the legal daily, perhaps as a guide to other and less determined jurists.

Judge Westover likes to remind all and sundry that he is a descendant of Kansans who fought to make that state free territory but his deviation from their principles is so marked that he deserves no consideration on that score.

Editor Herman Hill of the Pittsburgh Courier, Pacific edition, said editorially on May 25, 1946:

Houser Should Be Judge

There are three candidates for Judge of the Superior Court of Los Angeles County, Office No. 3, a non-partisan office which includes all of Los Angeles City and County.

There is only one, however, who should receive the vote of every Negro citizen in the June 4 Primary Election.

That one is NOT Judge Myron Westover, the incumbent, who is seeking re-election.

Neither is it Ida May Adams, a Municipal Court Judge, who has been in several races for hte Superior Court Bench.

Judge Westover is guilty of a pair of reactionary decisions upholding race restrictive covenants. In the first, h ordered a Negro couple to vacate their home, despite the fact the character of the neighborhood had changed. In the second, though, the occupants were proven to be Indians, Judge Westover held that they were "non-Caucasians," and ordered them ousted.

The decisions of Judge Adams in Civil Rights cases make her unfit for the Superior Court office which she seeks.

The candidate who SHOULD receive the vote of every Negro citizen in the June 4 Primary Election is Lieutenant Governor Frederick F. Houser.

On the basis of ability, integrity, judicial temperament, and vigor, THE COURIER believes Lieutenant Governor Houser is the best qualified candidate for Judge of the Superior Court, Office No. 3.

Admitted to the practice of law in California in 1930, the forty-one-year-old Lieutenant Governor served three terms in the State Legislature, and was elected to his present office in 1942.

When he announced his candidacy for the office he now seeks, Lieutenant Governor Houser said:

"If elected to the bench I will regard the office as a sacred trust and will do my best, not only to interpret the laws correctly, but, above all, with justice and fairness to everyone appearing before me."

There is only one way to insure the election of Lieutenant Governor Houser, and the defeat of incumbent Judge Westover.

It is NOT by voting for Judge Ida May Adams.

But, it is by voting for Frederick F. Houser for Judge of the Superior Court, Office No. 3, in the June 4 Primary election.

Campbell, former Republican nominee of the 14th district and prominent Republican leader of the state. This announcement was made today by S. Wheeler, chairman of the 14th Congressional District Fact Finding Committee. Campbell urges his friends and supporters to vote for Frederick M. Roberts for congress.

Previously, all Republican congressional committees had endorsed Roberts' candidacy and united Republican strength is behind Roberts for the Republican nomination from the 14th district. These endorsements of this well-known member of the race, who was our first member of the California legislature, points to his nomination by the voters at next Tuesday's primary.

Las Vegas News

A group of 30 Westside residents under the sponsorship of Ray Christensen, rented horses from El Rancho Vegas hotel stable and Christensen's mounts, and rode to Hoot Gibson's rancho last Tuesday night (May 21). Arriving at the rancho, soft drinks were immediately quaffed and hot dogs were roasted over a blazing fire. A Mawaiian guitarist and ukelele player serenaded the party. After a good rest the group headed back to Vegas. The group proved themselves real western riders in the splendid way in which they handled their horses.

A number of these men and women riders appeared in the Helldorado parade last Thursday afternoon along with floats from the Cotton Club, the Last Roundup, and the Jefferson ave. USO which displayed an old-fashioned hay ride. One of the downtown business organizations depicted an Abraham Lincoln float in which several Westside youngsters also appeared.

The western jurisdiction of the Negro B.P.O.E. is convening in Stockton California, from May 24 through the 29. The Las Vegas Silver State Elks lodge is sending exalted ruler Marshal Allen and educational director Henry Moore of Boulder City as delegates who will motor, and district deputy Marshall Branch who will fly to the convention. Moore is the lone colored player City, which will be playing in the Clark county amateur league. Moore also was recently given a citation of merit by the dept. of interior in Washington, D. C., for creditable war service in the bureau of mines.

Proceeds will go to Zion Methodist building fund.

President Karl Downs of Sam Huston college, and its 30-voice choir will appear in concert at First Methodist church, Sunday evening, June 2. Thirty-three-year-old President Downs is well known in United States Methodism. At one time he was scheduled to serve as a missionary with the renowned Dr. E. Stanley Jones, but interruption of the war changed their plans. Dr. Downs is being invited to speak at Zion Methodist church with a portion of his choir Sunday morning, June 2. For this occasion, services are planned to be held in Jefferson ave., U.S.O. building.

Beginning June 1, 1946, the Jefferson ave. USO will serve the military exclusively on Friday, 7 to 11 p.m., Saturdays, 7 to 11 p.m., and Sundays from 7 to 11 evenings. All other days and hours, the building will serve as a community center under a sponsorship of the community, and servicemen will be welcome.

CAMPING FOR YOUTH
YWCA EMPHASIS

As the school year draws to a close and warm days of summer rapidly approach, interest in camping mounts among the teen-agers at Woodlawn Branch YWCA. This summer the whole program for youth will be geared to camping and group living and group experience.

The program for this season will be divided into three phases:

CAMP SEALY

For those girls who wish to leave home for vacation and adventure the YWCA Camp at Camp Sealy will serve their needs. There will be two periods of teen-agers of ten days each, with the first beginning on June 20 and the second on July 10. In addition to affording a rich experience in simple camp living, Camp Sealy, because of its intercultural and inter-racial aspect, offers girls a situation in which they can "live democracy."

Registrations for Camp Sealy should be made through Woodlawn Branch not later than June 1st.

CAMP IN GRIFFITH PARK

A unique plan has been worked out whereby girls who must remain at home can still have that exciting experience of camp life.

Our day camp this year for junior high school girls will be operated from the building as usual but the groups will be taken each day to our camp in Griffith Park and return each afternoon.

Activities plus group living and group experience will be as much a part of day camp as Camp Sealy. Trips to places of interest, beaches, and museums will be a part of camp program on days out.

CO-ED CAMP PROGRAM

The YWCA in cooperation with the YMCA will sponsor a summer program for girls and boys who make up the membership affiliated with senior high school Tri-Y and Hi-Y Clubs.

While the program will be planned by the two inter-club councils over all plans provide for overnight and weekend co-ed camping. Special events such as hayrides, beach parties, and weiner bakes with games and swimming in the YMCA building on Wednesday nights.

Mrs. Inez Allen, program director for younger girls work at Woodlawn, stated recently that every attempt will be made to lift the work with the youth from the level of mediocrity in the hope that the young people might find joy and a lift in what they do.

A special information service concerning camping for all age groups is offered to the community by the younger girls' department.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT

This is your opportunity to meet new friends, improve your talent, as well as your health, each Wednesday evening at the Woodlawn Branch YWCA by enrolling in one of the many interest groups being offered, such as bridge, millinery, charm clinic and physical fitness.

The program begins with dinner at 6 p.m. in order that girls leaving work will not have to go home. Professional counselors will be available to those needing help on personal problems as well as work and play opportunities.

This is your invitation to come and participate. Call in your reservation early, ADams 14103, and invite your friends to come also.

Our camp register is now open for campership. You must be registered by the end of June. Boys and girls will have a splendid opportunity for co-ed activities which naturally enhances camp exercises. The camp is Fern Lodge, near Santa Ana, July 15-22. All modern conveniences including cabins are furnished. There will be complete program each day with supervisors and instructors in attendance.

Now that basketball season is over we feel proud of our Jokers, Baby Cobras, A. B. B.s, A. C. C.s and Sportetts. All teams played well, cooperated splendidly throughout the season, and brought home a high winning record. The last game was played with the Delta Pledgees, who were winners until they were hit hard by the Sportetts in last week's finals. The Sportetts have held the championship for the past three years and are looking forward to better matches next year.

The Gate City Business Men's Association had a banquet in honor of their first anniversary last Monday night. Their guests were their wives and the prospective members of the organization. Dixon Johnson was master of ceremonies. He introduced the president, J. Robert Smith, who in turn introduced the other officers. The speeches by Smith and Rev. Patterson, the chaplain, gave a distinct picture of the views of the Negro business man and his Negro clientele. The affair was very inspirational and encouraging. And the menu, well prepared by the staff at the beautiful Harlem grill, held honors with the air of the occasion. Officers and members are: Smith, president; Mr. Buchanan, vice-president; Mrs. Fred Denmon, secretary; Frank Hutchison, treasurer; Rev. T. A. Patterson, chaplain; Dixon Johnson, Mr. Keel, Mr. Humphrey, Doctor Inghram, Mr. Braswell and Lonnie Raibon.

EDITORIALS AND COMMENTS

Truman Betrays People's Trust

Well, President Truman has evidently opened his mouth and put his foot in it again. He has done this before, but this time it seems he has definitely cooked his goose.

In his speech before Congress last Saturday urging it to adopt legislation that would give him, as president, authority to seize the railroads, or any other property where the unions were on strike, and to have them operated by the United States Army; in making it a crime to strike against the government, and in urging a law that would make any striker subject to being drafted into the army, the President is stepping close to the boundary line of Fascism.

True, our friend Franklin Roosevelt seized the mines during the war, but the miners themselves were agreed to have this done. And it was the miners who went to work digging coal, not the army. There is quite a difference as to who runs what when the government takes control of an industry. If the people are allowed a voice in the operation of the mines, the railroads, the factories, then government ownership will increase our democracy, and we shall have a form of socialism in which the people themselves are the government and own or control everything.

But if the government is to consist of the Big Industrialists, the present owners of the mines, railroads and factories; if the industries are to be run by the army, for the benefit of the present owners, then we shall have a form of Fascism or Naziism. The Unions will be outlawed—as some of our members of Congress are trying to do now—the people will have no voice either in the management of the industries where they work nor in their government. This will be Fascism.

And yet there are leaders among our politicians who say that Truman will run again for the presidency in 1948, and that he will be elected! If he chooses to run again, in our estimation, he will be about the biggest chump ever born.

It is unfortunate that President Truman was thrust into such an unenviable position as the presidency when he so evidently didn't want the job. He had made a good record as member of the United States Senate from Missouri. He supported a permanent FEPC, and all anti-poll tax and anti-lynch measures. The Truman Committe did much to unearth unusual expenditures in both the army and navy, and saved Uncle Sam millions of dollars.

This is a splendid record. But when the presidency was thrust upon him by the unfortunate death of the friend of the Common Man, Franklin Delano Roosevelt, the duties and responsibilities seemed too much to cope with. As some one remarked, "He is handicapped by the stranglehold that Southern Democrats have on his political throat."

He no longer represents only one state in the Union. He is the leader of the entire nation. And as such he is trying to please everyone—an utter impossibility.

Nevertheless we must not criticize him too severely. We should cooperate in every way we can. But as being president for another term. Nothing doing, say we.

Vote for School Bonds

The California Eagle urges everyone to vote "Yes" on the bond issue for better schools in Los Angeles at the election Tuesday, June 4.

The amount to be voted upon totals $75,000,000. It will be used for both high and elementary schools — for new buildings, additions to the old buildings, repairing, etc. Very little, if anything, has been done in the way of improvement to any of the school buildings during the past four years on account of the war, and needless to say they are at present in a run-down condition.

The school population has increased tremendously, and in some instances class rooms are so crowded that only half-day sessions are held. Such conditions must be remedied.

VOTE YES ON THE BOND ISSUE.

A March to Freedom

This week Detroit is the setting for the National Negro Congress.

From all over the nation will come at least 1000 Negro leaders. At this tenth anniversary convention of the Congress many important matters will be discussed. Chief among them will be the building of the new foundation upon which a permanent freedom for the Negro and all the oppressed people must be erected.

The Negro people have turned their faces away from the White House, upon which they placed their hope during the Roosevelt administration. They realize that President Truman, who promised to pursue the course planned by Roosevelt, is the tool of post-war imperialist planning. The type of planning that is destined to destroy things we fought a war to win.

Under President Truman we, as a nation, are drifting in the same direction that was taken by President Johnson, who succeeded Lincoln, after the Civil War.

We here on the West Coast have our ears to the grass roots, listening to hear what happens in Detroit. As the Negro Congress points the way, we the Negroes and all who believe in freedom, will follow.

Murder Will Out

Hal Roach, present supervisor and candidate for re-election, second supervisorial district, has been keeping very quiet about covenant restrictions. Perhaps there's a reason. Of course he wants the vote of the Negro people, but he cannot truthfully say he is opposed to restrictive covenants—something which might win the votes of a few Negroes.

Why?

Well, according to an official copy of an agreement recorded in Book No. 21761 of the Official Records of Los Angeles County, there is this notation:

Agreement Imposing Restrictions

"The undersigned, as owners of those certain lots or parts of lots set opposite their respective names — do hereby bind themselves, and the heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns of each of them,until January 1st, 1987, that they will not permit the use or occupancy of any of said lots, or parts of lots, by ANY PERSON WHOSE BLOOD IS NOT ENTIRELY THAT OF THE CAUCASIAN OR WHITE RACE (caps. ours) and this restriction shall be incorporated in all deeds of transfer of sale lots or parcels thereof. It is hereby declared that the foregoing covenant shall be one running with the land, and shall operate to the benefit of each and every lot in the area above described —and to the benefit of such owner, his successors or assigns."

In other words, the owners of the lots of ground in this section of the city secured this restrictive covenant which prohibits any person except one of lily-white blood to buy, rent, or live in any home in this part of Los Angeles. It will be good for 41 more years, until 1987.

CECIL OLIVIA ROACH is the name given as the owner of part of lots 9, 10, 11, and 12 in this section.

Cecil Olivia Roach is the wife of Hal Roach, supervisor and candidate for re-election for the second supervisorial district.

Nuff said. Hal Roach is NOT our candidate.

Vote for REV. CLAYTON D. RUSSEL, and oust Hal Roach and everybody like him.

Negro A Healthy Race

Dr. Paul Cornely, public health chief at Howard University's medical school, writing in the June issue of the Negro Digest, says, "The Negro has survived in America because of his superior physical makeup." He cites records taken from the National Selective Service bureau to prove this.

Sub-standard teeth in whites were four times that of Negroes. Poor vision among Negroes was ½ that of whites, ear defects only ⅛. Hookworm infection in Negroes was ½ that of whites, tuberculosis in whites was twice that of Negroes, and Negro children suffer less than whites from infantile paralysis.

To clinch the argument, this record is given: There are 5 to 10 times more white children who have head lice than do Negro children.

That last record isn't anything to be especially proud of. No one should have any head lice, white or Negro. With a little effort we can surely make that 100% clear.

1946 Memorial Day vs. Memorial Day 1918

A proclamation issued by Kenneth C. Kennedy, national commander of the United Negro and Allied Veterans of America, declared that Memorial Day this year has a deeper significance for Negro veterans of World War II than of any other year, because "the Negro soldier fought for a free and peaceful world and is determined to enjoy it."

It is indeed interesting to note that Mr. Gerald L. K. Smith is now in Washington to throw his support to Michigan Republican Senatorial Candidate Arthur Vanderberg and Mississippi's Rankin.

Watch Gerald and you will get acquainted with the America First affiliates in the Capitol.

THEIR DOOM AWAITS THEM!

From an Indian's Standpoint

By DALJIT SINGH SADHARIA

INDIA AND THE WORLD

India at present occupies an important place on the stage of the world. The eyes of the whole world are centered on that vast peninsula and historic land. Half a century ago the very name of India was unknown and was referred to in terms of contempt and ridicule by travelers and writers.

The ease with which the British overlorded Hindustan astonished the world and led to the formulation of those racial theories which ascribe inherent superiority to white races over all other races. It was universally held that the Hindu race was inherently incapable of managing its own affairs and was condemned to be the slaves of an alien race.

English propaganda dinned into the ears of the Europeans that the English people were performing the highest functions of humanity and civilization by ruling over the Indian people who then occupied the same position in the scale of human development which the European races occupied after the fall of the Roman empire.

But all these wild speculations belong to history. The same English historical theorists who deluged the world with falsehoods and lies about the inferiority of the Hindu race and Hindu civilization now extoll the cultural and intellectual attainments of the Hindus to the skies in order to ingratiate themeslves in the eyes of the Indian people.

The two foremost English men of letters, Aldous Huxley and Gerald Heard, devote their brilliant talents to the exaltation of Hindu thought over European systems and are more pro-Hindu in their conception of Indian destiny than the most rabid Hindu believers in the superiority of Hindu history and culture. They are more influential and aggressive in the expansion of Hindu cultural influence than all the Hindu swamis in the United States.

It is no wonder that the British are ready to lay down the reins of power and acquiesce in the overwhelming demands of the Indian people for freedom and independence. They realize that it is physicaly impossible to hold India by force and propaganda as they have done for the last 300 years and to put off the day of Indian liberation any longer.

The English die-hards still impose obstacles in the path of Indian freedom, but they are fighting a losing battle and are trying to swim against the tide. The tendency in the majority of English circles is to devise hooks of steel which will bind England firmly to India in the silken cord of eternal friendship and amity. The utternaces of English politicians in terms of exaggerated praise and admiration show the trend of English public opinion and the attitude of the ruling English circles towards the solution of the difficult Indian constitutional problem.

The present Moslem intransigence is largely to be explained by the willingness of the British government to come to terms with the foremost Hindu politicians to iron out a constitution for India which will satisfy the conflicting claims of Indian communities and groups.

Books and Authors

A modern version of The Pied Piper of Hamlin, but placed in Harlem, is the plot of a book for children, My Dog Rinty, which The Viking Press will publish this week. It is a very human, appealing story about a Negro boy named David and his beloved, but misunderstood, dog, a wonderful ratter. When the dog begins tearing up all the rugs in sight, it looks as though he will have to be sold, but an understanding Harlem editor helps to bring happiness and prosperity where before there was nothing but trouble.

ELLEN TERRY

The story is by Ellen Tarry and Marie Hall Ets, and the illustrations are photographs taken in Harlem by Alexander and Alexandra Alland. The children who posed for them are Camille, nine years of age, who is David in the book; Mariette, seven; Maurice, 12; and Louis, 14. All are children of Mr. and Mrs. Louis de Brecourt of 1468 Fifth avenue, New York City. They are students of St. Paul's Parochial school, and were chosen for the photographs not only because they are very photogenic, but because they all belong to one family, and were easier to get together.

Ellen Tarry is a newspaperwoman who has written several books for children, among them Hezekiah Horton, published by The Viking Press. She was born and brought up in Birmingham, Alabama, taught school there, and started her newspaper career. In 1937, she came to New York and worked at the Writer's Laboratory on a Bureau of Educational Experiments scholarship. She then became "Story Lady" at Friendship House, a Harlem Community Center, where she first saw "Hezekiah," who is now her godchild. Her newspaper work in New York City was with the Amsterdam News, and she has written for many magazines. In 1943, she worked for the USO in Alabama and in New York, leaving about a year ago to become a group supervisor at the Harlem Service Men's Depot.

Marie Hall Ets, author-artist of Mr. Penny and In the Forest, both published by Viking, was born in Wisconsin. At the age of seven, her talent as an artist was first discovered, and she was given special art training from then on, but not until comparatively recently, when she was studying Frederick Poole, was she encouraged to use her imagination fully, which is shown so delightfully now in her books. Mrs. Ets has taken graduate work in writing and psychology at the University of Chicago. She did social work in that city, and spent a year in Czechoslovakia with the Red Cross, organizing a permanent child-health program. She married the late Harold Ets, who was on the faculty of Loyola University School of Medicine. At present, she is living in New York City.

MARIE H. ETS

Alexander Alland's category as a phtographer is a special one. While he enjoys a reputation among photographers as an artist and master technician, he is essentially an educator—an educator in the sphere of human relationship who, through his pictures, brings people closer together. Alland's work has been featured in numerous periodicals and newspapers, and some of it has been acquired by the New York Public Library, The New York Historical Society, The Museum of Modern Art, The Schomburg Collection, the Coorfairs, and the Office of War Information. His photographs for The Springfield Plan published last year by Viking, caused widespread comment, and considerable interest is already being shown in the photographs for My Dog Rinty, for which we had the invaluable assistance of his wife.

The Viking Press gave a party on May 27 at the Hotel Theresa in Harlem, in honor of the authors and illustrators of My Dog Rinty. The children who posed for the photographs co-hosts, and about 50 Negro and white children from various New York schools attended. There were games, story-telling, hundreds of balloons imprinted with the title of the book, and ice-cream and cake. Josh White, famous folk-song singer and guitarist, performed as did his five-year old son, "Little Josh." An interesting group of representatives from the book publishing, press and radio fields attended the party.

Introduced by Walter White, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Harold K. Guinsburg, president of The Viking Press, presented the original manuscript and photographs of My Dog Rinty to Carl Van Veohten, who accepted them for the Johnson Memorial Collection of Negro Arts and Letters, Yale university.

May 27, publication date of the book, is also the first day of the annual celebration of Harlem Week.

Columnists! Attention!

EAGLE columnists are urged to have their columns in the office by Monday each week—Friday if possible. Beginning week of June 9, columns received later than Monday will not be published in current week's paper.

CYRIL BRIGGS,
Managing Editor.

W. J. WHEATON SAYS:

The United States is facing one of the greatest crises since the adoption of the constitution. We doubt that the war between the states had so great an influence on the concept of democracy as do the present industrial struggles of today.

Legislation proposed by President Truman in his message to the joint session of congress will, if enacted, so undermine the rights of labor as to savor of dictatorship. Such legislation would at one fell stroke destroy all the gains made by labor under the late President Roosevelt.

Management's inability or refusal to get together with its workers has caused this country to present to the world a not very encouraging picture of democracy in action. The railway and coal strikes that have paralyzed the nation have also affected the structure, now building, of world peace. When the nation which essays leadership in the building of that structure presents to the world an example of economic chaos its influence for world betterment is greatly reduced.

It is obvious to the most casual observer that there is as much bias in this land of democracy as there was under the Nazi regime of Hitler. American democracy reeks with the stench of racial and religious bigotry, bloody pogroms against minority groups. The terrorist activities of the Klan, the foul speeches of the Rankins and Bilbos, peddling their venomous and deadly poison of racial hatreds, are known the world over. These, together, with the inability of our government to control our economic system, regulate our economy, constitute a poor example to the world we promise to lead into peaceful and democratic ways.

We ourselves have not mastered the meaning of democracy. We talk of democracy, but democracy means equality which we deny in practice. We prate of justice. But justice is based on right, not on might. It is claimed that bigotry is the product of irresponsible groups. But that only beclouds the issue of what is a democratic government. And until that question is answered in an exemplary manner, until the world is shown that democracy includes and envisages all its citizens, the world will continue to look at us askance, doubt our democratic professions.

It is the insincerity of our democratic claims which tends to arouse the suspicions of other governments. It is their knowledge of our barbarous treatment of minority peoples at home which evokes suspicions of our proposals, even for world peace.

LABOR ON THE MARCH

By Martinez Hewlett

To lose a strike is a terrible blow to organized labor. The strike is the only force which labor has after collective bargaining has failed. Such a thing has happened in the recent rail strike.

With a threat of being drafted into the army (heaven forbid) staring every striker in the face, there was no alternative but to go back to work. And so the railroad magnates sit back in their overstuffed, plush - lined seats, and continue to smoke their $1 cigars and quaff highballs made with 16-year-old whiskey, secure in the knowledge that the good old U. S. government will protect "honest and fair enterprise" from such awful things as trainmen asking for better working conditions and higher wages.

A national railroad tie-up is a terrible thing. No one can doubt that it is, but just as in any other strike, management held out, all through the preliminary negotiations, setting back on their bilious billions and letting the people of the United States bear the brunt of the whole thing.

But it was not until the strike actually occurred that people became indignant. And as usual, they started crucifying labor, from the President of the U. S. down to local radio newsboys. Nobody has mentioned as yet that the whole mess could have been averted had management made some sort of agreement even before the strike vote was taken.

As I have started many times before in this column, labor does not intend to hurt anyone or inconvenience anyone. But when working people just like you and I, make just requests of unscrupulous bosses, who would exploit us to the nth degree, if it were not for organized labor, and have our union representatives turned down cold, then we've got to act. And the strike is the only way to act. It wouldn't be American if it were otherwise. Remember this. When you read or hear of a strike, it isn't some alien group out to wreck the very foundations of our country, it's our fellow workers, who like ourselves are striving for a better life.

American people who work for a living (and 95% of us do) cannot aford to be anything but pro-labor. By what peculiar twist of logic or by what reach of imagination can they be otherwise? Who is responsible for the 8-hour day, the 48, 44, and 40 hour weeks? Who is responsible for minimum wages and wage increases? Who is responsible for better working conditions? Who is responsible for any advancements which working people have made in the past 50 years? Who initiates and supports most progressive legislation? Not the senate, not the house, not the President, not the firms for whom you work, not even you yourselves, but organized labor is responsible that these measures are in practice today.

We must all, take the terrible pictures conjured up by anti-laborities regarding organized labor with a grain of salt. Too many things are hanging in the balance. The whole labor movement has suffered a setback from the outcome of the rail strike. None of us are too old or too young to have forgotten what happened to Germany after Hitler smashed the labor unions.

THE NEGRO IN LATIN AMERICA

By Harold Preece

STORM ON THE BANANA COAST

Trouble is blowing up like a tropical typhoon on the Caribbean coast, generally known as "the Banana Coast," according to a recent news bulletin sent out by the Confederation of Latin American Labor from San Jose, Costa Rica.

Negro banana workers of the Caribbean countries are demanding that Wall Street-controlled United Fruit Co. come across with better wages and decent working conditions. Samuel Zemurray, Boston, president of the United Fruit Co., once served as a member of the President's Fair Employment Practices Committee.

Conditions of labor on the banana plantations of the United Fruit Co. have been exposed by the Costa Rican Federation of Labor (CTCR) in a factual account published as an open letter to United Fruit General Manager E. H. Hamer.

The CTCR discloses that the United Fruit pays lower salaries, charges above-normal prices in its controlled stores, crowds in workers where housing is not available, uses blacklists, fires workers arbitrarily, uses a contracting system similar to "blackbirding," refuses adequate medical treatment for employees, cheats in its company lunchrooms and has arbitrary wage classifications.

USES BLACKLIST

The CTCR charged pointblank that "workers who stand out because of trade union activities and their refusal to kowtow to foremen are put on a blacklist. Their names are then telephoned into the company and they are fired."

To keep from paying indemnization, the company forces the workers to sign a "voluntary dismissal" slip. If he refuses, his pay is withheld until he signs and he is evicted from whatever served as living quarters.

Another way of getting around indemnization used by the company, the CTCR revealed, is to hire the worker on an "indefinite" contract. Since three months are required before he is eligible for indemnization on dismissal, he is fired at the end of two and a half months and then perhaps rehired on the same terms.

Company spielers are sent to other parts of Costa Rica to lure workers to the banana plantations. They crowd in with their families but find no place to stay and no transportation to get back, finally becoming so desperate they will work at any wage.

DOG HOSPITAL?

The letter cited the case of a United Fruit dockworker who suffered internal injuries, when a steel bar fell on him. He was taken to the "hospital," given a purgative and a few days later was sent back to work.

The worker, Jose M. Mendez, suffered serious abdominal pains when he again tried longshoring and reapplied for admission to the hospital. The company doctor refused, claiming his pains had nothing to do with his previous accident. The union forced an x-ray examination to prove Mendez' case.

The CTCR warned in its letter that strike action "will be inevitable if our just complaints and demands are not settled." The case has been submitted to the government board of arbitration.

The CTCR open letter was signed by executives Rodolfo Guzman, Fernando Aguilar and Victor Cordero, workers on the United Fruit plantations and affiliated to the CTCR.

As an example of prices charged in United Fruit controlled stores, the only ones available to workers in the banana growing regions, the CTCR pointed out that a pound of butter sells for $1.08, coffee at 40 cents U. S. a pound, eggs at about 90 cents a dozen and a can of evaporated milk about 20 cents.

At the same time, workers on the company-owned railway whose wage scale is comparatively high, were paid averages as low as 65 dollars a month. Maximum wages on this railway were listed at about 90 dollars per month, compared with 175 dollars a month on non-company railways.

Combatting Physical Ailments

By John F. Gernhardt, M.D.
Medical Director
Los Angeles Sanitarium

GREAT VARIETY OF PHYSICAL AILMENTS

The most common ailments affect the stomach and the intestines. Many people suffer from acute and chronic inflammation of the stomach, which leads to ulceration of the stomach or of the intestines. Even worse, many suffer with cancer of the stomach. Colitis, acute and chronic, causes increased suffering and distress because of acid protein and lack of vitamin A.

Dr. John H. Kellogg has shown that meat is constantly swarming with putrefactive bacteria, among which is the Welch's Colon bacillus, present from 15,000,000 to 100,000,000 per ounce, sufficient to bring about Colitis. In pork and liver there are 96,000,000 per teaspoon. This poison when manufactured in the large intestines and then absorbed results in gall bladder infection and gall stones. When in the general circulation it causes arthritis, heart disorders, kidney and bladder inflammatory condition.

DISEASES OF THE BLOOD VESSELS

Acid protein causes hardening of the arteries, which leads to arteriosclerosis and high blood pressure. From animal fat arises a spongy swelling in the interior of the blood vessels, which produces obliteration of the blood vessels. On account of a deficient blood supply in the tissues, glands, and organs, these tissues then degenerate.

All systematic disorders can be easily prevented by adhering to a vegetarian diet which is rich in minerals, vitamins and alkalinity. These foods prevent inflammatory conditions in our arteries by producing a normal blood supply in the entire system.

All people eat bread, but many prefer white bread devoid of all the minerals and vitamins necessary as body builders and as preventatives against low vitality. If your nervous energy is greatly lowered and you do not enjoy good health, bear in mind that the blame must rest with you, for God in His great love sends you light about your daily nutrition.

As a very simple bit of advice, when you bake your own bread, be sure to use wholewheat flour, adding about 10% or more of soybean flour. This will help greatly in giving nutritive value and will help overcome inflammatory condition in your internal linings. Housewives can bake their own rolls, always appreciated by the entire family.

Most people use some kind of hot cereal which contains a great amount of starch, which when freely used can cause some disturbances. It would be better to make use of at least some soya flour which greatly improves nutrition by neutralizing acid conditions. There are many breakfast foods on the market made entirely from soybean flour and containing no starch at all.

When you suffer from colds, tonsilitis, bronchitis, or the flu, leave all starchy food alone for a few days. This will reduce your acid condition, shorten your ailment, and improve very rapidly your vitality. Drink plenty of lemonade or orange juice. Soybean milk is much better than dairy milk as it contains more calcium and phosphorous than dairy milk. Soybean preparations are very rich in lecithin which is a real nerve and brain builder.

It is not he that reads most, but he that meditates most on divine truth, that will prove the choicest, wisest, strongest Christian.—Bp. Joseph Hall.

Recruiting Women Drivers For Red Cross Motor Corps

Los Angeles Red Cross this week starts an intensive recruitment campaign for volunteers to serve in its active motor corps—the wheels of the organization.

Mrs. Julian N. Cole, corps chairman, announced plans for the drive, training classes for which will get underway as soon as possible.

"So great have been the demands upon the motor corps staff within the past few months that the recruitment campaign was deemed necessary," Mrs. Cole declared, adding that women "are needed who can accept both day and night assignments."

Night driving, she explained, consists of transporting Red Cross camp and hospital service entertainers and canteen corps volunteers to nearby military and veterans hospitals for ward and auditorium parties; chauffering veterans from hospitals to outstanding local events—athletic contests, Bowl concerts and the like.

Daytime chores of the motor corps drivers include provision of a caravan daily to transport city health department "vaccinating teams" to schools and industrial plants; piloting Visiting Nurse Association workers to assignments; and conducting 'sight-seeing" tours during the week for paraplegic and other patients at Birmingham Veterans hospital in Van Nuys.

Women who can serve in the corps are asked to telephone chapter headquarters, 1200 S. Vermont avenue, FI. 5261, and "ask for motor corps" for further details and information.

The Common Defense

IN MEMORIAM

An American cemetery somewhere in Europe—filled with crosses and Stars of David. In the foreground, the grave of an American soldier. What was his name? Adams? Kelly? Cohen?

Certainly his face didn't look like much when they found him. But his "dog tag" told who he was.

He was not an Unknown Soldier. And does it matter whether he was Protestant, Catholic, or Jewish?

He fought American. He died American. He was American.

He makes you prouder that you are American.

But what of his brothers—by the million—here at home . . . of every blood, of every color, of every creed?

Are they different because they're alive?

Is the only true democracy in uniformed death?

On this Memorial Day let us put a stop to the prejudice and hate-mongering—the whispering and rumor-spreading which can only divide and weaken America by setting race against race, religion against religion, class against class. Let us unify America—make America strong—by respecting our neighbors, by defending their rights, by obeying the Biblical law of love.

Let us honor our heroic dead by living for the principles for which they died.

When you find anyone—yourself included—thinking, speaking, acting, with racial or religious prejudice—STOP IT!

If Adams, Kelly, or Cohen was good enough to die for us, he's good enough to live with us . . . As an equal.

A LAYMAN'S VIEW

By Leon W. Steward

THE NEGRO AND HIS VOTE

The direct primary election Tuesday, June 4, is of the greatest importance to the state, nation, and city and to the so-called LITTLE MAN. It may well be of serious consequence to the Negro of this state—and HOW MANY OF THEM WILL VOTE? This is a serious question because without a large Negro vote the position of the Negro as a political factor is in jeopardy. If the Negro vote is not large enough the blame will lie at the feet of those who know the value of the size of the Negro vote but have done nothing toward leading our new Negro citizens to the registration booths and toward teaching him how to use his ballot. This is the great need of the hour — that many new Negro voters are registered and ready to vote in this primary election.

AN OLD STORY

The problem of having the Negro's sentiments adequately expressed in American elections is as old as those elections. At first they were in too small numbers to register an effective vote. However, there were many free Negroes in the original 13 states as early as 1790 who had a definite sentiment to express in their ballots and some of them did so. There were as many as 58,000 free Negroes in New Hampshire, 12,866 in Virginia, 8043 in Maryland, over 5000 in Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, North Carolina. There were also 338 in Georgia and between one and five thousand in New York, Delaware, Connecticut, South Carolina and Rhode Island, but some doubtless were restrained from voting, just as are most of fices unless some one will take the members of the group now living in the South. For many years the Southern Negro has been fighting for the right to vote ond only recently have his efforts resulted in some significant success. Already are there evidences of his discreet use of the ballot. Already have the Southern newspapers begun to give him credit for swinging elections in expression of his political sentiments.

As the Negro has moved to the North he has quickly gotten used to the ballo and for many elections it has been said that he had been swinging the elections for the Republicans in close presidential races until the "Happy Worrier" came to his rescue and won his support to the NEW DEAL banner. The question now is whether he still has hope enough in the future of the New Deal or whether he will be wooed sufficiently by his first flase love the Republicans) and by the Hearst and other anti-labor, anti Negro and anti-progressive papers, which he insists on reading and often quotes most unwisely.

A LOCAL PROBLEM

The problem, as referred to above, is getting our new California Negro voters registered and ready for voting. One splendid contribution made in this regard was done by those who worked for signautres necessary to get the FEPC measure on the ballot. We were among the number of volunteers in getting these signatures who discovered that eight out of ten of the people approached had to be first taken to one of the very scarce registrars on the Eastside. This project added many new potential voters to the 14th and 15th congressional districts as did those who weer working for the nomination of Rev. Clayton Russell for supervisor of the second district. Now the question is getting these new as well as old voters to the voting polls next Tuesday.

HELP NEEDED

When a new voter gets into a voting booth he will hardly know what to do with that long list of strange names and stranger of-

ANENT CANDIDATES

Then there is the matter of choosing candidates for whom to vote. Let us say briefly that no one should vote for anyone on a ballot unless his record and reputation is known to him. Too often Negro candidates are nominated by themselves and at other times are put in the race as decos to mislead Negro voters into neglecting to support a more highly qualified candidate of his race or another candidate who has already proven his value to the Negro's cause. The Negro voter will do well to support such a candidate as AUGUSTUS HAWKINS, who has reflected great credit to himself by his intelligent and courageous fight for the FEPC and other progressive measures as a member of the state assembly. Of course many will vote for Rev. Clayton Russell, the very progressive pastor of People's Independent church and a young man with a splendid record in the civic affairs of his community. We shall be one of them as will most progressive voters. But by all means give some time to helping a neighbor prepare for a successful trip to the voting polls come Tuesday.

• THINGS I SEE •

By Marian Inglewood

I'm going to tell you a story this week. A story taken from the Workingman's Book, the Bible, from the first part usually known as the Old Testament.

It is the story of Moses. You all know, of course, how at the time Moses was born in Egypt, Pharaoh, the ruler of Egypt, the most powerful dictator in the world at that time, had ordered all male children to be killed as soon as they were born. You know, too, how Moses' mother hid him in a little basket made of bulrushes by the River Nile, and then how Pharaoh's daughter, the princess, found him and adopted him as her son. And how she hired Moses' own mother to be a nurse for the child.

Well, of course Moses' mother did not teach her boy, although the adopted son of Pharaoh's daughter, the history and religion of Egypt. She taught him instead of the God of Israel, and of the wonderful promise made years before that some day the Israelites were to gain possession of an exceedingly fertile land, "a land flowing with milk and honey," and there they would become a great nation.

Moses never forgot that teaching. Even when he was a great prince, heir to the throne of Pharaoh, learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, he still remembered his people, their history, the great hope living within them. And the thought of their sufferings, as slaves of the Egyptians, burned like coals of fire in his soul.

One day, when he visited his people and "looked on their burdens," he saw an Egyptian beating a Hebrew. This fired his anger and he killed the Egyptian forthwith. Another day he found two Hebrews fighting, and he tried to make peace between them.

Ever have a great prince come to you, "look on your burdens," and then give you a lot of good advice?

Well, the Hebrews didn't like it one bit better than you did. One man answered Moses promptly, "Who made you a prince and a judge over us? Do you intend to kill me as you did the Egyptian the other day?"

Moses had expected, you know, to be received with open arms as the deliverer of his people. But he wasn't. Quite the contrary. Besides he heard Pharaoh was seeking his life.

Now Pharaoh was not trying to kill Moses primarily because he had slain an Egyptian. A prince like Moses could get away with murder any time. Some "princes" can even in our day. No. It was because Moses was taking an interest in his people, the slaves of the Egyptians. He was becoming liberal, progressive. He had no doubt been investigated by the Rankins and Jack Tenneys of his day, and was pronounced a Red.

Moses escaped from Pharaoh, persecution, and death into the desert. There as a shepherd, a workingman, he endured the sand storms, the heat, the cold, hunger, and thirst, until at last one day he heard and saw God in the Flaming Bush.

"What is that in thine hand?" asked God.

"A rod," answered Moses wonderingly. Just a shepherd's crook, a workingman's tool.

And God commanded him to go to Pharaoh. "And thou shalt take this rod in thine hand." He said, "wherewith thou shalt do signs."

You know the signs, the miracles, that were wrought by Moses with his workingman's tool. When he lifted up his rod, in the name of the Lord, even the Red Sea divided and the children of Israel marched through on dry land. Pharaoh and all his host trembled before him.

The working people of the world, of America, of California, have been given a tool as powerful as that of the shepherd's rod wielded by Moses. With it we, too, can work miracles if we will. It is the BALLOT.

"Our world faces a crisis as yet unperceived by those possessing the power to make great decisions for good or evil," says Dr. Einstein, eminent scientist. He was speaking of the atom bomb, and warned that we were drifting toward "unparalleled catastrophe."

But it is not only in the atom bomb that we face catastrophe. We in America face the even greater danger of losing our democracy and being controlled by a Fascist dictatorship. This, of course, would entail destruction. If, in this election of 1946 and again in 1948, the liberal forces do not win, a condition such as existed in Germany will stare us in the face.

Folks, we must use our workingman's tool, our shepherd's rod, the ballot. Every man and woman of voting age must use it. And with it we shall work miracles—the miracles of destroying Pharaoh and all his hosts—racial discrimination, restrictive covenants, unemployment—all the evils that are threatening our free American democracy.

VOTE, June 4, for the Rev. Clayton D. Russell, supervisor; Gus Hawkins, assemblyman; Helen Gahagan Douglas, member of Congress; Bob Kenny, governor; Ellis E. Patterson, U. S. Senate; Claude Welch, State Senate, and Lucile Gleason for Secretary of State.

IS MEDICINE DESTROYING ITSELF?

★ Things dramatic capture the imagination, sometimes to the point of distorting the perspective. This is as true in medicine as in other fields. The sensational results with sulfa drugs and penicillin are examples.
Less dramatic but responsible for saving uncounted lives, are the broader public health measures. Sewage disposal; swamp clearance; water, milk, and food inspection are but a few of these triumphs.
The physician and the pharmacist have always been leaders in the field of preventive medicine. This fact led James Brice to observe, "Medicine is the only profession that labors incessantly to destroy the reason for its own existence."
The fight, however, is far from won. Diagnosis and treatment of disease are still the primary functions of the physician: The accurate filling of prescriptions is our responsibility as pharmacists.

Judge Beardsley's Aid To Fight On Legion Stadium Bias Recalled by Attorney

The role played by Judge Beardsley in helping to break down Jimcrow barriers at the Hollywood Legion stadium was related this week by Hugh E. Macbeth, noted local attorney, in a letter to the EAGLE.

Decrying the attempt in "some quarters of reactionary political thought" to block the re-election of Judge Beardsley, Macbeth told how several years ago Judge Beardsley came forward to support the fight to open Hollywood Legion stadium to Negro boxers. Of 50 odd judges requested to appear before the State Athletic Commission in support of the fight to open the stadium to all American boxers, only Judge Beardsley turned up, Macbeth recalls.

"He not only appeared but testified bravely and fully in favor of the principles of fair play and racial equality," Macbeth writes. "His testimony and courageous appearance was the most outstanding single contribution to what finally was determined as the complete victory of the cause of racial equality when the Hollywood Legion stadium respectfully stipulated to permit colored boxers and fighters to appear on its program in the future," Macbeth states.

"In the opinion of the writer, every colored American voter in Los Angeles county is in debt of gratitude to Judge John Beardsley and should not only vote but work for his re-election as superior court judge in the primary election on June 4 next.

"This letter is written without the knowledge or consent of Judge Beardsley but is written in response to the writer's sense of justice and fair play and trust that the press of Los Angeles county will give these facts the newspaper prominence which they deserve."

Judge Beardsley was also endorsed this week by the local branch of the NAACP "because of his judicial impartiality toward all groups and his fair exercise of discretion in handling restrictive covenant cases."

Says Bilbo Peddles Lies to Win Votes

WASHINGTON—Senator Bilbo this week was accused of "resorting to lies" about Negro voting strength in Washington, D. C., in his efforts to win renomination in the July 2 Mississippi primary.

The accusation was made by the National Negro Congress in a letter which also advised Bilbo that a District of Columbia delegation of 100 to the Detroit convention of the NNC plans "to have much to say about your disgraceful action" as "mayor of Washington." The convention convenes today—May 30.

Bond Issue Will Solve Critical School Problem

"More new and improved schools are needed in Los Angeles," says Dr. C. Morley Sellery, director of the health services section of the board of education, "because overcrowding in schools is affecting the health of our school children.

"Overcrowding increases the incidence of communicable diseases," explains Dr. Sellery, "because of closer contacts between pupils. School sanitation is more difficult to maintain. Auditoriums and classrooms are overcrowded, creating problems of ventilation.

School buildings and facilities have shown no increase or improvement though the number of school children have increased tremendously, continued Dr. Sellery. Supervision of playgrounds is more difficult and accident hazards are greater. Noise and confusion are increased, adding to emotional tensions and nervous fatigue of both pupils and teachers. The number of health problems among pupils is increased but the personnel to care for them, unfortunately, remains the same.

"The school problem in the District of Los Angeles has become critical. The $75,000,000 school bond issue, to be voted on June 4, will provide the relief needed," Dr. Sellery said in conclusion.

KINLOCH'S ☆ KORNER

By Y. S.

Dedicated to the memory of my childhood chum, John Kinloch, who died in the struggle to destroy Fascism.

Dear Chum:

Today, Memorial Day, we honor the memory of our dead. Of those who waded through hell and died that we might live in peace.

You know something, chum, there are those in the world today who would make us believe that you gave your life in vain. They are the plunderers of the peace. The despotic disruptionists. The fascist hogs who would enslave the people you fought to make free.

But we, the young people—the little peace-loving people—are proud of the heritage you left. To us, it is precious. Something to be guarded jealously. To be cherished and yes, even nourished.

That the youth of this nation are working zealously to preserve the peace is evident. Day by day their sincere determination manifests itself in the work they undertake, the knotty problems they seek to unravel, the courage with which they plunge into the fight to win security, freedom, peace.

It would have made your heart feel good, chum, to have seen American youth in action over the week-end. There were those who mobilized in different sections throughout the city to begin a house-to-house canvass, urging citizens to go to the polls June 4 and vote in the primary elections; to study the records of candidates for election; to support the men who have championed the people's fight.

Others marched in a picket line thrown around Bimini Baths, an establishment guilty of discriminating against minority groups.

Still others flocked up to Los Angeles City college to attend the Youth Conference called by the Los Angeles Youth Council. There, delegates of 25 organizations discussed such topics as winning the peace; building world youth unity; a secure future; democracy in clubs and schools; and adoption of a devasted town in Europe.

The young people voted to oppose restrictive covenants, fight the KKK, endorse candidates who have supported measures essential to the welfare of the people such as OPA, FEPC, the Wagner-Taft-Ellender housing bill, and opposition to racial quotas in colleges.

And you know, chum, young people are not half-hearted in their battle for peace. They are giving democracy the leading role in all phases of their lives, including work and play.

An outstanding example of an organized drive for democracy is seen in the American Youth Hostels, Inc., a national non-profit organization, established over 10 years ago, which sets up overnight shelters for cyclists and hikers to enable youth of our nation to see and enjoy places of beauty and interest.

With vacations looming in the forefront, youth hosteling is particularly inviting. Back roads for bikers, foot paths for hikers, canoeists' lakes and rivers, bridle trails and ski runs call to youth to go a-hosteling.

A total budget of $1 a day covers food, overnight stops and extras at the inexpensive Youth Hostels. Overnight accommodations are usually set up in farm buildings with friendly farm folk acting as "houseparents."

Separate sleeping rooms for girls and boys, separate washing facilities, common kitchen and dining rooms—all these things are provided by a community committee representing local schools, churches, character-building organizations, civic and outdoor clubs.

The best feature of all is that hosteling is open to all. There is no racial, creed or class discrimination.

To date more than 100,000 Americans who carry AYH cards have traveled more than 1,000,000 miles. Eventually hostel trips will spread all over, connecting with the vast European system. In England, the system is endowed by the Carnegie Foundation, and in France, is heavily supported by the Ministry of Education.

In 1939 there were 5,000 youth hostels in 20 countries. You see, the American youth hostels are patterned after the European hostel plan. In America there are more than 209 chartered hostels spaced at distances between 15 and 35 miles apart.

Local AYH headquarters are located at 108 W. Sixth street, and those interested may get additional information by writing.

Hosteling was designed to provide fun and promote world friendship. Youth went hosteling abroad prior to the war and beginning next June, 300 American youth hostelers will once again go overseas, this time to help re-establish and rebuild hostels.

AYH is strengthening the foundation for peace through friendship, understanding and common interests. So you see, chum, although there are those in our midst working overtime to stir up racial anomosity, still others are building a spirit of friendship among all people.

Your chum, YVONNE.

School Bonds Talent Show At Lafayette

A school bonds talent show was presented at Lafayette junior high school auditorium last Friday evening, May 24, with Superintendent of Schools Vierling Kersey as guest of honor.

The show, directed by Mrs. Marjorie McPherson, chairman of the speech department, featured musical numbers, speaking, dancing and the acting talent at Lafayette.

Kersey gave some very pertinent facts on the need for school bonds to be voted on June 4. He pointed out that talented young people could display their abilities to better advantage if they had microphones, musical instruments, transcription machines, lighting equipment, a gymnasium and other equipment. Voting for the school bonds will help accomplish this, he added.

RECEIVES CONGRATULATIONS—Superintendent of Los Angeles Schools, Vierling Kersey, congratulates Lafayette student body president at the School Bond Talent show presented last Friday afternoon at the Lafayette Junior High school auditorium.

Mr. Cain came to the Twenty Eighth Street Branch "Y" three years ago from Brooklyn, New York, and has taken an active part both in inter-agency and inter-association undertakings. His energetic, friendly approach as well as his demonstrated abilities have won him many friends here as evidenced by this recent honor.

School Aid Bill Goes to Senate

WASHINGTON — The Federal aid-to-education bill providing grants for educational purpose to low income states was reported out of the Senate's Education and Labor Committee this week with a provision that among the conditions the states would have to meet is "a just and equitable apportionment of such funds for the benefit of public schools maintained for minority races," where separate schools are operated.

Any reduction in the amount spent for minority race schools in the current fiscal year is also prohibited by the bill. It would authorize appropriations of $150,000,000 for the fiscal year beginning July 1,; $200,000,000 for the next year and $250,000,000 for each succeeding year.

Young Talent to Have Auditions June 13 for Big Musical Revue

Youthful talent will have an opportunity to audition for leading roles of this year's musical review, to be presented at Roosevelt high school in August. The audition will take place at Soto-Michigan Community Center, 2317 Fred Warren, musical director of the production.

Among the outstanding Hollywood personalities sponsoring the production are Lena Horne, Norman Corwin and Carlton Moss.

Singers for choice roles in Earl Robinson's new "Tower of Babel" with be chosen at this time as well as dancers, singers, and actors for specialty numbers. Ten age instrumentalists are likewise asked to come this evening to try out for the youth orchestra which will be formed for this event.

The revue presented by the Hollenbeck Youth theatre, which includes most of the performing groups of the area, will be on an even larger scale that last year's successful "Hello, Neighbor Hello." It will run August 27 to the 30 and is already creating city-wide interest.

Senate Passes School Lunch Bill

WASHINGTON — The Senate completed action on legislation this week authorizing permanent Federal aid for the school lunch program. The measure, which now goes to the President, makes the extent of Federal aid dependent upon the amount appropriated annually by Congress.

Proceeds from the dance, which is being sponsored by the 27 Los Angeles Clubs of American Youth for Democracy, will be used in the fight against restrictive covenants and the balance to send delegates to a national convention in New York City slated June 13, 14, 15 and 16.

The inimitable Muni Diamond will serve as master of ceremonies. Music will be supplied by the Rhythm Kings, a hot jive union band. Admission: $1 for adults; 50c for teen-agers.

Youth Elects City Leadership; Adopts Ravaged City in Europe

Elected to serve on the executive board of the Los Angeles Youth Council at a city-wide conference held Sunday at Los Angeles City College, were Ike Adams, of the NAACP, and Barbara Gayden, Watts Teen-Agers.

Betty McCandless, Youth Council delegate to the World Youth Conference, was elected president by acclamation, while other members of the board represent major campus, Jewish, church, veterans, and other youth organiations, including YWCA, AYD, Hi-Y, and Girl Scouts Senior Council.

With great enthusiasm, the conference voted to affiliate the Youth Council with the World Federation of Democratic Youth.

To carry out concretely their desire to build world youth unity, the Council will adopt the young people of Podgorica, Yugoslavia, pledging to send material aid in the form of clothing, food, and school and medical equipment. Correspondence and cultural events will be planned to create close friendship and understanding between the two cities.

A wire was sent to President Truman urging the restoration of rationing, and condemning the use of food as a political weapon to force the peoples of the world to accept U. S. dominated governments.

The panel on "Building a Secure Future," with Cornell Ridley as chairman, devised a yardstick with which to judge candidates for public office, based on their support of OPA, FEPC, Wagner housing bill, and protection of labor rights, and on their fight against the quota system in education, restrictive covenants, and the KKK.

Stevens Club Aids Election Campaign

The Thaddeus Stevens Club of American Youth for Democracy, has launched an all-out election campaign drive using all available resources towards the important primary elections scheduled June 4.

Holding the first mabilization Tuesday evening, May 21 at their regular meeting place, Good Templers Hall, 1125 W. Jefferson, club members divided into groups and invaded the community, armed with campaign circulars and literature.

Meeting again Sunday morning, May 26, Stevens members went from house to house, in a large area, circulating campaign literature endorsing the following candidates for election:

Vernon C. Robinson, Assemblyman, 63rd district; Robert W. Kenny, Governor; Ellis Patterson, U. S. Senator; Edmund G. Brown, Attorney General; Lucille Gleason, Secretary of State; and Claude Welch, State Senator.

Vernon Dancey, Sherrill Luke Win Kappa Alumni Scholarships

Two of the most outstanding students ever to be graduated from the local high schools are to be the recipients of the Magellan Mars Memorial scholarship awards, given by the graduate chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity and named in honor of Captain Magellan Mars, popular member of this chapter, who lost his life in Italy while serving with the Ninety-second division.

The winners are Vernon Dancey of Jefferson high school and Sherrill Luke of Los Angeles high school. Dancey has compiled a straight A average throughout his high school career and is among the nine ranking students in the state of California. His scholastic attainments are almost without equal in high school annals and are highly and enthusiastically recommended by Dr. Paul Fisher, principal of Jefferson high school.

The achievements of Sherrill Luke were no less spectacular, his record of student body as well as classroom activities resulting in his being elected to the position of principal on boy's day, an honor never before accorded a member of his group. The list of students considered for awards this year showed an abundance of deserving candidates, and these two scholarships are to be supplemented by another award by Upsilon chapter and still another to be given by the Mothers' Club of Kappa Alpha Psi.

All awards will be made at the June commencement exercises, and are year to year milestones on the Kappa "go to college" program.

WHAT'S DOING IN THE SOCIAL SET

By JESSIE MAE BROWN

THE FORMAL OPENING of Exclusive Records has added another feather in the crown of Leon Rene's hat. The eminent song writer, who has been taking bows since his first hit "When the Swallows Come Back to Capistrano", is president of the streamlined firm, where Ben Ellison, general manager, delights in seeing democracy put in action by the competent interracial staff. On Friday, May 24, between the hours of 12:30 and 10:00 p. m., over 300 guests, comprised of leading song writers and musicians, attended the opening of the new offices located at Sunset and Vine in the heart of Hollywood and Radio City. Designed by Ralph Vaugn, (Paul R. Williams' assistant), gives reason enough for you to believe the place is the last word when it comes to modern design.

Jessie Mae Brown

Lovely Marcella Monroe, who heads the Matrix department, received in her charming manner, such personalities as Cal Bailey, Al Jarvis, Ira Cook, Red Calendar, Barry Alanov, Joe Liggins, Glen Wallace, of Music City, Frankie Lane, Wonderful Smith, Harvey Brooks, Betty Vaugn, the architect's wife and a host of others. Much in evidence at the gathering was Buddy Baker, musical director of the firm, Herb Jeffrys, who heads the public relations department; Bill Smith, publicity artist and John Blackburn of the same department. Many a favorite record is born at this somewhat new firm . . .

GOINGS ON

A rousing bit of introducing took place at Wini Allen's West Side abode early Saturday evening. Two charming young matrons, who are taking permanent residence in the Angel City met a group of the leading younger femmes round town. Ruth Kenner, Bert's Detroit bride, is almost certain she won't be lonesome here. She finds L. A. to be a good deal like Detroit. She recently gave up her teaching position in the Detroit public schools to join her hubby here. By the way, Ruth, an active AKA, is ready to take part in local Boule planning. The other honoree was Zerelda Sealey, of Spokane, Washington. Her better half, Dr. George Sealey recently opened offices in South Los Angeles. Chatter and more chatter was the order of the evening. Ada Milton, who recently returned to L. A. from Tuskegee, where her hubby Bill Milton is in th service, looked very charming in a sophisticated black eyelet cotton. Her three-month-old son, was the topic of discussion. Helen Jane Stewart, first time out in months had lots to talk over; Ethel Holland, looking very smart in a one-piece wool dress, recently back from a jaunt to Alabama via TWA, had a few good laughs over the night she put your humble scribe through the paces of "Hell" week; Mel Temple, Jo Spearman, Marilyn Williams, Puffy Hill, Pauline Gurtido, Lou Boswell, Frances Patterson, Jewell Lockett, Paulette Dejoie, Joyce and Jerry Stewart and Corine Jones make up a partial list of those attending. Wini was assisted by her sis Marian, and the usual good time was had by all . . .

The Alphas, holders of the '46 interfrat series, were honored guests of the Grant Venerables Saturday night. Dancing continued way into the wee hours with the gents and their ladies joining in on the fun making. Dewey Davidson, president of Beta Psi Lambda and Far Western regional director of the frat along with the Perry Parks, Carter Lewises, Paul Hickmans, Victor Nickersons, Bill Lacefields, Don Barksdale, Joe Oliver and other brothers and company were among those present . . .

Edith Owens was at her best Sunday, when she was presented by the HPA at Bowen Memorial Church. She was assisted by Kitty Bilbrew White and Margaret Stachell Westfield. The three were so outstanding, a repeat performance will be given in the near future.

At the Phidelphian Fiesta Sunday evening noted Catherine and Wimpy Stanislaus, along with Hariette Johnson and Eunice Gross dining with oodles more seated around the umbrellaed tables. Mildred Morris was there enjoying a dance or two. The Phidelphians, headed by popular Jackie Banks were busy the evening through seeing to it that their guests had an enjoyable time . . . Jane Hampton, Annette Marshall and a bevy of others attended the fiesta following the shower Low Boswell gave in honor of the coming "Russell" bundle . . .

MORE DOINGS

The all AYD Fling will play an important part in doings over the coming week end. The affair will be held at 8 p. m., Saturday night at the CIO building. Proceeds will send a delegate to the AYD Confab and will also help the Coleman Defense Committee . . .

For a great number of younger setters, all roads will lead to Val Verde, starting today, (Memorial Day) through Saturday when the Cosmos take over with their much-talked about June 1st affair. The gents have put in lots of time in planning the gathering that will be highlighted by a hay ride and horseback riding spree, and they expect an overwhelming group to attend. All proceeds will go into the club scholarship fund. Sounds like a grand week end ahead . . .

Les Charmantes are busy working on the annual Tea and Style show. The annual will be held on June ninth, headed by Norma Lee McDaniel, club president.

Virgia Williams and Dan Thomas will recite vows Sunday with a reception following. The wedding will be held at the home of Virgia's parents in the Blodgett Tract . . .

WELL! WELL! WELL!

Know that many an Angeleno delights over the fact that the trains are rolling again. Sheer luck was with my sis Fannie DeMan, who left for N. Y. as scheduled on the first train out after the strike . . . Fred and Cornelia Scott are living the life. Received a card postmarked Arizona, bearing the fact that they will spend a few days in Mexico before returning home . . . Connie Berryman sends hellos from Washington, D. C. She will see N. Y. and Philly before returning in August. Homeward bound is Helen Maupin from the East Coast. The Maupins are expecting Doc Stork. The Thompson family from coast-to-coast is rejoicing over the good news . . . Speaking of family additions, Idell Moore is busy knitting pink and blues . . .

Sorry to hear that Howard met with an automobile accident while motoring in Des Moines . . . Albert McNeil's Octett will take part in the Religious Conference program honoring Negro History. . . . Arthur Trent seems to be in the field of circulation once again . . . Velma Beck is busy doing her part for the African Relief. Each month she sends bundles of clothes in care of Dr. Glenn Luken who is doing research over there . . . Yvonne Shepherd's brother, Cyril arrived in L. A. Monday morning. He plans to make this his permanent home . . . Flora Gladman is back in town making arrangements for her wedding . . . Making deadline . . .

TILL NEXT WEEK

MR. AND MRS. LESLIE KING JR. socially prominent young couple pictured immediately following the wedding ceremony held at Wesley chapel with Rev. Rakestraw officiating. The former Jessel Reid, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin James Reid wore a gown of exquisite Swiss embroidered sheer material and her train length veil was held in place by an embroidered crown. The wedding was a highlight of the late spring season.

Reid-King Wedding Unites 2 Prominent Families---Couple to Honeymoon in N.Y.

Two of the city's leading families were united before a throng of friends and relatives, when Jessel Edwina Reid and Leslie Julius King Jr. exchanged vows in the historical chapel of Wesley Methodist church.

Entering on the arm of her father, Mr. Edwin James Reid, the bride was beautiful wearing an exquisite gown of swiss embroidered sheer featuring tiered ruffles and a flowing train. Her illusion veil was held in place by an embroidered crown. She wore matching gloves and a string of pearls and she carried a bouquet of white orchids and lilies of the valley.

Decorations Outstanding

The chapel altar was a picturesque scene featuring a canopy of delicate pink roses, larkspur and asters richly set off by satin ribbon, the art work of Steffins. The chapel choir, under the soft glow of the burning candles, sang the wedding song, followed by Marcelyn Cobbs singing "Because"; Marguerite Chapman, "I Love Thee," and Willie Starks, "I Love You Truly."

In delightful contrast, Jessel's attendants, the maid of honor, Ouida Pruitt, and the matron of honor, Mrs. Jacquelyn Goosby, of San Francisco, wore princess style pink silk net gowns and the bridesmaids wore striking shades of green, yellow and pink silk net gowns, each wearing a string of pearls with matching hats, a gift of the bride's mother. They carried bouquets of varied colored spring flowers. They were: Marilyn Williams, Haroldine Browning, Connie Scruggs, Ann Cunningham, Ione Pierce, Dolores Bell, Lula Grenne and Bobbie Dean Dennis.

Mr. Jay Harris served as Leslie's best man. Ushers included Charles Kennedy, Gerald Stovall, Harold Broadway, Ernest Spearman, Raymond Isum, Gerald Roberts, Henry Milton, Vance Jones and Roger Terry. Master Michael Pierce was the ring bearer and the flower girls were Judy Bailey, Diane Orange and Marshie Driver.

Reception Follows

Promptly at 5:30 over 600 guests attended the wedding reception in the beautifully decorated banquet hall of the Kings' South Harvard blvd. home. Gifts of every description were received and registered by the group of friends serving as hostesses. The bride's mother was quite charming in a blue lace gown and a hat made of fresh pink roses. Assisting her were Mmes. Emily Portwig and Laura Smitherman, who registered guests at the door; Florence Robinson, A. C. Simms, Iola La Cour, Naomi Booker, Edward Spearman Sr., Deloris Milton Smith, Evelyn Griffith, Mildred West, Thelma Price, Bernice Pillows, Elsie Foster, Zenobia Allen, Vivian Bettis, Ramelle Bagnerise, Lillian Stevenson, Marie Field, Zora Williams, Dorothy Patton, A. J. Booker; Misses Connie Fortier, Jacqueline Wilson, Betty Wallace, Jenard Worsham, Melonee Temple, Shirley Rakestraw; Mmes Mignon Smith, Glenna Hays, and Esterlyn Powell.

Miss Gloria Roberts played the piano for the ceremony, and Edith Owens was at the console of the organ.

To Honeymoon in N. Y.

The bride is a graduate of Polytechnic High and is a junior at U.S.C., where she holds membership in the Ivy Leaf Pledge club to AKA sorority. The groom is the son of Lt. Leslie King Sr. He recently returned from overseas duty with the U. S. army. He plans to enter embalming college in September. Because the bride is still attending school, a belated honeymoon will be enjoyed by the popular couple in New York at the close of the semester.

JOHNETTA ARMSTRONG - FREDDY WARD

Today is Memorial Day and millions of people will place wreaths on the graves of their loved ones. Let us not forget our fallen who died on the battlefields of both the great World Wars, World War I, to end all wars; World War II, to preserve and guarantee the four freedoms. This is Memorial Day. Well, let's impress our minds with all the facts and horrors of the recently won war. We are forgetting so soon!

Youth Day at the Friendship Baptist church undef the sponsorship of Mrs. Hattie O'Neil and Mr. W. Slater was very successful. Barbara Durham, the morning speaker, gave a challenge to the parents of these youth to guide their children's lives in the right paths. The choir loft was filled with young people from 11 to about 17 years of age, and they lifted their voices in beautiful song. Lexie Hines Walker directed them and Barney Durham, Jr., played the organ. President Andrew Griffin spoke on "How Youth Can Achieve Greatness." The mistress and master of ceremonies were Zoie Green and John Williams.

One of the most interesting and beautiful pictures we've seen in a long time was previewed in Pasadena the other evening. It was "California," starring Ray Milland, Barbara Stanwyck, and Barry Fitzgerald. It is a Technicolor saga of ole California in the days of the gold rush, and the people against big politicians fighting for statehood. The prologue is scene after scene of California ranging from the setting sun on the Pacific, to the high Sierras. Some of those who were fortunate to see this picture were Anna and Lucille Harrison, Betty Benson, Buddy Foster, Eddie Mills, Paullyn Fisher, Betty and Bobby Jones.

The rail strike caught Thelma Neblett about four hours' ride from her home in Texas. She is on her way to North Carolina to marry the soldier for whom she has been waiting. Congratulations, Thelma. The strike also caught Gloria Bunch in Barstow, Calif., on her way home from Samuel Houston college. She is fine and said that her sister, Jackie, will be here later on in the summer with the Samuel Houston choir.

Congratulations are in order for quite a few Pasadenans. First we take off our hats to Morris Buchanan, who is directing "Moor Born" at LACC. He was very good in dramatics at Pasadena Junior college. He is the first Negro to direct in the drama department at LACC. Our own Roscoe Scally is making a name for himself in the sports world. He is the 1945 lightweight Golden Groves champion and won a decision over Petey Virgin at the Hollywood Legion Stadium last Friday. The Phalanx are up for a bow, too, for they have been given membership in the YMCA of Pasadena. This is truly a great step forward. Mack Robinson and several others were also given membership.

The KKA's hen party was quite the thing. Everyone enjoyed the tocos made by Mom Bessie as always. Chatter continued until the wee hours of the morning. The guests were Walta Williams, Jean Brown, Unise Gross, Audrey Boykins, Mary Scott and Barbara Durham.

Saw Jimmie Lunceford but didn't enjoy him as much as usual. Thought the Slim Gillard's Trio a scream and they really put their songs over. Ivy Anderson put the song "Tall, Dark and Handsome," over with a bang. The Scott's Women's Day went over the top. The women raised $2000. Congratulations.

Renew your membership in the NAACP today. We haven't felt the sting of the KKK in Pasadena as yet, but from the looks of things we need to build up a powerful NAACP.

—Hasta Luego.

Alpha Men Spur Youngsters To Strive For Higher Educations

During the week of May 5 Alpha Delta and Beta Psi Lamba chapters of Alpha Phi Alpha conducted their fraternities' 26th annual "Go to High School, Go to College" campaign, under the co-chairmanship of Albert Jones and Perry Parks, Jr. The "Go to High School, Go to College" campaign is one of the fraternities' projects which endeavors to direct the attention of Negro students to the necessity of continuing their education through the high school and college level.

Varied Programs Held

The highlight of the week was a memorial program at Phillips Temple A.M.E. church in memory of Kenneth Hayes, a member of Alpha Delta Chapter who paid the supreme price, that we may continue our way of life. Major King, the principal speaker, paid him a beautiful and fitting tribute. Dewey Davidson, Grant Venerable and Albert Jones contributed to the program.

On Wednesday, May 8, a panel discussion was held at the 28th street YMCA for Hi-Y clubs. The discusion was directed by Albert Jones and Perry Parks, with Don Barkesdale, nationally famous basketball player of UCLA, as the principal speaker. The boys were told of the creation of the Kenneth Hayes Memorial Scholarship and the challenge it extends to the students who accept it, ot live up to the high standards and noble ideals of the one in whose honor it is given.

Atty. W. Gordon at Jefferson

A highly successful program was conducted at Jefferson High school, aided by Samuel Brown's well trained group. Alpha brought to the students of Jefferson, Joe Oliver, former basketball star of the University of California, woh told of opportunities for athletes in attending universities and colleges, and the highly important concept that athletics and scholarships are complementary. Atty. Walter Gordon was the principal speaker. He addressed the boys on the necessity of preparation in our modern society. Atty. Gordon was well received by an appreciative audience.

Dewey Davidson, western regional director of Alpha, said "the fraternity is highly conscious of the problems facing the new Negro and is gearing its program thorughout the nation to accelerate the wheels of progress in human relations."

Bridge Points

By M. L. Milligan, Sr.
Certified Master Teacher

"Intelligence can never find a common level upon which to meet ignorance."

It is the goal of this column to serve the bridge interests of the bridge playing public. This job has been in progress for the past 16 years and I do hope I will be able to continue for another like period. However, in so doing I hope to find a larger local group well versed in the scientific values of this most fascinating game.

Last week we discussed certain phases of Preference Raises which is like Latin to the unlettered unless one has some knowledge of the requirements for Reverse bidding, and the proper respect for the captain (the opening bidder, until a superior bid is made).

1. The first requisite necessary to reverse is 4 or more honor tricks, and 2 biddable suits.

2. Knowledge concerning the Two-Suiter Rule: With 2 suits, each of which are at least five cards in length, choose as follow: If the suits are unequal in length, bid the longer suit first, if equal bid the higher ranking. If one suit is two cards longer than the other, bid the longer twice before showing the shorter suit.

Examples:

Normal Order		Reverse Order
North	South	North	South
1 S	1 N.T.	1 D	1 N.T.
2 D		2 S

In the first example you note that North bid the higher ranking suit first, and then the lower ranking, which is normal bidding, and convey one of two things to North's partner. The first bid suit is longer, or at most equal in length. Exceptions: Hands with minimum (2 plus to 3 H.T.) and 5-4 distribution for a safe rebid will bid the four-card suit first if higher ranking.

In the second example, North definitely tells his partner that the first bid suit is longer, otherwise he would have bid his spades first; hence regardless of your honor trick holding you're duty bound to respond at this higher level if you hold an equal or more cards in the first bid suit.

A scientific bridge player never reverses the bidding for the purpose of showing honor tricks; reverse bidding definitely shows honor tricks and a positive type of distribution. Don't you think this is correct, Mr. J. D. Dunn and William Davis?

Maytime Brunch Social Keynote

Amid a profusion of various spring flowers, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Rogers entertained more than 50 at a delightful "Maytime" brunch Sunday, May 26, at the palatial apartment of Mrs. Minnie Washington, Mrs. Roger's aunt.

Huge baskets of lemon leaves arranged by Mr. Fred Thornton, decorated the living room. Novelty place cards of Indian design were hand-painted for each guest by the hostess, Cornelia Rogers.

Honored guests were members of the Indian Chieftain's club. Pokeno, bridge and whist were enjoyed by the many guests. Among those present were the Messrs. and Madames William Washington, Russell Herron, Joseph Adams, John Long, Fred Thornton, Kenneth Smith, Robert Brown, Eugene Elster, Oscar White, Otis Bealey, Lawrance Jasper, Ray Hopkins, U. L. Goodwin, Robert Babbs, Jim Reed, Clarence Johnson, Norton Manson, Jack Mitchell, Elsie Jackson, James Miller, Ruby Brown, George Charles, Zoenese Reed, Lorena Deathridge, and Mmes. Harriette B. Leland, Tommie Hegdon, Effie Williams, Aileen Bowen; Messrs. Morgan, Ernest Hodge and George Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rogers, parents of Wellis Rogers, were also honored guests.

Difficulties vanish with knowledge. Skill comes with practice. The pride of accomplishment and the pleasure of feeling well-dressed may be intangible results, but they are no less real than actual savings in dollars and cents.

Hooper Ave.'s May Festival

Hooper Avenue School staged one of the last May Day performances Tuesday morning from 10 to 11:30 a. m. Brilliant colors and stunning styles made the show one of the most outstanding of the season.

Mrs. Myrtle Jordan, sixth grade teacher, designed bonnets for her pupils of turquoise and fuchia which ended the "purk" of modern French demoiselle. Turquoise sashes repeated the bonnet demands in glamorous detail.

Mr. John Merrill, another sixth grade teacher, selected head adornment of blue circles with pink ruffles. These were tilted to the left side of the head. Blue aprons with pink ruffles enlarged the suggestion of color harmony in the round head discs.

Again, fuchia and turquoise made its appearance when Mrs. Edna Cohen, popular fifth grade teacher, gave the influence of the "49ers" in a bonnet that protected the lovely face. The "Covered Wagon" could be enjoyed from the impressions portrayed by these. The boys wore halters with guns to complete the suggestions of early pioneers of the west.

Mrs. Ollie Green, well-konwn fifth grade teacher, did "Pop Goes the Weasel" in the typical Yank style. Red, white and blue were flashed from hats with brims and military bands from shoulder to waist.

Miss Mary Coleman, fourth grade teacher, had multi-colored bonnets, giving the peak of summer colors. Full flowers of many colors could be imagined as these vivacious children circled the campus.

We could go on and on describing these stunning costumes. The members of the faculty expressed much interest and pleasure through the medium of school children. Each class participated in the construction of these gay togs. Crepe paper of many colors was the primary material used.

Chairman and director of the elaborate procession was the outstanding musician and teacher, Mr. Albert McNeil. Mr. Clarence Axtell, principal of Hooper avenue school, had complete reason to be exceedingly proud of faculty and pupils. This was high on the list of gala May Day festivals of the season in the entire city of Los Angeles.

Oaklanders Observe 40th Anniversary

In celebration of their 40th wedding anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. (Toby) James of Oakland were feted at a buffet supper party at the home of their eldest son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Mauranee James, 1516 Fairview street, Berkeley.

Mr. James, formerly a resident of Omaha, Neb., where he served for a number of years as inspector of weights and measures, is the owner of one of the largest wholesale and retail cleaning and dyeing establishments in the Eastbay with offices in Oakland and Berkeley. His sons, Mauranee and Clinton James, are his business associates.

Among those who paid their respects to Mr. and Mrs. James at the anniversary party were: Messrs. and Mesdames William Phipps, Paul Muller, Neeley Wysinger, Samuel S. Schuck, St. Elmo Carlisle, S. J. Magee, Sidney Bernard, L. F. McPherson, Melvin A. Thomas, S. J. Carter, W. H. Dotson, Ray Dotson, Frank K. Thorne, Chester W. Johnson, John Adams Jr., J. C. Williams and Richard R. Gorham Jr.; Mesdames Joyce Kirks and D. Tassin; Messrs. Frank Anderson Jr., Clinton James and Vernon G. McCalla.

George Gershwin, the famous composer, once presented W. C. Handy with an autographed copy of "Rhapsody in Blue," saying that Handy's work was the grandfather of his own.

Doris Newton Crowned "Queen Of Smiles" by Popular Vote

The "Queen of Smiles" Life Membership Tea was held Sunday, May 19, at the Woodlawn Branch YWCA. This tea, which is an annual event sponsored by the Thomas Jefferson High School PTA, was the best ever held regardless of the street car strike and lack of parking space due to the Wrigley Field game.

Mrs. Hazel W. Moore presented her class at Jefferson in the "Crowning of the May Queen All Nations Pageant." Mistress of ceremonies was Lucille Valencia. Miss Doris Newton was crowned the "May Queen of Smiles" by Pauline James. She was awarded a first prize of $25. Second prize was won by Jackie Preston; third prize, Priscilla Chamberlain; fourth prize, Joan Townes; fifth prize, Doris Wineberg; sixth prize, Anne Verdugo, and seventh prize, Helen Carrothers. Judges for the event were Edmond Smith, Eugene Chavez, Phil Ortega and Vernon Dancy. Each contestant will be sent a check. Contributing to the All Nations Pageant were: Maynsie Day, vocal selection, "Because"; trumpet quartet by four boys from Mr. Bouche's band class, and a Spanish vocal selection by the representative from Latin America, Bertha Amesquita.

Mrs. W. J. Gloves, program chairman, presented a very fine program. Some of Los Angeles' finest talent contributed. Mary Louise Whitley was pianist for the day. She is a student in the music department at Jefferson. The tea was a huge financial success and Mrs. L. E. Windsor, president of Jefferson PTA, wishes to thank each and every one for their cooperation and support.

Lower photo shows finish of Class B century. Wall of Jefferson is first; Redd of Dorsey, second, and Starks of Jeff, third. Others bringing up the rear are Lofton (Dorsey), Reed (Poly), and O'Leary (Poly). The time was 10.3s.

By EDDIE BURBRIDGE, Sports Editor

GEORGE A. RAMSEY, well-known turf writer of the CALIFORNIA EAGLE takes over this column space this week, giving you a comprehensive picture of doings at the Hipodrome de Tijuana and a little inside dope on horses now running at Hollywood Park. Mr. Ramsey usually writes the column "ON THE TURF" but he's pinch-hitting for Yours Truly this week. Here 'tis:

—From HIPODROMO DE TIJUANA—THAT LITTLE SON OF BEE LINE-RANCHERITA, Given the name of leadman when he was foaled three years ago at F. L. Burkholder's San Ysidro Ranch, about two miles from Tijuana, again showed that he is a colt to be feared by the best horses on the grounds. This time he beat much older horses than himself by winning the San Ysidro Handicap last Sunday. Taking the lead at the break, Leadman was never in danger, although the Canadian champion Golstreworth and Ventura made bold challenges. However, at the finish it was Leadman by one length, Vetture second and Golstreworth third. Leadman was the favorite and paid $4.00 in the mutuels. The Los Angeles De Luxe Handicap at five and one-half furlongs was won by the stretch Running Reagan, with Stolen Ante the hottest horse in many months, second. Backed down from six to one to even money at post time the best the Special Agent Kia-Ora mare could do was to finish second. In this event the lovely and talented star of stage, screen and radio, Miss Lena Horne crowned the winner. She was escorted to presiding Stewart James J. Murphy charmed stand by General Manager Agustin Silveyra and your writer George A. Ramsey. Introduced by Tom Gwynne, Miss Horne received a great ovation. She also bet on the winner of this event and got a big thrill. It was the first visit to Caliente by this beautiful star. In her party were other noted movie stars. The daily-double paid $48.60 when Billie Girl won the second and Alan the third. In the nite cap known as the Quiniela, the backers that were lucky to hold the winning combination of Dinticount Epinard, received $60.00. It was a great day for the form players when five well backed choices won. The fans got their biggest thrill in the running of the "La Alondra" purse at one-and-one-sixteenth miles. Creole Pass, the stretch running son of By-Pass—Black Mammy, came from far back to lose by a nose decision to After School. This Sunday, Racing Secretary Judge Joe Walter has arranged two feature handicaps to support the twelve race program. The first is the Junio and the feature attraction is the "La Paz" at seven furlongs. The babies again will strut their stuff in the first race. It is a maiden event at four and one-half furlongs. Post time will be 12:15.

AND AT HOLLYWOOD—Going into the second week of it's 55-day season, Hollywood Park will break all records for attendance and mutuel handle despite the strikes. So far Occupy and Honeymoon are the big shot horses to watch in the coming stakes.

Horses to watch and that are ready to win are as follows:—

LATIN AGENT—A good maiden that will soon hit the winning circle.
BILL BARTEM—About seven furlongs for this one.
ENLISTEE—Had a bad post position last out. Stick to him.
FEELING HIGH—Was a little short, will do it next out.
UNTIL NOW—Waiting for the spot.
FUTURE HERO—A speed burner from the Whitney barn.
FLYWEIGHT—Also from the Whitney barn.
TERMITE—About one and one-eight miles.
CEE LOT—Same goes for this one.
CAPT. FLAGG—Another good maiden from the L. B. Mayer stable.
BOTSOON—Will beat $3,000 claimers. Six furlongs.
GALE AHEAD—A fast filly that will score soon.
SEJANUS—Don't let him get away.
HERLAD—A high class claimer that will win at one mile.
WIN BAG—Now this is a goodie stick.
THEY SAY—In smart hands will show his heels to the best.
FLARE PATH—A good distance horse than can't miss.
WAR MOMENT—Just missed the other day. Stick.
BARNETTA—Lots of speed and an early winner.
Z-MAX—Now here is one that will pay off don't let him get away.
GOOD EXCUSE—A nice springer that is ready.
HIGH CARBON—From the Circle B. Ranch, a sleeper.
IN THE BAG—That's what it will be next out.
PAULA'S LUCK—This is my longshot special.

Watch for my column on horses that are ready to win and also the doings at Hollywood.

Louis-Mauriello May Fight For Title If 'Bomber' Wins

NEW YORK—Uncle Mike Jacobs who seems to be busy at other chores beside the job of making himself a neat package on the Conn-Louis go next month, got himself the makings for another good and profitable show in September when Tami Mauriello slugged British Empire heavyweight champ Bruce Woodcock into a fifth round slumber a week or so ago. Woodcock had hardly rinsed the bumers and the hole out of his foggy brain before the wise boys were talking about a September championship go between Mauriello and the winner of the June battle.

Los Angeles White Sox Will Engage Seattle Nine Sunday

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIF.—There's a raft of news emanating from the West Coast Baseball Association, which will be entering its fourth week of play on Sunday, June 2, with some of the finest pairings of the season on tap.

The Fresno franchise has been purchased by the syndicate from San Diego, one of the cities originally sought for the new circuit, and the new owners indicate they have obtained the use of the San Diego Pacific Coast League park for their home games.

On Sunday, June 2, the San Diego team will meet Jesse Owens' Portland Roses at Yakima, Wash., and then the teams will move into Portland for games on the nights of June 4 and 5.

Another highlight is the start of the hectic intercity series Sunday between the San Francisco Sealions and Oakland Larks. The intense rivals play Sunday and June 5 at San Francisco's Seals Stadium and at Oaks Park in Oakland June 4, 6, 7 and 9.

Manager Paul Hardy leads his powerful Seattle Steelheads into Seatt' for the first time this season Sunday, arrangements having been completed for a gala opening at Sick's Stadium with the Los Angeles White Sox furnishing the opposition.

. . . On the Baseball Front

Welch's Cincinnati Crescents meet the Original House of David from Benton Harbor, Mich., in a series of games including a double-header May 30 at Cincinnati's Crosley Field, single games May 31 and June 1 at Springfield, Ohio, and Newark, Ohio, and another twin bill Sunday, June 2, at Red Bird Stadium, Columbus, Ohio.

After a June 3 appearance against a local team at East Liverpool, Ohio, the Crescents move to Offermann Stadium in Buffalo, N. Y., to face the Havana La Palomas June 4.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind.—The Indianapolis Clowns return to Indianapolis' Victory Field for a Memorial Day night doubleheader with the Kansas City Monarchs and then play the Cleveland Buckeyes June 2 at Cleveland; June 3 at Erie, Pa., and June 4 at St. Mary's, Ohio.

After their series ending June 4 with the Cleveland Buckeyes, the Clowns are scheduled for showings June 5 at Indianapolis, June 6 at Columbus, Ohio, at Indianapolis again June 8 and a return double-header with the Chicago American Giants June 9 at Comiskey Park, Chicago.

Roscoe Scally Defeats Virgin

Roscoe Scally, 130, 1945, Golden Gloves lightweight champion, scored a split 10-round decision over the clinching Petey Virgin, 130, last Friday night at Holly-wood Legion Stadium in Hollywood Legion Stadium in the main event. Due to the transit strike only 5,000 fans turned out to watch the grappling Virgin, who used every known wrestling hold on Scally.

There weren't any knockdowns but Scally had Virgin groggy a couple of times during the bout.

In the six-round semi Tony Canelli, 150½, scored a rather easy decision over Augie Lewis, 152.

Joe Walcott in Easy Victory

NEW YORK—Jersey Joe Walcott, 191½, known as the "Brown Cinderella Man," from Camden, N. J., pounded out an easy 10-round decision over Lee Oma, 192¾, whom he floored in the first round, before a crowd of 11,760 fans at Madison Square Gaden last Friday night. Walcott is 32 years of age.

Jordan High New City Track Champs; Jeff Finishes Fourth

Scoring in seven of the 11 events, Jordan High's Bulldogs grabbed top honors in the annual city track fiesta last Saturday afternoon at the Coliseum with Jefferson High, the defending champions, finishing in fourth place tied with Dorsey and Manual Arts with 29 points apiece.

Jordan rolled up 64⅔ points, Washington with 33 markers was second and Belmont with 30 was third.

Jordan won three events, Sam Jackson annexing the 100 in 10.1s.; Charles Woods the broad jump, 22ft. 6in., and the eight-man mile relay squad scoring a speedy win in 3m. 1.6s. Other point scorers for the victors were Jackson, second in the 220; John Finney, third in broad jump, fifth in low hurdles and tie for sixth in pole vault; John Herrington, fifth in high hurdles and tie for sixth in pole vault; Fred Thompson, second in 440 and fourth in 100.

Gonzales Holds Chavez to Draw

Carlos Chavez, 129½, California state featherweight champion, had to work overtime at the Olympic Tuesday night and all he received for his efforts was a draw after a blistering 10-round bout against the clever Baby Gonzales, 128, of Mexico City.

Seven thousand fans watched Gonzales befuddle the champion, whose title wasn't up, with stinging body pnches and a fast left to the head. Chavez earned the early rounds with a sweet left jab but the Baby closed fast, starting with round six. The final round was crammed full of action, with both boys battling toe to toe.

Bert White, 130½, who should hang his gloves up, was duck soup for the inexperienced Jeep Anderson, 132, and fell a victim to a two-round t.k.o. in the scheduled six-round semi-wind-up. On form the Chicago boy figured to lick 10 "Jeeps" but he has developed into just what the Olympic fight program said about him—"a trial horse."

Results of four-rounders: Davie Hernandez, 130½, t.k.o. (2) Nick Diaz, 129½; Baldy Duke, 204, dec. Hardy Williams, 211; Billy McLure, 195, t.k.o. (1) Austin O'Jibway, 210; Al Gonzales, 140½, dec. Billy Mitchell, 142.

Fitzpatrick to Fite Joe Kahut

Fitzy Fitzpatrick, light-heavyweight battler, will fill a return 10-round engagement against Joe Kahut of Portland Tuesday night, June 4, at the Olympic. During April at the same arena Kahut rang up a seven-round t.k.o. over Fitzy and the ex-coal miner will be out for revenge. Since stopping Fitzpatrick the classy Kahut knocked out Bob Nestell in three heats.

Matchmaker Babe McCoy has lined up a star-studded supporting card.

Valentino Nods John Donnelly

SAN FRANCISCO—Pat Valentino, 175, San Francisco, scored a 10-round decision over John Donnelly, 174, Los Angeles, at the Coliseum bowl Monday night.

N. Y. Cubans and Yanks Divide Doubleheader

NEW YORK, N. Y. (Calvin's News Service)—The New York Cubans and Black Yanks came out even in the doubleheader which launched the season at Yankee stadium this week. Seven thousand cheering fans saw the Cubans take the first game, 5-1 but dropped the next, 2-1.

Patricio Scantlebury, a southpaw, did the superb pitching in the first game, and set back his rivals with four safeties, all singles. In the second game, John Stanley starred for the Yankees. Only one run got through left-handed Stanley. It was made by Alex Crespo who blasted a home run right through the right field stands.

MIGUEL RUBI, 148½, Mexico City, decisioned Frankie Russell, 154, Inglewood, in 10 rounds Monday night at Ocean Park.

MINNEAPOLIS—Willie Pep, 127½, world's featherweight champ, New York version, outpointed Jimmie Joyce, 133¾, Gary, Ind., in eight rounds here Monday night.

PROVIDENCE (R. I.)—Charles (Cabby) Lewis, 131, New York, stopped Bill Carroll, 126, Quebec, in the third heat of a scheduled 10-rounder Monday night.

MILWAUKEE—Fritzie Zivic lost a ten-round split decision to Tommy Lemmon of Milwaukee Monday night and immediately announced his retirement from the ring. He had said before the bout that it would be his last.

JIMMY NELSON decisioned Tuffy Reed in 10 rounds at Providence, Rhode Island, last Wednesday night.

Manuel Ortiz Halts Lindsay

Manuel Ortiz, the world's bantamweight champion, scaling exactly 118 pounds, scored a technical knockout over Kenny Lindsay, Canadian titleholder, in 42s. of the fifth round of the scheduled 15-round title fight last Saturday night at Hollywood Legion Stadium.

Lindsay weighed 117 and was thoroughly outclassed by Ortiz. Six thousand fans saw the benefit show.

Memorial Day Midget Races

The 50 lap Memorial Day Sweepstakes, longest night speedway thriller of the season to date, will be the holiday feature Thursday night at Gilmore Stadium. The extra distance for the "mighty midgets" was sanctioned by Al Wessling, regional director of the United Midget Association, following a conference with Dave Koetzla, Gilmore racing director.

Roosevelt Host To All Nations

Roosevelt High School will play host to the second annual All-Nations track meet May 31 (Friday) and Saturday, June 1. A crack meet is expected to develop with competition starting at 3 p. m. on Friday and at 9 a. m. Saturday.

Boston '9' Leads In U. S. Loop

By Hayward Jackson

PITTSBURGH — Following three straight defeats at the hands of the Boston Blues, Owner W. A. "Gus" Greenlee and Manager Red Parnell strengthened weak places in their Pittsburgh Crawfords' lineup and grabbed two games from the Brooklyn Brown Dodgers to enter the win column and make up some much-needed ground on the league-leading Boston Blues, whose steps were continually dogged by rain at Cleveland, Ohio. Brooklyn split even in four games with the Crawfords.

The Brooklyn Brown Dodgers last Thursday at Cambridge, Md., pounded the Craws for a 9-5 victory. On Friday and Saturday at Chrisfield, Md., the Craws won the first game 13-1, but lost Saturday 13-9.

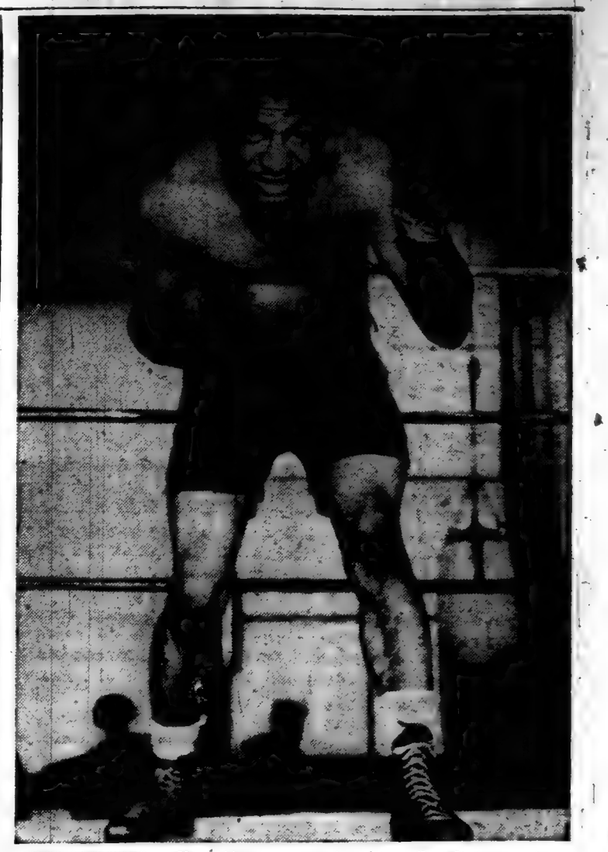
Cisneros Beats Frankie Moore

OAKLAND — Larry Cisneros, 136, a victim of a decision loss to John Thomas recently, scored an easy 10-round decision over Frankie Moore, 136, Oakland, last Wednesday night. Cisneros hails from Questa, Mexico.

Bob Montgomery To Risk Title

NEW YORK—Bob Montgomery, the world's lightweight champion insofar as the State of New York is concerned, is slated to put his title on the line in a 15-round bout against Allie Stolz at Madison Square Garden June 28.



THE WINNER—Cleo Shans, 137, Los Angeles lightweight, pounded out a 10-round decision over Maurice (Lefty) La Chance, 133, Lisbon Falls, Me., in the main event at Fort Hamilton in Brooklyn last Thursday night.

Jimmy Sherrer In Local Debut

Jimmy Sherrer, Milwaukee welterweight, in his local debut, will face Frankie Angustain, in the 10-round main event at Hollywood Legion Stadium Friday night. Sherrer is rated a good fighter and a year ago stopped O'Neill Bell in one round. This is the same Bell that decisioned California Jackie Wilson last December.

A brace of excellent preliminaries will round out the show.

Shans Breaks Arm in Bout Against Millan

BALTIMORE — Both fighters suffered broken arms in one of the most unusual fights on record here Monday night when Charley Millan of Baltimore scored a unanimous 10-round decision over Cleo Shans of Los Angeles in the main event.

Both were compelled to finish the battle with one good hand. Shans fractured a bone in his right arm in the fourth round and was forced to continue from that point with his left only and Millan splintered a bone in his right hand in the sixth session.

JOHNNY HAYNES will fight Tiny Lee here some time in June.

Grays Play N. Y. Cubans

PITTSBURGH, Pa. — The Homestead Grays face the New York Cubans at the Polo Grounds in New York City on Sunday, June 2, in a double-header which is creating considerable interest.

Interest also prevails in the Grays-Phila Stars night game to be played at Pittsburgh's Forbes Field, Friday, June 21st. The Boldenmen appeared in Pittsburgh last year in a four-club feature, but have not faced the Grays in the Oakland Park since 1943.

Hoosman Makes Louis Look Bad

POMPTON LAKES, N. J.—Al Hoosman, tall Los Angeles heavyweight, made Joe Louis look bad in a two-round workout Tuesday. At the end of the tune-up Hoosman occasioned more cheers from the crowd than Joe. Newspapermen commented that Louis' timing was off and he was easily hit.

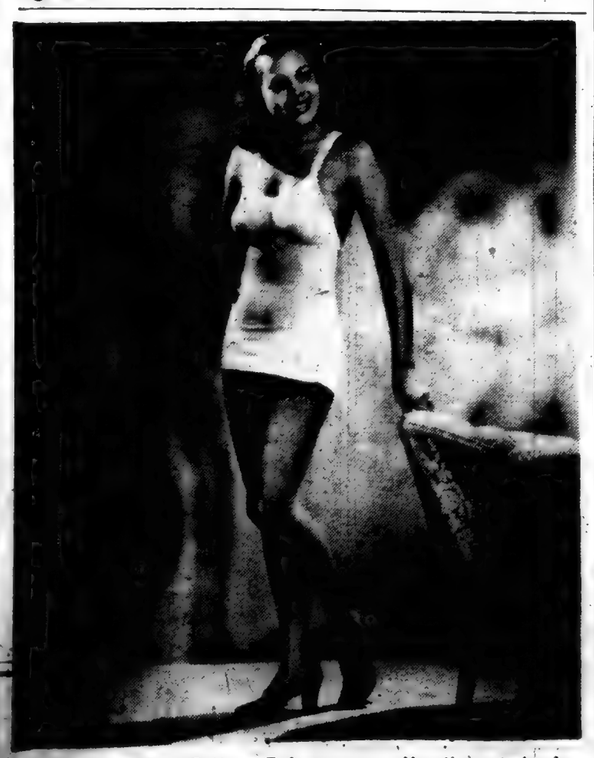
NEW LINES—Charming visitor to the EAGLE office last weekend, Miss Lena Horne, looking chic and on the ball. Incidentally she's going to do this column for Yours Truly in the near future. Rumor had the lovely MGM star in Long Island, in New York City and various other places, so this was cut off like a ripe banana when she showed up here in the flesh . . . You should see Serrita Camargo, dancing star, with her troupe of primitive dancers in the stage production, "Voodoo Island," which opened Wednesday night at the Wilshire-Ebell theatre. It will continue through Saturday night and is well worth seeing . . . Jimmie Lunceford and ork and Slim Gaillard and his merry men of nonsense were tops in the Orpheum show which closed Tuesday. . . . "Jubilee" was fine Monday evening at NBC with Emcee Ernie Whitman introducing in snappy succession; Bobby Sherwood and his orchestra, the Red Callender Trio, the Modernaires and Liz Tilton. Sherwood has a great aggregation and gets off with some solid arrangements. The Callender trio played two numbers that went over big with the audience in a new and distinctive arrangement of "Tea For Two" and "Red Light" . . . Andy Russell with a top revue is currently doing his stuff at the Downtown Orpheum . . . DOWN GOSSIP LANE—Gunned enjoying "Jubilee" Monday eve were: Tina Wallace, Jessie Mae Brown, Yvonne Shepherd, June and Gene Hilyard, Paulette DeJoie, Marcella Monroe, and Cyril Shepherd among many others . . . Out for fun Sunday . . . Annabelle and Norman Bell . . . Seen at the fights in Hollywood last Friday night was Aileen (Cookie) Cooke looking as sharp as all outdoors . . . Down from San Diego for the races at Hollywood track this week is George A. Ramsey, turf reporter of the EAGLE . . . Here on a light visit from the Bay Area was Paul McGee, free-lancing newspaperman. Paul seems to be locating around Oakland. He left the city Tuesday to return to the northern part of the state . . . A fine young couple—Doris and Bill Hyman . . . A Texas contribution to the eastside, not hard to look at—Gladys Watts . . . Expert at movie previewing—Roberta Brown, of the EAGLE advertising department . . . Handy with the pots and pans on bachelor time (like Yours Truly) is Cyril Briggs of the EAGLE editorial department . . . SONG AND DANCE—The King Cole Trio seems to be holding up the Kraft Music Hall program like a trusty pair of suspenders. One critic went so far as to say that if it wasn't for the Cole combo the rest of the troupe might as well fold their tents like the Arabs and as silently steal away (for all the contribution they are making along entertainment lines) . . . Eddie "Rochester" Anderson has been doing a stint at the Zanzibar Club in New York . . . Rumor has it that changes are being made in the Louis Jordan combo. We'll give them to you when we get proof . . . Benny Carter took his orchestra into San Diego and played a three night's engagement last week at the Silver Slipper Club on Imperial avenue . . .Rex Stewart, former Duke Ellington trumpet man, will play his own composition with the New York Philharmonic Symphony Orchestra Friday night. This will mark the first time the Philharmonic has played a jazz composition at Carnegie Hall and the first time a Negro has been honored in this manner . . . Eugene Gash, brilliant concert pianist, who is now residing in San Francisco, may be heard here in July. Plans are materializing for a concert performance here of the young pianist who already has appearances in New York's Town Hall behind him . . . Plans are rapidly being completed for the stage presentations of "name bands" at the Lincoln theatre in conjunction with future bookings of orchestras under Orpheum sponsorship which will play the Orpheum one week and then move on to the Lincoln for an additional week. This will prove a boon and an incentive to bands which only played the normal one week stand at the Orpheum. The orchestras will also be able to accept bookings for dances while here thereby making their West Coast invasions profitable. The Lincoln will be dressed up for her big time debut which will place her in the same category as the Apollo in New York, the Regal in Chicago and the Paradise in Detroit . . . The long awaited opening of "Rhythm Town," formerly called "Jump, Jive 'n Jam," is scheduled for Wednesday, June 5, at the Beaux Arts theatre. According to certain persons in on the know, "Rhythm Town" will be a top-flight musical worth anybody's time to view. With the transit strike over the opening is assured since this is what held up the production another week . . . Speaking of the transit strike we know that there are lots of night club, cafe and breakfast club owners breathing sighs of relief. The recent strike reached a big hand into their individual pockets and clipped them for a pretty sum during the three weeks it endured . . . Ill early this week was Gertrude Gipson, writer of "Candid Comments." However, being a real newspaperwoman she got her column out just the same. Hurry up and get well G. G. so we can resume our perpetual argument.



DANCER—Miss Bettye Quincey, an attractive study in brown, who has successfully appeared in several beauty contests here, is presently half of a duo dance act at a local night spot. Previous to this assignment Miss Quincey filled a long engagement as a single in San Diego.

ON AIR FOR UNITED NEGRO COLLEGE FUND

GALA ALL-STAR RADIO SHOW—The third annual appeal of the United Negro College Fund in New York was spurred last Wednesday in a gala all-star radio show aired over the American Broadcasting Company network as a public service. The artists who contributed their services to the effort to raise $1,300,000 for the 33 member private colleges were (l. to r.) top, Miss Dorothy Maynor, soprano; "Sugar Chile" Robinson, boogie prodigy, and the King Cole Tio; bottom, Quentin Reynolds, noted author and correspondent who performed as master of ceremonies; Art Tatum, blind pianist, and Miss Maxine Sullivan, singer of ballads. Not shown is the Tuskegee Institute choir, in New York for the unveiling ceremonies of the Booker T. Washington bust in the Hall of Fame.

'Rhythm Town' Opens Wednesday Night

Due to the transportation tie-up the large musical play, "Rhythm Town," was again postponed from its expected opening yesterday (Wednesday) at the Beaux Arts until Wednesday, June 5.

A large percentage of past audiences attending the Beaux Arts Theatre depended on street car and bus service direct to the theatre and producers of "Rhythm Town" felt the tie-up which has finally ended would considerably hamper business. All settings for "Rhythm Town" are now hung in the theatre, the cast of 35 is completely rehearsed and ready to go on.

With complete transportation now restored there will be no further holdup of the production. "Rhythm Town" is positively one of the finest musicals ever presented in the city of Los Angeles and the public is urged to purchase tickets early to be assured of attending opening performances.

Lionel Hampton Builds Goodwill

CHICAGO—Lionel Hampton's "Hey Ba Ba Rebop" Revue is rapidly becoming known as a stimulant to building racial goodwill.

The medium is music and Lionel's dynamic personality.

Recently while appearing at Philadelphia's Earle Theatre, the merchants in South Philadelphia awarded Lionel a plaque and pen set for his achievements in encouraging youth and cementing racial goodwill.

Muriel Rahn Maps Concerts To Aid Negro College Fund

NEW YORK—Muriel Rahn, concert and Broadway singing star, is busy mapping out a series of Sunday concerts to aid the fund-raising campaign of the United Negro College Fund. Miss Rahn who prosently is in the enviable spot of drawing a handsome weekly stipend for her non-appearance in the Broadway musical "St. Louis Woman," contacted the officials of the College Fund and made known her willingness to give generously of her talents to their cause. Already she is booked for gratis concerts in several cities on Sunday afternoons.

A tentative schedule calls for appearances by the famous singer in North Carolina, Virginia, South Carolina, West Virginia, Florida and Tennessee. In all concerts given for the benefit of the fund, Miss Rahn will turn over all monies realized other than is needed for her bare expenses.

'Voodoo Island' Now Playing At Wilshire-Ebell

Serrita Camargo, diminutive dancing star, in Human Hair costume, doing the Voodoo Ceremonial Dance to Petro, God of Evil, with her troupe of primitive dancers is featured in the great stage production, "Voodoo Island", which opened May 29th at the Wilshire-Ebell Theatre, for a run of four nights. "Voodoo Island" is a modern three-act play with choral music and dancing.

"Mixed Cast" really means what it says in the production of "Voodoo Island". Besides an all-Negro chorus of trained voices, fully half the members of Serrita Camargo's Dance Group and the all-star dramatic players in the mystic drama of the West Indies, are sepia. Mae Turner appears as "Mambo"; Amos Reese as the Houngan; Don Ford as "Jacques". Music for the show is written by Sammy Scott, his first since being discharged from the service. The splendid choral group, lead by Professor Wilkins, will perform new numbers including "Voodoo Carnival", "Erzuline Blues", "Gambi Walk", authentic chants of Voodooland, and many others.

Brown Dots to Take Time Out

NEW YORK—Deek Watson and his Brown Dots have advised their manager, Moe Gale, that they are "unavailable" for any engagements for the next two weeks. The interim is to be used for intensive rehearsals and experimentation with new harmony ideas and several novelty numbers.

The current Gary Cooper starrer at Warner Bros. is titled "Cloak and Dagger" because operatives of General Donovan's Office of Strategic Service were dubbed "cloak and dagger" men around Washington during the late World War.

Record News And Reviews

When Count Basie played a one-night stand recently at the London Arena in London, Ontario, Harry Law, operator of the Arena, arranged to have the Hammond electric organ moved from the sound booth to the bandstand. After much persuasion, the Count played his famous composition "Basie Boogie," accompanied by the band, on the organ. This is the first time Count Basie ever played the organ in public at a dance. He will, however, emerge as an organ soloist this summer when he will present a series of jazz concerts in Boston, Philadelphia, New York, Chicago, and Hollywood, featuring his band and introducing a new, three-movement work called "Royal Suite."

Swing fans will have a ball with Cab Calloway's 'Rhapsody in Reverse," based on the tunes of the longhairs. The King of Hi-De-Ho has switched from his swing originals and is currently knocking himself out on a jive score for "Romeo and Juliet."

BUFFALO FEAST

Banquet scenes to be filmed this week for Warner Bros.' drama, "Cheyenne," will feature genuine buffalo steaks, enroute by air from a bison ranch near Salt Lake City, Utah.

Caleb Peterson Booked Into Harlem's Swanky Club Sudan

NEW YORK—Caleb Peterson, Jr., who has been hailed as the "New Othello" throughout America as a result of his sensational performance of that role a few weeks ago in Los Angeles, at the Biltmore Hotel Auditorium, is soon to open under a limited engagement contract in the next show at Harlem's "Club Sudan."

Mr. Peterson comes to the Sudan after having recently completed working with Lena Horne in "Till The Clouds Go By" for Metro Goldwyn Mayer. He also completed recently "Till the end of time" for RKO pictures. The actor-singer performs a 12 minute sequence in the MGM picture as he sings the immortal Jerome Kern Melody "Old Man River." Plans are being explored to ascertain the possibility of Mr. Peterson and his Hollywood cast performing "Othello" at the "Watergate" in Washington, D. C.

Meanwhile, Mr. Peterson is giving vocal concerts with excerpts from the original "Othello" consuming the latter half of the program. He intends to secure bookings for full presentations of "Othello" in the deep south with a mixed cast.

AT BENGASI CLUB—Evanna Cotton, one of America's most talented performers, who has appeared at the Three Deuces, the Garrick Stage Bar, the Susie Q of Chicago and the Americanna Cafe in Los Angeles, will now sing and play your favorite requests at the Bengasi Breakfast Club, 701 E. Jefferson Blvd., corner S. San Pedro, where there is always fine food and entertainment. Come early and stay late.

Four Sepians Star in Police Show Success

Four top-flight Sepian entertainers, Helen Humes and the Will Mastin Trio are being given thunderous applause for their efforts in the 12th Annual Police Show currently at the Shrine Auditorium.

Sammy Davis, Jr., of the Mastin Trio, a dance group, is a real standout especially in his imitation of Danny Kaye. The other members of the trio show to advantage in dance steps. The night this writer attended Red Skelton was the guest star and wowed the packed house but he and Helen Humes had to perform before a dead mike, Miss Humes altogether and Skelton partially, the repairs being completed during his act. Despite this tremendous handicap Miss Humes sang well and was given a fine hand for going through with her numbers under stress.

The 1946 version of the show is streamlined to perfection with beautiful costumes and scenery and great talent. The lighting effects were also above par. Stefa Delys, prima ballerina, Charley the Horse, the Great Gregoresko, Ramos and Nanette, Bedell and Mattson were especially good with Dick Lane serving as a snappy emcee and Mario Silva excellently conducting the orchestra. It is a show well worth seeing. Better hurry.

SCANNIN' THE NEWS TICKER TAPE

In spite of these "frantic, freakish" pains running through us, on our sick bed . . . we managed to still pen a column for you this week . . . The Lunceford show at the Orpheum as expected was a fast moving show, packed with nothing but talent . . . it was great seeing "Ivie" still as lovely and still tops in the entertainment world . . . The jovial Jimmy Lunceford led his boys through some torrid tempered arrangements that really "gassed" us. The "Slim" Gaillard trio . . . great as always and the lads with the "educated" feet, known to the world as "The Business Men of Rhythm."

Have a Laff Dept: — Some new magazine labeled "Today" advocates the doing away with dialect jokes depicting the Negro in a "yes suh" "sho nuf," yet in its own pages, every edition is the same type of jokes, they are trying to suppress . . . In short, Ladies and Gentlemen, people who live in "Tin Houses" shouldn't throw "can openers."

Lovely Dottie Webster has taken her "hour glass" figure and her seductive style of singing to Lew Leroy's "New Cotton Club" . . . Aha! Ardie Graves gives us his def. of a gentleman . . . "A gentleman," he says, "is one who can look at Caludell Hines and still act like one." . . . For your benefit this column is definitely endorsing Rev. Clayton D. Russell in the 2nd district.

NOTES—NEWS AND NONSENSE

The much talked about formal on June 8th is being given by some very attractive ladies known as "The Golindrinas." . . . The social crowd like him because he is a member in good standing with all of the "known organizations." . . . The common crowd like him because he's impartial . . . The church crowd like him because of his ever-willingnes to help people and your columnist thinks he's great 'cause any "doc" who can handle a complicated case like mine "has got to be great." . . . Ha, ha, we're talkin' about Dr. Welles Forde . . . An orchid from our garden to Dorothy and Genevieve Wodson on that "great" hair style show at the Plantation, although the beauticians of the city displayed poor co-operation, the show was one of the greatest I've seen yet and at that, I'm puttin' it mild . . . In spite of her liking for beer, Claudia Ashton still has the kind of figure you see only in well dressed bathing suits . . . It is widely cocktailed rumored that one of the "stems" popular playboys, Chuck Burris, pulled a "natch" when he eloped with Vicky . . . The current flu epidemic, pooh, pooing the idea that Vitamin pills are a cold preventative.

NOTES FROM A NEWSGIRL'S NOTEBOOK

Congrats to Valaida Snow who left abruptly (T.W.A.) for New York where she is to appear over a national network . . . J. B. Brown (the Jack Doyle) of the Angel City circles looking great after his serious illness . . . so is another individual . . . can't think of her name, but she was sick just about the same time Mr. "B" was.

Don't know what nite-life lovers are gonna do for (sepia) night clubs, since Curtis Mosby has decided to turn his Alabam into an "after-hour" spot—from 12 to 5 a. m. . . . Aha!! "29" tells us "Allure is something that evaporates if the sweater is two sizes too large." . . . Word from L. A.'s attractive Harriett Wadely, informs us that the "Big Apple" is great and the place is really jumping . . . Aside to Taylor Cooper of the Finale Club: We haven't forgotten our appointment, but we're just now on the "ill side." . . . Bing Crosby and Eddie Heywood's platter of "Who's Sorry Now?" is ultra, ultra!! . . . Hear that Bettye Quincey and Michal's interpretative dancing at Cafe Society is worth talking about . . . Incidentally, you can add the name of Faustina Johnson to your list of No. 1 M.C.'s . . . Al Austin's Casa Blanca is still packin' 'em in, fine food, good entertainment and genuine hospitality is the magnet that draws the crowd . . . With the help of and cooperation of EVERYBODY (and that leaves no one out) we'll have one of the finest modernized hospitals of today . . . The West View Hospital is to be located at 54th and Main will be right up to the minute, serving L. A. as a whole . . . Well, it's about time to type (30) for the day, which means "that's all."

The Trojans of Southern California captured team honors in the Coliseum invitational track and field meet last Saturday.

La Fitzgerald Spurns Offer

NEW YORK — Ella Fitzgerald, the Tisket-Tasket girl, won't be singing her swinging nursery rhymes for the entertainment seekers of Madrid—at least not for quite a while. This fact was emphasized by the singer here this week when she flatly turned down an engagement proffered her by the Peter Maurice Agency of London for a personal appearance in the Spanish capital in mid-January. Miss Fitzgerald explained that she would not consider any engagement anywhere in Spain during the present Franco rule.

Lee Gaines Bangs Jackpot With New Decca Recording

One of the most promising lyric writers to hit the big time in recent months is handsome Le Gaines, bass singer with the Delta Rhythm Boys, whose latest work, "Just a-Sittin' and a-Rockin'," has zoomed higher into the hit parade class.

Gaines' specialty is putting words to established instrumental numbers.

He gets an inspiration by listening to a certain tune and then spends hours in solitude while he puts his feelings on paper. He usually blossoms forth with a hit.

LEE GAINES

The procedure was the same with the Duke Ellington-Billy Strayhorn musical version of "Just a-Sittin' and a-Rockin'."

The Delta Rhythm Boys recorded the tune several months ago for Decca. It proved such a tremendous hit that the sensational quartet has re-recorded the song, this time accompanied by Charley Barnett's band.

Sees New Trend For Negro in Opera Casting

By JOHN M. LEE

NEW YORK — When the New York Opera Company presented Puccini's "Madame Butterfly" at the New York City Center earlier this month, it marked what observers say is the beginning of a new trend in grand opera casting. For the first time in history a Negro singer sang the role of Clo-Clo-San, and the result was a flood of reports that Negro singers will be taken into the sacrosanct precincts of the Met on a full time basis before many moons.

The young lady responsible for the current enthusiasm for Negro voices in grand opera is Miss Camilla Williams, a soprano of excellent ability. Making her debut in the title role, Miss Williams delighted and pleased with her singing, and her ability to give a convincing portrayal of her assigned character.

OF CABBAGES AND KINGS
By Vaughn Flatzer

There are two Hattie McDaniels—at least from the entertainment standpoint. There is the Hattie McDaniels best known to motion picture audiences — the domestic servant always portrayed as a member of the family.

And there is the Hattie McDaniels best known to her friends and associates in the studio—a truly great song and dance performer.

Strangely enough, the buxom character actress is never seen on the screen displaying the talents which made her a successful vaudeville, radio, and legitimate stage actress, namely her ability to sing and dance in the best traditions of show business.

But she doesn't complain, when type casting can bring an Academy Award—and she is the first of her race ever to win the coveted Oscar, "Gone With the Wind" being the picture—"It sure is a pleasure," in Hattie's own words.

In addition, playing cook, nurse and general bottlewasher has brought fame, money, friends the world over, and even a certificate signed by Franklin Delano Roosevelt attesting to her part in the betterment of conditions for her people.

Miss McDaniel's most recent roles have been at Warner Bros. as April in 'Janie Gets Married" which stars Joan Leslie and Robert Hutton, and as Cozy, the nurse to Patti Brady, the 8-year-old daughter of Errol Flynn and Eleanor Parker in "Never Say Good-bye."

"All through the pictures, they keep asking me whether I'm keeping fit for the party which always celebrates the end of shooting," chuckles Hattie. "They ask me to keep strict training for my dancing. I can't see what's so strange about a fat person dancing, but how they laugh and carry on."

And when that good-natured gal whose heart is admittedly bigger than her wide girth gives with singing and trucking in that old favorite, "St. Louis Blues," filmdom's greatest stars sit in rapt appreciation of a fine performer.

Songs from "Showboat" generally follow with Hattie begging off after the fifth encore of "Can't Help Lovin' Dat Man of Mine."

"TEXAS THE GREAT"

Andrew L. Stone, independent United Artists producer, and one of Hollywoods' outstanding writer-directors for the past 20 years, disclosed plans for the making of "Texas The Great," a $4,000,000 Technicolor production.

The Boots and Saddle newly formed riding club held their weekly Sunday morning ride last Sunday at the Flying Circle ranch with more than twenty members in attendance. After a two-hour riding session the club hosted the male counterpart Buckaroo riding club to breakfast at the Elbow Bend.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Mamie Remey, 639 E. 55th St. Dorothy Lewis and Gwendolyn Valentine were guests of the club.

NAACP-Sponsored Conference Sets Up United Action Committee

Delegates from 35 organizations attended the emergency conference sponsored by the NAACP last Saturday at the Trinity Baptist church, and mapped out a program of coordinated and united action to combat the Ku Klux Klan, restrictive covenants and other evils of prejudice and discrimination.

The following subjects were ably presented by speakers well versed in local conditions: "Adequate Housing," by Frank Wilkinson, special assistant to the executive director of the Los Angeles City Housing Authority; "Restrictive Covenants," by Loren Miller; "Employment for Minorities," by Charles Bratt, state minorities specialist of the USES; "California State FEPC," by Assemblyman Augustus Hawkins; "Adequate Public Facilities," by Leon H. Washington, Jr.; "The Ku Klux Klan," by Carey McWilliams," and "Proper Law Enforcement," by Mrs. Charlotta A. Bass, editor of The EAGLE.

Resolutions were adopted calling for passage of the Wagner-Ellender-Taft bill to assist moderate and lower income groups to secure decent housing; retention of USES under federal control until January, 1947; legislation by congress to prohibit segregation and racial discrimination in the U. S., and its possessions.

The conference established a united action committee, with one representative from each group represented, and power to broaden itself with representatives of other organizations desirous of supporting the objectives of the conference.

It referred to the action committee for "investigation and action," a motion for support of the National Civil Rights Congress, which is conducting an aggressive fight against the increasing attacks on, and frame-ups of, Negroes.

The celebration commemorates the first runnings of automobiles in Detroit in 1896 and the first raising of the American Flag over the city—then just an outpost of civilization in the old Northwest—in 1796.

Bible Drill at People's Holiness

The People's Holiness church, 1219 E. Adams blvd., is holding a Bible drill, Sunday, June 2 at 3 p. m.

"We will heal pains in your body and mind," declares Bishop M. R. Williams. "In Jesus' name, come and be healed," he urges.

Christian Science Topic Denounces Mesmerism

The Golden Text of the Sunday Lesson-Sermon in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, is from Psalms: "My flesh and my heart faileth: but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion for ever. For, lo, they that are far from thee shall perish." "Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced" is the subject.

A Scriptural account from The Acts reports that "the people with one accord gave heed unto those things which Philip spake, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did . . . . But there was a certain man, called Simon, which before-time in the same city used sorcery, and bewitched the people of Samaria, giving out that himself was some great one: . . . But when they believed Philip preaching the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, . . . Then Simon himself believed also: and . . . he continued with Philip, and wondered, beholding the miracles and signs which were done."

Mary Baker Eddy says in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures:" "All unscientific mental practice is erroneous and powerless, and should be understood and so rendered fruitless. The genuine Christian Scientist is adding to his patient's mental and moral power, and is increasing his patient's spirituality while restoring him physically through divine Love."

Funeral Service For Mrs. Cline

Funeral services for Mrs. Annie Roberts Cline, 73, daughter of one of the pioneer organizers of the A.M.E. Zion church, were held Thursday from the Zion church at Pico and Paloma. Rev. S. H. Marion officiated.

A resident of Los Angeles since 1940, when she moved to Los Angeles from Asheville, N. C., Mrs. Cline died suddenly Sunday, May 19, at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Willie Roberts, 1529 W. 37th place, from a heart attack.

Only a week before her death Mrs. Cline had observed her 73rd birthday anniversary. She was born on May 12, 1873, at Kings Mountain, N. C., to Caleb and Julia Ann Roberts. Her father, who had learned to read and write early in life even though born in slavery, became a pioneer organizer and builder as a Zion minister. Today a church he founded, Old Vestibule, stands in Kings Mountain to the memory of its builder and first pastor.

Like her 14 brothers and sisters, Mrs. Cline was given the best education her parents could afford. She was a graduate of Lincoln academy, N. C.

She was married in 1891 to Walter Cline and became the mother of 12 children, all of whom were born and reared in Asheville. An industrious church worker, who served faithfully for many years as a stewardess and a missionary worker at Hookins chapel, Asheville.

In 1940, six years after the death of her husband, Mrs. Cline, because of her own failing health, came to Los Angeles to live.

Among the survivors are a brother, Rev. Jacob C. Roberts, for 60 years a California resident and long a Zion minister; and daughters Mrs. Gertrude Martin, Youngstown, Ohio; Mrs. Oma Miller, San Francisco; Mrs. Vivian Cooper, Asheville; Mrs. Willie Roberts, Mrs. Beatrice Zellar, and Mrs. Mildred Mack, all of Los Angeles; and Mrs. Frances Robeson, New York City, and Mrs. Blanche Borland of Brooklyn, both of whom flew here for the funeral ceremony; and two sons, Edward and Marcus Cline, Los Angeles. A daughter-in-law, Mrs. Marie Cline, also resides here.

Mrs. Robeson's husband, the Rev. B. C. Robeson, brother of Paul Robeson and pastor of the Mother A.M.E. Zion church in New York City, is a former pastor of the Zion church at Pico and Paloma streets, Los Angeles. Dola Miller, another son-in-law and a former instructor in Tuskegee institute's manual training department, now is employed in construction work for federal housing projects in San Francisco. Other sons-in-law are P. W. Zeller, Cyril Borland, and Garland Cooper.

Also mourning Mrs. Cline's passing are 11 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

BIBLE QUESTIONS ANSWERED BY THE VOICE of PROPHECY
INTERNATIONAL BIBLE BROADCASTER

Question—When Jesus was here, do you think he really expected to come back to this earth?

Answer—He said: "I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto Myself; that where I am, there ye may be also." John 14:2, 3.

Q.—Is there any way to figure out the day when Christ will come?

A.—Jesus said: "But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, but My Father only." Matthew 24:36.

Q.—What is the abomination spoken of in Matthew 24:15?

A.—Let us read the text: "When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand)." The same thought is expressed in Luke 21:20 and shows that it means the Roman armies that were to surround Jerusalem and destroy it in A. D. 70.

Q.—Don't you think the world generally will turn to God before Christ returns?

A.—That is not the Bible picture, as we see it in Matthew 24:37-39: "But as the days of Noe were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, and knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be." (See also Genesis 6:5.)

Q.—Since the day of the Lord is coming like a thief, how can anybody know anything about it?

A.—In reply we read 1 Thessalonians 5:2-4: "For yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night. For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape. But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief." Notice, the day of the Lord comes as a thief to those who are saying, "Peace and safety," but not so to those who are called "brethren."

Ed. Note: Address your questions to the BIBLE QUESTION COLUMN, The Voice of Prophecy, Box 55, Los Angeles 53, Calif. Bible questions of general interest will be answered in this column as space permits.

DR. ZETAR SAYS:

Our methods attack the basic cause of many common ailments. Backache and joint pains and most of the rheumatics, such as neuritis, lumbago, rheumatism, arthritis, neuralgia and sciatica, etc., are due to joint distortions or toxemia, therefore, unless the basic cause of these ailments are treated only temporary relief can be accomplished.

It is no illusion with me after years of successful practice, but it is a scientific fact, based on exact observation and correct thinking that Chiropractic treatments do bring wonderful results, especially in the rheumatics, joint-distortions, nerve and circulatory disorders and most of the gastro-intestinal ailments; also Dr. Zetar has specialized in the correction of Foot Disabilities for many years, so if you are in need of FOOT COMFORT, why suffer, when there are tried and proven methods of treatments to help you. You will not go wrong to consult us on these problems.

Baha'i Lecture

"The Path of True Liberty" is the subject of the lecture to be given by Virginia Foster on Sunday, June 2, at 3 p. m. at Los Angeles Baha'i headquarters, 331 S. New Hampshire avenue. The Baha'i faith recognizes the unity of God and His prophets, upholds the principle of an unfettered search after truth, condemns all forms of superstition and prejudice, teaches that the fundamental purpose of religion is to promote concord and harmony, that it must go hand in hand with science and that it constitutes the sole and ultimate basis of a peaceful, an ordered and progressive society. It inculcates the principle of equal opportunity, rights and privileges for both sexes, advocates compulsory education, abolishes extremes of poverty and wealth, exalts work performed in the spirit of service to the rank of worship, recommends the adoption of an auxiliary international language, and provides the necessary agencies for the establishment and safeguarding of a permanent and universal peace.

Welfare Groups Merg

A merger of Los Angeles Area War Chest and the Community Chest was effected by nearly 1000 representative citizens, voluntary leaders in patriotic and charitable campaigns, who met on Monday in the Biltmore Bowl. The newly formed organization is known as the Welfare Federation of the Los Angeles area.

Neil Petree, president of the War Chest, which was formally dissolved at the meeting, emphasized that volunteer efforts must be coordinated if all those requiring aid in the 750 square miles served by the Federation were to be efficiently served, especially as th Los Angles area now faces the greatest and most rapid expansion of any metropolitan area in the country.

Mother of 1946 on OPA Advisory Comm.

WASHINGTON—An interesting sidelight on Mrs. Emma C. Clement, of Louisville, Ky., who was chosen American Mother of 1946, i sthat Mrs. Clement is a member of the consumer advisory committee of the Office of Price Administration in her city.

Next to her church work, Mrs. Clement has been most ardent in support of price control and is helping to make it work in Louisville.

"Only through the cooperation of consumers generally, and especially the women, can price control be made to work," Mrs. Clement said in a recent interview.

Political Pot-Pie

Along about June 4 we will all make our way to the polls, what with streetcars running and all, to vote for the people we think will best serve us in the various public offices.

But before we mark that all important ballot, we oughta kinda scan the records in an effort to see what the candidates stand for. And what is more important, what have they said and done about us particularly.

Let's start with the office of Governor for the State of California. Our present Governor has done a lot of thing but not one thing for the people. He had many opportunities but he muffed them all. We won't talk about the things he could have done or should have done, because the fact remains that he hasn't done them. And so we look to the other candidates for a Governor, who will serve the people, and not special groups and special interests to the best of his ability.

We think that Robert W. Kenny is just such a man. Where the issues involved have been termed "politically dangerous" Bob Kenny has taken a firm stand. He has fought the Ku Klux Klan to a point where it is now outlawed in the State of California. He has gone on record against restrictive covenants, for FEPC, and other progressive legislation. Where Warren failed, Kenny intends to make up for four wasted years. Adequate housing and better employment measures will be initiated by Kenny. Warren has done neither. As attorney general, as state senator and as judge, Kenny has chalked up an enviable record. He is better fitted now for the governorship of California than Earl Warren, even with his four years of experience. Then, too, judging from the endorsements, and all from progressive groups, Kenny should win in a walk.

Since the incumbent Lt. Governor will not be in the race, there is no comparison to be made except between candidates who aspire to this office. The results of the June 4 primaries will show that State Senator John F. Shelley received the Democratic nomination for Lt. Governor. Of all candidates seeking this office Shelley has the best record. The Shelley Disability Bill recently passed in the state legislature has been acclaimed one of the most progressive pieces of legislation ever enacted.

Edmund G. Brown, district attorney of San Francsico, is the best bet for attorney general. He was elected to this office in an amazing upset of a 24 year reign by both Democrats and Republicans. Attorney-General Kenny selected Brown as best qualified to carry on the liberal program he had started in the attorney general's office. Edmund Brown has proven that he wil not tolerate in any manner discrimination because of color or creed. His stiffest opposition may come from Fred N. Howser, Dist. attorney of Los Angeles county.

John H. Carter, attorney, has the N.C.P.A.C. endorsement as well as many other imoprtant endorsements over the incumbent Thomas H. Kuchel, for state controller.

Lucille Gleason, the only woman candidate seeking a state office, will be supported by progressives of both Democrat and Republican parties for Secretary of State.

Ellis Patterson, running for the senate, should be elected. His bigest opposition comes not from the incumbent, Senator Knowland, but from Will Rogers, Jr.

From where we sit, it looks as if Claude L. Welch will give Jack B. Tenny a resounding defeat, in the race for state senator. Claude L. Welch is a well known crusader and has every worthwhile endorsement. Tenny may be unseated in the primaries. (We hope).

Other state offices where there is a contest are supt. of public instruction and state board of equilization. Dewey Anderson, noted educator, has most of the endorsement for the office of supt. of public instruction, while William G. Bonelli, member of state board of equilization, 4th district, may have some tough sledding in this election.

The progressive candidates will win out by a large majority in the congressional races. In the 13th, the Hon. Ned Healy, incumbent, has all of the important endorsements. In the 14th, the Hon. Helen Gahagan Douglas, incumbent, will poll the largest vote and should retain her office after the primaries. In the 15th, Robert Clark has all the worthwhile endorsements over the incumbent Gordon McDonough. Emmet Lavery is the best bet in the 16th, but he may have strong opposition from the incumbent Leland Ford.

Where there are more offices there are more candidates. This is the case in the state assembly. In the 40th the incumbent William Rosenthall has the progressive endorsements. In the 55th there may be a contest, but the Hon. Vernon Kilpatrick, the incumbent is sure to retain his seat. In the 57th, Frank Scully is the progressives' hope. In the 62nd, the Hon. Augustus Hawkins, incumbent and dean of California legislators, has little or no opposition. He will win out in the primaries by a large majority. In the 63rd, Vernon Robinson, progressive candidate with progressive endorsements, opposes Don Allen, incumbent. Robinson is on record against restrictive covenants and for the FEPC. In the 65th Lloyd Saunders has gained the worthwhile endorsements over the incumbent. In the 66th the Hon. Jack Mansion, incumbent, faces little opposition. In the 67th, Rev. Paul Marshall, eminent minister, may get the nomination.

L. A. county contests are for the offices of sheriff, assessor, and supervisor. Sheriff Biscailuz is being opposed by Paul M. Halapoff. County Assessor John R. Quinn's chief opposition is Ernest A. Stewart, Rev. Clayton D. Russell, militant young minister, has captured every worthwhile endorsement over the incumbent, Leonard Roach, for the office of supervisor in the second dist.

Rev. Russell may carry the election by a large majority.

Incumbent judges in superior court offices one, three, five, eight, ten and 11 face opposition. Thomas C. Gould, incumbent in office number one has the endorsements. In office No. three, Myron Westover, veteran judge of the superior court and incumbent, will retain his seat on the bench. In office number five Frank M. Smith, incumbent, is opposed by H. Gregory Brilliant, Robert E. Corkery, Atty., has the imoprtant endorsements over Clarence M. Hanson, incumbent in office No. eight. John Beardsley,, incumbent in office No. ten will win easily. In office No. eleven A. Noah Borah, atty., carrying every progressive endorsement, is opposing Alan W. Asburn, incumbent, who rendered the unfavorable decisions in the laws' case. M.J.H.

Start Drive to Save UN Body on Women

NEW YORK—The Congress of American Women this week was mobilizing women's organizations throughout the nation and the world to urge UN Secretary-General Trygve Lie to continue and expand the work of the UN sub-commission on women.

A move to abolish the sub-commission originated last week in the commission on human rights after the sub-commission had submitted a 2000 word report which calls for "women's equality with men in all fields of human enterprise."

Students Suggest Negro Professor For Vacant Post

HAVERFORD, Pa.—Students of Haverford college were so impressed by an address by Dr. Ira Reid, Atlanta university sociologist, that an editorial in the college newspaper suggested that the well-known college employ Dr. Reid to fill a coming vacancy in the sociology department.

"Dr. Reid is the kind of man we want on our faculty," the editorial stated.

There is only one Negro student at Haverford.

Klan Outlawing Only First Step, Says Burough

"The outlawing of the Ku Klux Klan in California is only the first step," Reuben W. Borough, candidate for congress in the 20th district, told his audience at a Democratic rally at the John Marshall Junior high school Monday evening, at which Lena Horne and Earl Robinson were guest entertainers, with Averill Burman acting as master of ceremonies.

"The fight must and shall be made on a national scale," Borough continued. "Restrictive Covenants, attempts to segregate children of minority groups in the public schools, vicious poll-tax legislation, and discrimination in employment, all stem from the fact that such groups as the Klan are tolerated in the United States.

Borough then read a wire which he had sent to Senator Sheridan Downey, protesting President Truman's proposed draft of strikers into the armed forces, and urging that he lend every effort to defeat the pending legislation.

Borough has been endorsed by the C. I. O. Political Action Committee, National Citizens Political Action Committee, Progressive AFL; State, County and Municipal Workers of America, CIO 246 of which he is an honorary member, American Federation of Teachers, AFL, and the Hollywood Independent Citizens Committee of the Arts, Sciences and Professions.

On the question of retaining price ceilings on automobiles, radios and other manufactured goods, the vote was 66 per cent in favor, 27 per cent opposed, 7 per cent undecided.

READ THESE TESTIMONIALS

"I was told by doctors when a pain was attacking me on my right abdomen ten years ago, that I had appendicitis. Since then I have always had the same spells; sometimes acute and sometimes mild. Whenever I had one of these acute spells I lost weight rapidly. On January 4th, 1928, I started using your method and now, in so short a time, I am rid of the pain entirely and am gaining weight. May I thank you and endorse your natural method to anyone suffering from a similar cause." (Signed) J. A. A.—Los Angeles, Calif.

"I have been troubled with bleeding and protruding piles for about 25 years and have tried almost every kind of treatment but none gave me any relief at all. I went to the doctor and after taking a few treatments with them I am satisfied that the treatment has done more than what he claimed it would do. I now feel like a new man." (Signed) E. R. T.—Los Angeles, Calif.

Hoping to relieve the neuralgia of my face, neck and limbs, I went to seven or eight doctors in the last several years. Oftentimes the pain seems to be everywhere. My legs were sore and most painful and I seemed to always be tired and strengthless. Besides the neuralgia pains, my ears were stuffy and I caught colds very easily. I was also troubled with tonsilitis. Nothing had helped me until I tried Dr. Ipp's method on the thirty-first day of last month. Now all such troubles as neuralgia, stuffy ears, and tonsilitis are well. Not only am I recommending these remedies to you whom I do not know, but I also am going to have my parents, who are both sick, take these wonderful Chinese treatments." (Signed) G. W. H.—Los Angeles, Calif.

For four years I had constant headaches and a burning feeling in uterus. My menstruation was very irregular and came as often as every few days. My doctor diagnosed the case as tumor of the uterus and said there would be no cure without an operation. I took the natural remedy and within a week I discharged about twenty blood clots, each was at least the size of my fist. Now my headaches are gone and I do not have the burning feeling anymore. I am confident that natural method is better than a knife." (Signed) Mrs. S. L.—Los Angeles, Calif.

"I would feel obligated if I were not to express my hearty appreciation for the benefit my mother received by taking Dr. Ipp's Chinese treatments which saved her life. She suffered for seven months with abdominal malignant tumor or cancer complicated with vaginal hemorrhage and diarrhea. We took her to several well-known doctors who were unable to help her any except by prescribing dope to relieve the pain and advising us to send her to a hospital. This we did, and while there she underwent an operation which did not benefit her any way as a month later she was in a worse condition than before. After this we consulted other doctors who caused us to lose all hopes for her recovery by telling us nothing could be done for her. Then we were recommended to consult this specialist. Right after taking the treatments her pain disappeared together with the hemorrhage and diarrhea. Now her health is even better than before her sickness, much to the surprise and unbelief of the doctor who had treated her. I will be only too glad to give any further particulars of my mother's case as a matter of appreciation for the kindness shown to her." (Signed) R. A.—Los Angeles, Calif.

"It is a pleasure on my part to offer this testimonial of the method for health. I was suddenly stricken with a very severe kind of inflammatory rheumatism. All my joints were swollen; I was unable to walk, the pain intense, and I ran a very high fever. I started taking your treatment and after a few days my fever was gone, my pain less intense, and by faithfulness to the method I was able to walk again in six weeks, and most of all, all my rheumatism was gone." (Signed) Mrs. M. L., Los Angeles, Calif.

"For fifteen years I suffered with a conditions of the hands and arms which some doctors said was eczema and others said it was diabetes. My arms were red, swollen, spoiled by blood and irritated by itching and fever. When I scratched them water ran from the skin. I went to every kind of doctor for relief and was with each doctor for a year or more, without obtaining any relief. One day, while in town, I stopped in the specialist's office and consulted the doctor there. I started the internal and external treatments, at once, with which he soon cured me. My hands and arms now look smooth and normal, just as they did fifteen years ago, before this condition existed. For the relief and benefit which he gave me I heartily recommend his method to anyone who suffers from this disease as I have." (Signed) Mrs. L. D. B.—Los Angeles, Calif.

"I had suffered with gallstones for about one year, felt sharp pains under my right hip, had pains in the stomach, often vomited, and sometimes had a backache. My doctor told me that I must have an operation, but I was recommended to see you first, by a friend who has been helped by your method. On June first I started to take the treatment. Now all the symptoms have disappeared and I feel as well as I did several years ago. To thank you for your services to me, I write this letter of recommendation hoping it may be of some help to you." (Signed) Mrs. Y. L. M.—Alhambra, Calif.

picked up between 100 and 500 Negroes in their homes and on the streets and herded them into a sub-station for questioning. There are conflicting reports, the union said, that the murderers of the grocer were colored men.

The union further charged that at the request of the sheriff of Solano county, James Richardson, executive secretary of the Vallejo Public Housing Authority, authorized the project director to turn over the master keys of occupied apartments to the sheriff's deputies. Without knocking, the sheriff's men unlocked apartments and searched for guns and suspects. Residents who were found at home were seized and taken for questioning. A couple returning from a movie, were apprehended at gun point because a gun for which the man had a permit, was found in his apartment.

The Vallejo Council for Civic Unity has requested investigations by Atty. Gen. Kenny and the U. S. attorney, and has lodged protests with the local sheriff and the district attorney.

American people by the use of violence."

The statement, isued by John Sheppard for the state organization and Alvin Jackson for the county group, appealed to "all veterans, veterans' organizations, and plain citizens" to present a united front of decency against the hate organization.

"The illegal entry into a place of worship, the destruction of religious objects, the burning of crosses and painting of symbols before private homes, all these are acts of fascism," the statement said.

John Bidner, executive director of the Mobilization for Democracy, headed a delegation which yesterday called upon Mayor Bowron. The delegation asked full details of whatever investigation of recent terror incidents is taking place, the number of suspects under arrest or being questioned and demanded special police protection for the H. G. Hickerson home on 56th St. and Dr. Nussbaum's Temple Israel on Ivar St.

Since a cross was burned before the Hickerson home and Nussbaum's temple was desecrated, both men have received anonymous threatening letters.

Bidner said the June 14 meeting would be held "to focus public opinion on the fact that cross burnings, desecration of property and threatening letters are not the work of children or cranks but the operations of vicious organized groups who would lead this country along the path of Hitlerism and should be dealt with as such by law enforcement authorities."

Too Much Speed Lands Driver in Ditch, Hoosegow

Slow horses and fast automobiles proved to be a bad mixture for Howard Holt of 4114 Wadsworth on Saturday. In fact it proved to be so bad that it landed him in the San Marino hoosegow where he remained until he could be bailed out the following morning.

Holt, who was returning from the races at Santa Anita, not exactly overjoyed over his success at the mutuals, was driving home at a speed which could not by any means be termed slow, when, in order to avoid a collision, he swerved his car which caused it to almost over-turn and blow a tire.

He limped into a gas station to appraise his damages, when a brace of San Marino motorcycle officers, attracted by the crowd which had gathered, paused to make an investigation, upon the strength of which they decided that Holt's accident was due, not to the speed of his automobile, but to the speed with which Old John Barleycorn had rendered him unfit to drive it.

According to his attorney, Curtis C. Taylor, the cops are wrong and Holt was not even within hailing distance of John Barleycorn that day. Attorney Taylor will use his well-known persuasive eloquence to convince the police judge at San Marino that his client is not guilty. The trial has been set for June 8.

Vote Strike Action

Wilmington warehousemen of Local 26 have voted 87 to 3 for strike action on June 15 to support contract demands on four companies in the harbor area.

Membership instructed the negotiation committee to draft a new agreement with wages comparable to longshore rates and submit it to the employers. If no favorable results are obtained, the warehousemen will strike June 15, simultaneously with the nation-wide strike of seamen, longshoremen, warehousemen, harbor workers and ships officers.

Biased Psychiatrist Sires Racial Attack In N. C. Vet Frame-Up testified, have you not, that you have examined and given tests to a great many patients?

Dr. Owens: Yes, sir.

Q. And among them, I take it, there have been a large number of colored people; now will you state ot the jury the average mental age of a colored person? (Objection)

By the Court: He may testify to that! I think it would be competent, if he has an opinion satisfactor yto himself, according to his manner of esting people, what is the average mental attainment of the colored race that he has examined. (Objection)

By the Solicitor: According to your methods of testing the mental capacity of individuals, have you any opinion satisfactory to yourself as to the average mental attainment of the colored race? (Objection; overruled; exception)

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Will you state what that opinion is? (Objection; overruled; exception).

A. That, of course, is a question in which a little personal equation comes in; from my own experience I should say a fair average would be 12 years. (Objection; motion to strike out; denied; exception).

By the Court: Gentlemen of the jury, you will not consider the testimony of the witness in regard to the average mental attainment of the colored race as a whole, except as in comparing the defendant's mental condition and attainment to the average man of his race. You may consider it for that and no other reason.

For this insult on his people, Verge Pratt, 75-year-old grandfather of the condemned veteran, had to pay $100 out of his life-long savings to the psychiatrist.

Notice of appeal filed with the North Carolina supreme court has kept Major Benton from dying in the Raleigh Central State prison gas chamber May 31. But time is short. Benton has only 60 days from May 13 to present arguments for reversal of the conviction.

I have with me now Major Benton's statement denying his guilt. When I went to the Central prison May 14, with Grandfather Pratt and the Rev. L. W. Wertz, the condemned veteran's pastor, I received from Benton an appeal to the American people, white and Negro, to aid him in his fight for justice.

And strong action is being taken in Hamlet and throughout Richmond county to block that fight.

Terrorists Active

As soon as Negro-hating white men learned steps were being taken to rally public opinion in support of a campaign to save Benton's life, a new rape rumor spread throughout Hamlet.

On Saturday night, May 11, I personally saw 30 carloads of armed white men roar through the Negro neighborhood. They said they were searching for a Negro alleged to have committed rape earlier in the evening.

A young Negro to whom I had talked Saturday afternoon had his hat shot off his head by white men. He was arrested, quizzed on the alleged rape and released Sunday.

But the Negro population in Hamlet is not backing up in the fight.

I attended a meeting of the local defense committee. I felt deep shame that I was the only white man at the rally.

But the Rev. W. C. Coleman, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Zion church, relieved me somewhat when he said he was sure white people would join with his people in this struggle.

'Because of these kind of white people we were brought out of the darkness of slavery," said the Rev. Coleman.

Coleman then turned to the Rev. Wertz, leader of the Benton defense committee, and said: "The Rev. Wertz is our backbone. He stands in front of us. He represents all the Negroes in Hamlet."

I told the people in that little southern church I would send their message to the people all over the United States.

This is how you can help now: Send your contributions to the Rev. L. W. Wertz, Box 909, Hamlet, N. C. Tel him to earmark it for the Benton defense fund. This will get the ball rolling. You will be contributing toward saving the life of an innocent man.

Memorial Meet for 2 GI's Killed by MP's

NEW YORK—(CNS)—It's one year since Pfc. Allen Leftridge and Pvt. Frank Glenn were killed near St. Baline, France, when MPs sought to eject them from a Red Cross tent. The first anniversary is being marked by a memorial meeting at the Golden Gate ballroom to mark the reopening of the case.

Buddies of the men, all members of the Negro Engineers Regiment, charged the MPs were illegally enforcing orders that Negroes were not to talk to French girls. Though the MPs were exonerated, the slain boys' buddies came home, formed a Veterans Justice Committee and forced a reopening of the case.

WASHINGTON—The Supreme court this week ruled that federal courts can prevent eviction of tenants pending appeals based on OPA rules.

TO ASSIST YOU IN MAKING WISE DECISIONS

FREE: Your question will be answered in this column only when a clipping of this feature is enclosed with your question, your full name, birthdate and correct address. For private reply, send 25 cents in coin and stamped envelope for my Astrology Reading and receive by return mail my free opinions on any three questions. Address all communications to Prof. Herman, the Astrologer, care of The California EAGLE.

LONELINESS

Loneliness comes to every human soul, more to some than others. It is a hunger after the nourishment of understanding and friendship. A thirst for a companion to share ideas, dreams and disappointments.

Yet those who best know the hollow echo in their heart and soul, find solace and wisdom through other outlets if they but try. On the other hand there are others who seem to get a certain joy out of their pain, and sink to a false sense of aloneness. In fact they seem not to be satisfied unless they are sad, nursing and enjoying their woes with a desire for sympathy.

It is one thing to know loneliness and another to settle down inside of it as if it were a pillow to the soul. Don't resign yourself to that fate, when there are many things you can do to overcome it.

R. J.—Dear Prof. Herman: I read your column every week and find it very interesting. I would like some information concerning a woman known in ancient history as "Medusa?"

Ans. In the traditions of mythology, Medusa was one of the three Gorgons whose hair was changed into snakes, and who turned into stone all who looked on her.

Miss B. C. H.—Can I rely upon my male friend's promise? What is his holdup? Will I ever get married?

Ans.—Only one question is answered in the column due to the limited amount of space. I shall be glad to help you if you will write in for a private reply.

M. J. C.—Will my husband make it this year?

Ans.—It seems to me that your husband's condition may improve if he follows instructions carefully. Time is the main element in his case. I suggest you try to make him as comfortable as possible.

L. O.—I am a woman of 23 years old and have 4 children. Will I ever marry?

Ans. — My Psycho-Mentalist Crystal reveals your past life as being a difficult one, but the future looks much brighter. Marriage will come to you soon, and you will be able to enjoy the homelife you so justly deserve.

H. H.—Dear Sir: I have been reading your book "With God All Things Are Possible," and find it helpful and a splendid guidance with my every-day problems. Thanks again for recommending this wonderful book to me.

M. R. P.—I am not happy, can you tell me what is wrong?

Ans.—Concentrating upon your question I find that you have always wanted a nice home that could be kept neat and clean for you and your children. Since you have been unable to obtain this type of residence, it is making you very unhappy. I suggest you talk the matter over with your husband and perhaps a plan can be worked out that will enable you to start buying your own little place in the very near future.

M. L.—Will my luck ever change?

Ans.—Your Lucky Stars and Guiding Planet indicate a change in your luck in the near future. I think I can help you in this matter and suggest you write in for a private reply at your earliest convenience.

Mrs. F. A. A.—Will my daughter ever get married?

Ans.—Probing into the matter I find that your daughter has her own ideas about the man she wants to marry, hence the delay. But marriage is indicated in her reading, and it will probably be within the next 6 months.

MEMORIAL DAY

This is the first Memorial Day after World War II. This is the day set aside to honor our war dead. The echoes of the last shots of the war had not died down good, when the daily papers and the radios were filled with the threat of another world war.

This writer was an infantryman in this war. We knew a lot of swell guys that will never set foot on this earth again. Memorial Day—a brief pause in a world gone mad.

The bones of young men, soldiers, sailors and marines of the United Nations lie buried in blood-soaked soil—others long since have settled at the bottom of the ocean. A feast for marine animals.

Many of those guys were my buddies—some of them were your sons, husbands, sweethearts, brothers, fathers, nephews and friends. They are dead. They, like those of other nations died fighting for "One World." For democracy, the Atlantic Charter, a World "Bill of Rights" and that magnificent instrument known as the American Constitution. They thought that when they died that their countries after liberation would be free of hunger, pestilence, etc. The displaced Jews felt that they would have earned the recognition of the world and the right to freedom from persecution.

But the world goes merilly on thriving on hate, killings, hunger, disease. Lest you forget—that isn't what those gallant people died for.

Today, we find the United Nations—not exactly what we had hoped for. There is rough talk between former allies.

In America—the Nisei, despite the fact that their families were herded into Relocation Centers—fought like tigers to win combat awards—hoping that when they returned—if they did—they would return to a grateful nation. The sadistic Mr. Jim Crow met them at the gates of America.

The Negro soldier, who was lucky enough to come back alive—returned to find fiery crosses being burned in Atlanta and in Los Angeles. He found his families being kicked out of their homes by virtue of undemocratic restrictive covenants — private agreements upheld by the courts of the land. He heard Bilbo and Co. blaspheme the Negro dead in foreign battlefields in a successful massacre of the FEPC. He was told he had not earned the right to work.

To whom does the words of the Declaration of Independence, "The right to LIFE, LIBERTY AND THE PURSUIT OF HAPPINESS" apply?

Recently at a rally sponsored by the EAGLE and Mrs. Charlotta A. Bass we saw the Laws family, the Hickerson family—both victims of the racial restrictive covenants and the fiery cross. Their crime—buying a home and being black.

We heard the beautiful Lena Horne lash out in a forceful manner against the practice. Personally, after hearing her speech I was in favor of sending her to congress along with Mrs. Douglas. Lena Horne is terrific. I heard the dynamic Don Wheeldin, Atty. Vince Monroe Townsend, Carlton Moss and Donald Derrick—all ex-GIs do the same thing.

Tuesday, you will go to the polls. This writer, who is a veteran, asks you to reflect back upon the terrible war—remember why we have a Memorial Day—and mark your ballot with the thought in mind—did they die in vain?

In view of the fact that Superior Judge John Beardsley has devoted his whole life to making the American constitution a living instrument, has lived his life in being fair to all peoples—and due to the fact that his office is regarded by many as a lesser office—I, who, have been very close to John Beardsley—I take the license of asking you to vote for him for judge of the superior court, office number 10. I also ask your vote for Sheriff Biscailuz—he has done right by your boys in his department.

Think on these things—on Memorial Day—Judge Beardsley has a fight on his hands—reactionary factions are after him. The sheriff's fight is not critical. But John Beardsley needs your help now. Don't forget, Tuesday.

Soviets Contrast Clamor On 'Press Freedom' With Silence On Race Hate

NEW YORK—Angelo-American hypocrisy was pilloried this week when Russia contrasted the clamor of the United States and Britain for "freedom of the press" with the marked apathy shown by the two western powers toward measures aimed at stamping out racial discrimination and minority persecution.

Nazis Had Orders to 'Bump Off' Negro GIs

DACHAU, Germany—A Nazi S. S. sergeant this week told the Malmedy massacre tribunal at Dachau that German soldiers were ordered not to make prisoners of any American Negro soldiers but were to "bump them off."

Sgt. Paul Zquigert, one of 74 Nazis on trial for the slaughter of unarmed American war prisoners in the Battle of the Bulge, made the charge.

ON..... THE SIDEWALK

By c. a. b.

Discouraged, disappointed, and disillusioned am I.

Last Friday afternoon when a group of about two hundred citizens, representing many racial, religious, and social segments, stood before his honor, Mayor Bowron, in the City Hall, and asked that the mayor, the chief of police, and the police department bend every effort to squelch the present Ku Klux Klan reign of terror in the city, they thought that their plea fell on sympathetic ears. In the main the group protesting Ku Klux Klan activities and police brutalities were from the minorities.

Mayor Bowron's answer was heralded Monday in the city's daily press.

The Daily News quoted the mayor advising the people to go to the polls on Tuesday in order to combat an organized minority of the electorate.

"The citizen who condemns Russia for its control by a small Communist minority is, in effect, encouraging minority control in this country if he fails to take advantage of his own voting privilege," said the mayor.

The mayor of the City of Angeles has taken a position in the same category with Byrnes, Secretary of State, who is using every trick in the political deck to divide the friendship built between Russia and the United States by the late Franklin D. Roosevelt.

"Mayor Appeals for All to Vote to Block Subversives" is the caption of an article in the Examiner which includes this paragraph: "Groups representing certain interests, philosophies, or idealogies which many consider un-American have become a dominant force in American politics through their organized efforts in getting out the vote."

"Their get-out-the-vote campaigns are confined to their own kind. Therein lies their strength, their political potency," the mayor said.

It looks like Mayor Bowron has become the political bed-fellow of one Jack Tenny whose name, I pray dear God, I shall never have to mention again in this column.

While the Negroes and Mexicans—minorities—are complaining to Mayor Bowron about police brutality, and urging the victims of Ku Klux Klan terror to use their ballots to defend their rights by placing in office men and women who believe in and will support that doctrine enunciated in the Declaration of Independence, which declares that all men are created equal, the great head of the family of "angels" goes into a frenzy in the hope of defeating what he describes "subversives" in politics.

This looks like another case of Nero fiddles while Rome burns.

In the same issue of The Daily News which carries the trite advice of the mayor to Tuesday's voters, appears this article:

"KKK Sign Shows Again." The article revealed that the Klan's triple K appeared again in Los Angeles painted on the windows and door of a building shared by the Consolidated Show Door Co. and Gerald Florence, proprietor of the Benchmaster company, which makes drill presses.

The head of the shower door concern, too upset to talk much about the terroristic society's symbols, declared:

"It was no kid's prank."

"The KKK was applied with quick-drying enamel," the article continues, "and it appeared on the rear doors as well as the front windows, and on the doors of a shed in the rear where only one employee—a Negro—polishes the metal door frames.

"Employees of several racial backgrounds and religions, including Catholics, Protestants and Jews, work for both companies."

Under somewhat similar circumstances, Attorney General Robert W. Kenny, in addressing the "Emergency Committee to Com-

Negro Elected to Head St. Louis Church Group

ST LOUIS The Christian spirit emerged here this week when for the first time in its 30-year history, the Ministerial Alliance of Greater St. Louis elected a Negro pastor as its president. Most city and county Protestant ministers are members of the alliance.

The new president, Rev. C. Wayne Love, pastor of St. James African Methodist church, 4301 St. Ferdinand ave., was named to succeed Rev. Dr. E. Paul Sylvester, white, pastor of Pilgrim Congregational church.

Dr. Love, a native of Colorado, is a graduate of Western university, Quindaro, Kan., and held pastorates in Topeka Atchison and Kansas City, Kans., and Winslow Ariz. before taking the St. James pulpit here in November 1944.

The anteroom of Mayor Fletcher Bowron's offices in City Hall held a capacity crowd of irate citizens, representing several thousand people, who met within a half hour to protest KKK activities and to demand police action. Bob Kenny Concedes Defeat; Douglas, Hawkins and Rogers Leading in Their Districts

His opposition to the Ku Klux Klan and Gerald L. K. Smith's fascist forces at work in California no doubt cost Robert W. Kenny a place on the gubernatorial ticket, and a chance to compete in the November election.

The re-election of Gov. Earl Warren was conceded late yesterday by Att. Gen. Kenny. Warren's pronounced victory on both the Republican and Democratic tickets already is being exploited by reactionary forces throughout the nation for a "Warren in '48" presidential boom.

In the opinion of political critics, President Truman is chiefly responsible for the split Democratic vote in California and throughout the nation.

With a 2 to 1 Democratic registration in California, progressive leaders had predicted a substantial lead by Kenny and other regular democrats. However, shortly after the count started, Warren pulled out ahead of Kenny and has not lost his lead, according to latest returns.

Unless some grave mistakes have been made by the tabulaters, from 2800 precincts out of 5741 in Los Angeles county, Robert Kenny polled 125,784 votes, while Warren received 145,214. This probably means that the years at Sacramento, as far as the Republicans are concerned, will be a grooming period for bigger and better political plums for Warren, and the brand of Republicans he represents.

Democrats and Republicans, who saw in their native son, Kenny, the spirit of the new world predicted by Wendel Wil-

Ethiopian Flyer Talks at NAACP Meeting Tonight

Flight Officer Andrew Hester will bring a message of encouragement to the NAACP campaign workers at Thursday night's report meeting. This young American is on furlough from the Ethiopian Imperial Air Forces where he has been an instructor for several years.

The largest single night's report ever made in local NAACP history was recorded Tuesday May 29, the last report before the resumption of street car transportation. The Tuesday report showed 1,114 members and $1900. This bespeaks a stepped-up tempo for the drive for 25,000 members during the weeks ahead, according to President Thomas L. Griffith. The count at the start of the current week showed 3,243 members and $5380 for the first five reports, which is quite ahead of last year's drive over the same period.

EASTSIDE LEADS

The Eastside organization, under the leadership of hard-hitting John Hall and Rev. P. D. Lehman, continues to lead all comers. However, the Southsiders are being kept in the race largly by the fine work of Captain T. Cobbs and his San Pedro batters.

News Flashes

NEW YORK—Mayor O'Dwyer has been asked to fill a vacancy on the board of transportation by appointing a Negro to that body. The request was made by International President A. Philip Randolph of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters.

WASHINGTON — The senate this week gave preliminary approval, by a vote of 53 to 26, to an amendment to its draft extension bill making all men between 18 and 45 subject to selective service.

WASHINGTON—Jesse Jones, spearheading the opposition to the $3,750,000,000 British loan agreement this week declared it would carry the United States "along the road toward financial ruin" and put it into an exclusive alliance with the British empire.

Held for Attack on Mexican Housewife

After being picked up by Highland Park police and charged with criminally assaulting a 29-year-old Mexican housewife, James W. McKelvey, 40, was held to answer in municipal court here.

According to police, McKelvey, who lives at 833 North Citrus avenue, kidnapped Mrs. Mary Inda, of 173 South Indiana street, last May 2. Then, they claim, he drove her to Alvardo and Cove streets, and forced her to submit to him.

McKelvey, arrested May 20, will face arraignment in superior court June 12, and then a court trial later in the month.

King Cole Victor in Covenant Fight; Laws Case Appeal Coming Up

Nat (King) Cole and his wife Nadine, were adjudged victors against a restrictive covenant clique this week when a temporary restraining order issued by Superior Court Judge Henry M. Willis on May 8, preventing their occupancy of property recently purchased, was allowed to go off the calendar.

Cole, head of the famous King Cole Trio, began purchasing the property, located at 1917 West 21st st., nearly six months ago, completed the essential steps needed to acquire ownership on May 8. At that time Herman C. Ingalls, Margaret Simpson and Robert A. Hoffer obtained the restraining order to prevent occupancy of non-whites to property in that tract.

Atty. Loren Miller, who represented the Coles, told reporters that the victory affected directly nine other Negro owners of property in the tract, including A. J. (Kelley) Williams and Mitchell Miles.

The property had been sold to Cole by Richard D. Lee, a Korean American GI, while Lee was serving in the armed forces. Covenanters had instituted court ac-

Reverses Va. Courts In Decision That May Affect 12 Other States

WASHINGTON—Southern Jim Crow laws this week were challenged in an historic 6-1 decision by the U. S. supreme court ruling unconstitutional a Virginia law compelling segregation of white and Negro passengers when traveling interstate.

Only Associate Justice Harold H. Burton dissented from the decision, which held that any law directing or prohibiting racial segregation of interstate passengers was within federal and not state jurisdiction.

The anti-Jim Crow ruling was handed down on the appeal of Miss Irene Morgan, who was fined $10 by a Virginia court for refusing to sit in the segregated section of a bus during a trip from Gloucester county, Virginia, to Baltimore, Md. Miss Morgan's appeal was argued on March 27, by NAACP Attorneys William H. Hastie, now governor of the Virgin Islands, and Thurgood Marshall.

Virginia courts held that the state law requiring segregation

Labor Endorses June 6 Colonial Freedom Rally

NEW YORK—Dr. Max Yergan, executive director of the Council on African Affairs, announced recently that the Greater New York Industrial Union Council had "unanimously endorsed and voted to participate" in the Madison Square Garden rally on "Big Three Unity for Colonial Freedom" on June 6.

The rally, proceeds of which will aid the dire famine situation in South Africa, will hear as speakers: Paul Robeson, R. J. Thomas, Rep. Hugh De Lacy, Mary McLeod Bethume, Norman Corwin, Councilman Benjamin J. Davis, Yergan and Etukah Okala of Nigeria.

Saul Mills, Council secretary-treasurer, speaking on behalf of the Council's 300 unions, representing 600,000 CIO members, stated hat "the aims and purposes of the rall yare part and parcel of labor's fight to raise the living standards of all workers. Union Fights GM Job Policy Of 'Whites Only'

OALAND—CIO United Auto Workers Local 76 this week had wired the union's General Motors department in Detroit and its committee on fair employment practices requesting a drive against General Motors refusal to hire Negro workers in its Oakland Fisher body plant.

The local asked that every step possible be taken to get members of minority groups on GM assembly lines throughout the country.

The Fisher body plant here, daily hiring whites, has refused to hire any Negro workers, including four with previous experience in the auto industry.

The four—all veterans of World War II—are Enos T. Butler, Frank Armstead, E. M. Swisher and Raymond Window, ok- re—Worlda.

Many inexperienced Negro workers have been turned down as well, while white workers without previous experience are being hired.

Jury Rejects Police Story, Frees Arnold

Charges that Hyman Getzoff offered a police officer $500 to "blow down" a case against one of the lawyer's clients were made this week during the trial of Clarence L. Arnold, 26, proprietor of the Paradise Cafe at 708 East Fifth St.

Arnall Orders Action To Outlaw Georgia Klan

ATLANTA—Gov. Ellis Arnall has ordered the state attorney general to bring court action against the Ku Klux Klan "to revoke its charter in Georgia," thus making Georgia the second state to institute such action against the hooded outfit. In California, the first state to act on the Klan, the outlawing action was initiated by State Attorney Robert W. Kenny who recently won a court ruling revoking the Klan's charter in that state.

"If action in the courts is unavailing, it may be necessary to convoke the general assembly in extraordinary session to 'dehood' the Klan and prohibit activities which the general assembly might determine to be detrimental to the public good," Arnall said.

Arnall Orders Action

It was not clear, however, to what extent Atty. Gen. J. Eugene Cook would cooperate with the governor. Cook indicated willingness to file quo warranto proceedings against the Klan, but said he would have to wait until the Georgia bureau of investigation furnished him with "sufficient evidence on which to base such a suit."

Meantime, U. S. Collector of Internal Revenue Marion Allen has filed suit against the Klan to recover $685,305 in back income the federal government charges is due for the years 1921 through 1934 and for 1926. The complaint was filed in Fulton superior (state) court.

CHIROPRACTORS CONVENE—The California Chiropractic Assn. was host to the National Chiropractic convention held recently at the St. Francis hotel in down-town San Francisco. Attending the convention from this community were several prominent chiropractors, A. Thomas King, Roland P. Williams, Frank G. Zetar and a student doctor, Jay W. Moss. Also accompanying the delegates was the charming wife of Dr. Frank G. Zetar. The convention was a great success with over 1000 delegates attending. Many improved methods in the field of diagnosis were discussed. In the photo above, left to right: Jay W. Moss, Dr. R. P. Williams, Mrs. Alfreda Zetar and Dr. Frank G. Zetar.

It was very gratifying to know that definite plans are under way for the establishment of a Chiropractic Research Foundation, through which the profession will have the opportunity to advance new methods and build a truly great drug-less therapy.

Bowron Whitewashes Klan Terror; Sees No Cause for Police Probe

Mayor Fletcher Bowron told a delegation of 50 community representatives who met with him Friday to inquire the exact status of Ku Klux Klan investigation, that "the police so far have no information which could lead to the arrest of any persons responsible for the Klan terror acts."

His statement came more than three weeks after the first cross burning in front of the H. G. Hickerson home at 134 W. 56th st.—an outrage immediately followed by nine other outbreaks which police supposedly are investigating.

The delegation was organized by the Mobilization for Democracy which also will sponsor a gigantic "Stop the Klan" mass rally in Olympic auditorium, June 14.

Nearly 15 organizations were represented at the Friday meeting including the American Veterans Committee, the Hollywood Independent Citizens Committee, the American Jewish Congress, the CIO, the NAACP and several B'nai B'rith chapters.

Among the delegates were Gus Hawkins, state assemblyman; Mrs. Charlotta Bass, publisher of The California EAGLE and Father George Dunne, instructor at Loyola university.

Also with the delegation was Richard Aubry of 5742½ Fortuna St., who told the mayor and Acting Chief of Police Joseph Reed that he had been beaten unconscious by two white assailants as he was entering the rear of his home on May 26. Aubry is the brother of Paul Aubry, now involved in a fight against restrictive covenants, who found a burning cross on his front lawn two weeks ago.

Aubry said he voluntarily went to the Newton street police station to report the case but had heard nothing from the police since the beating occurred. Chief Reed promised to see to it that Aubry was contacted immediately.

The delegates demanded investigation of the restrictive covenant racket which Attorney General Robert Kenny has stated is being utilized by Klan members to intimidate members of minority groups.

The mayor declared "we can't investigate people just because they're prejudiced. Why, you people here are prejudiced—against th Klan."

He finally agreed, however, to take information concerning threats made by the restrictive covenant groups.

William R. Bidn er, executive director of the Mobilization, urged the delegates to attend a special meeting in the Royal Palms Hotel June 6 to which representatives of more than 2000 organizations have been invited, in order to prepare for the Olympic rally June 14.

Slate Hearings June 24, 26 on Fare Increases

The California Railroad Commission will hold hearings this month (June) on the petitions of local transit companies for fare increases.

Hearing on the petition of the Pacific Electric company is scheduled foe June 24. The Los Angeles Transit Lines' petition will be heard on June 26. Both hearings will be held before Commission's offices in the State Building.

The proposal for fare increases was first voiced by Mayor Bowron, and promptly picked up by the transit companies.

The petitions will be opposed by the CIO and other labor and civic groups.

Missouri Girl Winner NNPA Essay Contest

Four judges in widely separated cities selected the essay written by Miss Gweldolyn Hill, Kansas City, Missouri, high school junior, as the best submitted in the national contest sponsored by the Negro Newspaper Publishers Association.

The contest was sponsored as one of the features of National Negro Newspaper Week which this year commemorated the 119th anniversary of the Negro press. The decision of the judges was made public this week.

Miss Hill's essay was chosen as the best of the 36 which were entered in the national contest by sponsoring newspapers in 14 cities. All of the essays were written on the subject, "The Importance of the Negro Newspaper in Post-War America."

City to Auction 3000 Properties Monday, June 30

In an initial effort to restore to the local tax rolls more than $3,000,000 worth of property involving 300 separate parcels, the City of Los Angeles will conduct its first tax auction next Monday, June 10.

The Sale Number One will be in room 804 of the City Hall and the auction will start at 11 a.m. with each parcel being knocked down to the highest bidder.

Sixty-nine properties are listed for the initial sale, with the minimum opening bid prices ranging from $2, $75 to $3100 and the opening bids aggregating in excess of $22,000. The properties are scattered throughout the city.

It is the city's program to auction an average of 500 parcels per month hereafter until the backlog of tax-deed properties is cleaned up, acording to Austin Hill, head of the city's land department. The city has acquired the county's tax title and is offering a consolidated total of all tax liens. He emphasized, however, that a buyer must obtain their own fee title either by purchase from the fee owner or by court decree subsequent to purchase of the tax title.

was valid when applied either to passengers traveling wholly within or through the state.

The decision is expected to affect the laws of 12 other states which require segregation of Negroes and whites in interstate bus travel. It apparently did not touch the Jim Crow laws as applied to passengers traveling entirely within the borders of a single state.

Upholds OPA

The high court also ruled in another case that a landlord may be required to refund amounts collected in excess of OPA rent ceilings, with Justices Rutledge, Reed and Frankfurter dissenting.

In another OPA case, the court refused to review the complaint of a California retail grocer who protested against OPA regulations under which his business was classified for price control purposes.

The court also upheld the right of newspapers to criticize court decisions, unanimously reversing a contempt conviction against the Miami (Fla.) Herald and its associate editor, John D. Pennekamp, growing out of two editorials and a cartoon published in 1914. Its decision, written by Justice Reed, asserted that "free discussion of the problems of society is a cardinal principle of Americanism."

In still another important decision, the court struck out a body blow at the Rankin Un-American Committee, ruling that American citizens cannot be penalized for their political beliefs by denial of employment with federal agencies.

The case came to an abrupt halt Monday when attorneys for the various sides appeared in court and allowed the matter to go off the calendar without prejudice.

The victory has great significance in view of the approaching hearing before the state supreme court of appeals in the famous Henry Laws case, and other covenant contests involving orchestra leader Benny Carter, N. At the same time, Atty. made the offer. Harvey quoted Getzoff as saying, "You know you planted that cigarette on Arnold."

Getzoff denied the accusation, termed it "a deliberate lie." No charges were preferred against the attorney.

Arnold and a companion, James Blanton, 28, on whose person, officers claimed they found 13 marihuana cigarettes were arrested shortly after midnight near Arnold's cafe.

Blanton pleaded guilty and is now serving a nine months term in a county road camp. Arnold maintained his innocence, declared the evidence had been planted on him. Blanton, appearing as defense witness, substantiated Arnold's testimony.

A jury brought in a decision of "not guilty," stated that at no time did they believe the story of the police officer, especially his assertion that Getzoff had attempted to bribe him.

Truman Denounced By Labor Leaders

President Truman's anti-labor bill was roundly denounced by labor and progressive leaders at a mass rally in the Olympic auditorium last Saturday night. Speakers called for people's demonstrations, telegrams and letters to Truman and congress protesting the President's attack on labor in connection with the recent railroad strike on his latest threats to break the maritime strike set for June 15 should the maritime unions be unable to effect an agreement with the ship owners.

The meeting unanimously passed a resolution blasting Truman and congress, calling for immediate repudiation of passed or pending anti-labor legislation and praising A. F. Whitney and Alvanley Johnston, for the leadership in the recent railroad strike.

Speakers included Phil Connelly, secretary treasurer of the CIO council; Thomas Ranford, president of the AFL Central Labor Counicl, Albert Dekker, Frank Pollett, legislative chairman of the Railroad Brotherhoods; Russell Nixon, national research director of the CIO Electrical Workers; William P. Nutter, chairman of the general grievance committee of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, one of the 15 railway unions to sponsor the rally.

bat Racial Hatred," an independent University of California student organization, declared: "The community as well as the individuals must be awakened to their responsibilities in upholding the rights of democracy and in supporting acts of discrimination."

Contrary to the Kenny attitude, our mayor seems bent on closing his ears, eyes and mouth, in the three monkey fashion, as to Klan activities in our midst. And lending support to the position taken by our city father, comes this message from Gerald L. K. Smith, who says that now that his executive committee is closing its St. Louis sessions, he will be back in California during the months of July and August to help defeat Robert W. Kenny should he be nominated for governor.

"We do not forget that Kenny was the head of the organization that formed the mob-picket lines around our meetings in California recently. We shall support Warren for re-election," the great head of the America First organization is alleged to have declared.

I heard one of the leaders of the local Klan say, during a recent investigation, that Gerald L. K. Smith was their leader.

Will the mayor of the city block the return of Smith to the city because of his un-American activities and utterances?

What we the people want, Mr. Mayor, is a declaration of policy not of politics. It matters not with us whether you are a Republican, Democrat, or even a Socialist. We want our city, like our nation, to answer the definition of a democratic form of government, in which all the people, including all colors, religions and politics, enjoy an equal portion of freedom.

"I was told by doctors when a pain was attacking me on my right abdomen ten years ago, that I had appendicitis. Since then I have always had the same spells; sometimes acute and sometimes mild. Whenever I had one of these acute spells I lost weight rapidly. On January 4th, 1938, I started using your method and now, in so short a time, I am rid of the pain entirely and am gaining weight. May I thank you and endorse your natural method to anyone suffering from a similar cause." (Signed) J. A. A.—Los Angeles, Calif.

"I have been troubled with bleeding and protruding piles for about 25 years and have tried almost every kind of treatment but none gave me any relief at all. I went to the doctor and after taking a few treatments with them I am satisfied that the treatment has done more than what he claimed it would do. I now feel like a new man." (Signed) E. R. T.—Los Angeles, Calif.

"Hoping to relieve the neuralgia of my face, neck and limbs, I went to seven or eight doctors in the last several years. Oftentimes the pain seems to be everywhere. My legs were sore and most painful and I seemed to always be tired and strengthless. Besides the neuralgic pains, my ears were stuffy and I caught colds very easily. I was also troubled with tonsilitis. Nothing had helped me until I tried Dr. Ipp's method on the thirty-first day of last month. Now all such troubles as neuralgia, stuffy ears, and tonsilitis are well. Not only am I recommending these remedies to you whom I do not know, but I also am going to have my parents, who are both sick, take these wonderful Chinese treatments." (Signed) G. W. H.—Los Angeles, Calif.

For four years I had constant headaches and a burning feeling in uterus. My menstruation was very irregular and came as often as every few days. My doctor diagnosed the case as tumor of the uterus and said there would be no cure without an operation. I took the natural remedy and within a week I discharged about twenty blood clots, each was at least the size of my fist. Now my headaches are gone and I do not have the burning feeling anymore. I am confident that natural method is better than a knife." (Signed) Mrs. S. L.—Los Angeles, Calif.

"I would feel obligated if I were not to express my hearty appreciation for the benefit my mother received by taking Dr. Ipp's Chinese treatments which saved her life. She suffered for seven months with abdominal malignant tumor or cancer complicated with vaginal hemorrhage and diarrhea. We took her to several well-known doctors who were unable to help her any except by prescribing dope to relieve the pain and advising us to send her to a hospital. This we did, and while there she underwent an operation which did not benefit her any way as a month later she was in a worse condition than before. After this we consulted other doctors who caused us to lose all hopes for her recovery by telling us nothing could be done for her. Then we were recommended to consult this specialist. Right after taking the treatments her pain disappeared together with the hemorrhage and diarrhea. Now her health is even better than before her sickness, much to the surprise and unbelief of the doctor who had treated her. I will be only too glad to give any further particulars of my mother's case as a matter of appreciation for the kindness shown to her." (Signed) R. A.—Los Angeles, Calif.

"It is a pleasure on my part to offer this testimonial of the method for health. I was suddenly stricken with a very severe kind of inflammatory rheumatism. All my joints were swollen. I was unable to walk, the pain intense, and I ran a very high fever. I started taking your treatment and after a few days my fever was gone, my pain less intense, and by faithfulness to the method I was able to walk again in six weeks, and most of all, all my rheumatism was gone." (Signed) Mrs. M. L., Los Angeles, Calif.

"For fifteen years I suffered with a conditions of the hands and arms which some doctors said was eczema and others said it was diabetes. My arms were red, swollen, spotted by blood and irritated by itching and fever. When I scratched them water ran from the skin. I went to every kind of doctor for relief and was with each doctor for a year or more, without obtaining any relief. One day, while in town, I stopped in the specialist's office and consulted the doctor there. I started the internal and external treatments, at once, with which he soon cured me. My hands and arms now look smooth and normal, just as they did fifteen years ago, before this condition existed. For the relief and benefit which he gave me I heartily recommend his method to anyone who suffers from this disease as I have." (Signed) Mrs. L. D. E.—Los Angeles, Calif.

"I had suffered with gallstones for about one year, felt sharp pains under my right hip, had pains in the stomach, often vomited, and sometimes had a backache. My doctor told me that I must have an operation, but I was recommended to see you first, by a friend who has been helped by your method. On June first I started to take the treatment. Now all the symptoms have disappeared and I feel as well as I did several years ago. To thank you for your services to me I write this letter of recommendation hoping it may be of some help to you." (Signed) Mrs. Y. L. M.—Alhambra, Calif.

Five Star General, Vet Groups Pay Tribute to Murdered GI

NEW YORK—Five star general H. H. Arnold, commanding general of the army air force has issued an unusual citation of the late Charles Ferguson, Negro private who was killed by a Freeport, Long Island policeman on February 5, 1946.

"Private First Class Charles R. Ferguson who gave his life in the performance of his duty February 5, 1946 . . . He lived to bear his country's arms. He died to save its honor. He was a soldier . . . and he knew a soldier's duty. His sacrifice will help to keep aglow the flaming torch that lights our lives . . . that millions yet unborn may know the priceless joy of liberty . . . And we who pay him homage, and revere his memory, in solemn pride re-dedicate ourselves to a complete fulfillment of the task for which he so gallantly has placed his life upon the altar of man's freedom."

The New York Committee for Justice in Freeport, with headquarters at 112 E. 19th st., New York City, pointed out that the wording of the citation while paying deep tribute to the slain Negro soldier, also amounted to a sharp rebuke to Gov. Thomas E. Dewey who has failed to use his powers to intervene in the case and compel Nassau county authorities to bring the policeman, Joseph Romeika, to trial. Romeika was whitewashed of guilt in the slaying by a grand jury which refused to indict him, although Romeika shot and killed Charles Ferguson and his brother, Alfonzo, while both were unarmed and not in any way breaking the law.

Charles Ferguson's name has been inscribed on a large billboard of members of the armed forces, living and dead, of World War II, in the small town of Roosevelt, Long Island which adjoins Freeport. Veterans organizations held a ceremony before the enrolled means on Memorial Day and laid floral wreaths at the foot of the roster of American warriors.

NAACP Regional Head On Tour Of Southland

Job discrimination and restrictive covenants are among the major targets of the NAACP's fighting program, N. W. Griffin, West Coast regional secretary of the NAACP, told The EAGLE this week. Griffin, who is here on a tour of Southern California NAACP branches, was a visitor on Monday to the office of The EAGLE.

The purpose of his tour, he said, was to confer with the various branches on their current membership drives, and to help set up a coordinated program of activity, direct the work of the branches toward more specific aims and thus surpass even the fine record of cooperation already established between the various branches.

He linked the problem of unemployment with the fight for a state and federal FEPC, said the NAACP would continue its campaign for FEPC. He commented on the post-war increase of job discrimination, cited figures released by the USES of increased requests from employers for "white, gentile, only." He told of his recent investigation of discrimination at the General Motors plant in Oakland, where he found the unions cooperative but unable to do much about it because hiring was done at the plant, not at the union hall. That, he said, was also the situation at several plants in this city, where discrimination is rampant.

Discussing the recent wave of Ku Klux Klan terrorism in this city, he said that the NAACP fight on restrictive covenants would also be directed against the Klan; that the two could not be separated.

The NAACP West Coast Region includes California, Washington, Oregon and Nevada.

Boilermaker Locals Hedge On Dropping Jimcro System

OAKLAND—Boilermaker jimcrow is dying hard. The resolution of AFL Boilermakers International executive board ordering all California locals to admit Negroes into full and equal membership has not yet been put into effect.

Reason is lack of "clarification" on the resolution and orders from the international, according to an official of Welders and Burners Local 681. He refused to disclose on what points clarification is needed.

Earlier, Joseph Nobriga, Local 681 business agent, had said that there is "different interpretation" on the resolution among the locals.

Joe Roberts, business agent of Shipfitters Local 9, would say only that "nothing is happening" at the present time in regard to putting the resolution into effect, and that "we're not getting our feet wet over this."

Meanwhile, content of the resolution ordering full membership for Negroes and abolition of jimcrow "auxiliaries" in California reveals the extent to which Boilermakers officials tried every recourse before ordering California locals to admit Negroes into equal membership.

After not only excusing but upholding the Boilermaker jimcrow system, the resolution cited the California supreme court decisions against the union as the sole reason for the change of policy. Nowhere is there mention of discrimination in trade unions as a weakening force in the labor movement, as aiding the employers, as contradictory to basic trade union principles.

Herbert Resner, attorney who led the successful fight to outlaw Boilermakers jimcrow this week described the victory as an important step forward in the "struggle for economic freedom of the Negro worker," but warned that "constant vigilance is the price of liberty."

Many social flights will be enjoyed by the members, who will also have the use of a new clubhouse with all modern conveniences.

LT. TWINE, former Twin Engine Pilot at Tuskegee, gives Ruth Cage a few pointers on the art of flying the Vega, one of the important models used by the California Bird-men. First time up was a thrill for Miss Cage, who is one of the new members in the Crop 'N' Tail club.

Crop 'N' Tailers Saddle Sky Broncs for Change

The Crop 'N' Tail Riding club members were guests of the California Bird-men on Memorial Day at Gardena Airport, where the flying club held its official opening on June 1.

Major George W. Stone who organized the training section of the Long Beach Army Airfield for the air transport command, is vice president of the California Bird-men. He gave the visiting club girls highlights on the organization which is an exclusive flying service for men and women on a membership basis only.

Assisting with the instructing will be several ex-army pilots who received training at Tuskegee and Kiesler Field. Lts. R. B. Porter, Twine, Oliver Goodall, George Matthews and Captain Charles Bussy are at present spending time at Gardena Airport.

Flying will be done from a modern airport with army rules for maintenance of aircraft safety. Such famous models as the Waco-three place, used for passenger hops, the Vega 2-place trainer, all metal, the Fairchild PT-19, used by the army air force for primary training, and the Piper Cub, will be used by the Bird-men. Orders have been placed for two new N. American Navion airplanes.

GROUND SCHOOL TRAINING

All members will receive ground school training which includes navagation, engines, meteorology, and Civil Aeronautics Regulation for no extra charge.

The California Bird-men club will be the first of its kind, set up on an interracial basis. The president, Arthur L. Flick Jr. and Major W. B. Stoddard who owns the airfield are determined to keep the entire organization strictly in tune with democratic principles.

CROP 'N' TAILERS FLY

The visiting Crop 'N' Tail members: Jane Criner, Maethilde Kenner, Jessie Mae Brown, Jewell Lockett and Ruth Cage, had the thrill of their first airplane ride. All the girls were pleased and plan to make return trips to the Gardena Airport.

Our Guns Turned On the Wrong Foes

The domination of the Security Council of the United Nations by the American Secretary of State, James Byrnes, is beginning to get under the skin of other folks as well as that of Edward Stettinius, who resigned as the regularly appointed representative of the American people to that organization, because he felt Byrnes was overstepping his authority and so he, Stettinius, was not needed.

Although Stettinius, appointed by Roosevelt, was not as whole-heartedly in favor of the Soviet Union as he might have been, he nevertheless played square, and the Soviet representatives felt that he was a square-shooter.

But Byrnes seems to be going out of his way, using all sorts of trickery, to insult our former ally, and to make the American people believe, if possible, that the Russian people are no longer the friends they once were.

The matter of Iran is but one instance. Although the Iranian premier himself assured the Security Council that all Russian troops had left Iran by May 6, as per agreement, the Security Council under the urging of Mr. Byrnes, refuses to believe this message and says the Iranian situation should be investigated! This is rather a bold way to call a friendly nation what used to be considered a fighting word!

But how about Franco in Spain? Ask any of our boys who fought for the unhappy Spanish Republic before the real world war began, and they can tell you without any prompting of the evil alliance between Franco, and Hitler and Mussolini. There are hundreds of documents proving the aid given the Nazis by Franco. Yet this situation is disbelieved. Nothing is done to punish Franco. He is allowed to go on preparing for the next war, to permit Nazi scientists to experiment with atom bombs on Spanish territory.

No, the guns are all turned in the other direction. They are aimed at our former ally. Mr. Byrnes and his friends are evidently planning to magnify every issue with the Soviet Union, to increase the fear and suspicion of Russia that a western bloc is being organized against her.

It is sickening to think that perhaps the party of Roosevelt, the great friend of the Common Man, may be turned into an implement of warfare that will bring fascism in its most tyrannical form to the United States.

What can we do about it?

Just what we did not do last Tuesday. Get out and vote. Begin working right now for the election in November for those men and women who will represent the aims of the war for which our boys and millions of allied soldiers gave their lives.

The United States and Great Britain are not really fighting Communism in Europe, as they claim they are. They are fighting the advance of the common people of Europe toward democracy and independence, toward anti-fascism, no matter by what name it is called.

And this is precisely what the capitalists of both nations fear. They fear the spread of the democracy of the common people anywhere, and will resort to all sorts of trickery to prevent that.

They, the monopolists of America and of England, have turned their guns against the friends of the common people. We the people must turn those guns around, and fight the monopolists with what they wanted to hand us. We must elect our friends to Congress, who will make laws for the benefit of all mankind and not only for a favored few.

Negro to Serve on Jury

A Negro was selected on a jury panel in Boone County, Missouri, last May, the first time in the history of that county. He was William Wynn, principal of the Frederick Douglass School, of St. Louis, a combined elementary and high school for Negroes.

The trial for which the jury will serve is that of a young Negro who is being tried for murder. The defense attorney objected to the regular jury as there was no Negro on it. Upon his motion, the judge quashed the regular jury panel and instructed the sheriff to bring in a new panel of men "chosen without discrimination as to race, color, or creed." His instructions were obeyed, and now the defendant will know that at least one man who will decide his fate is of the same race as he.

This is entirely according to the Constitution of the United States, and is a measure of justice which should have been established long ago.

California's celebrated Festus Coleman case should be given the same treatment.

Truman Bill Promotes Fascism

The labor bill proposed by President Truman would bring as vicious a form of fascism to America as ever was exercised in Europe. Placing trade unions under military control was the first step of the fascists in Europe. Truman would draft workers into the army, something which has never been done in the United States before. The bill would grant the president the right to declare any strike a national emergency, and by so doing working people would be forced like slaves to do the bidding of their employers in fear of losing their jobs.

This bill, if passed, would destroy all that the working people have gained in more than a century of hard fighting. It must not pass.

What President Truman should do, now that he has aroused fear and terror in every workingman's soul, is to veto the Case bill, already passed by both houses of Congress, and then tell Congress that since there is no emergency at present, there is therefore no need for his proposed anti-labor bill.

In any case the Truman bill must not pass. Write or wire to Senators Wm. Knowland and Sheridan Downey to vote and work for the defeat of the Truman anti-labor bill.

If these, our Congressional and Senatorial representatives fail to give us their support for the defeat of the Case Bill, we will know that they are not for the people.

President Truman has betrayed the trust placed in him as our leader. Not only has he betrayed us, but he has betrayed the Roosevelt program he promised to follow.

Lord Have Mercy Upon Us!

The members of the U. S. Senate Immigration Committee are: Democrats: Richard B. Russell, Georgia; Charles O. Andrews, Florida; George L. Radcliffe, Maryland; Burnet R. Maybank, South Carolina; James O. Eastland, Mississippi; J. William Fulbright, Arkansas; Clyde R. Hoey, North Carolina; Republicans: Joseph M. Ball, Minnesota; C. Douglass Buck, Delaware; Homer Ferguson, Mihcigan; and Forrest C. Donnell, Missouri.

This committee is to study the immigration bill which was passed last year by the House of Representatives, and will decide who shall and who shall not become American citizens. The bill would end the discriminitory provisions in the present immigration laws which bar natives of India from entering the U. S. or becoming citizens solely because of their race.

The greatest stumbling block to the passage of this bill, it is conceded by those who know, is the Senate Immigration Committee.

Composed of some of the notorious characters just mentioned, we can understand such a stumbling block. Remembering their record we feel like praying as they did in the old time Litany, "Lord have mercy upon us!"

The Case Bill Cooling Off

The Case Bill, one of the most vicious anti-labor bills that has ever been passed by Congress, is now on President Truman's desk, awaiting his decision. Whether to veto it and thus kill it, or to sign it and kill all the good that has been done for labor during the administration of our friend Franklin Roosevelt no doubt is weighing on the president's conscience.

CIO President Philip Murray, spearheading the opposition by all liberals to the bill, is urging the president to veto it. Thousands of telegrams and letters from individuals have also poured into President Truman's office begging and pleading with him not to destroy the hopes of the common people, the working people, by signing a bill as harmful to them as that.

On the other side of the fence, William K. Jackson, president of the United States Chamber of Commerce, spear-heading the reactionary Big Industrialists of the country, is urging President Truman to sign the bill. It would help business so much, he says, meaning Big Business of course, and altogether unmindful of the little business man and the working man. Thousands of telegrams—some of the writers paid to send them—have come to the president from this side of the house, too.

Murray speaks for the people. Jackson jingles on a string kept in motion by the power trusts.

To whom will President Truman listen? Which God will he serve?

THE STRUGGLE BETWEEN RUSSIA AND ENGLAND

The present rivalry between Russia and England is destined sooner or later to usher in a gigantic conflict which will throw into the shade the tragedies through which humanity has just passed. The relentless struggle between London and Moscow threatens the peace and security of the world as it never did before, projected as it is against centuries-old rivalries.

The three centuries of violent enmity between the two Powers are multiplied a thousandfold by the rapidly expanding and ever advancing march of humanity and civilization. The great game of world politics is now played on a far-wider field of action than before and is fraught with greater consequences than was the colonial struggle of the 19th century. The whole world is now one vast political and economic unit and the smallest happening in one part is instantly communicated to the other.

If the Anglo-Russian rivalry plunges the entire world into a third world war, the guilt will squarely rest on the heads of British Labor leaders who have been put into power by the vote of the working people of England.

Russia is more or less cornered now by the astute directors of British foreign policy and is subjected to physical and mental pressure, which no self-respecting nation will stand without losing its prestige and legitimate place in the comity of nations.

The presistent propaganda of falsehoods and lies as carried on by the imperialistic circles in the United Kingdom is a direct road to war and revolution and an open challenge to the Kremlin for a murderous conflict with the British empire.

The jingoistic element in the British isles seems to have learned nothing and forgotten nothing by the terrible ordeal of blood and fire of the second world war. The United Kingdom lies prostrate and exhausted, and is kept alive by the charity and dole which the United States dishes out of its vast resources and wealth.

The British tories are destitute of a sense of self respect and national honor when they lash at Soviet Russia with all the enmity of a savage. It was the Soviet Union that really saved the British empire from utter destruction by its tremendous powers of resistance and dogged national will. Had the Nazis concentrated all their energies and implements of war upon England the English people would have been expunged from among the nations of the world. Three weeks would have been more than enough to reduce the British isles to ashes and rubble by the formidable military instruments of annihilation which Hitlerite Germany developed.

It was the luckiest escape for England and the most fatal blow to Germany when the Nazi chieftain turned his guns on Russia, bringing upon the Teutonic race the same colossal military disaster which the foolhardiness of Napolean brought upon France.

THINGS I SEE

By Marian Inglewood

This column is due in the office of The California EAGLE on Monday. Therefore I have no way of telling how the election Tuesday will go. But one thing I do know. No matter what happens Tuesday, we shall have to keep on working. Harder than ever. Even if we win a glorious victory and every liberal candidate is nominated—some perhaps on both tickets, which would insure their election—even sa we shall have to keep on working. Hard.

And if we don't win in this election—which Heaven forbid—well, then we'll simply have to roll up our sleeves and work day and night to regain what we lost and to be sure to win in November. Our enemies, you know, never sleep.

The greatest enemies of our democracy, or perhaps it would be better to say the most effective weapons which the enemies of our democracy use, are the utter lack of interest of the American people in their government and their ignorance of politics in general.

When it comes to politics, the American people all over the world have the reputation of being the most gullible people on the face of the earth. We believe any lie anyone tells us, and as Hitler said, "The bigger the lie the more likely we are to believe it." We're just plain dumb. We never check up on anything anyone says. We don't know anything about politics. We don't want to know. We think it's smart not to know.

Tyrants of long ago opposed education, especially for the common people. They said it would make them dissatisfied with their lot. The reactionaries of today, taking their cue from those earlier tyrants, are encouraging the political ignorance of the American people, that "not-interested-in-politics" attitude.

If you only knew, you who boast of "knowing nothing about politics," how your reactionary heroes laugh at you as they keep you submissively under their thumbs!

In this voluntary servitude to ignorance the established church, sad to relate, seems the chief aggressor. Just as in the Middle Ages it kept the common people in serfdom by opposing their education, so today it is lining up with the reactionaries and preaching the "no-interest-in-politics" message to the detriment of all good government and the welfare of all people everywhere.

Yes, I attended a Youth for Christ rally last Saturday evening. I'd been promising myself to do that for some time. And if Saturday night was a sample of the Youth for Christ meetings, that organization in my opinion, is one of the most inept in this atomic age. The whole atmosphere was deadening. It spoke of an out-worn faith which the leaders were trying to revive, like trying to pump air into an old tire that just won't hold air any more. The pumped-up enthusiasm, the tricky devices used to arouse interest—all told plainer than words that in their souls those leaders did not believe themselves in what they were trying to pass on to their audience. They were just kidding themselves they did.

A motion picture depicting the wonders of nature from the Moody Bible Institute, Chicago, wass hown, interesting and instructive. But Dwight L. Moody held sway over the country some sixty and seventy years ago. His message was powerful then. It has stagnated since.

Today the world is crying out hungrily for a God who is interested in human beings—their wants, their fears. Whether or not they are well or ill fed, clothed, and housed. As Jesus was interested. Those human beings want, desperately, the world which Jesus commanded His disciples to establish, but which to this day they have failed to do.

At that Youth for Christ meeting Saturday night, with one of the most crucial elections in our history only three days away, not one word was said about it. There wasn't even a perfunctory prayer offered for our government, a feature usually found on such programs like the pledge of allegiance of our flag. With the FEPC needing more signatures so desperately, it wasn't even mentioned. They simply "weren't interested in politics."

The attitude of the entire youth for Christ movement was evidently sunmed up by a devotee after the meeting.

"Well," he observed, "I don't care anything about this world any more. I just want to get ready for when Christ comes."

After World War I one of our great leaders, remarking the indifference of the church, said, bitterly, "If we ever have another world war, the Christians of America will be directly responsible for every drop of human blood that will be shed, and every dollar that will be wastefully expended."

The same thing holds good for today.

Step into the office of The California Eagle and get a copy of STORIES FROM THE WORKINGMAN'S BOOK by Marian Inglewood. It is an interpretation of stories taken from the Bible, the Workingman's Book, from the point of view of the workingman. Dad would like it as a gift on Father's Day.

Texas to Have Civil Rights Chapter

The state of Texas is seriously taking the responsibility for organizing a national Congress on Civil Rights with a branch in each county.

A call has gone forth for delegates to meet in Houston on Sunday, June 9, and there organize a State Congress on Civil Rights. Representatives of the CIO, the AFL, the NAACP, the AYD and all other progressive groups will attend. Status of the rights of the Negro people, of the Mexican people, of the trade unions, and of war veterans will be among the subjects discussed.

Los Angeles, which has already organized a branch of the Congress on Civil Rights, sends greetings across the miles to this new branch and wishes it every success.

W. J. WHEATON SAYS:

Before this gets to the press the electorate of California will have chosen the candidates for whom they will cast their ballots in November. California is one of the states whose political outcome is unpredictable. Party lines are not distinctly drawn and office seekers are able to file their names and seek the nomination for both major parties. It is a confusing political subterfuge. Many voters, not acquainted with such proceedings, are doubtful about voting; claiming that they may vote wrong.

We had a time explaining why a candidate, registered as Republican, has his name on a Democratic ballot. It's no easy matter to explain the "non-partisan" deception to one who has but recently come from a section of the nation where the party label means everything. To Negro migrants from the South the name of one party is anathema. It is connected with the most heinous of crimes and laws enacted for the subjugation of Black people. They connect that party with the notorious KKK and mob lynching, and it is hard to convince them there has been a reverse in the label: that the label means nothing. It's the man that counts. You can point to the states of Georgia and Texas for confirmation of that. Negroes have sent to the national houses of legislation candidates, with the Democrat label, but who were more endowed with the principles of the Lincoln policies than are those who have that stamp.

We have here in California candidates for office who wear the label of the Republican party, who are as biased, racially, as the most rabid apostle of the Rankins and Eastlands. It is strange to hear some Negroes, who should, and do know better, stress that old bogey of party. It is time that the Negro, like all others who exercise their privilege of franchise, seek the man and not the label. Neither do we believe that a man can serve two masters. In politics there can be no such thing as bi-partisan. When elected that candidate is bound to favor the policies of the party to which he is registered, be it Republican or Democrat.

The Janus-faced politician can no more be trusted to carry out the mandates of the electorate than a Talmage Democrat would further the progressive policies of Georgia's present governor. One has only to review the enactment of recent legislation in California and see what progressive bills were sponsored. Legislation which would have been of untold benefit to the men and women who labor. How about the fair employment measure? Did it receive the support of the great bi-partisan, who now speaks of non-partisanship; of serving ALL the people?

We spent a few days in the bustling town, or should we say city, of Stockton and was deeply impressed with the go-aheadness of the people. It was the first time in several years that we had a chance to study the residents and note the growth of the city, which has been amazing. As in most California cities at this time, politics was in the air. We heard several discussions that convinced us that the residents of that section take their politics seriously.

We notice that Pope Pius recently received a party of newsmen (Negroes) in private audience. Very little space was given in the United States to that historic event. Historic from the fact that it was a precedent. We wonder if His Holiness had an inkling of the Congress of Negroes in session at Detroit, Michigan, where representatives of thirteen million Negroes protested their status as victims of a discriminatory citizenship. Might be.

The men who predicted that peace would follow the cessation of hostilities seem to have predicted wrong. The Dove of Peace has, seemingly, dropped the Olive Branch and found a hidden cote. It can be asked: Has the spirit of service departed? Have we subordinated that spirit which motivated the incentive for a world peace to gain power or promote nationalism? The answer, yes. The slaughter of thousands, the moaning of the maimed, the detonation of the last bomb had not died before selfish greed and avarice asserted itself. All the fine ideals of a world brotherhood were forgotten. Power politics and mutual suspicions erect barriers to world amity. In a letter to the UN, delegates to the Negro Congress meeting at Detroit, asked its aid in combating racial prejudice in the United States. Paul Robeson, in a radio address, said: "Our government is no longer the friend of labor and the Negro people, as during the days of the great Roosevelt . . . it is decidedly not an instrument through which the will of the American people can be achieved."

The petition to the UN stated that it was with profound regret that we, having failed to get relief from oppression through constitutional appeal, find ourselves forced to bring this vital issue—which we have sought for almost a century since emancipation to solve within the boundary of our country—to the attention of this historic body.

On the platform were many notable men, among them Ben Davis Jr., member N. Y. City Council, who said in part: "The forces of imperialism are moving us into another war . . . We want to say to the Truman administration, we do not want such a war."

UN Secretary General Tygrve Lie stated that should the petition be received it will be acknowledged and studied to determine what consideration, if any, the United Nations may appropriately give to it under provisions of the Charter. It will be most interesting to watch the progress of proceedings, and the reaction of the public.

LABOR ON THE MARCH

By Martinez Hewlett

With the passage of the notorious Case Bill through both houses of our national congress and with the acceptance of the Truman Anti-Strike legislation, minus the labor draft provisions, by the senate, the people of the United States now know, without a doubt that the administration is not following the Roosevelt program.

The Truman Administration has become, overnight, out and out anti-labor. The hysterical action in the house after the President's speech proved to the people of the United tates that there are forces in congress who oppose the people of the United States and would go so far as to enslave workers and destroy labor unions. But the most apparent fact is that these forces are being led by the President of the United States!

Before we go any further on this question we would like to quote William P. Nutter, who made an epic speech at a recent protest rally. He said "Monopoly control of government is fascism." To date this is the best definition we've heard. It explains simply and completely just what fascism is, and just what it does. By his actions and by the actions of his congress, the President has shown that he is either a fascist or that he gets his advice from fascists. Either way it looks pretty bad for the American people if something isn't done—and d—quick.

The scuttling of the FEPC didn't make him fighting mad. The block for Anti-Poll tax legislation didn't make him fighting mad. The congressional and senatorial attack on the OPA didn't make him fighting mad. The alarming revival of the Ku Klux Klan hasn't made him fighting mad. Why then this vicious attempt at the destruction of organized labor?

Before we answer this question it would be well to consider that both Hitler and Mussolini in their seizure of the German and Italian governments, first destroyed the trade unions. Mr. Truman in his labor shackling bill, and the passage of the notorious Case Bill, follows this pattern closely.

Then, too, before the President finished his speech on Saturday he was handed a note informing him that the railroad strike was over. He completely ignored this note and went on asking the House of Representatives to pass his "emergency" legislation. It is apparent then that it was not just the railway workers, but all organized labor, who were being threatened by this drastic and uncalled for action.

American labor has been misrepresented to the people of the United States by the President of the United States not ten months after V-J Day!

Are we to believe that the Third Reich has transferred its headquarters from the rubble of Berlin to our democratic shrines in Washington, D. C.?

This column joins with all organized labor in protesting the President's "Slave" Bill and the passage of the Case Bill. Flood the White House with letters and telegrams. Tell your senators and congressmen that you regard such legislation as dangerous to American democracy. Let the President and the congress know that the American people are determined that "These honored dead shall not have died in vain."

THE NEGRO IN LATIN AMERICA

By Harold Preece

LET'S STUDY NEGRO HISTORY IN LATIN AMERICA

When is some Negro university in our country going to pioneer by setting up a chair of Latin American Negro history?

I recommend such a project to the thoughtful consideration of the United Negro College Fund.

Let me take this opportunity, too, to put in a plug for the fund. It seems to me that all of us can afford to make a contribution to educate better leaders for a future which will need sensitive, devoted citizens of all colors and creeds.

I believe that the fund can take up the slack in what Negro universities have and what Negro universities need. One thing that the universities can help us give, with proper support, is an increased knowledge of what has been accomplished by our Negro brothers of Latin America.

Hence, the need for at least one chair of Negro Latin American history, which could be manned on a guest basis by scholars like Dr. E. Franklin Frazier of our country and Dr. E. Price Mars of Haiti.

For one thing is certainly evident today, and that is the increased interest taken in the problems of race and color in Latin America by Negroes in the United Sttaes.

This column can modestly take some of the credit for this heightened interest in the up and coming nations south of the Rio Grande. Except for occasional dispatches from Haiti, the Dominican Republic, and the Panama Canal Zone, little was published in the American Negro press about Latin America until after this column was started in November, 1943.

Now, every one of the leading Negro papers, and many of the smaller ones, carry Latin American coverage often furnished by reporters on the spot. And that's an encouraging development.

TIME TO BUILD

The ground has been laid for more intensive and specialized study of the Negro in Latin America in our colleges and secondary schools. Now it's time to build something on that ground.

I realize, of course, that we would have to start from scratch on such a project. We would need textbooks and supplementary reading, but encouraging starts have already been made in that direction.

Dr. Fernando Ortiz, eminent Cuban authority on the Negro, has just issued a two-volume work on the history and culture of the Negro in Latin America. This work needs to be translated into English under the capable direction of somebody like Dr. Frazier.

For supplementary reading, long out of print books like Sir Harry Johnston's "Negro Cultures in the New World" need to be reprinted. More recent books like Arthur Ramos' "The Negro in Brazil" and Ralph Korngold's "Citizen Toussaint" are easily available.

Somewhere in my files, now in transit from Florida to Tennessee, I have a bibliography of works on the Negro in Latin America. I'll be glad to send a copy of this bibliography to any college which may be seriously considering the possibility of a class in Latin American Negro history.

I'm hoping that this work will be started soon. For we need to be more conscious of our tradition and of our history, in every part of the world, for the great crisis which we will have to face until we emerge happy and free into the full status of citizens, accepted and equal, throughout the earth.

The Vitamin B Family

By JOHN F. GERNHARDT, M.D.
Medical Director, Los Angeles Sanitarium

There is nothing new in our world about vitamin B, and neither in the different varieties of vitamins. They have always been present in our food elements. As long as people partook of foods derived from the vegetable kingdom, they were blessed with good health. Neuritis, polyneuritis, and beri-beri were not known.

A deficiency of vitamin B will cause neuritis, polyneuritis and beri-beri. This causes inflammation and degeneration of the nerve endings. Such people suffer with numbness, tingling in the toes and feet, stiffness of ankles, cramps in legs, atrophy in muscles and difficulty in walking.

A deficiency causes muscles to shrink in the intestinal tract, causing the nerve endings to degenerate, which hinders peristalsis in the intestinal trace, and which is one of the chief causes of constipation. The intestines are from 15 to 25 feet in length. In order to move the bowel contents, it requires strong muscle fibres and a good nervous system. A good supply of vitamin B will strengthen both involuntary muscle and nerve fibres.

Experimental Vitamin B Deficiency

A group of young men volunteered to eat a diet greatly deficient in the vitamin B group. In a short time they found out they were very irritable. Their mind was depressed, lacking in vitality to concentrate the mind, lack of appetite, loss of weight, and all became constipated.

A pigeon fed for three weeks on polished rice developed polyneuritis. After feeding a substance rich in vitamin B, brown rice, and yeast, recovery was complete in a few weeks. Vitamin B is needed for oxidation of carbohydrate. One who does strong muscular work requires more vitamin B. When removing the outer portion of the grain that contains the vitamin B group, the result will be a weak nervous system, causing lack of endurance, neuritis, polyneuritis, low vitality and beri-beri.

What Is Beri-Beri?

Beri-beri is a vitamin deficiency disease which is recognized as being caused by a partial or total absence of vitamin B in the diet.

Symptoms — multiple neuritis, polyneuritis, weakness, and pain in the limbs followed by rapid wasting of both voluntary and involuntary muscles. Loss of power and of impairment of sensation, heavy feeling in legs, stinging sensation of peripheral nerves under the skin.

Pathology — means abnormal condition. In all cases inflammation and degeneration of all muscular fibres. In some cases edemo and dropsy of body cavities.

Varieties of B Complex

They are all found in whole wheat grains, yeast, brown rice, in legumes, in green leafy vegetables, also bran. Riboflavin is a general nerve tonic. Nicotinic acid or Niocin is a preventive of pellagra. Pyridoxine prevents skin disorders.

Pantothenic acid is against gray hair. Remember we find all the different varieties in whole grains, legumes, nuts, yeast, green leafy vegetables.

I will list those food elements which are rich in the vitamin B family. Vitamin B per milligram in 100 grams: Beef muscle 110 to 210, chicken and fowl 90 to 200, lamb and mutton 200-300, milk 40-65, eggs 140-160, oatmeal 435 to 770, entire brown rice 240-300, polished rice 40, wheat (entire) 500-660, white flour 60-100, whole wheat bread 400, beans 400-600, soy beans 500, peanuts 500-600, fresh peas 270-495, carrots 400-600; wheat germ Vegex, yeast and bran are very rich in vitamin B complex.

All grains are very rich in vitamin B. Wheat germ, mobisco bran milled three times are found in all health food stores. Vegex, spread a little over your bread. Wheat germ, a tablespoon every day. By studying the different food elements we see clearly that flesh foods are inferior in vitamin B. All vegetables and whole wheat grains, beans, and peanuts contain a much higher amount of vitamin B. If you desire to be strong be sure to select your vitamins from the vegetable kingdom.

A LAYMAN'S VIEW

By Leon W. Steward

UNITED NEGRO COLLEGE FUND, INC.

Just where would the race be educationally today were it not for the Negro colleges. We would not dare to answer this question. However, it is obvious that these colleges were situated in the very midst of the Negro populations or in communities favorable to Negro education if they had their start before the Civil War, as did several. And just about 95 percent of our college graduates got their educations in these church or state-supported colleges.

For many, these institutions did and continue to provide their formal training and for many more they have served as the source of inspiration which has carried them through the best formal training courses the nation offers. Today these colleges are a challenge to the noblest instincts in both those who have attended them and those who have not.

When most of the schools were started, students could begin in the kindergarten and continue through the grades, high school and college, and in some, they could take professional courses or trades on the side, all on the same campus. This was true because of the very poor public school service rendered Negro pupils in most Southern communities. Only recently have these colleges discontinued this plan, due largely to some improvement in public schools but mostly to their desires to conform to state educational standards.

Throughout the years these colleges, from which have come most of the socially conscious members of the race in America, have been assisted in their heroic struggle by many great philanthropies, most of which represented the conscience of American churches. Of late these sources have been reduced due to understandable causes to a point that brings the schools to the brink of closing or reducing their standards back to the point from which they have struggled so long to improve upon.

THEY GOT TOGETHER

The present plan is to pool their needs and present them to their graduates and former students first, and to every member of the nation who believes the Negro of the South, whose only hope of inspiration and college training must be had in these schools, should be given a better chance in life. It was devised by a group of the heads of these colleges which was called together by President Frederick D. Patterson, of Tuskegee, in April, 1943, who presented before them the general idea and secured their cooperation in the enterprise. It was smart of them to sell the idea to John D. Rockefeller, Jr., whose family has long been interested in Negro education as well as many other important names on the American scene, since their problem is an American problem, not one of the Negro only. Has not the American plan been to keep the Negro too poor to support his private schools? Surely those living in California should have no doubts on this point. Yes, our hat is off to these college heads who got together. That is something, ask the Greek letter organizations, neighborhood churches or local Negroes who want community support for their political ambitions.

THEY GOT RESULTS

Last year's fund campaign enabled 16 of the institutions to paint, decorate and repair structures, walks and grounds, improve classroom buildings and dormitories. Fifteen augmented their staffs, 12 were able to add much-needed books to their libraries. Eighteen increased salaries in order to retain their best qualified staff members; 32 were able to balance their budgets. Six purchased greatly-needed supplies and equipment. Five either established or improved their health facilities for students. Ten made additional funds available to deserving students. Thus the fund served every one of the 32 or more Negro colleges participating in the enterprise to balance their budgets and add vitally to their services.

This cause, the splendid way the campaigns are conducted, plus the fact that the project is incorporated under the strict laws of the state of New York are sufficient reason for every Negro who has any sincere interest in the advancement of the race to give until it hurts to this year's United Negro College Fund Drive. And we would not conclude this story without extending our heartiest congratulations to Atty. Loren Miller, who is heading the local phase of the drive. Need more be said to assure all that this campaign is a distinct challenge to the noblest trait in the nature of every Negro able to read his name.

Books and Authors

"If the recent war is not to have been fought in vain," says Spencer Logan, author of the prize-winning book "A Negro's Faith In America," "then America must assume world leadership in the cause of democracy. And democracy, if it is to be real must be more than an ideal or a theory. It must become a way of life for all its citizens . . . I am a Negro American—all my life I have wanted to be an American."

A Negro's Faith In America, winner of the $2500 Macmillan Centenary Award for non-fiction, is published today by The Macmillan Company, New York. The awards, which marked the publishing firm's centenary, were open to American citizens serving in any branch of the Armed Forces of the United Nations, and manuscripts in competition were received from all over the world.

Sergeant Spencer Logan was born in Elizabeth, New Jersey, in 1911. He was president of his sophomore class in high school, a member of the track team, and editor of the school paper. After graduation, he worked for an ice-cream company to finance a year at Rutgers university. Much of his leisure he spent in group work with the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

During the war Spencer Logan served as mess sergeant at Camp Lee, Virginia, and then overseas in both European and Pacific theatres of operation. Thus he observed at first hand what the war has done to the Negro soldier, what his hopes and ambitions are, and what he expects of his country in the years to come. In A Negro's Faith In America he makes it clear how the destinies of America and the Negro are now intertwined more closely than ever.

WHAT'S DOING IN THE SOCIAL SET

By JESSIE MAE BROWN

THE OLD FUN CIRCUIT that is oftimes mentioned in this column, hit another all-time high last week with the Crop 'n' Tail riding club taking leave of the English saddle for a few thrillers at Gardena airport and the Cosmos gaining their aim of giving something different starting with an early caravan to Val Verde and ending with a hayride. Missed out on the caravan, by making the trip a bit early along with Leslie and Jessel King, Mighnon and Skippy Smith, the latter driving his smooth-running station wagon. By the way, trying to locate the Allen's Val Verde cottage after dark is no easy job. Anyway, after much searching and knocking on doors we found the ideal vacation place where Marian and Wini's mother and aunt, Mrs. "Mossie" Williams, made grand hostesses.

Jessie Mae Brown

The members of the Cosmos may justly feel proud over the success of the affair, for they all worked untiringly to see that everything went smoothly. The gathering got under way with early picknicking on Saturday afternoon. Dancing followed at the Reeves Inn where Johnnie Luke, Ballinger Kemp, and Nat Shaw served as official ticket collectors. Wearing the latest in sport togs and joining in with the trippers of the light fantastics were Norma Lee and Andy Ross, Art Loggins, recently home from the merchant marine, Vernel Gouthier and Wini Smith, Jimmy Jones of Santa Monica, Leola Beavers, Jean Watkins, Connie and Elmer Roberts, Virgie Donnelly and Ruddy Fexico, Maurice Jones, just out of the Navy ,and about 500 others.

Taking time out from the dance to ride Eddie Reeves' horses were Corinne Jones, Jane Hampton, Raoul Reynolds, Vance Jones, Marcella Monroe, Paulette DeJoie, Joe Spaulding and many another.

At this point special mention should be made of the hayride that took place in three shifts to accommodate the crowd. However, due to the fact that Yours Truly is still sputtering a combination of dust and hay there is very little to say. It was very hard to see just who was on the truck through the ever-present cloud of dust. On reaching the clearing, caught a hazy glimpse of Jewell Lockett and Floyd Gladman roasting wieners over the open fire, Puffy and LaMarr Hill, Marilyn Williams and Elbert Hudson sipping punch made by the hands of Wallace Decuir and Herbie Boswell; chatted with Fergie Rem and Frances Williams, enjoyed watching the eager beavers, LeRoy and Leonard, add their bits of humor to the fun fest ,while Cosmos Leonard Grimes spent the better part of the evening behind the camera, taking a few informal poses of the crowd. All in all the affair was a top-notcher with a good sum of money added to the Cosmos scholarship fund.

Following, and giving the gathering a final cap, was the after-breakfast given by Jerry Steward, Loucille Boswell and Jane Hampton.

WORTH MENTION

In the city over last week-end were Naomi and Ernie Provost, who motored down from San Francisco along with Henrietta Whitby. Mrs. Provost is the former Naomi Davis who at one time lived here in the Angel City. She's all smiles over her new position in the matrons realm. While dining Sunday afternoon she gave full details of the informal wedding in which she and football player Ernie Provost exchanged vows in March. The couple plan to return to Los Angeles during the week of the 4th of July, attending the Crop 'n' Tail formal on the 3rd.

The 13 Charms had a very successful affair Sunday at the Villa Arlington. All proceeds were given to the Sojourner Truth building fund. The popular club president is Miss Christine Cooper. LES CHARMANTES TEA

Bernice Pinchback and Cardell Wills will be off to New York on June 13, as official delegates to the AYD convention. While in New York, Bernice will be the house guest of Betty Wright, who has already received her master's in sociology and finds the big city a very interesting place in which to live.

Los Angeles seems to be the chosen spot for national conventions, with the AKA Boule in August, and the Kappas following through with their national Konklave in 1947. By the way, the Kappas are holding their first annual Trophy Dance Saturday night at Alpha Bowling club. Aside from the team receiving honors, Kappa man Jimmy Reese, who passed the bar, will be among those honored.

Gloria Roberts is prepared to thrill her audience on Wednesday night, June 12, when she will be presented in recital by the AKAs. The popular pianist receives her degree from S.C. this semester and will continue her studies by matriculating at Julliard. Gloria plans to take time out from her practicing Saturday to play hostess at a crystal shower in honor of Jennard Worsham, who is registered at Robinsons under the "Romance" pattern.

IN THE MAIL

A very interesting letter from Virginia George, who is winding up a semester's work at Dillard university. She sends special hellos to Marian and Dane Tatum, Jerry Jean Baldwin, Hester Brewer and a host of others.

Blanche Groggs sends greetings from the Western Area Business and Industrial Girls' Conference in Asilimar. She writes that over 100 girls are attending the conference including 13 from the Hawaiian Islands. The theme for the conference is "Let's get it straight."

Roy Harte is off on another trip. The card is postmarked Arizona, and he send hiyas to the gang.

Ella K. Mays will be headed for the east coast soon. Her husband plans to work for another degree at one of the eastern schools. . . . Fashions of every description will be shown by leading socialites of the city between the hours of 5 and 6 p.m. An overflow crowd is expected by the 24 members of Les Charmante club.

The soprano soloist will be the very popular Bernice Peterson, who will be accompanied by June Simms. Henry P. Markham, recently heard in concert and opera, will be the baritone. His accompanist will be Vereneace Lomack.

Rocksy Horton, regarded by many as Pasadena's most gifted vocalist, is to be contralto soloist. Daniel Mac Horton will accompany her. Instrumentalists will be Edna Hammett Porter, organist; Jules Jackson Haywood, pianist, and Danellan Mabry, who will play the marimba.

Clarence Hargrave, artist-writer, will deliver the memorial oration.

Mabel V. Gray is president of the Five and Over Club. Lillian Moore is supervisor of music.

LOVELY L'TANYA of Hollywood proudly receives the trophy awarded by Miss Christine Cooper, president of the 13 Charms, who sponsored the fashion review Sunday at the Arlington. JOHNETTA ARMSTRONG – FREDDY WARD

The whole town was virtually knocked off its feet last week by the Mary Collins-Billy Edson engagement. Yes, it really happened. Mary's ring is a solitaire diamond in a gold setting. Their many surprised friends showered them with congratulations.

The Ebony Earl's pre-Memorial dance was successful, although not as well attended as usual because of the week night date. Chatted with Gloria Bunch, who was having a very enjoyable evening. Gloria James Staiger, who shocked me with the news that she has been married two and a half months. Caught sight of Bernice Cunningham in a stunning black dress and a lovely white orchid. Naomi Bowins also had on a cute dress. Arthur Callier and Rose Brown came together. Herman Sperlock was over. Lois Prince, Bernice and Jack Gordon, Carl "Possum" Perry, Cous. Timothy Harrison, Lexie Anthony, Richard Marshall, Jerri Dickens Coe, Willye Banks all seemed to be having a grand time, dancing to George Brown's music. Bill Irving came late. Barbara Reynolds and Henry Penn were twosoming it as usual. The Earl's new club members, Teddy Bartlett, and P. J. King didn't have much more to do than to walk around and see what was going on. Gloria Hawkins, Mabel Renfro, Bert Hollands and many more had oodles of fun.

Carolyn Callier Hennington was surprised when her fellow Fine club members gave her a shower at her home last week. Thelma Jackson, Phillippa Jones, Lucille Harrison, Jessie Arnold, Lora Jacques, Betty Benson, and Gloria Bunch showered Carolyn with many lovely personal gifts.

Memorial Day found many half clad bodies spread over the beaches of Southern California, some sweating it out at Val Verde and others just a settin' and arockin' under that shady tree. Some of those out at Val Verde were Alva Neblett, Harrison Bailey, Barbara and Eddy Lawson, Bernard and Alyce Harris, Bill Edson and Mary Collins.

The Rose Bowl was the scene of the sixth Pasadena games. New records were made in several events. USC won the open games, while Jefferson won the Class A.

Those Jeff boys really racked in the gold watches that went to first prize winners. Noted Joe and Ernest Cunningham, Hank Allen, Stan Prather, C. T. Winfrey, James Armstrong and many more.

Bernice Cunningham's party really jumped. Barbara Collins told me of her engagement to Dudley Atkins. Arthur Duncan was there, just back from Europe. Arthur Callier, Lois Prince, Herman Sperlock, Paullyn Fisher, and several others just enjoyed talking. Charles Deatnax was over after years and years. Alva Rae Neblett, Eddie Johnson, Bump Cunningham, Aaron Fairfax all had a swell time.

About 12 o'clock Sunday afternoon the Earl's wives and company started off for Crystal Lake. It is 25 miles straight up in the mountain. We got about one-fourth the way when all the cars got so hot we had to stop. After rambling through the cars the boys found some bottles and then walked back to a nearby stream, filling hats and jugs with water. In Bump's car we got up about a mile more and had to stop. Bernard Harris, Bill Edson and Teddy Bartlett had gone on ahead. When the car cooled off again we started off again. We all stopped once more and Bernard Harris' car stopped all together. When we arrived at Crystal Park we had to go over one mile of dirt road. Then we walked or hiked a fourth of a mile to the lake. And what did we see when wegot there. There wasn't a blade of grass to be seen. The lake was dirty and you couldn't swim or row. All in all never go any place on hearsay. Some of those that joined in the disappointment were Ruth and John Anderson, Bobby and Eddie Lawson, P. J. King, Beebee Daniels, Mr. and Mrs. Teddy Bartlett, Ray Robinson, Alyce Harrison, Mary Collins and Billy of course, Aletha Carey and more.

LeRoy Williamson is not married to Jessie Mae Blount after all, so we are informed. Pat Armstrong came home last week from school in Louisiana. She liked it well enough not to go back next term. Also home from school is Earnestine Prather and she will be going to school in Sunny California next fall. Was quite surprised to learn of the flourishing romance between Phillippa Jones and Ivan Johnson.

That's all for now.

Hasta Luego.

Bridge Points

By M. L. Milligan, Sr.
Certified Master Teacher

"Strength of character is fortified through the practice of honesty."

I don't think I have had a hand in this column before that caused so much discussion among such a large number of the best players, all because they do not want to adhere to the first principle of scientific bridge—partnership cooperation. Example: When South opened the bidding with 1D and East bid 1NT, don't you think a scientific player would analyze East's holding, and the possible honor-trick holding in the remaining hands before he re-bids 2S knowing that he may have to play the contract at the level of 3. A Master Player never reverses bids or asks for preferences just because they want to, but because they are prepared to.

It is true that this hand is practically worthless, but your partner demands preference, and if you have an equal number of cards in the two suits, you are compelled as a scientific player to raise the first bid suit, even at a higher level and a hand even worse than this: S XX, H 10XXX, D XX, C XXXXX, since such a raise is equivalent to a pass. Eh what! Mr. U. L. Hickerson?

Bridgers learn the following information and you will gladly give preference when the hand conforms to the set rule: 1. With equal length in one of your partner's suits—prefer the suit bid first (such raise is equivalent to a pass). 2. When the length is greater in the second bid suit—without a legitimate raise—pass preference.

QUESTIONS

What are the honor-trick requirements to reverse bid? (b) Who is the captain? What is meant by the two-suiter rules?

If you know answers to the above questions you would never hesitate to give preference to any bid the opener makes.

Hooper Elementary School In Festival

Culminating several weeks of preparation and practice in addition to the regular school program, the entire student body of Hooper Ave. school meaded by Clarence Axtell, entertained their parents and neighborhood friends in a gala May Day Festival of Dance.

Ranging in difficulty from Ring Around the Roses danced by the kindergarten, to the intricate Sicilian Circle danced by the sixth graders the dances were delightful.

The dancers performed before a court composed of stately flag bearers, ladies in waiting, and May Queen Yeola Hicks who was chosen by vote of the student body.

Josephine Marshall Feted With Shower

At her beautiful Seventh avenue home, Mrs. Gertrude Allen entertained recently with a pantry shower honoring Miss Josephine Marshall, bride-elect of Mr. Bernard Burch.

The guests must have opened up many hoarded treasures, for when Josephine started opening packages, one might have thought she was in a storehouse of forgotten delicacies.

St. Louis Visitors Honored By Friends

More than 60 of the city's young people were the guests of Mrs. Beatrice Cassell, 2279 West 29th st., last Friday evening. The occasion was a party in honor of visiting members of the Gore family from St. Louis, Missouri. Geraldine and Herman Gore Jr., whose father is pastor of Southern Mission Baptist church, St. Louis, with their mother, Mrs. Reon Gore, were enjoying the last of a busy series of entertainments in Los Angeles.

Attractive and talented Geraldine is to enter Stowe Teachers college in her native city. Herman has tentative plans to enter the school of fine arts at the University of Chicago.

Several of the more talented guests furnished musical numbers. The Walker brothers of New York sang. Andrew Green, graduate student at University of Southern California music school, played. Ozie Robnett, a product of Stowe Teachers, and Charlene Pickens of Belmont High delighted with songs.

Other guests who have recently come to the city were the Pleasant sisters of St. Louis, and Edna B. Foreman of Buffalo, N. Y.

The Cassell home is frequently the gathering place for such groups of young people, because of Mrs. Cassell's work with youth groups. At present she is area director of youth activities for the youth activities of the Los Angeles district area association.

Riverside Notes

The Riverside unit of the Women's Political Study Club had its annual "spring tea" in the beautiful garden of Mrs. O. D. Bell's home, 4460 Park avenue, Sunday afternoon beginning at 3:30 o'clock.

An interesting program was enjoyed by the large number of friends and members of the club.

COUTURSTAT

By Grace Fisher Atkins

Couturstat is planning for full production within the immediate future. In fact, orders are now being taken and production is partially under way.

Photography is being done by Hazel Shumate. Sketches and most of the designing will be completed by Herman Crouch. Millinery by Hazel Shumate and others.

For more than ten years the dream of a clothing organization owned and operated by the workers has been continued. Now it is becoming a reality. Constant efforts and purposeful goals always develop.

Early in 1940 and 1941, The U. S. Department of Agriculture, clothing division, published two reports, "Body Measurements of Children for Garment Manufacturing," and "Body Measurements of Women for Garment Manufacturing." These reports showed the need for more adequate fitting of clothing and apparel. It was pointed out that as high as 25 per cent of profits were frequently lost by many firms as the result of alterations of poorly fitted garments.

Ready-to-wear garments are manufactured from standard measurements originating from an average of thousands of figures.

When a "mean" is derived from a series of individuals' measurements, the mean may not be adequate for any one of the individuals. This is the case with the ready-to-wear area of clothing production. It is impossible to expect to appear really groomed.

Custom clothing has had its problems in the need for fittings and tryons. The patron loathes to stand while the fitter takes a squinched eye estimate of line and style. While this is going on, the customer grows weary. The creation dwindles into an ugly imitation of something they hoped to enjoy.

Couturstatic clothes give fit and style in the ready-to-wear custom-made garment. Like the ready-to-wear it has not been tried on. Like the custom-made it is individually fitted. This new photo-mathematical process is all-out for serving the particular public in individual clothes.

How calmly may we commit ourselves to the hands of him who bears up the world.—Richter.

Seventh Street USO Crowns May Queen

Over 400 servicemen, ex-servicemen, their wives and guests were present at the regular weekly dance at the Seventh Street USO Club, Friday, May 31. The dance, which took the form of a May festival, was held in the club hall, which had been gaily bedecked to resemble a huge Maypole. During the intermission the ceremony proper took place.

To the strains of "A Pretty Girl Is Like a Melody" the queen, preceded by her court attendants and crown bearer, marched to the throne. The formal dresses of the hostesses who formed the aisle through which the royal cortege passed made a picturesque scene.

Mrs. Mary Broussard, a newly wed, was crowned queen. She had as attendants the Misses Frances Lang; Geraldine O'Garro; Mattie Mae Gilbert of Santa Barbara; Miss Johnnie M. Ray of Saticoy; Mrs. Dorothy Monagan of Los Angeles; Mesdames Lillie Broughton, Catherine Koontz, Jessie M. Peterson and Lena Hayes of Oxnard. Mrs. Koontz' two small children, Frank and Carolyn, were crown bearer and train bearer, respectively.

SOME GOOD NEWS ABOUT CANCER

★ Approximately one in four of the 158,000 lives lost each year in the United States from cancer could be saved if the knowledge already in existence could be made available to all—assuming that the knowledge is acted upon promptly. Here are the danger signals:

1. Any lump or thickening, especially of the breast.
2. Irregular bleeding or discharge from any of the body openings.
3. Any sore that does not heal.
4. Persistent indigestion.
5. Sudden changes in the form or growth of a mole or wart.
6. Hoarseness persisting for two or three weeks.
7. Regional pain.

Only in the early stages can cancer be successfully arrested. At the appearance of suspicious symptoms see your doctor at once. For prompt, expert prescription service, call on us.

KINLOCH'S ☆ KORNER

By Y. S.

Dedicated to the memory of my childhood chum, John Kinloch, who died in the struggle to destroy Fascism.

Dear Chum:

I felt rotten after he left.

"He" is just another guy. Could be anyone. You, your brother, your best friend or any of the millions of GIs trying to cross that treacherous transition period from a military to a civilian way of life.

It's been seven months since he got his discharge from the army. And in that time he's suffered more heartache, backache and tears than caused by the most horrifying experiences that were his in the war just ended.

Perhaps it's the psychological effect.

But it's devastating.

When he first got home, he was a pretty happy guy. He had served in the armed forces for over three years. And like millions of his buddies he had done his share of griping, ducking work, and fighting like the devil when the time came, but he never knew it would stack up to this.

"This" is coming home to find out that his dreams were—well, just so many dreams. Buddies he'll never see again. Housing that just isn't to be had. Colleges and trade schools which can't accommodate him, which means he just can't use that GI Bill of Rights now. Jobs he can't get. The girl he can't afford to marry.

Yes, chum, in it's black negative way the picture is bleak and ugly.

But you haven't heard the whole story yet. Let that GI be a Negro, Mexican—or member of any other minority group—and he's a dead duck.

The stark caption to that picture reads: "Disillusionment."

No, it wasn't a pleasant thing to hear him speak. Especially remembering his cheerful, aggressive spirit when he first came home. It's different now. His faith and conviction that he would get a break fizzled out slowly like a punctured tire with a slow leak.

In his eyes there is despair, weariness. He is tired, unhappy, confused.

When he left, I began looking around and I saw lots of other fellows, just like him. And I began to wonder what we could do to help our millions of disillusioned American boys.

I've read a lot about the problems facing returning veterans in foreign nations. However, of all the countries which have given their soldier-citizens a chance to become quickly readjusted, none is more outstanding than the Soviet Union.

The beauty of it all is that it's all done through legislation.

Why can't we have the same effective legislation here? Why have we betrayed youth into thinking they won a war to guarantee security, the four freedoms and all the magic sounding words and phrases which were to be the key to a new world. A one world.

Why?

Perhaps if we could pass some adequate legislation, that guy would still have a chance. That's all he wants, you know. And America owes it to him because she asked him to gamble his life that the people of his nation might live in freedom and peace.

To partially repay that debt, America must guarantee its youth the right to an education, training for jobs and careers, full employment, creative, recreational activity, health and physical fitness, and full and equal opportunity to enjoy these rights irrespective of race, creed, sex, national origin or economic status.

How can these things be done?

Well, the young people of American Youth for Democracy feel these things can be accomplished through the establishment of a National Youth Service Administration which includes substantial representation of youth and labor.

"This administration should periodically survey youth problems and needs and make recommendations to the President and Congress to implement their aims," declares Carl Ross, AYD's National Executive Secretary.

Ross suggests among other things, that the Youth Administration be empowered to coordinate all phases of job training, apprenticeship and vocational training programs and to make recommendations for further expansion and development of such programs to appropriate federal and state agencies and to the President and Congress.

The objectives of such a bill would be:

★ to guarantee that every young person shall have an opportunity to learn a skill or trade at all educational levels and that no young person shall lack a job or be forced into dead-end employment for lack of the necessary skills;

★ to establish a fully coordinated national program of vocational schooling, apprenticeship, within industry training and technical education developed in conjunction with labor and industry;

★ to provide a minimum subsistence during the periods of training to every trainee at no less than the maximum sum authorized for unemployment compensation payments by the respective states, this sum to be paid from unemployment compensation payments where the trainee is eligible for such benefits or by federal grants if the trainee is not eligible for unemployment compensation.

There are plenty of other tentative suggestions for such a bill, but I can't go into all the details now. When you think of some of the proposals Ross makes, and of how it would aid our ex-GIs, a Federal Youth Bill makes sense, doesn't it?

Your chum, YVONNE.

Youth Mobilize to Picket Firm Practicing Job Discrimination

BOSTON—To protest the method of interviews with a personnel executive and because subsequent requests for interviews with company officials failed to materialize into the hiring of colored personnel in clerical positions, the militant Boston Youth council recently decided to call public attention to the biased policies of the Massachusetts Bonding and Insurance company by forming a picket line around the firm, with the aid of other youth organizations.

Desperate attempts to break the picket line, composed of Negro and white youths, failed even though police fascists injected race-baiting into the picture.

"Living in Our Communities," a new high school civics text book recently released by Scott, Foresman and Company, educational book publishers, contains in the section on contemporary American art a painting done by a Negro artist, Miss Pauline Clay. The picture, "Carter's Little Filling Station," was completed by Miss Clay in 1944 while an art student at Lincoln university in Jefferson City, Mo.

The original, in oil, attracted the attention of Time Magazine while exhibited at Atlanta University. A two-column treatment, accompanied by a reproduction of the drawing, appeared in the issue of April 9, 1945.

5 Sports Letters Awarded to Negro Girl at Northern High

DETROIT—The first Negro girl to win five letters in sports during the 1945-46 school year is 17-year-old Geraldine Broyles of this city, a senior student at Northern high school.

Holding two captain's stars as captain of Northern's hockey team, Miss Broyles, who graduates this month, won letters in hockey, tennis, basketball, swimming and as cheerleader.

AYD County Confab Goes on Record to Fight Bias; Elects Delegates to National Meet

In a day and a half conference held last week-end at the Clark hotel, over 150 delegates from 27 Los Angeles clubs of American Youth for Democracy assembled to map a program of action for delegates elected to the National AYD Convention slated June 13-16 in New York.

On a divisional basis, members voted to send Bernice Pinchback and Ruth Simon from the young adult division; Cornel Riley from the college group, and Bob Zakon from the teen-agers.

Meeting in panel discussions Saturday afternoon, AYDers discussed plans to help win the peace; smash the chains of discrimination; help draft election programs; and build a well-rounded program of youth activities.

Out of each panel came resolutions endorsing a militant program of action to help combat the rising tide of reaction. AYDers resolved to participate actively in the fight against the Ku Klux Klan, to oppose restrictive covenants, fight for the freedom of Festus Coleman and other persons who are victims of discrimination, to support progressive candidates, and to participate in the win the peace movement.

Delegates voted support to the National Maritime Union should the June 15 strike be called, gave a donation and promised support to the Indonesian seamen in our city facing deportation and probable death.

Courts Uphold Jim Crow Rule At Columbia

NEW YORK — The appellate division of the Supreme Court blocked efforts of Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, the Jewish National Congress and other civic organizations to compel the New York City Tax Commission to deny tax exemption to Columbia university when it handed down a ruling favoring the university.

By a unanimous decision the court dismissed a suit brought by Julius L. Goldstein, an attorney, to compel the tax commission to cancel exemption of Columbia involving $1,750,000 on properties valued at $58,112,500.

In its action the appellate division upheld a recent opinion by Supreme Court Justice James B. McNally declaring that Goldstein was not an aggrieved person and that his action was brought after the time allowed by the statute of limitations.

Student Poll Favors the Admission Of Negroes in Biased University

ST. LOUIS—In a student poll Washington University on the question of whether Negroes should be admitted as students, 130 favored admission against 85 opposers and 11 who were undecided.

Student Life, the campus publication, conducted the poll by sending ballots to 400 representative students of all classes of undergraduates 2 weeks ago.

Washington University has been charged with abusing its tax exempt status as an educational institution by refusing to admit Negro students. The Tax-exempt institution, supported indirectly by nearly 200,000 local Negro taxpayers, began 46 years ago to purge itself of all Negroes who were enrolled in all the school's departments.

THE REALM OF RELIGION

1st Church of Christ, Scientist Has Important Annual Meeting

Until all responsible government heads are made to realize that the measure of a nation's true greatness is the spiritual stature of its people, rather than its physical resources, there can be no end to the conflict between materially mental forces that precipitated World War II, the Christian Science Board of Directors told the Annual Meeting of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Maccachusetts this week.

The time has come, the directors affirmed, when representatives of all social and religious systems are being called upon to give something more convincing than promises, preachments, and paganistic pageantries to sustain the faith of their fellows and to provide for a lasting peace.

If these systems are to survive, declared the official spokesmen of the world-embracing Christian Science movement, they must "furnish proof that the ideals for which they stand can be made of practical use in advancing the cultural, economic and spiritual welfare of the race."

"This is no time for them to resort either to subterfuge or aggression as a means of extending the political influence of any church or state," the statement said.

Continuing on these lines, the Directors insisted that there is no room in the church for politics, and in a democratic system of government there is no room in politics for the church. There is, however, always room in politics for the moral sense of religion."

Applying that statement with equal force to national and international affairs, the Directors added: "It makes little difference whether it be a conflict between political ideologies and religious dogmas or an open warfare between armed forces; the results are always stultifying.

"If those who are today engaged in the grave task of building a world government for the purpose of establishing permanent and universal peace on earth, fail to turn to God for guidance and fail to make spiritual integrity the very foundational stone in their structures, they will have labored in vain."

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Opal Hawkins, a daughter, Anita Hawkins, two sisters, Mrs. Jessie O. Thomas and Mrs. Essie A. Holland of Los Angeles, a brdother Dr. A. L. Hawkins of Omaha, Neb., two nieces, Mrs. Gladys Grundy and Mrs. Nicola Fowles and two great nieces, Marian Grundy-Thomas and Sara Ellen Fowles.

BIBLE QUESTIONS

ANSWERED BY THE VOICE of PROPHECY

INTERNATIONAL BIBLE BROADCASTER

Question—Our pastor teaches tithing. What do you say?

Answer—Your Bible says: "Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in Mine house, and prove Me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it." Malachi 3:10.

Q.—Can you give me some references to read in times of trouble?

A.—The following are suggested: Psalm 34:19; Isaiah 48:10; Daniel 12:10; Zephaniah 3:19; Acts 9:16; Hebrews 12:6.

Q.—Please give us a list of the Hebrew months of the Bible.

A.—The months of the sacred year, beginning with April are listed as—Abib or Nisan, Zif or Ziv, Sivan, Thammuz, Ab, Elul, Ethanim or Tisri, Bul, Chisleu, Tebeth, Shebat, Adar.

Q.—How often should the Lord's supper be celebrated?

A.—The directions given by Paul to the Gentile Christians made no reference to any definite time. "And when He had given thanks, He brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is My body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of Me. . . . As often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till He come." 1 Corinthians 11:24, 26. Some believe that Acts 2:46 refers to a daily observance of the Lord's supper; others declare that Acts 20:7 shows a weekly observance.

Q.—Is anything definite said in the Bible about dishonesty? If so, please give a verse or two. We need it in this place.

A.—There's a lot, and it's definite. Leviticus 19:13: "Thou shalt not defraud thy neighbour, neither rob him: the wages of him that is hired shall not abide with thee all night until the morning." Proverbs 11:1: "A false balance is abomination to the Lord: but a just weight is His delight." 1 Thessalonians 4:6: "That no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter: because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified." Read Deuteronomy 25:13-16; Proverbs 3:27, 28; Proverbs 20:10; Jeremiah 22:13; Zechariah 5:3; James 5:4.

Ed. Note: Address your questions to the BIBLE QUESTION COLUMN, The Voice of Prophecy, Box 55, Los Angeles 53, Calif. Bible questions of general interest will be answered in this column as space permits.

Church Members Are Urged to Conserve Food

The Fraternal Council of Negro Churches in America, representing 11 major demoninations and 6,000,000 members, has informed the U. S. Department of Agriculture that is sending letters to local colored ministers throughout the nation, calling on them to urge their members to conserve food to help stave off starvation abroad.

Bishop A. P. Shaw, rpesident of the council, says that, although many of our people right here at home are undernourished, few are in such straits that they cannot share at least a slice of bread with our starving neighbors in Europe, Africa, and Asia.

He points out that if each member of FCNCA churches gave up just two slices of bread a day, the weekly aggregate would be about five million loaves of bread. "This," he says, "would go a long way toward relieving the starving peoples abroad."

Mr. Hatch says, in part: "From a Baha'i standpoint every man has two natures, the physical and the spiritual. The physical nature is inherited from Adam. In this nature are found anger, jealousy, dispute, covetousness, avarice, ignorance, prejudice of race and religion, of nations and of politics. All of these qualities are due to the animal nature of man.

LOST BOOKS of the BIBLE

The outlawed scriptures suppressed by the early Roman Church fathers can no longer be denied you. Centuries of silence broken at last in this most astounding book of books.

Here they are, the complete uncensored story of Adam and Eve, the birth of their 5 children, the story of Joseph and Potiphar's wife, the girlhood and betrothal of the Virgin Mary, the complete story of the boyhood of Jesus. The Divorce Question all answered. 46 ancient manuscripts—rejected by the early Church as too intimate and personal.

Every Christian home and Bible student should have this book.

Dr. S. Parkes Cadman, President of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, said " . . . this valuable volume, the Lost Books of the Bible. It is indeed a very desirable work to have and one which I shall consult with profit and recommend to others."

Partial contents—other books of Paul, the Infancy of Jesus, Nicodemus, Barnabas, the Death of Pilate, Last Gospel of Peter, Adam and Eve, Secrets of Enoch, Songs and Odes of Solomon, and many others. All translated from the original tongues. Illustrated from ancient paintings and missals.

Mrs. Bary Bisco of 1466 E. 23rd street passed Saturday, June 1, after a brief illness. She was one of the faithful members of the 8th and Towne church choir, where she had been a member for many years. In the best of health until two weeks ago this past Sunday, Mrs. Bisco became ill and went to the hospital, where she remained until death came. Mrs. Bisco came to Los Angeles from Chapel Hill, Texas, in 1903 and had been a citizen of this city since then, raising a prominent family. He was discharged a few months ago.

Card of Thanks

To my many friends and neighbors many thanks for the kindness and love you showed my dear, darling husband, Jim Bell of 923 E. 46th street, during his illness, and for the beautiful flowers sent and many kind deeds shown at his passing. I thank the Elks for the wonderful way they gave their respects and the minister for the beautiful message. Many thanks for the lovely songs also. May the Lord bless you all. I say again, thank you with all my heart.

Mrs. Beatrice Bell, wife; Bob and Irene Jackson, cousins.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our dear daughter, LORENZA C. PORTER, who passed away June 7, 1945.
"We often sit and think of you and of the way you passed,
And that you did not say goodbye before you closed your eyes.
The blow was hard, the shock severe,
We never thought your death so near.
Some may forget, now that you are gone,
But we will always remember our beloved one,
No matter how long."

Christian Science Theme God the Only Cause

"God the Only Cause and Creator" will be the subject of the Sunday Lesson-Sermon in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston. The Golden Text is from Jeremiah: "The Lord is the true God, he is the living God, and an everlasting king: . . . He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heavens by his discretion."

An account from The Acts relates that "Peter and John went up together into the temple at the hour of prayer." And a man, lame from birth, "whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple . . . seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple asked an alms . . . . Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk . . . . And he leaping up stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God."

In "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" Mary Baker Eddy writes, "Mind is the natural stimulus of the body, but erroneous belief, taken at its best, is not promotive of health or happiness. Tell the sick that they can meet disease fearlessly, if they only realise that divine Love gives them all power over every physical action and condition."

DR. ZETAR SAYS:

Our methods attack the basic cause of many common ailments. Backache and joint pains and most of the rheumatics, such as neuritis, lumbago, rheumatism, arthritis, neuralgia and sciatics, etc., are due to joint distortions or toxemia, therefore, unless the basic cause of these ailments are treated only temporary relief can be accomplished.

It is no illusion with me after years of successful practice, but it is a scientific fact, based on exact observation and correct thinking that Chiropractic treatments do bring wonderful results, especially in the rheumatics, joint-distortions, nerve and circulatory disorders and most of the gastro-intestinal ailments; also Dr. Zetar has specialized in the correction of Foot Disabilities for many years, so if you are in need of FOOT COMFORT, why suffer, when there are tried and proven methods of treatments to help you. You will not go wrong to consult us on these problems.

Indian Maid Dies To Expiate 'Crime'

MIAMI—A tribal custom of the Bush Negroes of Surinam this week was revealed as also operative among the local Seminole Indians when a 17-year-old Seminole maiden walked stoically to her death in the wild cypress swamps of the Everglades to expiate her "crime" of having fallen in love with a white and borne by him.

As is the custom among the Surinam Bush Negroes, the Indian maid was tried by the elders of the tribe and sentenced with the single word, "Go."

The secret heart is devotion's temple; there the saint lights the flame of purest sacrifice, which burns unseen but not unaccepted.—Hannah More.

Change Must Come or Civilization Doomed

ATLANTA—"We cannot preserve our civilization with our old familiar outlook," Dr. Vernon Johns, distinguished clergyman and educator of Farmville, Va., told the more than 200 candidates for graduation at the traditional joint baccalaureate exercises for the students of the Atlanta university system. "There must be a change within us as revolutionary as the change from the savage world to the modern world," he declared, "and it is reasonable for civilized man to require that his conscience keep pace with his science, for in this world of inescapable contacts and atomic power, if we do not change our minds, we shall indeed lose our minds."

Attacking racial prejudice, Dr. Johns stated that "Christian nations have furnished the world with its worst examples of unbrotherliness, for no other people on the globe have singled out as many groups with which they are unwilling to work, play, pray, to be sick in the same hospital, and to be buried in the same graveyards as leading Christian nations."

The soul-inspired patriarchs heard the voice of Truth, and talked with God as consciously as man talks with man.—Mary Baker Eddy.

SPORTS

LAYIN' IT ON THE LINE

By EDDIE BURBRIDGE

THE WEST COAST Baseball Association seems to be bypassing Los Angeles insofar as playing games here is concerned. So far we have yet to see our L. A. White Sox engage in any contests against other teams in the league. We do know that the powers that-be were trying to get Wrigley Field as a playing site for the home team but we suppose the Angels schedule conflicted with that of the White Sox, making it impossible to get this logical spot. Perhaps the White Sox will get a couple of games there yet when the Angels have off Sundays and are playing out-of-town. Meanwhile the Sox have been cavorting in ball parks in Frisco and Seattle against the teams representing these cities in the league . . . HAD A VISIT from two St. Paul fighters on Memorial Day. They were Milbourn (Mibbs) Brown and Billy McClure. The latter, a heavyweight, scored an upset at the Olympic last week by knocking out Austin O'Jibway in one round. Brown sustained an injury some weeks ago in a bout and has been away from the firing line since then. He hopes to return to the ring very shortly now.

UNCROWNED LIGHTWEIGHT CHAMP TO FIGHT

John Thomas, pride of the Pacific Coast among the lightweights, and the outstanding challenger for the world's title, goes to the post again Tuesday night, June 11, at the Olympic against Maxie Shapiro, a sharp easterner. Nothing new on John's fight with Ike Williams this summer. Seems that a guy has Ike's name on a contract to defend his crown here but so far the green stuff hasn't been posted guaranteeing the fight and neither has a site been found in which to hold it. Meanwhile Thomas is sitting pat. When and if these matters are ironed out he is certain to get the shot and he surely deserves it. The clever coast lightie has been knocking at the door of the throne room for several years now and is at the peak of his form. We think he'll win the diadem if given a chance and we hope he gets the chance . . . NOLAN SHARP is one of our most promising heavyweights on the coast just now and is on a winning spree. Says he's ready to try conclusions with Johnny Haynes or any of the rest of the crop hereabouts in or around his weight. Sharp keeps himself in top condition at all times and this means plenty in a ring career, the main difference between defeat and victory. . . . SEVERAL GIRL SOFTBALL teams are being formed around here and things will be humming on the diamond in the near future when the cuties tie up in contests. This is another good idea in fighting juvenile delinquency. Helps keep the kids out of mischief. Why don't you form a softball team in your neighborhood? You'll find a surprising number of kids ready and willing to play softball. It's good exercise for them, too.

ELMER RAY — THE FORGOTTEN MAN

Says John M. Lee writing for Continental Features concerning Elmer (Violent) Ray, a good heavyweight from Florida who will be remembered for several good performances turned in while on the West Coast . . . "A five foot ten slugger who came up the hard way, and who has demonstrated that he doesn't know the meaning of fear has been trying frantically to crack the New York market for some time. Through his manager, Tommy O'Loughlin, the 193 pound heavy is telling the world that all of the rest of the heavyweight boys are afraid to fight him, and from where I sit, it seems that he is right. According to my records, he has shown twice in the Big Apple. At the St. Nick's arena he took a little over two minutes of the first round to rock-a-bye Johnny White, and in a Garden semi-final, he knocked Shamus O'Brien off in four rounds.

He's the fighter everybody talks about, but for whom, (as they say in Brooklyn), nobody does nothing. A native of Hastings, Florida, his name is Elmer Ray, and the sportswriters have knicknamed him "Violent," with the approval of most of the heavies who have made the mistake of climbing into the same ring with him. Back home, Elmer works as a farmer, a trade he learned early in life, and to which he will retire soon unless some of the big boys can be induced to make a date with him and keep it in some of the Big City's arenas.

Right now, Violent Elmer and his scrappy Irish manager are camping in New York hoping to have some attention paid to them before Ray, who already has achieved 34 years in this vale of tears and disappointments, finds it necessary to start drawing his old age pension. Although the big metropolis has shown little interest in the guy, he has pleased ring addicts all over the country, drawing record houses in Boston, California, Detroit and Miami. His recent victories total forty, thirty-seven of which were by the knockout route. He polished off Colin Chaney in a little over one minute. Chaney is the conquerer of Al Hooseman, who knocked the stuffing out of Lee Savold."

Tony Pastor's new postwar aviation-metal music stands cost $2,000. But even they are overshadowed by the swell Pastorized music!

Jo Stafford made her first jazz record session at Capitol recently. King Cole, Herbie Haymer and Ray Linn were ace musicians on the date.

ON THE TURF

By Geo. A. Ramsey

HIPODROMO DE TIJUANA:—It was thrills and disappointments for some of the lovers of the sport of kings at the Hipodromo last Sunday. The biggest thrill came in the third race, the second half of the Daily-Double, when the longest shot in the last few years outgamed the favorite and strong second choice to win by a half length. It was Turgid that scored and paid the big price of $229.60 to win, $109.40 to place, and $15.40 to show, making the Daily-Double backers of the combination of Kickshaw, winner of the second race, receive $378.40.

The big disappointment came to the form players in the Solano handicap at one flat mile. Ventura, an odds on choice with Jockey A. Skoronski up, battled it out with Sierra Gene, ridden by Jockey S. Noffsinger with the latter scoring by a half length over After School, while Vettura finished third. The winner paid $15 in the Mutuels.

In the secondary feature, another longshot made the bettors happy. Magic Coat came from far back to win going away, paying $50.80.

The Quiniela with Water Wagon and Ferdelance paid $39.40.

This Sunday General Manager Agustin Silveyra will offer two big feature events supporting the twelve race program, the Jamul and the El Girasol Handicaps.

Due to the shortage of newsprint we have been forced to limit our column this week including our "Horses to watch at Hollywood Park." We'll do better when more space is allotted. Two good ones to watch are Miss Lynn, her next time out, and Harbor Supply, when he runs. So long until this Sunday at the Hipodromo. Keep smiling.

—George.

WEDDING OF BRONZEVILLE AND NAGASAKI

The interracial unity between Negroes and Japanese in the "new" Little Tokyo section of L.A. is described in the July issue of Ebony both as "the wedding of Bronzeville and Nagasaki" and as "jive meets Japanese." Should be interesting. Now if we can get the Chinese who kick Negro patrons around in their Bronzeville chop suey joints to consider the elements of courtesy this will also fall under the heading of a marriage of sorts.

Record News And Reviews

The Big Four, Victor, Columbia, Decca and Capitol are spearheading a drive to make America, record conscious. Decca has been the first to release its objectives in production.

It might also be said that these companies are showing an awareness of the broadened interest the Negro race has demonstrated in Brahms, Beethoven, and Bach. These companies are quietly breaking with tradition and plan a great deal of their promotion in the future to cater to the cultural interest of people who have been tagged with the fiction; as only interested in hot jazz and swing. This trend is one of great significance.

During the lenten season Victor presented an album of "Sacred Songs" sung by Dorothy Maynor, supported by the Victor Orchestra, under the baton of Sylvan Levin. The recordings are Mendelssohn's "Hear Ye, Israel," from Elijah; Handel's "How Beautiful are the Feet," from The Messiah; Mozart's "Alleluja" from the motet, Exsultate, K. 165; John Sebastian Bach's great "Laudamus Te" from the B. Minor Mass.

Miss Maynor is the daughter of a Norfolk, Virginia, Methodist Minister, and in private life—the wife of Dr. Shelby Rooks, pastor of the St. James Presbyterian Church in Harlem. Miss Maynor is a "discovery" of the renowned Serge Koussevitsky.

FRUGAL BENNY—Jack Benny, radio comedian who makes "not spending" a hobby, isn't certain how much he ought to give to the United Negro College Fund 1946 appeal, but apparently Eddie "Rochester" Anderson is getting away with a sizeable contribution which folds. The fund seeks $1,300,000 this year to meet current operating expenses of 33 Negro private colleges.

Mrs. J.T. Gipson's Candid Comments

TO A COLUMNIST

Dear Mrs. Gipson, sorry you're ill,
To pinch hit for you will be a thrill,
Of all people you called upon me,
Hope these lines will do justice to thee.

NOTE:—Due to the illness of your "Candid Comments" columnist she has GENE RODGERS, one of the theatrical world's No 1 pianists and entertainers, pinch-hitting, We know you'll like his work.—G.G.

Amidst all the confusion nowadays—strikes and what have you—swing music is right in there pitching. Digging the immortal old tunes dressed in modern groove is really a fine kick.

Heard Herb Jeffries' new recording—"I Left My Heart in Mississippi" recently—really great. With all the additional recording companies giving many true artists a break for a change.

Attended the Jubilee program at N.B.C. the other Monday—enjoyed the capable 'Fatha' Hines whip out a few tunes and boy! what an aggregation! With Bill Thompson on vibes—first heard Bill two years ago—while touring with Erskine Hawkins—in Florida. I feel Earl should feature him more—he's really clever—LOOKOUT HAMP!! Also chatted with Wardell, tenor man, who is plenty smooth and has loads of ideas and Kermit Scott, also tenor sax—worked with Scott five years ago in Coleman Hawkins band.

TIME MARCHES ON

Great organization that I.F.R.G. (International Film and Radio Guild, Inc.) should really get results with such officers as Judge Stanley Mosk, Pres., Lena Horne, Al Jarvis, John Garfield, Nat (King) Cole, vice-Pres., and Leon Hardwick, Executive Secretary and many other outstanding people behind it. It is a fact-finding organization designed to protect the interests of minorities in the entertainment world.

Really got a thrill hearing King Cole on the Kraft Music Hall program.

Herman Chitterson and his fine trio on the Lanny Ross show—Fine piano Chit'!!!

Understand Slim Gaillard was with Kay Kyser show.

It's truly encouraging to know these fine musicians have reached the top and well DESERVE what some may think a "break."

Thelma Carpenter is doing O.K. for herself—not bad Thelma, that HUGE figure I gleamed behind your name recently.

Heard the old and well-remembered Cotton Club and Lafayette theatre in N. Y. is re-opening—that's glad Tidings to the ears of fellow performers. These two houses are where some of our best known artists got their real "Notice."

ON THIS SIDE

Looking forward to Art Tatum's opening at the sizzling Billy Berg's. Hope it's soon.

Have you heard that GOLDEN Voiced Boy, Bobby Pittman at Lew Leroy's Cotton Club?

Ran into Ulysses Moore and his lovely little wifey of the Four Blazes—

Chatted with Eddie Beale who recently shed his army duds—impressed with his quartette. Good luck Eddy.

Visited with Jake Porter and the Lloyd Reeses. Lloyd, formerly with Les Hite, is teaching these days.

Had the pleasure of meeting Earl Griffin's charming wife, Tanya, who is a designer in her own right.

Spent an elegant afternoon at the Vogue Art Girls Baazar. 'Twas truly a swanky affair with a group of the smartest looking young ladies on my side of town—the lovely Sara Collier is Pres. Enjoyed talking with such fine people as the Bill Starks, Verdell Jones and wife, Dorothy Brown, Ramelle Barnerise and Mother.

Did some recording at KFI with Bumps Meyers, of the Benny Carter, aggrii! Benny Booker, bass, Sam Joshua on skins.

Read where a couple of local lassies are wowing 'em in the big city—cute Artie Brandon and clever Patsy Hunter. Patsy produces the show at Small's Paradise.

Shook hands with Dusty of the Four Tones the other day.

Ran into two N. Y. friends, Freddie Skerrit and Johnny Johnakins—beginning to feel quite at home with so may New Yorkers around me.

Bon Voyage to my good friend Martha Davis—Martha closes at Slapsie Maxie's where she held the spotlight for quite a spell with her fine piano playing and chirping and heads for Chicago her home town. Hurry back, Martha!

Nice to see my old friends, Ford, Harris, and Jones, still going strong also Poison Gardner—one of my "knee-pants day" friends.

At present have the pleasure of working at the Swanee Inn with the king of the drums, Zutty Singleton—'tis rumored he will form a trio soon. Shelton Brooks, Jr., on the same bill, is a solid entertainer.

Was shooting the breeze with Albert Nichols the other a.m. who formerly played with Louis Armstrong. He's here to join up with Kid Ory's Dixieland jazz band, featuring guitarist Bud Scott.

Read where our "Shoo, shoo Baby" Phil Moore adopted a French war orphan. Hey Phil! when are you going to bring the quartette West?

Have to say so long now—heres' hoping gracious Mrs. Gipson will be in the pink—soon again.

—GENE RODGERS.

Bidner Blasts Mayor's Attack On Foes of Klan, Urges Citizens Attend Olympic Rally June 14

Mayor Fletcher Bowron's charge in a radio broadcast Sunday night that "certain left-wing groups are attempting to make political capital out of the Ku Klux Klan" this week was termed "a contemptible attempt to cover up police department failure to solve Klan terror cases" by William R. Bidner, executive director of the Mobilization for Democracy.

The mayor made the attack in a radio broadcast Sunday night after a delegation of 50 community leaders, organized by the Mobilization, had visited him to inquire about the exact status of Klan investigation.

Bidner said the mayor's resort to red-baiting of such organizations as the American Jewish Congress, the American Veterans Committee, and CIO and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (among the 15 organizations who sent representatives to the meeting) was a "time honored trick of every exposed politician."

Other community organizations which have taken a strong stand against Klan terror include the Los Angeles Church Federation and the Jewish War Veterans.

Bidner urged "every resident interested in protecting his home, his property and his family from Klan terror" to attend the gigantic "Stop the Klan" mass rally planned by the Mobilization in Olympic auditorium June 14.

The BMC and the Centennial Committee opened headquarters last Saturday in the Association of Trade and Commerce Building, 2370 Seventh ave. with a reception and dinner prepared by members of the Household of Ruth on the Centennial Committee.

Fascists Try Disrupt Anti-Smith Meeting

ST. LOUIS—Followers of Gerald L. K. Smith, attempted to disrupt a debate at the YMHA, 724 Union bl. on "Should Hate Mongers Be Denied Use of the Municipal Auditorium," and precipitated a fist fight in the audience. The debate was held in connection with the plans of Smith to use the municipal Kiel auditorium for his Nationalist Congress.

The melee started when a Smith adherent, later identified as Larry Asman, an officer of the Christian Veterans of America and a member of the staff of The Cross and Flag, heckled John Rossen, while the latter was exposing America's Number One fascist. The heckler was knocked into his seat by a member of the audience.

According to the precedent-shattering report, an extensive program inaugurating the move will take place behind prison walls Sunday, June 16. Atty. Thomas L. Griffith, president of the Los Angeles branch, who was first apprised of the move, told newsmen he was heartily in accord with the move.

DREAMERS

There are many rewards in this world for that which we may aspire, giving to them our time, intellect, gifts and other abilities. After years of toil and apprenticeship we may then appreciate the pleasure of successful achievement. But we should give special attention to this fact: you cannot dream your way towards achievement, nor does accomplishment come to the slothful.

Dreams may be an inspiration, and aid us in visioning the future to our advantage. But we can't just set and dream and expect everything to work itself out, we must act! Putting forth every effort to achieve our plans and make our dreams a reality.

Dear Prof. Herman: It has been indeed a pleasure to write to you and to receive your wonderful help. Through your constant guidance, I have found the happiness I so desired and have been telling my friends about you and your work, and you will hear from them soon.

* * *

V. S.—Will I be successful?

Ans.—If you follow your same procedure, my friend, and constantly improve your methods, you will no doubt have an abundant crop this year.

A. R.—Will I marry?

Ans.—Your lucky stars and guiding planet reveal marriage for you within the coming summer months, and you will find happiness with the one you love.

M. T.—Will my sacrificing prove beneficial?

Ans.—It is revealed to me, my friend, that the money you have saved to help your husband will be put to good use, and as a reward for the sacrifices you have made, your husband will give you the things you want.

E. T.—Will he come to see me?

Ans.—According to your Zodiacal Sign, this soldier that you have corresponded with will visit you upon his return to the States.

Dear Sir: I have finished reading the wonderful book "With God All Things Are Possible," and I honestly say that it has proved so helpful to me, that I feel better already, and sincerely believe that everything will work out all right for me in the future. Two of my friends wish to have a copy, so enclosed you woll find a money order. Thank you so much, Prof. Herman.

M. L.—Is my husband true?

Ans.—It comes to me, my friend, that your husband is indeed true to you, and you should dismiss your unfair suspicions from your mind, and disregard the false rumors that you may hear. You will be happy with your husband in the future.

C. B.—Will I ever be able to carry out my plans?

Ans.—Probing into the matter, it is indicated, my friend, that you will be successful in carrying out your plans to come north, and your plans will materialize this summer. Also, you will soon hear from your friends.

O. D.—What does the future hold for me?

Ans. — My Psycho-Mentalist Crystal reveals a bright future for you, and many opportunities will come your way which will enable you to accomplish your desires. You will attain the happiness you so deserve, and find peace of mind and contentment.
